

Press Paragraphs

E. G. Marquis, of Adams, was in the city Saturday.

George Forrest went down to Pendleton Tuesday.

Miss May Barnes of Weston, spent Sunday in Athena.

Attorney Watts transacted business in Pendleton Tuesday.

Miss Della Danner was the guest of friends, during the picones.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kershaw were in the city from Weston Sunday.

Sheriff Taylor came up from Pendleton Monday on official business.

Ed LeFave is carrying his arm in a sling as the result of a severe sprain.

Leon Cohen, the Pendleton merchant, was an Athena visitor Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brotherton spent the week in Franklin county, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. Cargill of Helix, were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kidder.

Lowell Rogers has purchased a new automobile. It is a seven-passenger Franklin.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Carpenter of Helix, were guests of Athena friends Saturday.

Miss Kate Maloney left Sunday for her home in Milton, after a visit with friends here.

W. D. Chamberlain returned to Pendleton Monday after attending the Caledonian picnic.

Will M. Peterson came up from Pendleton Saturday and mingled with the Scots at the picnic.

D. C. Kirk and two sons of Weston have filed on homesteads in Saskatchewan province, Canada.

Dr. F. M. Archibald, of Minnesota, has located at Weston and taken over the practice of Dr. Lazier.

Lee Teutch, formerly a Pendleton merchant, has engaged in the real estate business in that city.

A marriage license has been issued to Walter Barmore and Miss Bertha Whitney, both of this county.

George and Johnnie Ridenour came over from Walla Walla Wednesday and spent the day with friends.

Mrs. John Rothrock, who is at the Hot Lakes sanatorium, is reported to be improving slightly in health.

N. A. Miller has on display at the furniture store, two designs in rustic seats, suitable for park purposes.

Miss Lillian Keller and Mr. William Deal were united in marriage at Pendleton Tuesday, Rev. Evans officiating.

Friends in this city are concerned to hear of the indisposition of genial Dale Preston at his home in Walla Walla.

Mrs. Fred Gross was called to Brownsville Wednesday by the critical illness of her father, who is 80 years of age.

From now on, fishing parties to the Umatilla river will be the order of the day, and all kinds of fish stories will be heard.

Lawrence Lienallen was in town Saturday and showed but little effects from being kicked by a fractious mule some time ago.

Mrs. Jack Swart, of Dayton, with her three children, was a guest this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Walter west of town.

Frank Beale was in town Wednesday from his Pine creek ranch. He reports crop prospects down his way as being promising this year.

The members of the Caledonian society are thankful to the Wise Piano company for the use of two splendid instruments used during the picnic.

W. C. Russell is in Medford this week.

Mrs. A. H. Luna went to Portland Tuesday.

Mrs. A. L. Swaggart visited friends in Pendleton this week.

Charles Grant is running a lunch stand at the Pioneer picnic at Weston.

Miss Lulu Sharp will attend the Damrosch concert in Walla Walla tonight.

Mrs. N. A. Miller has returned from Pendleton an is somewhat improved in health.

The pupils of Mrs. Jennie Gains Watts enjoyed a delightful outing on the river Tuesday.

Dr. Newsom, Leo Hart and Byron Hawks have invested in West Portland Park property.

The will of the late William Temple has been filed for probate. The estate has a valuation of $110,000.

A number of Weston fans were in the city Sunday afternoon and witnessed the Athena-Pilot Rock game.

Clarence Goff, of the Palace drug store, is sole agent in Athena for International Stock Food and remedies.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Henry are soon to be residents of Athena again. Mr. Henry has sold his farm in Idaho, and will arrive in Athena in a few days.

The merry-go-round which furnished fun and amusement for the little folks during the picnic has been moved to Weston for the Pioneers' reunion.

The subject of the morning sermon at the Methodist church will be: "A Multitude in Want." In the evening the theme will be: "The Battle of Youth."

Miss Carrie Barge will meet the ladies of the Woman's Missionary society of the Methodist church at the parsonage on Wednesday afternoon, at 2 o'clock.

Herman Beverly returned to Portland Sunday evening after spending several days in Athena. He is doing well in the real estate business in the metropolis.

George Ehrhart, who with his family has been visiting at the home of his mother, Mrs. T. J. Kirk, has purchased a wheat ranch in the state of Washington.

