

Press Paragraphs

Mrs. H. H. Hill spent Monday in Pendleton.

Charles Norris spent Wednesday in Walla Walla.

Miss Clara Zerba spent Sunday with friends in Weston.

Miss Dora Bennett came up from Pendleton Monday.

James Bell transacted business in Pendleton Tuesday.

B. C. Kidder transacted business in Pendleton Tuesday.

Miss Gertrude Luna was a Pendleton visitor Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Kidder were in Pendleton Tuesday.

G. W. Probstel was in the city from Weston Wednesday.

Sam Pambran went over to Walla Walla on Monday's train.

Stamp photos at Van Winkle's gallery Saturday and Sunday.

Judge Stephen A. Lowell was in the city from Pendleton Wednesday.

Leon Cohen was among the Pendleton visitors in Athena Wednesday.

Mrs. Jones has a fine assortment of flowers and ornaments just arrived.

The ladies of the Methodist church have organized a missionary society.

Rev. and Mrs. Roberts spent the week with Mrs. Koontz, Mrs. Roberts' mother.

Mrs. Victor Burke was a guest of friends in Pendleton Saturday and Sunday.

Go to Weston Sunday and root for the Athena team. Game called at 2:30 p. m.

Ben Swaggart, the Lexington, Morrow county stockman, has been in the city this week.

Mrs. F. S. LeGrow is visiting at the home of her mother in Walla Walla this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McIntyre returned Saturday evening from a visit to Wallowa county.

Mrs. Lizzie Jones will pay the highest cash price for hair combings. Call at her millinery store.

J. F. Brown, proprietor of the Athena Department store, was in Walla Walla Wednesday.

A splendid rain Wednesday night put a quietus on the dust and brightened things up generally.

Fay LeGrow, W. R. Taylor and I. John Dobson left Saturday morning for the John Day country.

Miss Leota Cannon, who is a student at Whitman college, is at the home of her parents north of town.

Jack Keefe, recently re-elected principal of the Weston schools, was in the city Monday evening.

Rev. Payne, of the United Brethren church at Weston, preached in the M. E. church Monday evening.

J. E. Froome and Clarence Goff went with the Pendleton band on the excursion to Walla Walla Wednesday.

Eoho boasts ripe strawberries on May 1, that were raised on the farm of John Schmidt three miles west of town.

Found.—A gold ring. Owner may recover same by calling at this office, proving property and paying for this notice.

Mrs. B. B. Richards left Wednesday morning for LaCrosse, Wash., where she will visit her sister, Mrs. Otis Whiteman.

A number of Weston fans came over Sunday and witnessed the ball game between the Athena boys and the Pendleton team.

L. E. Penland, formerly a prosperous Helix farmer, but now an influential citizen of Pendleton, was in the city Wednesday.

C. F. Van de Water, traveling freight and passenger agent for the O. R. & N. was in Athena Wednesday.

William Temple, one of the best known and most prosperous wheat raisers in the county, is critically ill at his home in Pendleton.

Mrs. Lillie Miller will receive a consignment of the latest novelties in ribbons, also some new hats direct from the east in a day or two.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Ramsey, of Spokane, April 30, 1910, a daughter, Mrs. Ramsey was formerly Miss Ida Brookner of this city.

J. M. Kennedy of Washtucna, and Tim Berry of Walla Walla, oldtimers, were in the city yesterday. Both will be remembered by many pioneers of this section.

The family of Mr. Van Winkle, the photographer have arrived in the city and have taken up their residence in the King cottage on Fourth street south of Main.

Father Le Cornu, chaplain of Walla Walla penitentiary, attended the meeting of the Ministerial Association in Athena this week, and met many old time friends.

James Bryan says he is meeting with a profitable business with his big touring car. Sunday he made the run to Pilot Rock, having as passengers the Weston baseball team.

Father White, of Walla Walla, the oldest member of the Ministerial association and prominent in the early missions of the Coeur d'Alenes, was in the city this week.

The first crate of strawberries marketed at Prosser, Wash., was bought by the Prosser Business association and brought $30. The first crate at Hermiston brought $10.

Chas. Dunn, the O. R. & N. conductor, who was visiting friends in Athena, left for Tekoa Tuesday morning to resume his regular run which is on the Wallace branch.

Attorney Wilson returned Wednesday evening from a business visit to Portland and Spokane. He says Mr. Beverly is doing well in the law and real estate business in Portland.

Marriage licenses have been issued to John McLaughlin and Tracy Dogeneity of this county and to A. Fisher Compton of Franklin county Wash., and Jessie V. Frazier of Milton.

Editor Sanderson of Freewater, and H. L. Frazier of Milton were in the city Tuesday seeking the elusive signer for their county division petition. The Press acknowledges a call.

L. N. Hart, the genial agent for the Wise piano company, dropped over from Walla Walla this week and installed new pianos in the homes of T. M. Taggart, Dr. Newsom and F. O. Farley.

P. A. MuPhee, the new manager of Wenaha Springs, is making arrangements for the opening of that popular resort on June 1. However, he is now prepared to accommodate fishing parties.

