TAGGART TO MANAGE BALL TEAM

Athena Colts Give Pendleton Hard Run In Sunday Game.

T. M. Taggart has been selected as the man to manage the Athena baseball team this season. The team is composed of clever players and in Sunday's game at Pendleton, the Colts gave the hard hitting Indians a close run for the game which ended with a score of 7 to 8.

La Brasche, Athena's nifty pitcher and Lawrence Lienallen, made a stiff battery for the Colts, while Hutchinson and Baker were in the points for Pendleton. Errors figured prominently on both sides, a total of 20 being recorded—10 for each side. However this is to be expected this early in the season.

The game was interesting from start to finish and the large crowd in attendance was liberal with its vociferous rooting.

The Colts are scheduled to play in Pilot Rock Sunday, where they will go against Charley Maskrey's swift bunch.

Burke-Stroble.

Mr. Victor Burke of this city, and Miss Josephine Stroble of Pendleton, were united in marriage in that city Tuesday, Father Durgan of the Catholic church, performing the ceremony before relatives and friends of the bride and groom.
