WEST IS GOVERNOR

Democratic Candidate Defeats Bowerman—Republicans Lose Eastern States—State and County Wet.

The result of one of the hottest political campaigns ever waged in Oregon gives to the state Oswald West, democrat, for governor. He is returned victor over Jay Bowerman, republican assembly candidate. West gave Bowerman a close race in Portland and Eastern Oregon, and led his opponent in Southern Oregon, where the people rewarded him for his work in bringing the Southern Pacific freight rates down to a reasonable basis. Of his election, Mr. West says in a letter of appreciation to the newspapers of the state:

"My election is not a personal victory for me, but a triumph of the direct primary, Statement One and rule by the people. Thousands of Republican votes were given to me on this issue and as a protest against assemblyism. Along with my public record, I made opposition to the assembly and to corporation domination in politics, the chief issues in my campaign. The endorsement that the people have given me is their seal of approval of the things I stood for and stand for. I thank them and all my friends for it, and assure them that so far as in my power lies they will not have cause to regret the choice they have made.

"To the newspapers of the state whose loyal support was given me, I am deeply grateful. Oregon is a splendid commonwealth. Its system of government is an inspiration to the country, and one of the state's greatest public assets. To overthrow or mutilate that system would, in my judgment, be a crime, not only against Oregon and its people, but against the people of the whole country. It is a system that is progress, that is government by conscience in public affairs and that should stand unharmed and unchanged.

"As governor I shall not be the representative of any class, faction or clique but shall be the public servant and active agent of all the people and shall in co-operation with all our citizens, work for a developed, a greater and a united Oregon.

"OSWALD WEST."
Lafferty and Hawley, republicans, have been elected to congress. State wide prohibition is defeated, and Umatilla county is in the wet column.

Home rule will win in the state and 12 Oregon counties previously dry went wet; the Weston normal school bill is defeated by Western Oregon votes; all county division schemes are defeated; West leads Bowerman by 8000.

Taylor and Maloney were all the democrats got out of the republican victory in the election, Tuesday.

Barrett defeated Hall in the county by a two to one vote; Burgess won over Smith by nearly 300 votes; Maloney nosed out ahead of Hill and Cockburn won from Saylor. Bowerman carried the county by less than 200 votes. Prohibition was defeated by approximately 500 and home rule is two votes behind.

PREPARING FOR ATHLETICS

Main Street Building Being Put in Shape for Gymnasium.

The Athena High school is considerably interested in athletics this year and the old Fair Store building on Main street has been secured for basket ball practice and games.

Those having the matter in charge hope to secure funds to put in a shower bath. Already a nest sum of money has been secured through popular subscription which will be used to start the basket ball squad in an easy path financially.

The building that has been secured could be devoted to a first class gymnasium with but little rearrangement. There is ample room for all apparatus needed in gymnastic work, and if the young men of the town can be prevailed upon to co-operate with the High school students, the opportunity is at hand to secure a creditable institution of this character for Athena.

The school is now possessed of a considerable quantity of gymnastic appliances and a few dollars more expended judiciously would secure a splendid athletic institution, the advantages of which would be of great benefit to the membership.

Miss Bessie McKay Married.

At the home of the bride's parents on their ranch near Russell creek, about seven miles southeast of Walla Walla, the wedding of Miss Bessie McKay and Oscar M. Shelton, both well known young people of that community, was solemnized Sunday afternoon at 5 p. m., Rev. E. M. Clingan, pastor of the First Presbyterian church officiating, using the ring ceremony. Only the immediate friends and relatives of the bride and groom were present, and the house was decorated in autumn leaves and flowers. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Angus McKay, and a half sister of Wm. Winslip and Mrs. W. J. Gholson, of this city, while the groom is a well known young man of Walla Walla.

Poultry Show at Pendleton.

Pendleton will have a big poultry show lasting one full week commencing December 13. The poultry exhibition is now a permanent feature for Pendleton, it having recently been incorporated under the name of the Umatilla-Morrow County Poultry Association. Last year's exhibit was declared to be the most successful "first show" ever held in the Northwest and hereafter there promises to be a splendid collection of poultry on view at each annual exhibition. Pens have been arranged so that over 1,000 fowls can properly be housed at the approaching show.

