Anything to Oblige. While crossing the ocean the two sprightly children of very seasick parents were scampering around the deck. "Tom, dear," said the mother in a weary voice, "the children are too near the ralling." But he was too ill to notice, and in sheer desperation his wife nudged him on the arm. "Speak to them, Tom," she said faintly.

With a wan smile he lifted his head and said, "Eh-how do you do?"-Ladies' Home Journal.

Following is the record made by the [were interested to know what they really were, and were surprised when they proved to be "See no Evil, Hear no Evil, and Do no Evil." Rev. Hammond also gave an interesting talk on "Attention," showing it to be the first step in acquiring knowledge.

All of the Athena teachers except Principal Case went to Pendleton last Saturday, presumably to have a good time and to buy bats, but we are advised that only one young lady was brave enough to tackle the new styles.

The respective rooms are developing commendable spirit of pride in the matter of attendance and tardiness.

of games will take place next Friday evening from 3 to 5 p. m. Patrons and visitors are invited.

The first session of the Athena High chool Literary Society will be held Friday evening, October 15.

Basket Ball Items.

The boys of the student body met Monday evening and elected a first and second team. Members of the first team are: Hugh Lieuallen, Captain; Clarence Brotherton, Harry Coomans, Glenn Dudley and Floyd Pinkerton. Second team, Edmund Walker, Max Dudley, Harold Githens, Clyde Brotherton, and Frank Smith.

Last Friday evening the boys played a friendly game of basket ball on the campus and made an excellent showing, considering it was the first real game of the season.

The girls are planning to organize their basket ball team soon. New suits are part of the program.

Congress had been asked if it would do something for Deleware. "Deleware," repeated the members, with a puzzled air. "What's that? "It's a river that Washington once crossed." explained an advanced representative of the people.

Old Book Terms. The words follo, quarto, octavo, duodecimo and the like have almost if not quite lost their original meaning. At first they had reference only to the number of leaves into which the sheets used in making the books were folded. Thus if these sheets were folded once so as to form two leaves or four pages the book was called a folio; if the sheets were folded twice so as to form four leaves the book was called a quarto; if they were folded four times so as to form eight leaves the book was called an octavo, and so on.

good weather to talk about men's fall overcoats

Better weather to wear them.

The man who cannot make his overcoat "do" for another season is fairly driven into buying a new one.

There is some satisfaction in picking out an overcoat from the Motter-Wheeler stock. If anything there is better value at price--from the $15 overcoat up--than we have offered before.

The making is so well done that the overcoats start looking well & keep it up. Of course the specially chosen all wool fabrics play an important part in the wearing quality.

Many handsome rough materials, fancy gray cheviots predominating; are here in the season's styles. $15 & up to $30. Glad to have men see the stock.

Kenyon's "Ken-Reign" raincoats absolutely shed the rain & are also dressy for bright weather---$15, $16.50, $18 3 $20.
