If you wish to make an application for a homestead in the Flathead Indian reservation you must either go to Kalispell or to Missoula, Mont. If you wish to make an application for a homestead in the Coeur d'Alene Indian reservation, you must go to Coeur d'Alene, Idaho.

If you wish to make an application for a homestead in the Spokane Indian reservation, you must go to Spokane, Wash.

Arriving at Kalispell, Mont., for example, you will go to the land office where you will be given the name of a notary public, who will furnish you with a blank form of application for registration, as well as addressed envelope to "James W. The application must be filed out and sworn to before this notary public. Then you will put the application in the addressed envelope, seal it securely, attach necessary postage stamps and mail it.