New Merchant Possible.
One week from tomorrow the Athena Department Store owned by Jesse G. Campbell will discontinue business and unless the remaining stock is sold, it will be shipped to Oakesdale, Wash. But there is a possibility that it will be disposed of to a party who is negotiating for the purchase of the store. The name of the person is not given out by the Department Store people, but he is said to have formerly conducted a mercantile business at Union, Oregon.

LANDSLIDE IN EAST

Vast Democratic Winnings Show That Party Will Have Substantial Majority in Congress.

Not only will the democrats control the sixty second congress but they will have a substantial working majority, will elect their own speaker and generally control the house. They gained forty seats in congress while republicans gained three, giving the democrats a net gain of 37. There was a democratic landslide the whole country over.

The United States senate will probably have a reduced republican majority as a result of legislative elections held in many states.

In New York, John A. Dix, democratic candidate for governor, is elected over Henry L. Stimson, republican, by 42,487 reversing the republican plurality of 70,000 in 1908 for Governor Hughes. The returns give the democrats a majority of 25 in the legislature insuring a democratic successor to Senator Dewey.

In New Jersey, Woodrow Wilson, democratic for governor, is elected over Vivian M. Lewis, republican, by about 15,000, reversing the previous republican plurality of 8,000 for Governor Fort.

In Massachusetts, Eugene N. Foss, democrat, has defeated Governor Eben S. Draper, republican, for re-election by about 30,000, reversing Governor Draper's former plurality of 8900.

In Connecticut Judge Baldwin, democrat is elected governor over Charles A. Goodwin republican by about 4000 reversing the previous republican plurality of 16,000.

In New Hampshire, Robert P. Baas, republican candidate for governor, is leading C. E. Carr, democrat, by about 6,000.

In Pennsylvania the election of John R. Tener republican for governor is claimed by a large plurality.

In Rhode Island Governor Pothier republican, is elected by a plurality of 1200.

In Tennessee, the fusion candidate, Ben. Hooper, is apparently elected by 15,000.

Democratic governors have been elected in Alabama and South Carolina.

In Iowa the democrats claim the election of Claude R. Porter for governor, but this is not yet conceded.

In Wisconsin the election of the republican candidate for governor, Francis E. McGovern, is claimed by a reduced majority, and the return of Senator LaFollette to the United States senate is assured.

In Michigan, Charles S. Osborne, republican candidate for governor appears to have a safe lead over his opponent.

"Hogs Is Hogs."

Wood, of the Weston Leader, is wise on hogs. He says: Pigs are pigs, and hogs are hogs, and fat hogs mean purses. It is regrettable that more of our farmers do not recognize this fact. The few who have gone into hog-raising in a systematic manner find that they can always realize a better price for their wheat by feeding it to good hogs than by selling it at the market price. The Leader hears this week of the experience of R. E. Stewart, who bought a brood sow last December, weighing 100 pounds. This year the sow raised nine pigs. Last Friday the mother weighed 505 pounds and was bought by Will Jamieson for nine cents a pound. He paid nine and a half cents for four pigs weighing 1030 pounds and Mr. Stewart realized a total of $148.30 in cold cash. He has five pigs left, and these represent "clear velvet." Raise more hogs friends, and subscribe for the Weston Leader, whose agricultural editor is always ready with sage advice. (Put the sage in your sausage.)

Banker Repairs Losses.

Seventeen years ago the Walla Walla Savings Bank failed and the depositors did not receive a cent. Saturday John Sharpstein of that city, who was counsel for the president of the bank, received a check for $2000 from J. K. Edmiston, the president, to apply on these debts. Edmiston, after four trials, was convicted of receiving money when he knew the bank was insolvent and sentenced to a year in prison. Released on bail while awaiting another trial, he disappeared. Only once was he heard from, when he sent money from Egypt to pay bills in Walla Walla. He intends, it is said, to pay the depositors in full.

Aged Man Injured.

George Bentley, an aged resident of Adams, was seriously injured in that town Saturday in a runaway accident. He was thrown from the wagon and one wheel passed over him, breaking his collar bone and several ribs.
