

Press Paragraphs

John Gross came over from Walla Walla yesterday.

Z. F. Lockwood was in Helix yesterday on business.

Lowell Rogers was in town yesterday from his Adams ranch.

Claud Gatch, National Bank examiner, was in the city yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Thompson were over from the river Wednesday.

G. B. Kidder spent Sunday in the mountain camp with his family.

Mrs. Harry McBride is visiting her parents at their summer home near Meacham.

The McCoy road fight from the Freewater country is again before the county court.

Arthur Riggs, representing the Corbin Automobile company, was in the city yesterday.

"Happy Home" canned goods excel any on the market. For sale by T. M. Taggart & Co.

Richard Wright has accepted a position as salesman at N. A. Miller's furniture store.

Ernest Ransom and Louise Hann, both of this county, have been granted a license to wed.

Ed Brown, representing the Pacific Paper company of Portland, was in town yesterday.

S. H. LaMar, of the Corey Safe & Lock company, transacted business in Athena yesterday.

The Farmers' Bank of Weston has just installed an up-to-date letter and newspaper filing system.

Fay LeGrow, A. B. McEwen and Herman Beverly made a trip by auto to Walla Walla yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kountz and Mr. and Mrs. Harry McBride spent Sunday on the Umatilla river.

Miss Inez McBride, of Walla Walla, has been a guest this week at the home of her uncle, Wm. McBride near town.

Mrs. M. M. Johns and son Flint are expected to arrive from Portland tomorrow, when they will be guests of friends here.

Miss Olive McKay, a teacher in the Pullman graded schools, is visiting at the home of her cousin, Mrs. Byron Hawks, in this city.

William Lowell, son of S. A. Lowell of Pendleton, has purchased the Oregon Scout, one of the newspapers of Union, in Union county.

Samuel Hutt and W. C. Miller returned Tuesday from Spokane and Coeur d'Alene, where they registered for the land drawings.

J. E. Keefe, James Ashworth and Otis Turner, a Weston party of Nimrods, have gone to the headwaters of Salmon river on a fishing trip.

Just the thing for harvest—the bookskin shoe. They are soft, easy, cool and wear like iron. Price $2.00 at Jarman's.

Mrs. E. A. Dudley and sons, Max and Vern, Miss Mabel McDonald of Walla Walla, and Ira McDonald are camping in the mountains east of town.

At the Athena Laundry, lace curtains will be laundered for 25 to 50 cents per pair; net curtains for 50 cents to $1.00. Mrs. Minnie Baker, proprietor.

Mr. Miller and son, the drill men, are at their home in Prosser, Wash., where they will remain until the arrival of the casing ordered for the artesian well.

New York Beauty Parlors, 607, East Court street, Pendleton. Shampooing, hair dressing. All kinds of hair goods made to order. Madam Kennedy, proprietor.

Grover Bowles left Tuesday on a trip through the stock country of Central Oregon with a view to looking up a location. He will be gone a couple of weeks.

Two cases of diphtheria are reported in the Weston neighborhood. One case, a child in the Obapin family, proved fatal. The other case is in the family of Frank Greer.

Dr. Plamondon went to Salem the latter part of last week. He returned home Tuesday accompanied by Mrs. Plamondon, who spent several weeks in Seattle and Tacoma.

Truman, the 17 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Barnes, who reside at the Watts farm on Pine creek, was taken ill this week and is in a Walla Walla hospital for treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Harrison and son, visited this week at the Barrett home in this city and left for their home in North Dakota. Mrs. Harrison is a sister of C. A. Barrett.

Rev. Humbert, of Eugene, is canvassing this vicinity in the interests of the Divinity school in that city. Mr. Humbert occupied the pulpit in the Christian church Sunday morning.

The county is putting in a new steel bridge at Lee's crossing on Dry Creek, north of Weston. Wood material for bridge construction has had its day, and an expensive one at that, in the county.

David Taylor, owner of the Independent Warehouse, announces that his charges for storage will be 50 cents per ton up to January 1, and 10 cents per ton per month additional thereafter.

Miss Ella Ayers, who for three years practiced the art of teaching in Whitman conservatory of Music, will organize a Piano class in this city beginning about September 1. Names may be left with Mrs. Homer I. Watts, at whose home lessons will be given by Miss Ayers.

See the Currys about your eyes, Aug. 11 at the St. Nicholas Hotel.

Bert Cartano has disposed of his near beer saloon to Will Harden and James Huggins.

Mrs. H. H. Hill left Wednesday for a few weeks visit to her daughter Mrs. Otis Whiteman at La Crosse, Wash.

Ralph McEwen came to town from the ranch Tuesday after extras for the combine. Ralph makes a cracker-jack utility man on the farm, even being an adept in promoting a splendid growth of beard.

The best cook in the world can't make a good cup of coffee out of old stock that has been on the shelves for six months. Chase & Sanborn coffee is always fresh. Sold by T. M. Taggart & Co.

The Kidder brothers of this city have completed the renovation of the interior of the Weston public school house and the rooms now present a very attractive appearance in their new coat of wall tints.

Persons residing in this vicinity who registered for the land drawings, should read the Spokesman-Review. That paper will contain a correct list of the names of those successful in the drawings on all three reservations.

In the absence of Fred Gross Sr., Henry Keen was impressed into city service and read the water meters this month. Henry also fills the vacant spots in the constable's office for this district. He is a handy man to have around.

