

Press Paragraphs

- B. B. Richards was in Helix yesterday.
- R. M. O'Brien came up from Pendleton yesterday.
- Miss Olson of Pendleton, is a guest of Miss Norma Smith.
- Ross Maloney was a visitor to McDougal camp, Sunday.
- Mrs. F. S. LeGrow spent Sunday with relatives in Walla Walla.
- George Baunister came down from the mountain camp Wednesday.
- The Misses Carrie and Alta Sharp visited friends in Pendleton, Monday.
- Jacob Sherrman, the Pendleton hide and pelt buyer, was in the city Tuesday.
- Will Ferguson will have about a week's run yet before he finishes harvesting.
- "Happy Home" canned goods excel all on the market. For sale by T. M. Taggart & Co.
- Mrs. Jackson Nelson is visiting her granddaughter, Mrs. Brown, in Waitsburg this week.
- Mr. and Mrs. Harry McBride returned from a visit with relatives near Meacham, Saturday evening.
- Mr. and Mrs. J. E. McDaniel of Weston, will spend the month of September in the Lone Star state.
- Bert Cartano shipped a mixed carload of hogs and cattle over the Northern Pacific, to Pasco, today.
- A number of Athena Odd Fellows attended the funeral of M. J. Cockerline, at Weston, Wednesday afternoon.
- Harvest is drawing to a close. Many machines have finished the season's run and have been stored in the shed.
- M. L. Watts reports that his grain on the high ground south-east of town will average close to 50 bushels per acre.
- Mrs. B. D. Tharp and family and Mrs. Barbara Willaby and daughter attended the circus in Walla Walla yesterday.
- Master Raymond Harris returned to his home at Dayton, Wash., after a two weeks visit with his brother Ellis B. Harris.
- Mrs. Wm. Craven and little son, Earl, of Milton, are guests this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Burke in this city.
- Hugh McIntyre left yesterday for a trip to Grant county. His family will enjoy an outing in the mountains during his absence.
- Constable Keen overhauled C. V. Spencer, a young man who was mak-

- ing a get-a-way without liquidating his obligations, yesterday. Spencer was at Helix, where he was to take the train for the East, yesterday.
- G. B. Kidder assisted his family in preserving a generous share of the huckleberry crop in the mountains, Monday and Tuesday.
- Ortis Harris, of Dayton, Wash., who has been visiting and harvesting in this vicinity this summer has returned to his home in Dayton.
- Mrs. J. E. Jones came down from McDougal camp this week to lay in a new supply of provisions. She reports a lively time at the popular camp.
- The family cow of Wm. Scott, of Albee, this county, recently gave birth to triplets. The little herd of Jerseys consists of one male and two females.
- New York Beauty Parlors, 607, East Court street, Pendleton. Shampooing, hair dressing. All kinds of hair goods made to order. Madam Kennedy, proprietor.
- P. L. Fountain, a brother of Mrs. F. M. Mansfield, spent a couple of days this week in Athena. Mr. Fountain is a prosperous real estate dealer of Klamath Falls.
- There are only 26 applicants for certificates taking the teacher's examination this week. Fifteen are seeking county certificates, and eleven desire state papers.
- Dr. Joseph Baddeley, veterinary surgeon, finds his professional services much in demand. At the present time there seems to be a great deal of sickness among horses.
- Three thousand bushels of wheat, headed, stacked and ready for the threshing, were yesterday consumed near Alice, Union county, by a conflagration of unknown origin.
- Kohler Betts' fifth birthday was appropriately observed at McDougal camp. Twenty-four playmates assembled, playing games, and feasted on a splendid collation of edibles.
- The meeting of the I. C. A. was held last Friday evening at the home of Miss Cecile Boyd, when a pleasant session was held. Tonight the society meet at the home of Sheldon Taylor.
- The best cook in the world can't make a good cup of coffee out of old stock that has been on the shelves for six months. Chase & Sabor coffee is always fresh. Sold by T. M. Taggart & Co.
- Miss Leta Edgington came up from Corvallis Saturday, and is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. W. R. Taylor near town. Miss Edgington is a student at O. A. C. and will finish at that institution next year.
- Herbert Parker, of this city, one of the youngest barbers in the state, is employed in a Pendleton shop at present.

