

Press Paragraphs

Walter Preston is in the city from Walla Walla.

Mr. Joseph Sheard, returned Monday from Hot Lake.

Miss Lizzie Sheard visited in Walla Walla this week.

T. M. Taggart was a Walla Walla visitor yesterday.

Attorney Wilson was in Walla Walla Wednesday.

John J. Gross of Walla Walla spent the week in Athena.

Jerry Stone spent Tuesday and Wednesday in Pendleton.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. A. H. McIntyre, May 27, 1909, a daughter.

Lost, a watch charm, bearing the letter G. Reward at this office.

Miss Della Danner was a guest of Miss Golda Willaty Wednesday.

O. A. Cannon, principal-elect of the Echo public schools, is in the city.

Miss Carrie Stone, the well known teacher, is home for the summer vacation.

Mrs. F. S. LeGrow returned Wednesday from a weeks visit in Walla Walla.

George Rosenzweig will arrive from Eltopia Sunday on a visit to Athena friends.

Mrs. L. J. Foss left last evening for Moro, where she will visit her son and daughter.

Miss Uarda Curry and Miss Rosa Lee, of Weston, were in the city shopping Tuesday.

east by the Harriman system. The work was done in the Press mechanical department.

The Fraser Concert company appeared at the Dime Wednesday and Thursday nights.

Attorney Watts returned from Pendleton yesterday, where he had a case in the circuit court.

Mrs. Brown, nee Genevieve Dixon, visited at the Nelson home near town the first of the week.

F. S. LeGrow returned Wednesday evening from the Crab Creek stock country, in Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Kirk and J. A. Kirk are at the Warm Springs, below The Dalles, for a few days.

Mrs. L. B. Russell arrived in the city Tuesday from Lebanon, and will visit friends for several days.

Here's to the pioneers and their annual picnic. The compination beats any old rain maker on earth.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. McDonald, of Spokane, are in the city visiting their daughter, Mrs. Byron Hawks.

Mrs. John Rothrock, who was operated on at Hot Lake, is getting along nicely and recovery is assured.

Among the autoists who toured up from Pendleton Saturday to attend the farmer's picnic, was W. J. Stockman.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Klemme were among the Walla Walla people who attended the farmers' picnic in this city Saturday.

Rural routes No. 1 and 2, out of Adams are now affording patrons daily mail service. The farmers served by these two routes find the daily service very convenient.

Ad. Pinkerton is engaged in fencing his two acre tract which he recently purchased from the Athena Land & Trust Company.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Thompson were in town Wednesday from their Umatilla river cattle ranch, trading with Athera merchants.

Mrs. Milt Swagert was a Pendleton visitor Tuesday. Mrs. O. W. B. Zerta and daughter, Miss Lizzie, visited in Pendleton Tuesday.

Attorney Wilson is expecting his new automobile next week. It is a 30-horse power Franklin and one of the very latest models.

Miss Harriet Edwards arrived in the city Sunday and is a guest of her sister, Mrs. Richard Thompson. Her home is in Heppner.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Walter returned to their home at Walla Walla Tuesday evening, after spending several days at the ranch, west of town.

Mrs. A. J. Bischoff, of Walla Walla, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. John Walter, near town, returned the last of the week to her home.

"Bill" King, who ranks high in the class of old time fiddlers, came over from Weston Friday evening, so as to be on hand early for the farmers picnic.

Miss Kathleen McEwen went down to Pendleton yesterday, and accompanied her brother and sister, Luvois and Jessie, home for their summer vacation.

The Baptist Association gathering held last week elected Rev. H. E. Ryder as a member from this Association on the Oregon Baptist State Convention Board.

Mrs. Walter M. Ely is down from Boise, Idaho, where with her husband she at present resides. Mrs. Ely is in Weston, and will visit her Athena friends in the near future.

Mrs. Josie Hawley, with her mother, Mrs. Theo Danner, was in the city during the Farmers' picnic. She has been visiting her parents in Milton for some weeks, from her home in Montana.

The proceeds from the supper served at the M. E. church, Tuesday evening, netted the Epworth League $13.60. Supper was served from 5:30 to 8:30 o'clock and many business men dined there.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis B. Harris went down to Pendleton Wednesday, where they were present at the laying of the corner stone of the magnificent new Christian church building to be erected there.

Mrs. Robert Walker left for Cheney yesterday where she will visit for a few days. Mr. Walker will soon join her, when they will leave for a summer's visit with friends in Pennsylvania.

New arrivals at Jarman's Department Store this week; Face veilings in all colors. Narrow rubings, a complete line at one cent an inch. Dutch Collars, also Embroidery collars, auto Scarfs and auto Veils.

Professor and Mrs. Chatterley, of the music department at the Weston Normal school, passed through yesterday on their way to San Francisco, where they will visit relatives, and perhaps make their future home.

