

Press Paragraphs

Claud Steen was in the city yesterday.

Pearl Hales was in town yesterday from Adams.

Will Jamieson was a Pendleton visitor Wednesday.

Dr. Watts of Coeur d'Alene, was in the city Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Barrett were in Pendleton yesterday.

Bert Wilson has purchased John Estes' near beer saloon.

Mrs. Edward E. Koontz visited in Walla Walla Wednesday.

Don't forget the pastry sale at Worthington's store tomorrow.

Colonel Lucas, the Weston auctioneer, was in the city Tuesday.

The October term of the county court convened Wednesday morning.

Louis Van Winkle, a prominent Weston farmer, was in the city yesterday.

B. F. Swaggart was the city yesterday from his stock ranch near Heppner.

E. G. Marquis of Adams, won first prize on garden vegetables at the Pendleton fair.

Mrs. Charles Norris returned Wednesday from a visit to friends at St. Johns, Wash.

F. S. LeGrow was at Walla Walla Tuesday. He brought home a fine bird dog puppy.

The family of Joseph Forrest will move in from the ranch in a couple of weeks for the winter.

Henry Keen has purchased lots 9 and 10 in block 6, Richards' addition to the city of Athena.

W. E. Dobson and Al. Sigman left for the Grand Ronde river Wednesday, on a hunting trip.

Mrs. Henry Keen and Mrs. Lola Payne spent Wednesday at the Holcomb home in the country.

Louis Hoagins has leased the Weidert ranch of 800 acres north of Athena, and has moved to the place.

Miss Ada Defreese is at Waitsburg, where she will serve as manager of the telephone office for a few weeks.

For Sale—A first class milch cow; teen fresh only three weeks. Apply to Louis Ringel, Athena, Oregon.

Ernest Zerta, assistant cashier of the First National bank, is taking his vacation and is in Colfax this week.

Grover Gerking came up from his home in Crook county last week, and will stay in this vicinity for some time.

The Athena band is again meeting in regular rehearsals. The band meets for practice on Wednesday evenings.

D. B. Jarman, the Weston merchant, conducted a suit and cloak sale in this city Wednesday and Thursday of this week.

C. E. Goff came in from La Grande Sunday, and accepted a position with the Pacific States Telephone and Telegraph company.

The Ladies' Band of Weston has been engaged to furnish music for the speaking at the opera house next Wednesday evening.

A marriage license was issued by the county clerk to George McHargue of Douglas county, and Miss Rena Lewis of this county.

Chance Rogers was in the city Wednesday from his farm near Weston, and reports his wife still improving from her recent attack of typhoid fever.

S. L. Spencer has sold the cottage east of the old Christian church building to Bud White for $500. Mr. Spencer will invest the proceeds from this sale in another dwelling which he will rent.

Ralph McEwen was in from the ranch a few days ago. He is overseeing the fall work and has three men under his supervision.

Bert Warren will farm in the Cold Spring district. His postoffice address hereafter will be Helix, he having moved onto his rented farm this week.

James Callen, a section foreman for the O. R. & N. company at Umatilla, committed suicide in the Penland lodging house in Pendleton Wednesday morning.

Miss Bertha Gross is up from Portland, visiting relatives in this vicinity this week. Miss Gross is a recent graduate of the School of Oratory of Salem.

The Ladies' Aid society of the M. E. church have made extensive preparations for the pastry sale which will take place tomorrow at the Worthington store.

J. E. Jones, salesman in the grocery department of the Mosgrove Mercantile company's store, will go to the Salmon river country on a bear hunt next week.

The father of Harve Whiteman died yesterday at his home near Milton, and interment will take place in the Athena cemetery after the 4:10 train this afternoon.

Mrs. F. E. Parkyn, of Lewiston, Idaho, was a guest of Mrs. B. B. Richards the first of the week. Mrs. Parkyn has been on a short visit to the Eastern states.

Uncle Fred Gross has been confined to his home for some time with illness. Yesterday he was reported somewhat improved, but is still in a very feeble condition.

Mrs. H. H. Hill will be home the latter part of the week, after a stay in Lewiston of several weeks. Her mother, whom she has been attending is materially improved in health.

Burke & Son are engaged in constructing a new coal shed on the O. R. & N. right of way in which will be stored their winter supply of fuel. The building will be 16x30 feet in dimensions.

The linemen are replacing telephone poles along Main street this week. The company is making extensive improvements. New wires are being strung and the entire system is undergoing permanent repairs.