Friends have been watching anxiously at the bedside of Grandma Gerking this week, and it seems hourly that the life's span of the aged lady will be over.

Mrs. Wilkinson and Misses Beverly, Orswell, and Wilkinson were guests yesterday afternoon of the Sunshine club at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Walter.

Mayor McEwen came in from the ranch Wednesday and pitched on to a new back at his implement store—an easy thing to do when one owns the store and the back.

Miss Lucille Kemp of Weston spent Sunday with friends in Athena. Miss Lucille was one of the successful of the Weston eighth grade, and will next year be in the High school.

Colonel Wood came over from Weston Saturday and delivered an address at the Caledonian picnic. The colonel has a host of warm friends in Athena who are always glad to welcome him.

Sanford and John Stone took out new cutting machinery Monday and are ready to harvest their alfalfa hay crop from 30 acres of Wild Horse bottom land. They expect a hundred ton yield.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Koepke entertained Mr. and Mrs. Byron Hawks, Mrs. Wilkinson, the Misses Nettie Beverly, Blanche Orswell, Valma Wilkinson and Mr. Wilson at dinner Wednesday evening.

E. A. Dudley could withstand the pressure no longer and has acquired a new automobile. The machine is a fine 45-horse power Rambler, a new car to this section of the country. Tharp Bros. have the agency.

Mrs. H. O. Worthington went over to Walla Walla Sunday, where she was called by the serious illness of her brother, Alex. McDonald.

Dr. Robert Lewis, uncle of Dr. Newsom, died on the 17th inst. at his home in Cloverport, Kentucky. Dr. Lewis had been a practicing physician for 60 years.

The people of Pilot Rock, through a letter to the Athena Commercial Association, extend a cordial invitation to all Athena people to participate in a celebration of the 4th of July at that city.

The family of Joseph Forrest this week moved to their farm near Thorn Hollow for the summer. Mr. and Mrs. Forrest will move back to town in the fall, having leased the Smith property on 5th street for another year.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Kemp, father and mother of Ira Kemp, and well known former residents of this vicinity, are visiting at the home of their son in Weston. Mr. Kemp's health has been in a declining state for some time.

Many compliments have been heard on the splendid music furnished by the Athena band during the Caledonian picnic. The boys merit all the support they are getting. A couple of new instruments are to be ordered shortly.

Jim Spence, one of the best newspaper subscription solicitors on the Pacific coast, was in the city Friday and Saturday, building up the circulation of George Robbins' Pendleton "Live Wire," a new paper which succeeds the defunct Pendleton Tribune.

Jameson's meat market is newly equipped with a Hobart sausage grinder with an electric motor. The new cold storage room with its capacity of seven tons of ice and 10 beefs is now in use, giving the patrons of the market all the advantages afforded by large city shops.

Umatilla county woolgrowers passed up the sale at Pendleton Tuesday until the next sales day, which will be June 10. By that time the growers hope the market will be in such a condition that the buyers will be willing to open the Oregon market at higher prices than those now quoted.

Athena people in large numbers were out Monday evening to see Halley's comet and to view the eclipse of the moon. A good view of the comet was had, although clouds interfered somewhat with the spectacle. Soon after the eclipse covered the moon, clouds obscured it entirely.

Uncle Tom Watts and Hugh MoArthur had a lot of fun in soliciting funds with which to paint the new bench in front of Banks & Son's office. No one escaped, and in a short time the dimes and nickels collected amounted to $1.50. The bench has been christened the "Old Settler's Seat."

Edmund Walker, Archie McIntyre, Nina Jack, Ruth Rothrock, Ruth Kidder, Resea Rothrock and Edna Jones were the successful ones in the eighth grade of the Athena school to pass the examination. Others in this grade who missed by one or two studies will have the opportunity of taking the examination again in June.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Watts and Mr. and Mrs. George Gross have returned from Eugene, where the gentlemen were delegates from the local Odd Fellows lodge which was in session last week. Mrs. Watts was the delegate to the Rebekah assembly. They had a good time, and Mr. Watts says Eugene is making wonderful strides in growth.

Miss Blanche Orswell leaves this evening for Tacoma, where she will visit relatives before going to her home in Eugene. Miss Orswell will take a course in either the Oregon or Washington university next year. She will be accompanied to Walla Walla tonight by Miss Nellie Mulkey, where the two will attend the New York Symphony concert.