Mrs. Ed. Miller, of Union, formerly Miss Alida Stackland, a successful photographer of this city, with her two children is expected to arrive shortly on a visit to the family of Will Miller.

Postmaster Githeus ambled down to the office Wednesday, the first time since he was stricken with serious illness three weeks ago. He is considerably improved, but not by any means a well man yet.

The Press was honored Wednesday morning by a visit from Mrs. Charles Cole and Mrs. William Goedecke, of Pendleton. The ladies were among those accompanying the Pendleton boosters to Walla Walla.

Among the ministers in attendance on the Ministerial association sessions this week were the Rev. John Evans and Rev. Edw. Baker, former pastors of the Methodist church in Athena. Rev. Evans now has the pastorate at Grangeville, Idaho.

Weston Leader: Mrs. Nancy Jacobs, well known in this county as one of the earliest of the pioneer women of Oregon and as a survivor of the Whitman massacre, has been visiting friends at Weston.

"Bill" McBride was in town from his ranch yesterday. He has his farm work well up and will soon be ready to go fishing. It beats the band how sporty some fellows get to be when they become ranchers.

Everything is reported to be working nicely for a successful county school track meet and oratorical contest in this city on Saturday, May 14. Programs will be distributed throughout the county next week.

Jameson's meat market is being equipped with a modern cold storage plant. The ice and storage room is 10x16 feet, 13 foot high and when completed will be sufficient capacity to hold several hogs, hogs, veals etc.

The ladies of Athena and vicinity were served nine and one-half gallons of ice cream at Byron Hawks' opening day at the Pioneer drugstore Friday. Mr. Hawks handles Ferndale ice cream exclusively. His soda fountain is presided over by Roy Burke.

A. L. Swaggart has the knack of making hay whether the sun shines or not. For instance, he was in town Wednesday when the Pendleton boosters were here, and copping one of them out of the bunch, sold one of his thoroughbred Poland Chinas to him.

Misses Crockett and McPherson, of Pendleton, were week end guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. MacKenzie Meldrum. A small dinner party was given in their honor Saturday evening, by the hostess, which was attended by Misses Zelma DePeatt and Nellie Mulkey of this city.

Will Littlejohn says he can scare up a team of married men who can put it over any nine unmarried men in Athena playing base ball. He would prefer playing the game about next Thursday, for money, chalk or sawdust. Talk up a game.

Services will be held in the Waterman school house Sunday both morning and evening. The first quarterly meeting of the conference year will be held May 13-15 by Rev. E. W. Achilles. Prayer meeting every Thursday evening.

Rev. Edw. P. Zeller, Pastor.

George Mahar, an electrician formerly employed at Spokane and Walla Walla, is on duty in the electrical department of the Preston-Parton Milling company in this city. Mr. Mahar is an efficient workman and will have charge of the company's light and power plant. He is accompanied by his family, who will reside here.

The promoters of the Pine creek irrigation project have filed their maps of the reservoir site and canals with the state engineer, and the papers have been accepted by that official, says the Weston Leader. They have filed upon 14,000 acre feet of water and the canals extend to the east and west of Weston, covering thousands of acres of fertile land.

Saturday, April 30, was the 72nd birthday of Dr. Leonard Dell, and the day was celebrated by a dinner given by his excellent wife, at which the guest of honor was their little granddaughter, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dell, the other member of the party being their son, York Dell. The little girl was made happy by being laden with flowers on her departure.

The program for the County School Track meet and Oratorical contest does not appear in today's Press for the reason that Prof. Case did not receive the entries from outside schools until too late for publication. Everything is being done to make the event, which takes place in this city Saturday, May 14, a success in every particular. A great deal of interest is being manifested by the schools of the county.

Temperance Rally.

A great temperance rally will be held at the Methodist Episcopal church on Sunday evening at 7:30. Rev. Ralph E. Story, of Pendleton, will be the speaker. The object of the meeting is to awaken interest and arouse enthusiasm in the present campaign for local option. The facts, pro and con relative to the Prohibition propaganda will be plainly set before the citizens of our community. We invite the citizens to attend en masse and listen to the plea which will be made for state wide prohibition. Special music led by the combined choirs will be a feature of the meeting. Come and learn the true facts in the case. All are welcome. A. M. Meldrum.

Took All His Money.

Often all a man earns goes to doctors or for medicine, to cure a stomach, liver or kidney trouble that Dr. King's New Life Pills would quickly cure at slight cost. Best for dyspepsia, indigestion, biliousness, constipation, jaundice malaria and debility. 25c at all druggists.

Good Pasture.

If you want good pasture for your stock, where there is plenty of grass and good water, at $1.25 per month, write G. W. Johnson, Weston, R. F. D. No. 2.

The Belgian stallion, Commissaire, No. 32870, will be in Athena at Wright's feed stable for the season. Terms, $10, $15 and $20.

R. E. Stewart.

For Sale—A new 5-room house in Milton; or will exchange for Athena property. For particulars, see Emery Achilles, Athena.

Friday & Saturday

May 6 and 7, at Athena's Department Store. A treat for all lovers of the Beautiful and Useful.

