

Press Paragraphs

B. B. Richards spent Monday at Pendleton.

Mrs. Vaughn was a visitor in Pendleton today.

Frank Griggs of Pendleton was in the city Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Estes spent Tuesday in Pendleton.

Charles Norris was in Walla Walla yesterday on business.

A. L. Swaggart transacted business at the county seat Tuesday.

Attorney Watts was in Pendleton Saturday on legal business.

Bert Ramsay has returned from Alberta, where he spent the summer.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Roy Tompkins, August 30, 1910, a daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Graham, of Weston, were in the city yesterday.

A carload of wood was stored at the school house yesterday, for winter use.

Mrs. W. J. Gholson has returned from a visit with relatives at Walla Walla.

Mrs. Jesse Saling of Pendleton has been visiting her parents in this city during the week.

A. H. Chandler and family, of Sossanville, Ore., spent Wednesday night at the St. Nicholas.

Clinton Kern, of Spokane, was a guest Tuesday between trains, of his sister Mrs. M. D. Vaughn.

John Montgomery, the Pendleton wheat buyer, was in the city Tuesday, the guest of B. B. Richards.

I. M. Kemp was in town from Weston Tuesday. He was accompanied by his daughter, Miss Iris.

Sam White, the Pine creek rancher, is delivering choice fruit and vegetables to his Athena customers.

Miss Della Danner of Milton spent the week at the home of her aunt, Mrs. W. K. Wall, in this city.

Herbert Parker has returned from a visit to friends in the Willamette valley, and at Pomeroy, Wash.

Rev. A. O. Hammond left Wednesday morning for Spokane, where he will attend the M. E. conference.

Z. F. Lockwood is building a new barn on his property south of the city park. The dimensions of the building are 30x36 feet.

Joe Harper, of the Preston-Parton Milling company, returned to Waitsburg Monday, after spending several days in the city.

S. F. Wilson went down to Heppner and other points in Morrow county, Wednesday, where he will view the political situation.

Mrs. H. I. Watts returned last Saturday evening from Portland, where she spent several weeks visiting relatives and friends.

The Misses Lillian and Marjorie Miller, of Baker City, nieces of Mrs. W. K. Wall of this city, were guests at her home this week.

Andrew Weaver is engaged in selling Milton fruit. He personally selects the fruit and sells it to Athena customers at reasonable prices.

L. A. Githens was able to be at the postoffice for a short time Wednesday, the first time in several days. He is slowly improving in health.

Mrs. Margaret Howe and son, Jimmie, have returned home, after several weeks spent at the Mosgrove home on the Walla Walla river.

Roy Burke has quit the harvest fields on the mountain east of town and is employed by Burke & Son as driver of the delivery wagon.

Fay LetGrow, Sam Pambrun, W. R. Taylor and Byron Hawks will leave next week for the Salmon river country on a hunting and fishing trip.

A scene of activity is presented at the Tum-a-lum lumber yard in this city. Large quantities of fuel and considerable lumber is going out daily.

W. L. Taylor, a farm hand, was held up by thugs in Pendleton Monday night, and robbed of $2, all the money he chanced to have in his pocket at the time.

Tuesday, September 6 is to be motion and equity business day in the circuit court. The grand jury will be called together September 15, and the jury term will begin September 19.

Prof. P. J. Mulkey left for his home at Rock Creek, Gilliam county, Tuesday. His household goods were shipped to Rufus, Wheeler county where he and Mrs. Mulkey will teach school.

Baled timothy hay is beginning to arrive in Athena from the mountain ranches. The hay this season is of excellent quality but the crop production was light.

The grain crops on the foot hill ranches did not yield as bountifully as they did last year, the reason given is that the soil taked as the result of the wet spring weather.

Charles Barrows returned from Portland Wednesday, where he spent several days in the wholesale houses, selecting dry goods and clothing lines for the fall and winter trade.

Aunt Jane Watts contemplates going to Kansas City, Mo., soon, where she will spend the winter with a sister. Mrs. Watts has been in ill health for some time and hopes to benefit by the change.

Miller's carload of furniture has arrived and he will tell you all about the various lines in a big ad. in next week's Press. In the shipment is included the new furniture for the Adams High school.

Read "Arizona, the 47th Star," by Governor Richard E. Sloan, and "Fremont and the Bear Flag War," by William Simpson, in Sunset for September, now on sale at all news stands, fifteen cents.

"Drift," the house dog of Will Dobson, has disappeared and caused mourning in the house of Dobson. Careful inquiry has failed to reveal his whereabouts and the old fellow has been given up for dead.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Tompkins and Lillian returned yesterday from their summer's visit to friends and relatives in Canada. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Potts have been home for several days, returning via Seattle and Portland.

Dan McIntyre, well known in Athena was married at Nanton, Alberta August 3, to Miss Sophia Williams, a young lady of Winnipeg. Though at long distance, Dan's Athena friends, through the Press, extend congratulations.