A card from Mrs. Jane Watts announces that she arrived at her destination, Kingsville, Mo. Friday morning, at 8 o'clock, had a pleasant journey and was well. Mrs. Watts left Athena the Tuesday previous.

All members of the Athena Commercial Association are requested to be present at a special meeting to be held in the Commercial room next Wednesday evening, October 12. By direction of B. B. Richards, president.

J. T. Leallen was in the city yesterday from Adams. Mr. Leallen was nominated by the democrats in the primaries for the office of representative but as yet has not decided whether he will make the campaign.

Mrs. Claude Reeder, of Tacoma, with her baby, was in the city over Sunday a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mansfield. Mrs. Reeder left Monday for Walla Walla, where she will visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Owen.

Athena near beer sellers indicted by the grand jury, have given bonds to appear in the circuit court when their cases are called. It is understood that each will enter a plea of not guilty. Attorney Watts has been retained to represent the defendants.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hummel have taken up their residence in one of the Hiteman cottages. Mr. Hummel has been employed in the well drilling business and worked for Miller & West when they bored the artesian well for the Athena Land & Trust Co.

I. L. Van Winkle, the photographer, will discontinue business in Athena October 24, and if you ever expect to get photos at low prices now is your opportunity. To dispose of the stock on hand, he will make a reduction on all work from present low prices. Photos from $1 per dozen up. He guarantees to please all and his prices will be one-third below those at Walla Walla or Pendleton.

Capt. S. T. Isaacs, the veteran postmaster of Helix, suffered a paralytic stroke yesterday. This is the second time the old gentleman has been so stricken, and his condition is serious. He is at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Frank Perham, in Pendleton.

Mrs. Kidwell, who has been the guest of Mrs. A. A. Foss for several days, returned to her home at Walla Walla Wednesday evening. She was accompanied by Miss Kitie Gholson, who may accept a position in the music department of the Davis-Kaser store.

Mrs. George Mahar, wife of the electrician, arrived home Tuesday evening from a three months' visit to relatives in Hastings, Minn., accompanied by her three children. Mr. and Mrs. Mahar reside in one of the Hiteman dwellings in the northeast part of town.

Mrs. Ed Barr, who was injured in an automobile accident at Pendleton during the fair, died as the result of injuries sustained, Wednesday morning. She had been in a hospital since the accident and suffered much pain. Mrs. Barr before her marriage nine years ago, was Miss Flo Estebrook.

"Old man" Bennett, the judge of the baby show at Pendleton, fell an easy victim to the charms of Raymond Leroy, the seven-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Burke of this city, and the handsome youngster was awarded first prize over all the babies on exhibition at the fair last Saturday.

Postmaster Githens, who has been a very sick man for many weeks, is gradually failing and now is in the last stages of Bright's disease. There is no hope for his recovery. For the past two months Mr. Githens has not been able to look after the affairs of the postoffice, his son Harold officiating as postmaster.

At Weston next Thursday, October 13 A. Phillips will offer at auction sale, six head of registered Percheron mares and stallions, a registered jack, several head of horses, farm implements, gasoline engine, feed cutters etc. Don't fail to attend this sale. A good time good stock, good bargains and a good free lunch. Sale begins at 10 o'clock.

Charles Powers, a linotype operator employed on the San Francisco Call, has been visiting at the home of his father at Weston for several days. In company with his brother William, he paid a visit to the Press office Wednesday. Mr. Powers is a veteran printer, having served his apprenticeship in the office of the Weston Leader many years ago. He took kindly to the metropolitan appearance of the Press shop and left the impression that he has not had much to do with Wood since arriving at Weston.

Charles Norris has a splendid display of apples at his harness shop. The fruit is from the farm of W. D. Parker, of St. John, Wash. Spokane Beauty, Jonathan, Winter Banana and Rhode Island Greenings are the varieties in the collection. One of the Spokane Beauties is mammoth in size, measuring 14 inches in circumference and weighing one and three-quarter pounds. There are three apples of this variety which bear down the scales in a total weight of four and one-half pounds.

The Sunshine Club met with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Koepke Oct. 6, those present being Rev. and Mrs. Mackenzie Meldrum, Rev. and Mrs. Thomas Lawson, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schmitt, Mrs. Wm. Piper, Mrs. James Potts, Mrs. Casper Woodward, Mrs. Chas. Gerking, Mrs. M. Howe, Mrs. W. H. Kissler, Misses Lula and Stella Lieuallen. Refreshments were served by the hostess and her assistant. A peanut hunt was a feature of entertainment and a general good time was greatly enjoyed by all. A vote of thanks was given Mr. and Mrs. Koepke for the pleasant afternoon.