Ten thousand leaflets, containing descriptive matter pertaining to Athena's resources, were printed and delivered to the commercial association this week for distribution. Five thousand will be disbursed throughout the Miss Gladys Bush, with her father, arrived in the city Wednesday from Walla Walla, where she has been taking treatment for lung trouble. Miss Gladys is wonderfully improved, much to the pleasure of her many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph N. Scott went to Weston Sunday, and staid during the entire commencement week exercises of the Normal school. Both are members of the Alumni association, and met many old schoolmates during the week.

Mrs. J. C. Stamper has received $2,000 life insurance on a policy held by her late husband in the Woodmen of the World. The payment of this policy was made promptly. Application was made on May 6 and payment was made May 21.

Misses Edith and Blanch Orswell left Tuesday for their home in Eugene, where they will spend the summer vacation. They were accompanied as far as Albany by Miss Velma Wilkinson, who will teach a summer term of school near Yaquina, on the coast.

Damon Lodge No. 4, Knights of Pythias, of Pendleton has appointed a building committee to act jointly with the Elks. The Pythian committee is as follows: J. W. Maloney, T. G. Montgomery, M. A. Rader, W. S. Bowman, Jack Huston, R. W. Fletcher and J. R. Raley.

H. C. Adams has disposed of his stock in the First National Bank of Athena, which necessitated a change in the officers and board of directors. T. J. Kirk has been elected president; D. H. Preston vice-president and E. E. Koontz takes Mr. Adams' place on the board of directors.

At the meeting of the Alumni of the Normal school Monday afternoon, Joseph N. Scott was elected president of the association. The society will meet annually at the time of the Pioneers' meeting, and will take charge of the class presents and art collection of the Normal school.

Mr. and Mrs. James Huggens have arrived in town from Bayview, Wash. where they were in the hotel business. Mr. and Mrs. Huggens, like many others, found no better place than Athena, and so returned to make this their home. The are comfortably established in the A. A. Foss cottage on Jefferson street, near 3rd.

Just what everyone was hoping for, traupired Wednesday night—a good, soaking rain fell on the just and the unjust. Crops were in serious need of moisture. In fact, the hardpan spots had become conspicuously prominent in the crying need for rain. The rain fell nearly all of Wednesday night, and everybody wears a smile.

John Shaw, one of the pioneer settlers of Umatilla county, died Sunday at his home near Weston. He was only ill a few days. He leaves a widow and two children, both married, Mrs. Addie B. Price, wife of J. M. Price, and Mrs. Maybe, wife of Chas. Maybe of Mabton, Wash. All of the family were present at the bedside when the father passed away.

The auxiliary to the C. W. B. M. of the Christian church will meet next Wednesday, June 2, with Mrs. J. N. Scott. This will be a delightful ride to the country, and it is hoped that the usual large number of ladies will attend. Carriages will be in waiting at the Christian parsonage for all who wish to go. Kindly report your intention of going, by phone, to the pastor as early as possible, so sufficient arrangements can be made.

Dr. Plamondon drove an auto to Pendleton Wednesday afternoon, in just 42 minutes, over the reservation road. He took Mr. Wall and two sons down, who were called owing to the critical condition of Charles Wall, who had recently been operated on for appendicitis. The father and brothers arrived in time to be at the bedside before death took place, which occurred at 5:15. Charles Wall was a well known young man of Pendleton, and for several years was employed in the Rader furniture store. He leaves a wife, but no children.

Baptist Church Notes. There will be services as usual in the Baptist church on Sunday. Bible School at 10 a. m. Preaching at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. B. Y. P. U. service at 7 p. m. A cordial invitation to all of these services.

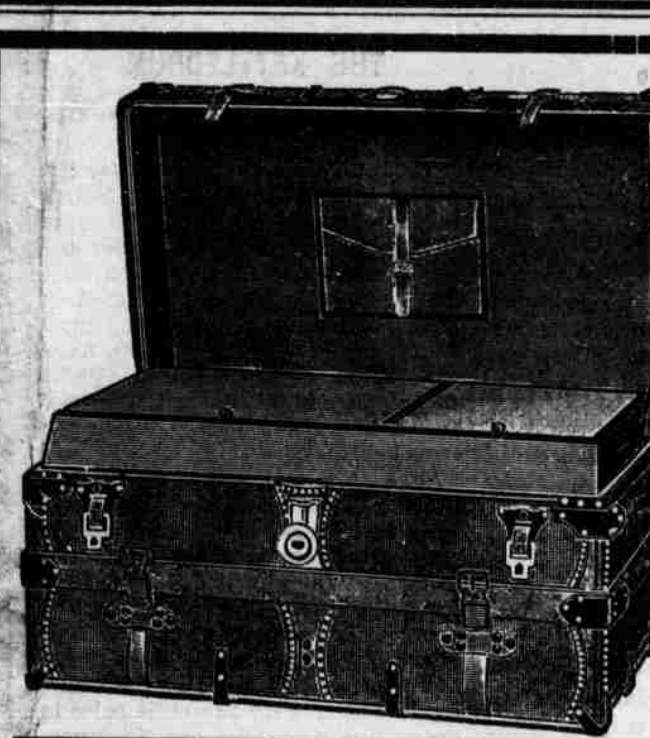

More Room for Furniture at Davis-Kaser's. The Davis-Kaser Co., of Walla Walla have been increasing their stock of furniture until their floors were too crowded to display their goods properly so they have fitted up the entire basement under their furniture department into an elegant sales room. Adding about six thousand square feet of floor space to their already enormous Furniture department.

