Last Friday evening the young people club was entertained at the home of Miss Nellie Foss. A literary program was arranged by Misses Edith Orswell and Kattie Gholson and Mr. Mitchell. A most pleasant time was enjoyed by all.

Deputy Assessor Charles Pinkerton is in the city, engaged in sizing up what property you possess and recording valuations on assessment blanks. The county and state levy is 11 mills, city 9 and school 3 mills, making Athena's levy 23 mills this year.

Byron N. Hawks of the Pioneer Drug store, has perfected a splendid face lotion, which is giving satisfaction to all who have used it. It is a snow white preparation, put up in convenient sized bottles and is known on the market as Peroxide Greaseless Skin Food.

Mrs. Joseph Sheard arrived home Monday from Hot Lake, where she accompanied her sister, Mrs. John Rothrock, who is taking treatment there for rheumatism. Upon Mrs. Sheard's arrival home, her sister, Miss Nettie McCorkell went to Hot Lake to attend Mrs. Rothrock.

A number of Athena residences are being brightened up with paint. The homes of Dr. Sharp and Henry Dell have been painted this week. The Christian church building is to be painted soon, and the big Preston-Fallon mill will also be given a new dress of color.

The Shamrocks will meet the crack Pilot Rock team on the home grounds, Sunday afternoon. The game will be called at 1:30 sharp, so that Charley Maskery's bunch can get away on the down train at 4:15. Pilot Rock has a good team, and only once has it been defeated this season. The boys from the sheep range are coming to Athena to add another victory, but with La Brasche and Stone in mid-season condition and the other players nifty and strong, there is just the possibility of a neat package being carried home by our friend Maskery.

Next Monday will see the close of the school at LaMar school house, taught by Mrs. Dobson. The term has been a long one for a country district, and as is usual with Mrs. Dobson, a successful one from every standpoint. The teacher has been urged to again accept the school.

Rev. F. E. Dark, of Portland, gave some interesting and inspiring talks at the Baptist church Wednesday and Thursday evenings on "Christian Stewardship." Rev. Dark is a pleasing and forceful speaker and has the faculty of rousing each individual to a sense of his duty in matters pertaining to the interests of the church.

John McIntyre, whose health has been growing noticeably worse during the past few weeks, was taken to Pendleton Wednesday for treatment in the hospital. The old gentleman's mind is perceptibly failing in connection with a general decline of his physical condition. His friends hope that by a course of treatment, his health may eventually be restored.

The Athena Truck company, which has the contract for sprinkling the streets for the year, rolled a new "equit wagon" into service Wednesday morning. The new outfit consists of a big round tank mounted on trucks, and is equipped with the very latest Austin sprinkler like those used in the large cities, and is giving entire satisfaction.

Commencing tomorrow express service will be inaugurated on the Pendleton-Walla Walla local passenger trains, Nos. 45 and 46. This service will be of great convenience to Athena business men, inasmuch as express matter can now be received from Portland and Walla Walla in much less time than when the handling of express was confined to the Pendleton-Spokane trains.

The fruit packing establishments of Freewater are all getting things into shape for the season's work. The strawberry outlook is the best that they have had for years. Most of the patches have blossomed out until the whole patch looks like a great white sheet spread over the ground. Competition will be keen among the buyers for the berries and prices will be good from the start.

La Mar Union No. 6, held one of the most successful social meetings in the history of the organization, Monday night. Between 75 and 100 persons were present and enjoyed the evening's entertainment, which consisted of a splendid program. An oyster supper was served, and it required two tables, extending across the school house to accommodate those who participated in the feast.

Mrs. E. E. Shepard, state president of the Utah W. C. T. U., will be in the city Saturday and Sunday, when she will address the people in the churches here. On Saturday evening at 8 o'clock, a union meeting will be held at the Christian church. Sunday afternoon at the Baptist church she will address women only, and Sunday night at the Methodist church a union meeting of the churches will be held, with Mrs. Shepard as speaker.

The funeral of Jas. C. Stamper was held at the M. E. church Sunday at 11 o'clock, and the big auditorium, classroom, and gallery, all three of which were thrown open, were taxed to full capacity, and then many persons were compelled to remain outside the church during the services. The seats in the center of the auditorium were all occupied by relatives of the deceased, and members of the Odd Fellow and Woodman lodges. The service at the grave was conducted by the Odd Fellows. The floral offerings were profuse and beautiful.

Accidents at Horse Show. Horse show day at Waitsburg witnessed a chapter of accidents. In the early morning Miss Purvis, while taking a practice ride, was thrown from her horse and later found unconscious. No serious injury was sustained. At the race track Mrs. John Roberts was thrown and considerably bruised. Mrs. Pearl Clark was thrown over the head of her horse, but immediately picked herself up and remounted, none the worse for the fall. During the exhibition of roadsters a horse reared, striking Charles Smith on the head, cutting a severe gash.

Christian Church Announcements. Regular services next Lord's day, to which all are very earnestly invited. At the morning service the annual offering of American Missions will be taken. This was to have been received last Lord's day, but owing to the funeral was postponed. Let everyone bring a liberal offering. The night services will be a union meeting at the M. E. church.

Reward Offered. Strayed from my place north of Athena, one brown filly, 3 years old; one black yearling filly with one white hind foot. Will pay reward of $10 each for information leading to their recovery. Oliver Dickenson, Athena, Oregon.

Baptist Church Notes. Services as usual in the Baptist church Sunday. Bible school at 10 a. m. Pastor Ryder will preach in the morning. In the evening the service will be in union with the other congregations of the town at the Methodist church.