Mrs. Plamondon is in receipt of a post card from Mrs. R. B. Whitehead who with Mr. Whitehead at present resides at Orland, California. On the reverse side of the card is a photo of Mrs. Whitehead taken in hunting costume and hanging on a tree beside her is a deer which fell before the unerring aim of the lady while on a recent hunting trip, during which both she and her husband brought down a deer. Rattlesnakes were close neighbors, and the lady also distinguished herself by killing a huge one, and as a memento of her daring, the rattles now add to the resonance of her violin. Mr. Whitehead is in the employ of the government.

A Good Position Can be had by ambitious young men and ladies in the field of "Wireless" or Railway telegraphy. Since the 8-hour law became effective, and since the Wireless companies are establishing stations throughout the country there is a great shortage of telegraphers. Positions pay beginners from $70 to $90 per month, with good chance of advancement. The National Telegraph Institute of Portland, Ore., operates six official institutes in America under supervision of R. B. and Wireless officials and places all graduates in positions. It will pay you to write them for full details.

The Great Trouble. "It is every woman's duty to keep young as long as possible," she said. "Yes," he admitted, "but the great trouble is that so many young women insist on keeping young after it is impossible."—Chicago Record-Herald.

HAVE YOU SEEN

our new lines of Trunks and Suit Cases, mens and boys Overcoats, Ladies' and Misses Coats and Capes, Sweater Coats for Ladies' Misses, Men and Boys, Toggles for Children, Ladies' Newporters and Mufflers.

These goods were bought before we decided to close out and now we have them on hand and must close them, and to show prices on some of these goods, we quote the following:

Men's $15.00 Overcoats.....	$11.50
Men's $20.00 Overcoats.....	$15.50
Men's $25.00 Overcoats.....	$19.50
Men's $20.00 Cravenettes.....	14.75
Men's $15.00 Cravenettes.....	11.00
Boy's $6.00 Overcoat.....	4.50
Boy's $5.00 Overcoats.....	$ 3.25
Ladies' $11.00 Capes.....	8.50
Ladies' $14.00 Coats.....	11.50
Ladies' $25.00 Coats.....	20.00
Ladies' $12.00 Coats.....	9.60
Misses $6.00 Coats.....	4.50
Misses $4.50 Coats.....	$3.50
Misses $7.50 Coats.....	5.50
Trunks, former price, $5.50, now ..	4.50
Trunks, former price, $2.00, now ..	1.60
Trunks, former price, $13.00 now ..	10.50

Remember, the place. We sell for cash, and you can always get it here for less.

Athena Department Store

Jesse G. Campbell, Proprietor

Mosgrove Mercantile

South Side
Main Street

Company

Athena
Oregon

Latest Arrivals

In the City

The largest line of Ladies' Fall and Winter Footwear

We have just received our Fall and Winter stock of the celebrated Utz and Dunn Ladies' Shoes. We carry all the grades, from $2.50 to $5.00 per pair. Their line includes all the latest novelties in lasts and finish.

We want the trade and confidence of the people who want to wear good Shoes which means everybody around here, but we don't want it

Unless We Deserve It.

If an honest line of goods appeals to you, if you want a perfect Shoe fit, if you want the very latest styles; if you believe in reliable goods made by the best of makers, then we would respectfully solicit your patronage. Remember us when it comes to

The Best in Shoes.

Ours is the "Quality Store"—known far and near by that name—and the term is applicable to our immense stock of Shoes in common with other lines we carry.

B. & H. GREEN TRADING STAMPS WITHEVERY CASH PURCHASE

Home Furnishings For Fall

Right now at the beginning of Fall you should refit your home or at least add a new piece here and there to make your home bright and cheerful for the winter months. Look around your home and you are sure to see something that should be changed—even something at a small cost will add the desired effect.

Our Store is so Full of the things that make home life worth living that we want you to come and look through even if you do not intend to buy now, for you are just as welcome at Davis-Kaser's whether you are buying or looking. The next time you are in Walla Walla make our store your meeting place.

The Davis-Kaser Company
Walla, Walla Wash (The home of Greater Visitation)
Branch Store at Pasco, Wash.