Charles May, who is employed in the Jamieson meat market, sent for his family the first of the week, and they have arrived from Portland and are now comfortably established in the Douglas residence on Fourth and High streets.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Whitlock, of near Seattle, are expected in the city soon to visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Will Miller. Mrs. Whitlock was formerly Miss Mae Fischer, and spent her girlhood here. The couple have been on an extended tour of the east.

The Athena High school and public school will open for the school year on Monday, September 12. Principal Baker requests all prospective High school students to call at his office for the purpose of registration on Friday, September 9, between the hours of 1 and 4 p. m.

R. H. Wellman and D. C. Sanderson, editor of the Freewater Times, were Press visitors today. Mr. Wellman is an extensive farmer in the Hudson Bay country, a successful business man and a candidate for county commissioner from the north end of the county.

The meeting of the Christian Woman's Board of Missions for September will be on Wednesday the 7th, and will be held in the home of Mrs. W. E. Dobson. All members are especially urged to be present, as election of officers and other important business will be transacted.

J. F. Stover of the Red Wing Advertising company, was in the city yesterday. Mr. Stover was formerly connected with the Walla Walla Paper & Stationery company, which recently sold its holdings to Blake, McFall company of Portland, which is represented in this section by Douglas Ball.

Mrs. Lillie Miller will go next week to Portland, where she will spend the week in selecting material for her fall and winter millinery stock. Mrs. Miller will also soon receive an advance shipment of the latest style hats from the east, including a few of the genuine Gage hats. Her stock this season will be replete with all the latest novelties.

Mrs. H. O. Worthington and Miss Mattie Coppock left Tuesday morning for Spokane, where they will attend the annual conference of the M. E. church. The ladies will visit friends there, and may stop over at Pullman in which vicinity they will visit the families of Alfred Coppock and George McDonald.

Blanche, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Gerking, has been very ill the past week, and under the care of two physicians. Dr. Sattner was called from Walla Walla in consultation with Dr. Sharp. The illness of the little one is thought to have been caused from eating ice cream. She is at present on the fair road to recovery.

Vic Harris, who recently purchased a ten-acre tract south of the city park is making arrangements to build a six-room cottage and a barn. The barn will be complete in detail, having a basement, and the dimensions of the building will be 30x36 feet. Mr. Harris is planning to engage in intensive farming.

J. T. Lienallen is at home in Adams nursing a broken rib and numerous bruises as the result of being thrown from a hack. In company with his son, Lawrence, Mr. Lienallen was driving along the road on Weston mountain when the team became frightened and started to run. The hack came in contact with a stump along the roadside and Mr. Lienallen was thrown to the ground. Lawrence held on to the team and prevented it from getting away.

Yes You Must Hurry

We know you want to get a choice big bargains that we are offering even during this great Close Out Sale. Going fast. Stocks will soon be broken. Take advantage of time and buy now. We have just opened up a line of Men's Boys and Girl's Sweater Coats. All sacrifice from the start. A full line Knit Newports. All kinds of winter wear. Nothing reserved in this sale. Remember that now is the time and the Department Store the place. We have cash and always have it for less.

Athena Department

Jesse G. Campbell, Prop.

Mosgrove Me

South Side Main Street Compar

Special N

From 1
sell all Re at actual
All rea
silk, mull
Men's 2
Ladies' usual price
Lots of low regular
We m
goods, wh

B & H GREEN TR

Home Furnishings For Fall

Right now at the beginning of Fall you should rest your home or at least add a new piece here and there to make your home bright and cheerful for the winter months. Look around your home and you are sure to see something that should be changed—even something at a small cost will add the desired effect.

Our Store is so Full of the things that make home life worth living that we want you to come and look through even if you do not intend to buy now, for you are just as welcome at Davis-Kaser's whether you are buying or looking. The next time you are in Walla Walla make our store your meeting place.

The Davis-Kaser Company
Walla, Walla Wash (The home of Greater Whitman)
Branch Store at Pasco, Wash.

People of Oregon it is now Up to You

The popular Colonist Fares will again be in effect between September 15th and October 15th, during which period tickets to Athena will be on sale daily from

CHICAGO at $33.00
ST. LOUIS $32.00
OMAHA 25.00
KANSAS CITY 25.00
ST. PAUL 25.00

and from other cities correspondingly low. These are Westbound, one-way fares only, but anyone here can Prepay for relatives or friends in the East, if desired. Consult your local railroad agent

Now is the Time to let the world know of our vast resources and splendid opportunities for Home Building. Write to everyone you know in the East. Send them good instructive printed matter, and tell them that the cost of getting here is but little more than half the usual cost, and to call upon a representative of the

O R & N Company

for all desired information, or address

WM. McMURRAY

General Passenger Agent, : PORTLAND, OREGON.