

Press Paragraphs

S. F. Wilson left yesterday for Spokane.

Matt Mosgrove was over from Milton Wednesday.

T. W. Ayres of Pendleton, was in the city Tuesday.

F. S. LeGrow went over to Walla Walla Wednesday.

Clark Walter was in town yesterday from Walla Walla.

Mrs. John Bannister was a Pendleton visitor Wednesday.

H. O. Worthington transacted business in Pendleton Tuesday.

Virgil Zerba has accepted a position in McEwen's hardware store.

T. M. Taggart was a business visitor at Walla Walla Saturday.

M. H. Rice, of Milton was registered at the St. Nichols Tuesday.

Principal Heck of the Walla Walla high school is in the city today.

Mr. and Mrs. Tompkins and family went up to Waitsburg yesterday.

C. J. Freece, the Spokesman Review man, was in the city Wednesday.

D. B. Jarman, the Weston merchant, was in the city Wednesday.

Mayor McEwen arrived home Wednesday from a business trip to Pendleton.

A. B. McEwen attended the A. O. U. W. grand lodge session at Portland, this week.

David Taylor and son, W. R., were business visitors Wednesday at the county seat.

Fred Raymond has purchased the W. J. Farnish home in Pendleton, valued at $14,000.

Mrs. F. S. LeGrow went to Walla Walla Wednesday to spend Thanksgiving with her mother.

A good gasoline lighting system suitable for a farm home for sale. Inquire of H. O. Worthington.

Bert Ramsay has returned home from Alberta, where he spent the past fall in the Canadian harvest fields.

Carl Christian, the popular painter, left Saturday for Portland and The Dalles, where he will visit relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Muir, of Pendleton, were guests Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Wall in this city.

J. F. Elwood, recently of the Grand Trunk railway is handling the telegraph keys down at the O. R. & N. depot.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Miller entertained Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Kirk yesterday, at a sumptuous Thanksgiving dinner.

Jas. Bryan will ship a carload of horses to Seattle soon. Mr. Bryan has purchased some good horses in this section.

Dean Dudley drove to Pendleton Tuesday to join the party who are leaving to spend the winter at Long Beach, Calif.

The pastry sale, given by the Epworth League Wednesday, was liberally patronized. Good things to eat were disposed of.

Rev. E. E. Koontz, who is conducting revival services in Pendleton, took Thanksgiving dinner with his brother Edward, in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Brotberton and family spent Thanksgiving day with the family of Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Pinkerton at Milton.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Fischer, parents of Mrs. Lillie Miller, have gone from their home in Union, to spend the winter at Lodi, California.

The Athena Department store has been equipped with new swinging seats on the dry goods side, a convenience which will be appreciated by patrons.

Mrs. Garfield and daughter, Miss Lula, of Walla Walla, are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jackson Nelson. Mrs. Garfield is the daughter of Mrs. Nelson.

Dell Bros. have put in a stock of the famous "Patapoo" work shoes—$2.50 and $3.50. "That's All." In dress shoes this firm sells the Packard at $4.50 and $5.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Douglas come down from their home in Alberta Saturday and will spend several weeks visiting relatives and friends in Athena and vicinity.

Misses Gertrude Luna and Dora Bennett have established dressmaking parlors in the Carden building on Main street, where they are prepared to do all kind of sewing.

Bert Cartano shipped two carloads of cattle from Walla Walla, Saturday. He purchased the stock in the east end of the county. The consignment was made to a firm in Pasco.

Deputy Sheriff Blakely spent Tuesday night in the city. He walked up from Adams, when the train was forced to return to Pendleton on account of the track being blocked.

Mrs. H. H. Hill returned home Saturday from Lewiston, Idaho, where she has been attending her mother for several weeks. Mrs. Fleener is still in a precarious condition and her recovery is very doubtful.

Stereopticon views of California will be displayed at the opera house Monday evening. Admission free.

Miss Mary LaBrasche offers 40 acres of wheat land for sale. This land is only 2-3 miles from Athena and is highly productive. Buildings are fairly good and the place is a desirable one. Call on or address Miss LaBrasche at Athena.

Miss Lula Tharp arrived home Wednesday from Walla Walla, very much improved since her recent attack of appendicitis. She will spend Thanksgiving week here and return to Walla Walla next week to resume her musical studies.

L. W. Smith and wife, of Wenatchee, Wash., spent a few hours between trains Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith in this city. The two gentlemen are cousins. Mr. and Mrs. Smith are on their way to Long Beach, Calif.

Mrs. Gussie Armstrong, who recently visited her sister, Mrs. W. C. Miller, in this city, was married November 13th at Union, Oregon, to Mr. George Filer, of Seattle. They will make their home in the Sound city.

Mr. O. B. Steward arrived in the city Saturday evening from Spokane. Mr. Steward is expected to arrive this week or next. Temporarily, Mr. and Mrs. Steward will reside in the King cottage, on Fourth street south of Main.

The school board will have the rooms at the public school building wired for electric lights. The cost will be between $50 and $75. Manager Watts of the Preston-Parson company will furnish the lights at minimum meter rates.

A special election was held in the school building Monday for the purpose of electing a school clerk to fill the unexpired term of Mr. B. B. Richards, who was recently elected a member of the school board. Chas. Betts was unanimously elected to the office.

Thomas Brandon, father of Mrs. G. C. Osburn and a relative of T. J. Kirk of this city, died at the home of Mr. Mrs. Osburn at 393 Engene St., Portland, Tuesday. Mr. Brandon had recently been on a visit to relatives in the Palouse country and became ill on the way home.