Hanger & Thompson

of Walla Walla, will display and offer for sale their handsome line of spring wearing apparel. Ladies' and Misses Dresses and exquisite Tailored Suits, Wraps, etc.

Those Celebrated Parisiana Corsets

have arrived, and our new arrivals of Red Cross Shoes are beauties. Drop in and see them. They'll please you

Athena Department Store

Carpets

Art Squares and Rugs

PRICES

right, Goods right, and you can't beat 'em at Walla Walla or Pendleton, either

MILLER THE RUSTLER, Main Street, Athena.

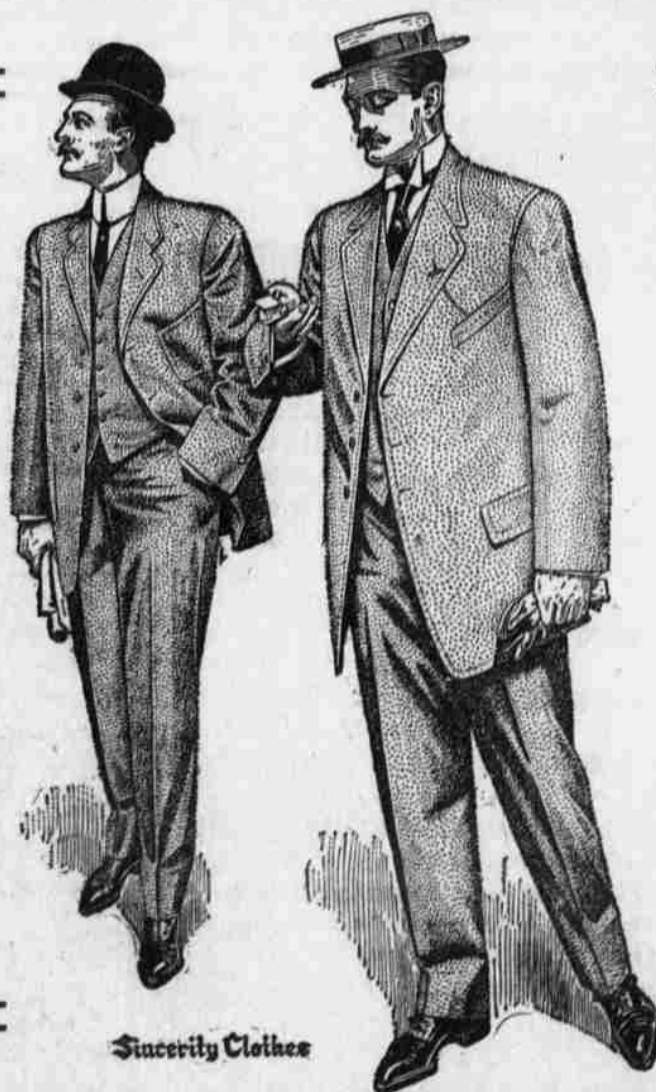

Mosgrove Mercantile Co

Spring days bring the necessity for many changes in wearing apparel. So with the most attractive and extensive stock we have ever carried, we are ready for your critical examination. We commend the new styles in Suits, Hats and Furnishings to your consideration. No store can undersell us on equal quality and none offer the premier lines we submit to your approval

We are now carrying the largest line of hand-tailored and high grade Mens and Boys ever seen in this section. The best Styles, the best workmanship, the best linings that can be put in first-class garments.

Suits

Sincerity Clothes

We are sole agents for the Celebrated Gordon Hats, and we are now showing the latest and colorings of the season. The Gordon Hat always gives satisfaction; it is known at home and abroad as the best $3 hat on earth

Shapes

GREAT SPECIAL SALE OF NEGLIGEE SHIRTS.

We had an extra shipment of tan and cream Shirts sent to us by mistake, consisting of $1 and $1.25 Shirts. While they last we shall sell them at 60c and 98c.

Now for Spring

For months we have been planning the coming spring campaign. New goods are already arriving at frequent intervals while many more are on the way.

In order that no new or otherwise desirable items might be overlooked, our buyers are now scouring the eastern markets, and seeing to it that we own our merchandise at the lowest possible landed costs. In spite of advancing markets we will be able to offer our customers most items for as little and in some cases less than heretofore.

More stress than ever before will be laid on quality, ever keeping in mind the fact that "The sweetness of low prices never equals the bitterness of poor quality." The best is being culled from all lines for all tastes and all purses.

All over this great store, even in our exchange department on the third floor, our customers are protected against possible costly errors by our "Satisfaction or your money back" guarantee. With us this means refund promptly and cheerfully without quibbling or protest. Unless our friends are pleased we are not.

Wherever possible our service is to be improved to the end that we may merit in still greater volume the favors of our old friends and secure the confidence and patronage of the ever increasing number of new citizens in our midst.

No effort is to be spared to make shopping here convenient, pleasant and profitable whether in person, by proxy or by mail.

The Davis-Kaser Company

Walla, Walla Wash (The home of Greater Whifman)
Branch Store at Pasco, Wash.