Mrs. Rockwell Carey, of Portland, is in the city for a fortnight's visit with her mother and sister, Mrs. Minsterson and Mrs. Merle Robey.

A fire on the old Foley place northwest of town destroyed a quantity of hay Tuesday. The fire was put out before it extended to adjoining grain fields.

Charley Hilyard, who has been in the employ of the O. R. & N. company for some time, is taking a layoff and is visiting friends in Weston this week.

Mrs. Newsom and little son, Max, returned home Wednesday evening from Prineville, where they visited Dr. Newsom's parents for several weeks.

The mountain apple crop promises to be a good one this season. Some of the best apples that come to Athena markets are from the mountain ranches.

The John Bannister home east of town is being remodeled throughout and when completed will be one of the most commodious farm houses in the county.

J. C. Richards, brother of B. B. Richards, has arrived in the city from Corvallis and will take charge of D. H. Sanders' threshing machine for the season.

Mrs. M. L. Watts and her friend, Miss Autin, of Eugene, are comfortably situated at Wenaha springs for the summer, having gone to that resort last Sunday.

Principal Hampton of the Pendleton High school, will spend the summer at Adams, where he will manage the wheat business for the Pacific Coast Elevator company.

F. S. Le Grow and S. F. Wilson are operating a Franklin automobile. This is Mr. Le Grow's first experience with a machine, and he is certainly making good as a chauffeur.

Wm. Booher is rebuilding the house on the Estes place below town and will make a desirable residence of it. He will also build a new barn and otherwise improve the place.

It is said that a prolific huckleberry crop is to be found on every mountain slope this year. A little later camps will be pitched in favorite localities, and berry picking will be the order of the day.

P. T. Harbour, the Weston brick manufacturer, was in the city Tuesday evening. The stork made a visit to the Harbour home Tuesday morning and left to the care of the family a baby girl.

G. W. Mitchell was down from his mountain ranch Monday. Mr. Mitchell says the crops in his neighborhood are splendid this year. He has the best barley crop this year that he has ever raised.

Mrs. A. H. Luna returned several days ago from an extended visit with friends and relatives in Portland and Condon. Mrs. Luna also visited the mountains from Condon, but did not gain any relief from the illness with which she is troubled.

The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Berlin was relieved of severe pain resulting from an abscess on the side of the neck, Saturday, when the lance was resorted to by Dr. Sharp. The little one is getting along nicely since the operation.

Rev. M. H. Marvin, of Walla Walla interested a large and appreciative audience at the Baptist church Sunday evening, on the saloon question. Rev. Marvin is a forceful, earnest speaker, and can always gain the attention of a good audience in Athena.

Mr. Mahar, the electrician, has received news from his wife, stating that she recently underwent a successful operation for appendicitis. Mrs. Mahar is visiting her parents in Hastings, Minn.

Bern Baunister is over from Wallowa county preparing to harvest his wheat crop. Athena and Weston people who have located in the Wallowa country are well pleased with conditions there.

Mrs. M. L. Akers left Wednesday for her home in Pendleton, after a couple of weeks' visit with her parents near town. Mr. Akers came up Saturday evening and spent Sunday at the Swaggart home also.

Oliver Dickenson's new farm residence has been completed and is ready for occupancy. Kidder's painters completed the finishing touches this week and Mr. Dickenson now has one of the finest houses in the county.

Friends here are shocked to hear of the death in Spokane, yesterday morning, of Miss Amelia NorDean, a beautiful young woman whose home is in Weston. She died at the home of her brother-in-law, Dr. Cashatt, of typhoid fever.

Miss Mary Peterson, a trained nurse lately of Oklahoma, was in the city from Pendleton yesterday, a guest at the home of Dr. Newsom. Miss Peterson may decide to locate in Athena for the purpose of working at her profession.

Posters are out announcing a sale of horses, mules and household goods at Wright's barn tomorrow afternoon. Athena seems to be the center for mules and horses this year. A number have been brought here from outside points and offered for sale this summer.

Charles Norris has on exhibition at his harness shop a stalk of corn that he raised in his garden, which measures 102 inches in length. Gardening with Mr. Norris is merely secondary. He says he "keeps close tab on the moon," and plants and works his ground accordingly.

F. A. Smith, a reservation farmer residing near Cayuse, died in the hospital at Pendleton Tuesday, and interment of the remains was made in Athena cemetery yesterday afternoon. The deceased was 74 years of age and is survived by a widow, two daughters and one son.

E. A. Dudley was the loser of a $40 watch with the chain, on July 3rd, presumably taken by some light fingered gentleman while he was in bathing at the Wenaha Springs pool. "Jinks" had thoughtfully removed his purse from his clothing, but forgot the watch. The loss was discovered after his arrival home.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bell returned Tuesday from Wenaha springs, making the trip down by auto in two hours. Mr. Bell met Dale Preston at the springs and reports the young man to be in a precarious condition. His eyesight completely fails him at times and he could only recognize Mr. Bell by hearing his voice.

Mrs. W. R. Taylor and daughter have returned from Corvallis where they spent several weeks visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. W. Smith. Leslie Smith whose peculiar illness was mentioned in the Press last week is somewhat improved though bleeding at the nose is still held in check by artificial means.

Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Richards and Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hill spent Sunday in the mountains east of town. Mr. Richards took the party up to see his ranch, but Bert admitted to the Press man that he would not know the ranch if he were to see it, and he further stated that while he was reasonably sure that he was on his own land Sunday, he couldn't swear to anything being there but the "south line."

Luvois McEwen, Emery Worthington and Floyd Payne went over to the Indian camp at Cayuse Wednesday evening with the object of entering races with Indian sprinters. However, the Indian runners would not race, even after all concessions asked had been met. It was evidently an off day at the celebration, for only one short distance race was pulled off in which John Pierce's saddle horse was the winner.

Dale Preston, who was taken from his home at Walla Walla to Wenaha springs, is in a serious condition from Bright's disease, at that resort. Wednesday night Dr. Keylor was summoned from Walla Walla and was met here by the Preston automobile, which conveyed him to the springs. Charles Preston and Gale Sturtevant made a quick trip down from the springs and on the return trip were accompanied by M. L. Watts of this city. It is understood that there is little if any hope for Mr. Preston's recovery.

Athena people have had the diversion of witnessing Indian horse races at Cayuse this week. Some good horses are being entered in the races. The four mile race has not yet been pulled off. Considerable interest in this race is manifested by the Indians, for in it is involved tribal sporting pride. The Nez Perces have ten head of horses, but as yet have not entered a race. The Umatillas say their Idaho brethren are playing their characteristic waiting game, in order to size up the points of the Yakima and Umatilla horses.

Good Pasture.
