

Press Paragraphs

Hugh McIntyre was in Pendleton yesterday.

T. M. Taggart drove over to Weston Wednesday.

H. O. Worthington was in Pendleton yesterday.

S. L. Spencer transacted business in Pendleton yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Dudley spent Wednesday at Milton.

W. W. Raymond came over from Walla Walla yesterday.

Jarman guarantees to save you money on all purchases.

Attorney G. W. Coult of Pendleton was in the city Tuesday.

Charles Keen came over from Walla Walla yesterday morning.

John Ridenour spent Sunday with friends here, from Weston.

James Fuson was in the city from Weston Wednesday evening.

Just a few drops, but it was raining and the dust is still with us.

Will Ferguson went down to Pendleton on yesterday morning's train.

S. F. Wilson and Herman Beverly were Freewater visitors on Peach Day.

Mrs. D. B. Jarman and children came over from Weston between trains Sunday.

John Weidert, who owns a ranch north of Athena, has been in the city during the week.

Miss Gertrude Wheeler of Pendleton spent Sunday in the city, the guest of Miss Ruth Kidder.

Byron Hawks, Dr. Newsom and Ernest Zerba went over to Walla Walla last evening.

Mrs. S. A. Barnes and Mrs. Jas. Kirkpatrick, of Weston, visited friends in Athena yesterday.

Miss Ethel McIntyre visited the past week at the home of the Misses Elliott, at Walla Walla.

S. A. Barnes of the Pacific Coast Elevator company, was in town from Weston Wednesday.

License to wed was granted this week to L. M. Bullock and Ollie Kell, both of this county.

Mrs. B. C. Kidder has returned to her home in this city from a visit with relatives in the country.

Mrs. L. T. McBride came over from Weston yesterday and spent the day at the home of her son, Harry.

Mrs. Casper Woodward returned home yesterday morning from a visit with relatives at Walla Walla.

Mrs. Lilly Miller requests all knowing themselves indebted to her to call at her millinery store at once and settle.

Mrs. Will Henry left for her home in Portland, the first of the week, after a pleasant visit with friends here.

A dollar saved is a dollar made. You can save the dollar by trading at Jarman's in Weston. He'll pay your expenses.

The pictures of the Jeffries-Johnson fight are on exhibition at Walla Walla this week. Several Athena men went over to see them.

Carl Christian was a visitor at Free water on Peach Day, and on his return home distributed a box of peaches among his friends.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Dickson and son, of Walla Walla, were guests last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jackson Nelson near town.

D. H. Cox, a wheat buyer of Walla Walla, was in the city Wednesday and was successful in purchasing some grain at 80 cents per bushel.

Miss Lillian McDonald, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. E. N. Hawks, for the past two months, left Monday morning for her home in Spokane.

The Preston-Parton Milling company purchased 40,000 sacks of wheat Saturday afternoon, when Manager Watts bulged the price to 80 cents per bushel.

Augustus Hill and wife, of Alberta, were in the city the first of the week, visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kidder. Mr. Hill is a brother of Mrs. Kidder.

The forces at the wheat warehouses in Athena are beginning to lean to in their strenuous work. Wheat hauling is now in full blast and the higher the pile the harder the job.

Miss Aloy Foss is down from Spokane, where she has a position as book keeper in the McDonald hardware store, and will spend a two weeks vacation with her parents here.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wheeler, accompanied by Grandma Swaggart, came up Saturday from Pendleton and spent the week at the homes of A. L. and J. M. Swaggart north of town.

Mr. Harriman, a relative of C. A. Bayrett, is in the city from Alaska.

Dr. J. D. Plamondon has purchased the Palace drugstore from C. E. Goff, and took possession this morning. The store will probably be under control of the Palace Drug Co., as formerly.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. R. McGrew have returned to their home in Portland. "Bob" went back to the metropolis looking hale and hearty, after spending several weeks in the harvest field.

D. E. Jarman, the Weston merchant, has found a new market for mountain potatoes and has shipped out the first carload of the season. The spuds were consigned to a Great Falls, Mont., firm.

Work on the cottage to be occupied by Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Mitchell is nearing completion. The place, which is owned by Dell brothers, will make an ideal home for the newly wedded couple.

Mrs. Harry Morse, nee Beulah Pambrun, died yesterday at Portland after a long illness, due to consumption. The body will arrive here tonight. Funeral arrangements have not yet been made.

Marion Jack was in town from his ranch Tuesday and told the Press man that he harvested a splendid crop this season. His wheat averaged well and from 55 acres he harvested 1805 sacks of barley.

Out of 27 teachers taking the examinations last week in Pendleton, 23 were successful. The names of Lillian D. Dobsen, Georgia Hansell, Maud Sherman and Leota Cannon of Athena are in the list.