- James Bell claims the record for one day's run with a steam threshing outfit in this vicinity. For one day a total of 1603 sacks of wheat were threshed. Three loaders were used in getting the grain to the machine.
- when the management of Jarman's Department store learned of his contemplated action. Young Spencer owed the store a balance of $35 and Constable Keen went over and had no difficulty in making the collection.
- George Dunlap will have a sale at the T. J. Kirk place in this city, Saturday August 28, at 10:30 a. m. at which he will dispose of his stock, farm implements and household goods. Free lunch will be served at noon.
- M. J. Cockerline, the well known Weston druggist died in a Walla Walla hospital after an operation for appendicitis. The funeral took place Wednesday at Weston, conducted by the Odd Fellow lodge, and was largely attended.
- Steel casing to the amount of 260 feet, arrived Wednesday, and work is again progressing at the artesian well. It is believed by the Brill operators that hereafter the work will not be interfered with on account of black sand.
- C. A. Barrett who was a delegate to the National Irrigation Congress at Spokane returned home Wednesday evening. Mr. Barrett says the Congress was well attended. Oregon was represented by a larger delegation than any other state.
- M. B. Briggs of Holdenville Oklahoma, has been in the city this week visiting his old-time friend, S. F. Wilson. Mr. Briggs is favorably impressed with Oregon and this portion of Umatilla county in particular. He may conclude to locate here.
- Passenger traffic on the main line of the O. R. & N. has increased to such an extent that a third overland train each way, daily, has been added. The present arrangement is in accordance with recommendations of traveling passenger agent O'Neil.
- The local wheat market lopped off another cent today, the price quoted being one cent lower than yesterday's quotations. About 100,000 bushels have been sold in Athena since the market opened two weeks ago. A good portion of the sales went at 80 cents and upward.
- Fred Kershaw, who has been with the Preston-Parton Milling company for some time, has resigned his position. Mr. Kershaw has been elected assistant cashier of the Farmer's Bank of Weston, and will enter upon his duties with the institution about the first of the month.
- Miss Ella Ayers, who for three years practiced the art of teaching in Whitman conservatory of Music, will organize a Piano class in this city beginning about September 1. Names may be left with Mrs. Homer I. Watts, at whose home lessons will be given by Miss Ayers.
- Union county capitalists are to launch a new industry in Old Mexico for next September. E. Z. Carbine, a prominent orchardist leaves for that country to open what is called a tomato plantation with the prime object in view of having ripe tomatoes on the market January 1st.
- There was a pleasant reunion at the O. R. & N. station in this city Saturday, when Samuel Potts of Minneapolis, and Ed Fotts, brothers, met for the first time in 25 years. The brother from Minneapolis was accompanied by his wife and came to the coast to visit the Seattle fair, some weeks ago.
- The estate of the late John McIntyre has been appraised at $15,797. The heirs are Hugh McIntyre, Cassie McIntyre Johnson and the children of Donald McIntyre, deceased. Cassie McIntyre Johnson, wife of Matt Johnson is the chief beneficiary under the will, her share of the estate being near $8,000.
- Pendleton has two vacancies in the high school faculty. J. B. Potter, assistant instructor in science has resigned to accept a position in the Normal school at Ellensburg. It would appear that the Ellensburg school management have no scruples whatever in outbidding other schools for talent, as Athena lately learned.
- Mr. West, of the firm of Miller & West, who have the contract for boring the artesian well for the Athena Land & Trust company, arrived in the city Wednesday from La Grande, where he has been supervising drilling with one of the company's outfits. In one of the wells near La Grande, Mr. West struck a flow of water at a depth of 158 feet.
- East Oregonian: Attorney J. B. Perry returned last evening from Santa Ana, California where he had been for several days looking for Jerry St. Dennis. The latter is one of the sons of the late Desire St. Dennis whose will leaving all the property to his wife is being contested by the heirs. The California man's signature to the contest petition was desired and to secure it the Pendleton attorney made a trip to the California city.
- P. E. Colburn has sold his residence property on the West Side to the Eugene Bible University a theological institution conducted under the supervision of the Christian church, for a cash consideration of $2,000. Mr. Colburn also disposed of his farm north of Athena to the University, for a valuable consideration which he declined to give for publication. Mr. and Mrs. Colburn, who will soon leave for California, where they will reside, retain their home property in his city.

Are you going to Seattle

If so, perhaps you will need a Suitcase, Trunk, or Telescope

We have just received a shipment of suitcases unequalled in quality, workmanship and finish.

We can give you an imitation Walrus, 24 inch, brass lock and fastners, for $1.75. A 26 inch imitation Grain Leather, for $2; a 26 inch imitation horn Alligator, for $3 and $3.50; a 26 inch dark brown Sheepskin, with straps, for $4.50 and $5.50; a 26 inch genuine full grain Bowhide, with straps, for $10; a 26 inch genuine, full grain Cowhide, lined throughout with satin, for $11.50; a 26 inch heavy, selected, brown Cowhide, full leather lined, patent sliding lock, for $11.50; a 24 inch Japanese matting Suit Case, for $3; a 26 inch Case in same, for $3.50. In Telescopes we can supply you with all kinds and sizes, from 50c to $2.50.

Trunks

Prices from 2.75 to $12

Save Your Coupons

Beautiful 10 1-2 in Floral Plaque Free with purchase amounting to $15

We have received a very nice line of Silkline Comforts from Blankenburg & Co., of Philadelphia. Ask for the Snowflake Cotton Comforts, made of Superior Cotton.

JARMAN'S DEPARTMENT STORE

DAVIS-KASER'S Great August Clearance Sale

Right now is your time to save money on home furnishings. Our big clearance sale is now on in full blast. The opportunity is yours—grasp it. Our

$150,000 stock

of the very best lines of home furnishings in Eastern Washington is at your mercy. Don't let this chance go by unheeded.

We will be very frank with you and say that the reason for this sale is that we want to turn as much of our stock into cash as possible to pay for our fall purchases, and with this in mind we have cut prices without any regard to cost or profit. We must, and will, sell thousands of dollars worth of home furnishings at less than factory cost.

Get in with the crowds and fit your home up right now and save many dollars.

Write for Circulars giving prices

Goats for sale. The great goat farm. Selling considerable quantities of seven goats.

Davis-Kaser Company
Paints, Builders' Hardware, Sewing Machines
Complete Home & House Furnishers
Walla Walla, Wash (The home of Greater Whitman)
Branch Store at Pasco, Wash.

Mosgrove Mercantile Company

We have just received our first shipment of new fall dress goods and imported suiting, and are now showing the latest novelties in Fabric and Weave that the markets afford.

We have an elegant assortment and our prices are lower than any of the large cities, where they pay enormous rents and are under heavy expenses. We own our own building, buy our goods for cash and can and do undersell them.

Seeing is believing. Come and see.

Special Notice

All summer goods at reduced prices for the next 15 days. The B. & H. trading stamps with each cash purchase.

Mosgrove Mercantile Company

Phone 65.

Athena, Oregon