De Witts Carbolyzed Witch Hazel salve the original is good for anything when a salve is needed and is especially good for piles. Sold by Palace Drug Co.

Grandma Gerking is reported to be gradually growing weaker and owing to her advanced age little hopes are entertained that she will long survive.

Mrs. Inez Saling was in town this week. She is moving her household goods from Pendleton to Touchet, where Mr. Saling has lately taken over the management of the Touchet Times.

Walter Judy arrived in the city Saturday from Seattle, where he is employed on the street car system. He returned to the Sound city, Wednesday.

"Bud" Read and Ben Dupuis, well known young men of Weston, are employed by Charles Baddeley in this city, "working out" his string of trotting stock.

Hugh Worthington has installed a special delivery service at his store. He has rigged up with horse, wagon and the most flashy harness that ever came to town.

Victor Burke and Miss Josie Stroble, of Pendleton, drove up from that city Sunday and spent the day with the family of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Burke in this city.

Mrs. Fred Gross Jr. arrived here yesterday from her home in Alberta for a visit with relatives. She was accompanied from Walla Walla by her brother, Chas. Keene.

Mrs. Lillie Miller has received a new line of children's hats in the latest modes, also frames for ladies' hats. New goods arriving all the time. Call and see the very latest.

James Feeler left yesterday for Twin Falls Idaho, after spending a week with his family in this city. Mr. Feeler has land near Buhl, a town under the Twin Falls project.

Kodol is a combination of all the natural digestive juices found in an ordinary healthy stomach and it will digest food in a natural way. Pleasant to take sold by Palace Drug Co.

A large number of Weston people came over Sunday for the purpose of attending services at the Methodist church in this city, conducted by Rev. Henderson, an Episcopalian minister of Pendleton.

Kodol for Dyspepsia and Indigestion does the ordinary work of the stomach so that by taking a little Kodol every now and then you cannot possibly have indigestion or any form of stomach trouble. Sold by Palace Drug Co.

C. R. Straus, who last season was a member of the Seattle Optimos, a semi-professional ball team, will play short stop for the Athena team. Mr. Straus, who is a friend of Henry LaBrache, arrived in the city Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Carmichael were trading in the city yesterday. Mrs. Carmichael, who is an enthusiastic lodge woman, states that at the next meeting of the Circle in Weston, about fifteen new members will be initiated.

Mrs. Chas. McFarland was in Pendleton Wednesday, where she went to see her mother, Mrs. Henry Wood, who is ill in the hospital there. Mrs. McFarland reports her mother no better, and states that the trouble seems to be in the nature of nervous prostration.

M. O. Rose will close his cut price jewelry sale, at the Pioneer drug store tomorrow night, when he will discontinue business in Athena. Tomorrow will positively be the last day you will be able to get first class jewelry at low prices.

C. A. Walker will leave soon for Hailey, Idaho, where he will have charge of the Daily Times. Mr. Walker has been in ill health for some time. He will return in the fall and make his home with his family in this vicinity.

J. W. Kester was in the city Tuesday from Walla Walla. Mr. Kester was formerly connected with the Astoria public school, and was here for the purpose of considering making an application for a position in the public schools.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis B. Harris left the first of the week for Dayton, where they spent the week with Mr. Harris' parents. They will be home tomorrow and Mr. Harris will conduct the usual services at the Christian church Sunday.

Miss Katherine Sharp left yesterday for Ona, Lincoln county, Oregon, where she will teach a four months term of school. The place is near Newport, on the sea coast, and will be a pleasant change during the warm months. Miss Sharp was accompanied by her sister, Miss Alta, as far as Pendleton.

Glen Saling, a former Press employee, is now editor and publisher of the Touchet (Wash.) Times. The Times is a bright looking little sheet and appears to have lost none of its attractiveness or interest through the retirement of Mr. Cummins, and the grasping of the helm by Mr. Saling. Here's success to you Glen.

Miss Maggie Derrick, of Myrtle, Idaho has been the guest of her cousin, Miss Lizzie Zerba, and other relatives in this vicinity for the past few weeks. Yesterday in company with Miss Zerba, she went to Pendleton for a short visit, after which she will return home. The Derricks were well known in this county in an early day.

Wednesday C. O. Whiteman moved his household goods to LaCrosse, Wash., shipping them over the O. R. & N. Otis drove his horses through. He with his father has purchased one of the finest farms in that section of the country. Mrs. Whiteman and the two boys will follow as soon as Mr. Whiteman gets settled there. In the meantime they will be guests of her mother, Mrs. H. H. Hill.

Last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Harris, at a gathering of the young people, after a thorough discussion of the subject it was decided to organize in the near future, a young people's club. The object will be purely social, and it is expected that much pleasure and profit may result from the association. Further particulars will be given in the Press soon.

The people of Athena enjoyed a musical treat last Saturday evening when the Palmatier Sisters appeared at the opera house in their excellent program in concert. Each number was heartily encored and all were well deserving of the keen appreciation shown by the audience. The ladies are thorough musicians and deserved better patronage than they received in Athena.

Perhaps the most highly pleased man in Athena this week is Charles Norris. Of course the cause of it all is a colt. A bay, with two white hind feet, and not having the star in the forehead cost Charles the cigars to Link Swaggart. The colt is O. K. It is of royal lineage, having the distinction of being the first foal in Umatilla county from the great speed sire, Zolock. If promises and correct breeding count for anything the little one should "go long" and be some pumpkins in the speed class.

People passing along main street Monday were attracted by the fearless gyrations in midair, made by a painter employed by the Kidder firm. The painter, who is named Smalley, was working on the front of a two story building and appeared indifferent whether the swinging staging was on any old incline, perpendicular, horizontal, or whether there was any staging to support him or not. He is said to be a balloonist, and that may be the cause for his indifference when it comes to standing on air. Mr. Smalley also possesses a "dawg" that is some class on tricks.

Prof. Miner of the Athena public school has a bright class of 10 pupils which he hopes to graduate from the eighth grade. Every member of the class is taking deep interest in the work, and knowledge of the fact that they will have a splendid high school department to enter next year should stimulate the eighth grade to achieve success. The class members are: Dale Campbell, George Winslip Clyde Brotherton, Herbert Parker, Emery Worthington, Floyd Payne, Ethel McIntyre, Ruth Stewart, Roth Dickenson, Tobed McFadyen, Dottie Conrad and Kittie Gholson are doing 9th grade work.