Marion Hansell took the train Saturday evening, Portland ostensibly being his destination. But rumor has it that Marion did not tarry long in the metropolis. He is said to have hied away to Brownsville, a town which holds for the young man an irresistible attraction.

Clarence Zerba went down to Portland Friday evening, where he has accepted a position with the Y. M. C. A. R. C. French, formerly president of the Eastern Oregon State Normal School is connected with the Y. M. C. A. institution and it was at his solicitation that Clarence accepted the position.

Several Athena people were on the train delayed by the wrecked warehouse in Adams Tuesday, and securing teams from here drove the balance of the way home. Among them were A. J. Willaby, Wm. Harden, H. O. Worthington, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Boyd and others. Several hoofed it over the remaining five miles of the trip.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Adam, of Newport Wash., left Wednesday after a visit of a couple of weeks at the home of Mrs. Adam's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Knowlton near town. Mr. Adam is a druggist at Newport, and has been taking treatment at the Hot Lake Sanitarium for rheumatism. They will visit at Lewiston, Idaho, en route home.

The Lewiston Normal.

The Lewiston Normal has within the past month been visited by three distinguished citizens of the state: Congressman Thomas R. Hamer, ex-Governor John T. Horrison, and Governor Brady. All expressed themselves as pleased and gratified at the very evident growth of the Normal and its high standard of scholarship. The Normal now has 245 students, an increase of 25 per cent over the enrollment of last year, and it is expected that before the close of the year the enrollment will be about 300.

When the new gymnasium is finished this month, two operettas will be given by the students under the direction of Miss Chamberlain, head of the music department. One is called "The Japanese Girl" and the other "A Cup of Saki."

Prof. H. A. Hallowell, head of the European history department, has just received from London 600 lantern slides to be used in illustrating different phases and periods of Greek, Roman, and English history. The Lewiston Normal is the only institution in the Northwest using this pre-eminently attractive and useful method in teaching European history.

Three Grades of Apples.

Western apples will be packed in three grades in the future, these being named "Extra Fancy," "Choice" and "Orchard Run." The purpose is to protect the buyers and consumers, help the growers and promote industry. This was decided at a meeting of 200 growers representing every commercial district in the northwest in Washington state armory in Spokane on November 17.

Baby Contest.

The result of the prize baby contest at the Dime, follows: No. 2, 935 votes, first prize; No. 3, 300 votes, second prize; Nos. 1 and 4 are tied with 225 votes. The winners of prizes are requested to call at H. H. Hill's and receive their prizes.

At Athena's Department Store

During November 20 per cent CUT on all Infants, children and Misses coats and on all Boys and young Mens

SUITS, OVERCOATS AND PANTS

This is a reduction to close out all these lines during the holidays to give us room for the several changes contemplated in the departments and make room for the large spring purchases now being made up for us. Dont forget that we are headquarters for and look for our add in next issue. The latest, the newest and the best can always be had at this store.

XMAS GOODS

STEWART & BROWN

Mosgrove Mercantile Company

Athena Oregon

We are now showing the largest and most up-to-date stock of general Merchandise and ladies and gentlemen's ready-to-wear goods ever shown in Athena.

Dress Goods Department Mens Suits and Overcoats.

We have doubled the stock in this department and we have doubled the trade this fall. The reason why, we are selling new shadow stripes all colors for 50c per yard while elsewhere you pay 75c for the same grade.

We are selling extra fine Sula shadow stripes at 60c. Elsewhere you pay 75c for same goods.

We are selling High Grade all wool Imported suiting for $1 per yard, sold elsewhere for $1.50.

There's a lot of talk going around loose just at this time concerning the merit of clothes, but it is the store back of the goods that counts. We have better goods than ever before. Better workmanship, better styles, and our showing is unusually complete. We guarantee the prices lower than either Walla Walla or Pendleton. We are determined to keep the trade home. Compare our prices is all we ask.

Ladies Tailored suits the very latest styles and colors. from $16.50 to $32.50.

Ladies, Misses and childrens Cloaks, all new goods, and at prices lower than any of the large cities.

We are sole agents for the celebrated Muncing underwear.

Ladies, children and men's The most reliable goods that money can buy.

Just received a large shipment of jet trimmings, buckles, pins and Neckwear.

Just received the largest consignment of High Grade Knit Goods ever shipped to this town. Ladies', Misses', Children's and Men's Sweaters, Scarfs, Gloyes etc. direct from the factory which enables us to sell for about what others paid for them.

FIRE SALE

Of course you know we had a fire at our store which did some damage to our stocks. We have had a large crew of men working ever since repairing and finishing the damaged goods until now you could hardly tell we ever had a fire. After thinking the matter over we decided to put on a

Gigantic Fire Sale

and reduce the price of everything in our entire store, whether damaged or not.

We have decided to rid our store of everything that was here the night of the fire, and replace it with new goods. So if you are in need of anything in the home-furnishing line you will find you can save many a dollar by buying now.

Carpets, Rugs, Draperies, Furniture, Stoves, Ranges, Chinaware, Glassware, Silverware, Etc.

Remember we pay the freight where purchases amount to $10 or over. Write us today, or better still, come to our store, buy your needs for months to come.

The Davis-Kaser Company

Dealers in Paints, Builders' Hardware, Sewing Machines Complete Home & House Furnishers
Walla Walla, Wash (The home of Greater Whitman)
Branch Store at Pasco, Wash.