Suit was filed Monday against Moses Taylor by Edward Bushman, through his attorneys, Peterson & Wilson, to collect the sum of $1900, alleged to be due upon a land trade. The complaint sets forth that the plaintiff sold land to Taylor for $2000, and that $100 was paid down while the defendant has refused to pay the remaining $1900.

All should attend the Memorial services for the soldier dead at the Christian church Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The memorial address will be delivered by A. Mackenzie Meldrum, Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock, services will be held by Gettysburg Post, G. A. R., at the cemetery, at which time the graves will be decorated.

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Mulkey were in Pendleton Wednesday. Mrs. Mulkey secured from County Superintendent Welles copies of the averages made by her eighth grade pupils in the recent examination. Some of the class failed in but one or two studies, and will thus be given an opportunity to take the examination in those studies again, examinations being held again next month.

Miss Beverly, primary teacher in the public school, was the guest of honor at the Wilkinson home Monday evening when the members of the class in German, under whose instruction they have made good progress during the school year, accompanied by other public school teachers, suddenly surprised her with their presence. Refreshments were served and the time was joyously spent in music and viewing the comet. Miss Beverly was presented with a beautiful cut glass bowl, in appreciation of her services to the class.

New Goods Just in. Always something new and of the latest conception. No holdovers, but on-the-level, clean merchandise.

If You Want:

Clean, up-to-date Merchandise at prices that don't sacrifice quality; to save the difference between a cash system and a 12 months time system, and if you don't want to help pay the loss of the credit system, buy your goods at Athena's Dep't Store.

Sole agents for Red Cross Shoes, David Adler & Sons Clothing, Captain Kidds suits for children, Curlee $2.50 and $5.00 warranted pants. On any of these we will save you 25 to 35 per cent. Latest and best novelties.

Athena Department Store

Carpets Art Squares and Rugs

PRICES

right, Goods right, and you can't beat 'em at Walla Walla or Pendleton, either

MILLER THE RUSTLER, Main Street, Athena.

Mosgrove Mercantile Co

Spring days bring the necessity for many changes in wearing apparel. So with the most attractive and extensive stock we have ever carried, we are ready for your critical examination. We commend the new styles in Suits, Hats and Furnishings to your consideration. No store can undersell us on equal quality and none offer the premier lines we submit to your approval

We are now carrying the largest line of hand-tailored and high grade Mens and Boys ever seen in this section. The best Styles, the best workmanship, the best linings that can be put in first-class garments.

Suits

Sincerity Clothes

We are sole agents for the Celebrated Gordon Hats, and we are now showing the latest and colorings of the season! The Gordon Hat always gives satisfaction; it is known at home and abroad as the best $3 hat on earth

Shapes

Now for Spring

For months we have been planning the coming spring campaign. New goods are already arriving at frequent intervals while many more are on the way.

In order that no new or otherwise desirable items might be overlooked, our buyers are now scouring the eastern markets, and seeing to it that we own our merchandise at the lowest possible landed costs. In spite of advancing markets we will be able to offer our customers most items for as little and in some cases less than heretofore.

More stress than ever before will be laid on quality, ever keeping in mind the fact that "The sweetness of low prices never equals the bitterness of poor quality." The best is being culled from all lines for all tastes and all purses.

All over this great store, even in our exchange department on the third floor, our customers are protected against possible costly errors by our "Satisfaction or your money back" guarantee. With us this means refund promptly and cheerfully without quibbling or protest. Unless our friends are pleased we are not.

Wherever possible our service is to be improved to the end that we may merit in still greater volume the favors of our old friends and secure the confidence and patronage of the ever increasing number of new citizens in our midst.

No effort is to be spared to make shopping here convenient, pleasant and profitable whether in person, by proxy or by mail.

The Davis-Kaser Company
Walla, Walla Wash (The home of Greater Fruitman)
Branch Store at Pasco, Wash.

GREAT SPECIAL SALE OF NEGLIGEE SHIRTS.

We had an extra shipment of tan and cream Shirts sent to us by mistake, consisting of $1 and $1.25 Shirts. While they last we shall sell them at 60c and 98c.