The growth of grass and weeds along the streets could be shortened by scythe and sickle. Especially should the foxtail grass be cut while green, as it becomes a great nuisance after ripening.

The Athena Band boys have received their new uniforms. The suits are just about the neatest ever seen here. The suits and caps are navy blue, with white trimmings and are stunning to look at.

George Rosenzweig came down from Elliptopia Sunday and has been visiting friends here this week. In company with other Waltonian enthusiasts, he will leave tomorrow for a fishing trip on the Umatilla.

The high school proposition carried at Weston Monday. Fifty votes were cast, every one of which was in favor of a high school, with not one against. Principal J. E. Keefe has been retained at an increased salary.

J. E. Froome has purchased from the Athena Land & Trust company the two and one-half acres of land on which is situated the Ogle residence. Mr. Froome has already commenced making improvements.

The Athena Shamrocks will be a busy bunch this week. This afternoon they play the Pendleton team; tomorrow afternoon they will be out for revenge on the swift Pilot Rock bunch and Sunday they play Walla Walla at Meador Park.

J. H. Rideour arrived in the city Wednesday from Franklin county, Wash., where he has been assisting in harvesting the wool crop. He will remain here until Monday, when with his crew he will leave for Montana to finish the season.

Mrs. A. J. Willaby and son, Virgil left Wednesday via the Northern Pacific for Tacoma, Seattle and other points on the Sound. They will visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Willaby, who live near Seattle, and will also take in the big fair.

In the automobile parade at the Pioneer picnic at Weston Saturday afternoon Milt Swaggart's magnificent black horse, which headed the procession, ridden by the marshal of the day, attracted almost as much attention as did the twenty-four cars, loaded with pioneers.

A beautiful 85 pound specimen of salmon was caught with hook and line by Joe Wharton, a Grants Pass sportsman, who used a six-ounce fly rod with No. 1 brass spinner. Many fancy catches are made each year in Rogue river, but it is believed that this is the largest one ever caught in this manner. In its mad pursuit to snap the line the salmon churned the waters of Rogue river from the White Rock ripples, opposite City Park, to the foot of Sixth street, where it was landed after an exciting chase down stream.

Bruce Shangle, formerly connected with the Walla Walla Union, has purchased the Milton Eagle from Brown brothers.

The youngest town in Umatilla county carried off the honors in the race for queen of the Rose Festival float which will represent the county at Portland. Miss Chloe Stanfield, of Stanfield, received 830 votes.

There is also buried there four widows of Union soldiers, one Confederate widow and two widows of Indian war veterans.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hodgson entertained a party of friends at dinner Sunday, May 30, at their home north of town in honor of the 62nd birthday anniversary of Mrs. Hodgson's father, Mr. Lee Kirk, and also the 11th birthday of their daughter Myrtle. Those present were: Mr. Lee Kirk, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hodgson, Mr. and Mrs. James Huggens, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Leroux, Roy E. Kirk, James Hodgson, Robert Hodgson, Myrtle, Lester and Floyd Hodgson, and Roland Leroux. Mr. Kirk leaves for Portland and Sound points about the 18th of the month.

Those who failed to attend the lecture given in the Christian church Tuesday evening, (and their name was legion) missed an intellectual treat the like of which is rarely given an audience in this city. Dr. Dorris is a man of unusual intellectual power and ability as a platform lecturer, and his subject, "Man in the Brightest Lighthouse," was ably handled. It is hoped that should another such attraction appear in the city, it will be given better patronage. Athena people are certainly defrauding themselves when they fail to take advantage of the few opportunities of hearing a really worthy lecture.

There is no truth in the report that Col. Wood tried to "sopswallow" the price of his admission fee at the bloomer girl ball game, Saturday. Her majesty, the boss bloomer girl, detected an elderly gentleman using an automobile as a shield of protection to slide by without producing. The bloomer lady gave vent to righteous indignation and her strenuous tones of reproach attracted considerable notice from the assemblage. Unluckily, Col. Wood happened to be in the vicinity of the aforesaid voice, and in the confusion the rumor originated that it was the Colonel on whom the lippy gaudling spouter had turned her wordy spell of accusations. No; the Colonel may have shortcomings, but the Press will affirm that he always pays his way.

More Room for Furniture at Davis-Kaser's