Genial Sim Culler, bearing the burden of a month's growth of auburn whiskers, was in town this morning. Sim is now engaged in looking after the "minor details" of farm work on the DeGraw farm, southeast of town.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Sellers of Lincoln, Nebraska, were guests this week of Wm. Dobson. Mr. Sellers is a relative of Mrs. Dobson, who is spending the summer on the coast, and in her absence "John" entertained the visitors most royally.

A. M. Cook and daughter Bessie, of Tacoma, are visiting with B. C. Kidder and G. B. and Chas. Kidder and families. Mr. Cook has registered at all the reservation openings from Washington to Montana. He is a brother of Mrs. B. C. Kidder.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Curry, the competent eyesight specialists, who have been making professional visits to Athena for 7 years will make their next visit Wed. August 11 for one day only at Hotel St. Nichols. Eyes examined and glasses fitted at reasonable prices. All work guaranteed.

An important change in the O. R. & N. passenger service will be inaugurated Sunday. The local Walla Walla-Pendleton passenger train will arrive in Athena at 9:05 instead of 10:10 as at present. The returning time of the train will be the same as now.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Smith and two youngest sons left yesterday for a month's visit with relatives in the east and south. They stop in turn in Kansas, Indiana, Ohio and Kentucky. S. L. Smith, of Latah, Wash., is here to act as O. R. & N. agent during Mr. Smith's absence.

The Press is in receipt of a copy of the Oregon State Fair premium list. The Fair, which will be held September 18-18 inclusive, promises to excel any fair previously held in the state. Especially will the livestock department be a center of attraction this year.

The Weston young ladies' cornet band which was recently organized is making strenuous efforts to secure funds for purchasing the necessary band instruments. They are now preparing to put on the boards a play entitled "The Merry Coubler," the parts to be taken by local talent.

Representatives wanted of character and ability to act as distributors of our line of hosiery; exceptional opportunity for one man or woman in each community to establish their own business on very small capital. We practically sell goods for you. Write at once for particulars of entirely new proposition. Lion Mercantile Co., 459 Turk St., San Francisco, Cal.

'Twas a Glorious Victory. There's rejoicing in Fedra, Tenn. A man's life has been saved, and now Dr. King's New Discovery is the talk of the town for curing C. V. Pepper of deadly lung hemorrhages. "I could not work nor get about," he writes, "and the doctors did me no good, but, after using Dr. King's New Discovery three weeks, I feel like a new man, and can do good work again." For weak, sore or diseased lungs, coughs and colds, hemorrhages, hay fever, lagrippe, asthma or any Bronchial affection it stands unrivalled. Price 50c and $1. Trial Bottle free. Sold and guaranteed by all druggists.

If you must swing the hammer, use it to drive nails and help build up, not to destroy and tear down.

Seared With a Hot Iron, or scalded by overturned kettle—cut with a knife—bruised by slammed door—injured by gun or in any other way—the thing needed at once is Bucklen's Arnica Salve to subdue inflammation and kill the pain. It's earth's supreme healer, infallible for boils, ulcers, fever sores, Eczema and piles. 25c at all druggists.

Are you going to Seattle

If so, perhaps you will need a Suitcase, Trunk, or Telescope

We have just received a shipment of suitcases unequalled in quality, workmanship and finish.

We can give you an imitation Walrus, 24 inch; brass lock and fastners, for $1.75. A 26 inch imitation Grain Leather, for $2; a 26 inch imitation horn Alligator, for $3 and $3.50; a 26 inch dark brown Sheepskin, with straps, for $4.50 and $5.50; a 26 inch genuine full grain Bowhide, with straps, for $10; a 26 inch genuine, full grain Cowhide, lined throughout with satin, for $11.50; a 26 inch heavy, selected, brown Cowhide, full leather lined, patent sliding lock, for $11.50; a 24 inch Japanese matting Suit Case, for $3; a 26 inch Case in same, for $3.50. In Telescopes we can supply you with all kinds and sizes, from 50c to $2.50.

Trunks

Prices from 2.75 to $12

Save Your Coupons

Beautiful 10 1-2 in Floral Plaque Free with purchase amounting to $15

We have received a very nice line of Silkline Comforts from Blankenburg & Co., of Philadelphia. Ask for the Snowflake Cotton Comforts, made of Superior Cotton.

JARMAN'S DEPARTMENT STORE

Mosgrove Mercantile Company

We have just received our first shipment of new fall dress goods and imported suiting, and are now showing the latest novelties in Fabric and Weave that the markets afford.

We have an elegant assortment and our prices are lower than any of the large cities, where they pay enormous rents and are under heavy expenses. We own our own building, buy our goods for cash and can and do undersell them.

Seeing is believing. Come and see.

Special Notice

All summer goods at reduced prices for the next 15 days. The B. & H. trading stamps with each cash purchase.

Mosgrove Mercantile Company

Phone 65.

Athena, Oregon

DAVIS-KASER'S

Great August Clearance Sale

Right now is your time to save money on home furnishings. Our big clearance sale is now on in full blast. The opportunity is yours—grasp it. Our

$150,000 stock

of the very best lines of home furnishings in Eastern Washington is at your mercy. Don't let this chance go by unheeded.

We will be very frank with you and say that the reason for this sale is that we want to turn as much of our stock into cash as possible to pay for our fall purchases, and with this in mind we have cut prices without any regard to cost or profit. We must, and will, sell thousands of dollars worth of home furnishings at less than factory cost.

Get in with the crowds and fit your home up right now and save many dollars.

Write for Circulars giving prices

The Davis-Kaser Company
Dealers in Paints, Builders' Hardware, Sewing Machines
Complete Home & House Furnishers
Walla Walla, Wash (The home of Greater Whitman)
Branch Store at Pasco, Wash.