

The Athena Press
AN INDEPENDENT NEWSPAPER
Six and Eight Pages Every Friday.
F. B. BOYD, PUBLISHER.

Application for entrance as 2nd class matter
made on July 5,
1907 at the postoffice at Athena, Oregon
Under an Act of Congress of March 3, 1879

Subscription Rates: per year, in advance $2.00
Single copies in wrappers, 5c.

ATHENA, ORE., OCT. 15.....1909

Press Paragraphs

C. Owens of Adams was in the city Monday.

750—Bill sells alarm clocks "America,"—75c.

Matt Mosgrove was over from Milton yesterday.

Roy Walker was a Dayton visitor the first of the week.

LaMar Union will hold a business meeting Monday night.

If you want the best alarm clock in town, see Hill the jeweler.

Mrs. Henry Lloyd is visiting friends here from her home in Milton.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McArthur are up from Portland, visiting relatives.

Dr. J. D. Plamondon returned Tuesday from a short business visit to Portland.

Mrs. Blake of Adams, was in the city Monday, trading with Athena merchants.

Miss Lela Lienallen is able to be out, after several weeks' seige with typhoid fever.

Marshal Gholson doffed the star Friday and Saturday and attended the Walla Walla fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Baddeley are up from their Pendleton ranch, visiting friends in Athena.

KEENE'S Barber Shop.

Shaving, Haircutting, Shampooing, Massage
for Face and Scalp.

HOT BATHS.

Shop North Side Main Street, Athena, Ore.

THE ST. NICHOLS HOTEL

J. E. FROOME, PROP.

Only First-class Hotel in the City.

THE ST. NICHOLS is the only one that can accommodate commercial travelers.

Can be recommended for its clean and well ventilated rooms.

COR. MAIN AND THIRD, ATHENA, OR.

Mrs. Jackson Nelson was the guest Saturday of Mrs. J. T. Lienallen and Mrs. Holdman in Adams.

Miss Reed, a trained nurse of Walla Walla, was a guest this week of Mrs. J. A. Kirk south of town.

Mr. Ora. Sigley and family have moved into the residence on Main street, near the opera house.

Lost—On road north of town, music book, sheet of music and grade card. Finder please leave at this office.

There will be a social dance at the opera house tonight. Music will be furnished by Johnson's orchestra.

Charles Grant has leased the Worthington building on Main street and will conduct a restaurant therein.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Kessler, employed on the Henry Schmitt farm, visited in Walla Walla last week.

Grandma Koontz has gone to Moscow, Idaho, where she will spend the winter with her son, B. E. Koontz.

James Bryan and family will move to town for the winter. They will reside in the Jarman cottage on 4th street.

Jerry Stone and family will soon leave for the farm to reside. Byron Hawks has rented the Stone town residence.

Mrs. John Stone will visit her parents at Madras, Crook county during the absence of Mr. Stone on his hunting trip.

John Bell has purchased a fine White steamer. The machine is a beauty, a 20-horse power, five passenger car.

"Gold Coin" wheat, raised on the John Weidert place north of Athena, took first premium at the Walla Walla fair last week.

Wednesday was a good day for drummers, evidently, in this city. Thirty-three were registered at the St. Nichols hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Booher and family and Mrs. McPherrin and son were Walla Walla visitors last Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. James Nelson came down from Alberta yesterday and is visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Pinkerton, Sr., near town.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pinkerton of Weston were guests Sunday of their son, Fred Pinkerton and family in the west part of town.

Mrs. Minnie Leonard was a guest of her sisters in this city the first of the week. Mr. and Mrs. Leonard are now located at Walla Walla.

G. L. Stevens, father of Malcolm Stevens of Weston mountain, is visiting in Umatilla county. Mr. Stevens is from Sandy Creek, N. Y.

Rev. Hammond went down yesterday to visit Mr. McKenzie, near Adams. He reports the old gentleman as cheerful under his affliction.

Mr. and Mrs. Otha Reeder and little daughter came in from Tacoma, Wednesday morning, and are visiting at the Gholson home in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. V. C. Burke drove up from Pendleton Sunday morning and spent the day with Mr. Burke's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Burke.

Prof. Case will lead the Epworth League services at the M. E. church next Sunday evening. An interesting session is expected by the members.

Jerry Stone has purchased the old Ely place of 160 acres west of town, from John Bell; consideration, $14,000. There are 140 acres in summer fallow.

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Jarman and Wm. Winslip returned yesterday from a trip to Spokane, near where Mr. Jarman has recently acquired land holdings.

Mrs. Neri Ackles and daughter Ruth of La Grande, and Mrs. Grover Hays of Portland are guests this week at the homes of T. J. Kirk and Edward Koontz in this city.

J. E. Jones and James Henderson returned Sunday from a ten days' hunt on the Salmon river. They report having gotten sight of 15 or 20 deer, but did not succeed in bagging one.

W. E. Potts has purchased three lots from C. A. Barrett and will build a fine residence thereon and come to town to reside. The lots are situated just east of the Plamondon residence and will make Mr. Potts a fine home.

Mr. Herman Kirk and Miss Irene Dudley were married Sunday morning Oct. 10, in Walla Walla. The young couple took the train for Athena immediately after the wedding ceremony.

Miss Jeannette Manasse leaves today for her home in Napa Cal., after several weeks pleasant visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schmitt west of town, and with other friends in this city.

John Backman, living on the Estes place near town, had the index finger of his right hand severed and two other digits badly mangled this morning in a hay cutter. Dr. Sharp dressed the wounds.

Grover Bowles and Walter Phillips left Tuesday for Miles City, Montana, where they will be employed on Fay LeGrow's stock ranch. The ranch contains 900 acres and was recently purchased by Mr. LeGrow.