Together with the decorations the electric lighting system makes this addition very attractive.

Grant Acquitted. Charles Grant of the Corner saloon was acquitted on the charge of selling liquor as found in an indictment by the grand jury. The case was tried Wednesday and went to the jury in the afternoon. A number of witnesses, including a detective from Spokane were called.

Byron Hawks, of the Pioneer drug-store finds ready sale for his Peroxide Greaseless Skin Food. It is just the lotion for the removal of freckles, sunburn and the softening of rough skin. It is best for complexion and leaves the skin free from grease.

Foley's Honey and Tar for children safe, sure. No opiates.

GOING AWAY THIS SUMMER

There is more satisfaction and pride and convenience to be gained from the possession of fine baggage. Yes you get service and style and it pays in the end. We have a line so complete and at such fair prices that you'll surely see something to suit you. Suit cases, Trunks, Telescopes, and Hand Bags. Prices to suit everyone.

Truly Every Woman

is interested in Under-muslins. The kind that are specially designed for summer wear. We have a wide range of styles and prices from which to select.

Lace Curtain Values

No doubt you've cleaned house. Perhaps you have hung up your old lace curtains. How much better it would look if you put up a pair of those light, summer Curtains we are selling. Think it over, then come in and look at our fine line.

Jarman's Dept. Store.

Mosgrove Mercantile Company

New Spring Goods are arriving Daily

New Spring Goods are arriving Daily

we are now showing the latest spring and summer productions of the foreign and domestic markets, and guarantee our prices for the same qualities of Merchandise lower than all competitors.

Silks

Striped Taffetas, Messalines, all colors Printed Foulards in great variety, Tokio and Rajah Pongees.

Wool Dress Goods

Invisible stripes and plain effects, in Browns, Greens, Tans, Blues, London smoke and Philadelphia grays, at prices to suit customers.

Fancy Waistings

Silk, wool Chiffons, plain and fancy Netts. Also an endless variety of white Waistings in stripes and crossbar.

Ladies White Waists

An immense big variety just received from 1 to 3.75 each. Values never before seen in this city.

Ladies Furnishings

Laces, Bandings Ribbons and Gloves in all the latest fads and colors.

Ladies Neckwear

Collar Rushings and Jabots to suit the most fastidious.

M n's uits

Before making your spring purchase, look over our hand tailored Suits, very latest color and cut. Price 12.50 to $25.

Men's Shoes

We are now showing the new spring shapes in Vici Kid, Gun Metal, Valour Calf, Patent leather, high or low cut.

Ladies Shoes

The latest creations in Tan, Oxblood or Black. High cut Oxfords or Pumps. Kid or Colt skin. An endless variety.

Misses & Childrens Shoes

We can show you 40 different styles. Anything you want in children's footwear, from 65c to $2.50 per pair.

Men's Furnishings

New line of Dress Shirts with or without collars. Well made. New patterns. Perfect fitting.

Men's Neckwear

Just received new line of Ties. Up to date colors and stripes. Prices 35 & 50c

Complete Home Furnishers

Do you realize the full meaning of this? Complete Home Furnishers—complete in every sense of the word—a stock that cannot be equalled within hundreds of miles of Walla Walla, and bigger than ever before.

Here are draperies, floor covering of all kinds, china ware, wall ornaments, pictures, art goods of every sort and the very best stock of furniture and stoves to choose from. Magnificent displays of goods in every one of our many departments.

When in Walla Walla make your headquarters with us; use our rest rooms, our phones; leave your bundles in our care—in fact, make yourself perfectly at home, whether buying or not.

Write for our "Summer Goods" catalogue.

The Davis-Kaser Company
Complete Home & House Furnishers
Walla Walla, Wash (The home of Greater Whitman)
Branch Store at Pasco, Wash.

Pendleton Cleaning & Dye Works
W. SULLIVAN, Prop.
LADIES' FINE GARMENTS OUR SPECIALTY

Hatters

All Kinds of Hat Work, including Stiff, Soft and Panama Hats. Special Attention given to Gent's Clothes. If you want Good Work, call us up

We Clean Lace and Chenille Curtains, Furs, Kid Gloves, Feather Boas, in fact almost everything. Evening Gowns Party Dresses Cleaned on Short Notice.
206 ALTA STREET, PENDLETON, OREGON. Telephone Main 169

Foley's Honey and Tar for children safe, sure. No opiates.

THE B. & H. TRADING STAMPS WITH EVERY CASH PURCHASE