Edmund Walker has gone to work in T. M. Taggart's store, entering on his duties yesterday morning.

Mrs. D. B. Jaitman and children were over from Weston Sunday, spending the day with friends.

Wheat hauling will be well under way next week, when a number of farmers will be through threshing.

H. Key, who was at one time owner of the Weston distillery, was in the city yesterday, transacting business.

Mrs. Robert Walker returned this week from an extended visit to friends in Seattle, Portland and Walla Walla.

Fay LeGrow and Dr. Newsom made a trip to Walla Walla Wednesday evening in the doctor's new Oakland car.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Betts and Mrs. B. B. Richards left this morning for the McDougal camp for a few weeks outing.

Mrs. Reese, of Milton, press superintendent for the W. C. T. U., was in the city yesterday, a guest of Mrs. H. H. Hill.

There is no activity in the local wheat market. Growers seem to feel that better prices will be offered and are content to wait for a raise.

If you want to buy, sell or rent city property, call at the office of the Athena Land company, or phone 355. Collections promptly attended to.

Dell brothers have carpenters at work remodeling the cottage which they moved from the West side to a lot they purchased from Robt. Coppock.

Sixty-five acres of wheat was out in one day's run on the John Crowe place on the reservation this week with a combine drawn by a caterpillar engine.

Will Preston is up from his home in California, visiting his sister, Mrs. Joseph N. Scott, and looking after the Preston interests in this county.

Ed. Koontz, cashier of the First National bank, has been confined to his home this week on account of sickness, being threatened with an attack of fever.

Ad Pinkerton came to town yesterday seeking treatment for a badly swollen hand, that gave indications of blood poisoning, which started from a bruised finger.

A. B. McEwen has been spending the week in town. He has about recovered from the injuries sustained from being kicked by a horse, at his farm last week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bannister and Mrs. T. J. Kirk went to the McDougal camp in the Blue mountains yesterday morning, where they will remain during the hot weather.

Mrs. A. L. Jones was taken seriously ill the first of the week while cooking for harvesters near town. She came to town and has since been under a physician's care.

Charles Coomans is back from The Dalles where he has been engaged in blacksmithing for several weeks. He has concluded to reside in Athena if he can secure employment.

In the circuit court Wednesday, Judge Bean granted a decree of divorce to Edythe McBride Lockwood from Zeph Lockwood. Peterson & Wilson were attorneys for plaintiff.

Lavois McEwen was in from the ranch Wednesday after supplies for the harvesters. With good weather the McEwen grain will be in the sack the middle of the coming week.

The monthly union temperance meeting will be held in the Methodist church in this city next Sunday evening, with Rev. Nathan Evans, of Pendleton, as the speaker of the evening.

J. E. Froome and Andy Weaver, who are engaged in truck farming, have disposed of a large amount of early cabbage at remunerative prices. They will also have a big crop of late cabbage.

Ross Payne, a popular member of the Athena band, received a new Conn trumpet by express yesterday morning. The instrument is a fine one and is a valuable acquisition to the band's equipment.

Charles Grant has leased one of the Betz buildings on Main street and is putting it in shape for a restaurant. The interior has been altered so as to give every convenience for the quick service and comfort of patrons.

Umatilla county democrats are importing J. B. Saylor, of Freewater, to become a candidate for the office of county commissioner. His friends over this way would be pleased at the opportunity of voting him into this responsible office.

A. Mackenzie Meldrum, pastor of the Christian church of this city, will go to Pendleton next Sunday evening, where he will deliver an address for the temperance forces in that city, at a union meeting to be held in the fair grounds.

General and Mrs. Morton, of Washington, D. C., were visiting in this city Monday, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. S. LeGrow. The general and his wife, who is the eldest daughter of T. P. Page, formerly of this city, are on their way to Seattle.

Mrs. Fred Gross jr. and Mrs. Arthur Douglas have arrived from Alberta. Their husbands are on the way down with stock and farming implements. The loss of two crops in succession was about all the boys' would stand for, hence their return to God's country.

The caterpillar engine which has been drawing a combined harvester on the Jerry Stone place west of Athena, has been the attraction for many visitors from this city during the past week. The machine works successfully and is giving satisfaction to the owner.

Mrs. Frank Mansfield received word some days ago of a serious accident which had happened to her brother, Lee Fountain, at Lewiston. It seems he was hauling hay, when the load tipped over, crushing him and breaking four ribs, besides causing other serious injury.

A feature at the district fair in Pendleton this year will be the big frontier celebration. The festival will be given on the order of those held at Denver and Cheyenne, and will consist of buckaroo contests, Indian parades, dances, racing, roping and other events typical of border life.

A little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Pambrun was painfully injured yesterday, by falling from the limb of a tree, which she had climbed for the purpose of gathering fruit. Dr. Sharp was summoned and found that she was hurt about the hips, but not to the extent of any permanent injury.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bannister went over to Walla Walla Tuesday, where they consulted with Dr. Blalock, Mrs. Bannister's old time physician, concerning her present bad state of health. The doctor gave her every encouragement, and advised an outing in the mountains, which will be taken at once.

The family and friends of A. J. Willaby were greatly alarmed yesterday morning. Mr. Willaby suffered a slight stroke of apoplexy, but was relieved by the prompt attention of a physician. He has not been in the best of health for some time. It is reported that he is resting as well as can be expected this morning.

T. M. Taggart has exchanged his stock of drygoods and ladies' furnishings with Mr. Campbell of the Department store for clothing and men's furnishings. He has changed his grocery stock from the east to the west side of the store room, in order to make room for the increase in his clothing stock.

J. R. Quick, representing the Fireman's Fund Insurance company, was in the city yesterday and promptly adjusted the loss sustained by A. B. McEwen, who owned the Cox dwelling which was practically destroyed by the recent Main street fire. Mr. McEwen had the house insured for $400. This insurance company, of which E. B. Richards is local agent, has a national reputation for prompt settlement of losses.

Fire destroyed Joe Key's separator Wednesday evening, the loss being total, as he carried no insurance. The crew was cleaning up a setting on the Key place, preparatory to moving to another when the machine from an unknown cause became enveloped in flames. The derrick table was also consumed. The separator was practically a new one. It will be replaced by Mr. Key's old one and his harvest work will be completed with it.

Zolo Mack, the fine colt owned by Charles Norris, has been registered in the American Trotting register as follows: Zolo Mack, t. m. foaled in 1909, by Zolock 34471; dam Maud Mack, by McAlropa 34160; grandam Polly, by Mount Vernon 4904; s. g. d. Bell, not traced. For company, Zolo Mack has a half sister owned by Fay LeGrow and all who see them pronounce them to be a span of beauties. The colts are held in special pride by Mr. Norris, and when he received Zolo's registration papers he was so overcome with elation that he proceeded to feed her his $6 panama hat; at least that is the way Charlie Barrow tells it. Any way, Norris does not wear the panama any more.