Nick Taitenger left last week for his farm in Alberta, after several weeks visit with friends here. Mrs. Taitenger and the children will remain for the winter months with her mother, Mrs. Wright in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mansfield returned Tuesday evening from Caldwell, Idaho, where they visited at the home of their son, Harden Mansfield. They were also guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ely in Boise during their absence.

Last Saturday there was a general regira of the Athena teachers to the county seat. Those noticed on the train were Prof. and Mrs. Mulkey, Misses Edith and Blanch Orswell, Miss Velma Wilkenson and Miss Nettie Beverly.

Mrs. Wall and Mrs. Jack Harrison went over to Milton and Walla Walla Friday, remaining until Sunday. They were the guests of the Danner family and report that Mr. Bert Danner, the O. R. & N. conductor, is visiting his parents there.

Mrs. H. H. Hill was called Monday evening to the bedside of her mother, Mrs. Fleenor who is making her home with Mrs. F. E. Parkyn in Lewiston, Idaho. Mrs. Fleenor is of advanced age and it is thought her illness will prove fatal.

Ben Swaggart is in the city from Lexington, Morrow county, with a number of thoroughbred Oregon jacks which he is offering for sale. With these jacks he took three first premiums and one second, and the sweepstakes prize at the Walla Walla fair.

John Stone, H. O. Worthington and Fred Boyd left yesterday for a two weeks hunt on the headwaters of the Grand Ronde river. They will join the party composed of M. Kelly, Wm. Dobson, Tom Gilkey and Chas. Smith who went up a couple of weeks ago.

The class of girls under Mrs. George Gerking, of the Christian church Sunday school held a sale of fancy articles and pastry last Saturday in the window of the Kidder paint store. The neat sum of $10.25 cents was realized from the sale, which will be used by the class in redeeming their pledge for missionary work.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Knowlton arrived in the city Tuesday from Newport, Wash. They have come to make their home on the Reeder place, purchased by Wm. Willaby Sr. Mr. and Mrs. Knowlton are old time residents of this vicinity, and will be made heartily welcome by their many friends here.

Rev. M. H. Marvin, pastor of the Wilbur Memorial church at Walla Walla, and formerly district superintendent of this field, presided at the first Quarterly Conference of the M. E. church on Wednesday afternoon. Rev. Gabriel Sykes, the district superintendent, could not be present on account of a recent operation. The Rev. Marvin found a warm greeting among old friends here.

The monthly meeting of the Christian Woman's Board of Missions was held Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. M. Brotherton in the north part of town. The meeting was one of unusual interest being in the nature of a centennial program, in honor of the 100th anniversary of the Restoration movement under the Christian church. Mrs. Brotherton served refreshments at the close of the meeting. At the September session of the local auxiliary, the new officers elected for the ensuing year were as follows: President, Mrs. Henry Koepke; vice president, Mrs. George Gerking; secretary, Mrs. Chas. Gerking and treasurer, Mrs. Henry Keen.

Methodist Episcopal Church.
Rev. A. O. Hammond, Pastor.
Sunday services: Sunday school at 10 a. m.; preaching service 11, Epworth League devotional 6:30, preaching service 7:30.
Ladies' Aid Society every Wednesday afternoon at 2 p. m.
Prayer meeting every Thursday evening at 7:30 p. m.
There will be a Sacramental service next Sabbath morning at the M. E. church.

Baptist Church Notes.
Things are humming at the Baptist church. At the trip to Palestine contest Sunday the SS Lusitania made the phenomenal run of 1100 miles, and out of an attendance of 83, only three were tardy. There promises to be an interesting time next Sunday at 10 o'clock. Preaching at 11. At 6:30 the B. Y. P. U. will resume services with Mr. Betts leading the meeting. At 7:30 evangelistic service. We are planning to commence revival meetings about the last week in October.

O. B. Steward

J. F. Brown

Athena's Department Store

Real Headquarters for New Goods

The latest to arrive in our Immense Line of
New Gingham, Staple and Fancy Lines,
Mens all wool Underwear, Hosiery, Sweaters,
Macinaws, Cravenetts and Shoes.

Remember

that each train that passes through Athena adds largely to our already large line and we are determined to make this store the

DEPARTMENT STORE OF ATHENA

Watch us grow

STEWART & BROWN

Mosgrove Mercantile Company

New Silk Waistings New Dress Goods

Ready to-Wear

Just received a large shipment of the very latest styles and colorings in ladies fall suits.

In adding this new line to our already large and varied stock of merchandise we have spared no effort that time and ready money can do, to have the very best the market affords.

Your early inspection will be greatly appreciated.
Our styles are the latest, our prices are the lowest possible consistent with good workmanship and reliable material. B & H green trading stamps with every cash purchase.

Mosgrove Mercantile Company

New Ribbons and Laces Jet Trimming and Buttons

October 4th to 9th is Fair week at Walla Walla Make Davis-Kaser's Your Headquarters Here

We want fair week to be "Visiting Week" at our store. We want to have the pleasure of visiting with you and help make your stay in Walla Walla the most pleasant one you ever had. We want you to make our store your headquarters—use our phones—use our "Rest Rooms"—meet your friends here and make yourself perfectly at home at our store. We are proud to say that we have the largest and best selected stock of home furnishings in Walla Walla Valley and hope to have the pleasure of showing you through our store.

We have made a "Rest Room" of our booth at the fair for your comfort.
Thursday October 7th, being "Walla Walla" day, our store will be closed all day.

The Davis-Kaser Company
Dealers in Paints, Builders' Hardware, Sewing Machines
Complete Home & House Furnishers
Walla Walla, Wash (The home of reater Whitman)
Branch Store at Pasco, Wash.