Dr. Plamondon and Will Pinkerton spent a couple of days this week on Meacham creek, fishing and hunting. But few fish were put into the basket, but they were successful in grouse and pheasant shooting.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Walters were in the city this week from Sedro-Wooley, Wash. Mrs. Walters was formerly Miss Winnie Fischer, and while in the city they were guests of her sister, Mrs. Lillie Miller.

Semi-Centennial services will be held at Weston Mountain church on Sunday, morning August 21st, in commemoration of the organization of the Free Methodist church, which occurred on August 23rd, 1860.

Ewd. P. Zeller, Pastor.

Mr. and Mrs. Bern Bancister and family arrived this week from Walla Walla county, where they went several weeks ago to reside. They were glad to get back, and hereafter will be satisfied with Athena as an abiding place.

Miss Zelma DePeatt is making preparations to leave the first of next month for Tacoma, where she will enter the high school. She goes in company with Miss Nettie Royce, and will make her home with the family of Elmer Reeder.

The season for grouse shooting opened Monday. Either the birds were wary or had due notice of the hunters' intentions, for reports are universal from different parts of the county that few birds have been bagged to date.

The Pacific States Telephone & Telegraph company has a force of men at work building the line between this city and Meacham. It is reported that the company contemplates making extensive improvements on their lines in this vicinity.

Mrs. H. A. Rice, of Clarkston, Wash., visited this week at the Boyd home in this city. Mrs. Rice is a kinswoman of Mrs. Boyd, and has been in Portland and Pendleton for some time, visiting relatives in those cities. She left this morning for her home.

A group of Italian railroad laborers have been giving nightly concerts at their car on the O. R. & N. siding. Some very good vocalists are accompanied in their singing by an orchestra of five pieces. The concerts are greatly enjoyed by the youngsters.

Mrs. Wm. Geisler was in the city the first of the week, from Wasco, called here by the illness of her son, Jesse Smith, who was afflicted with a second attack of appendicitis. Jesse is rapidly recovering from the attack, and an operation will not be necessary.

N. A. Miller, the furniture dealer, is in Portland this week, where he is purchasing a big stock for the fall and winter trade. Mr. Miller is thoroughly up to date when it comes to furniture and house furnishings, and the stock carried by him would do credit to a city much larger than Athena.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Swaggart, with their little son, recently torn in Pendleton, arrived in the city Tuesday and went out to the Swaggart home near town. Frank is very proud of his son, torn August 5, 1910. He returned Wednesday, to finish his harvesting operations south of Pendleton.

Mrs. Sarah Bowles, who has been spending the greater part of the summer in Athena, will return today to her home in Walla Walla. Her daughter, Miss Laura Bowles, has been traveling through the east and south during her summer vacation, and will be home next week, to resume her position in the Walla Walla high school when the fall term begins.

Marshal Gholson was a Pendleton visitor Saturday. Mr. Gholson went to the county seat for the purpose of investigating a ball-bearing attachment on the electric pump used at the power station of the city waterworks.

A similar pump is in use here and has been giving trouble. The attachment was put on the pump at the local power plant, and since it has worked satisfactorily.

HARVEST IS OVER

Now is the time to make another harvest with the money the grain brings to you, by investing some of it in merchandise at the Athena Department Store. Remember, we are going out of business and nothing is reserved. School soon opens and the children will need clothing and shoes. Before you buy, see our goods and get prices. We discount shoes 20 per cent. We have several lots in odd pairs which we are closing out regardless of cost. These shoes sold at from $1 to $3.50 per pair. Prices now, 60c. 90c, $1.25, $1.50 and $2.00. If we have your size here is a big saving. New goods bought before we decided to close out, all go at reduced prices. A large line of lace curtains at one-third off. We sell for cash and have it for less.

Athena Department Store

Jesse G. Campbell, Proprietor

Great Annual August Clearance Sale

The mere mention of this Sale is enough for those who are acquainted with our sales, for they are always the peer of their kind. But for those not familiar with our annual event will say that practically every article of our of bright, new home furnishings is reduced to prices heretofore unheard of.

$150,000.00 STOCK

Furniture, Carpets, Rugs, Draperies, Chinaware, Glassware, Artware and Silverware, Stoves, Ranges, Cooking Utensils and Hardware.

All are marked with the Red Sale Tags, each one telling of a great saving for you if you buy now. Freight prepaid as usual. Write for prices.

The Davis-Kaser Company
Walla, Walla Wash (The home of Greater Williman)
Branch Store at Pasco, Wash.

Mosgrove Mercantile

South Side Main Street Athena Oregon
Company

Special Notice

From no sell all Rem at actual co All ready silk, mull a Men's 2-1 Ladies' 1 usual price. Lots of low regular We mu goods, whic

B & H GREEN TRADE