Location of Garden of Eden. The late General Gordon firmly believed the Coco de Mer to be the forbidden fruit, and the Seychelles islands to be the site of the Garden of Eden. This idea was so firmly fixed in his mind that he caused soundings to be taken of the surrounding sea, for the purpose of tracing the courses of the four rivers, and the results confirmed him in his belief.

METHODICAL MR. BLINXOM.
His Mysterious Gain of Two Minutes Made Clear to Him.
 "I am, I have been all my life," said Mr. Blinxom, according to the New York Sun, "a very methodical man. I rise at a certain hour, take my breakfast at a certain time and start downtown daily always at a certain minute by the clock; but this day for some unaccountable reason I found myself starting two minutes early, and really it quite disturbed me. I couldn't understand how or where I had gained that two minutes."
 "But that wasn't the only bewildering thing that was to happen to me this morning. At the office when I took off my hat the office boy, before he could check himself, started back from me with a look of astonishment. A man who came in to see me five minutes later looked at me for a moment with what was clearly amazement, and another man who came in a little later still started back a step when he saw me with 'Er-r-r—hm—hm—ha—' before he collected himself and got down to business."
 "Then, at a later time yet, when I sent for my stenographer, who is commonly very calm and sedate, why, when she came in she all but laughed at me this morning, and she seemed to be quivering with merriment over something all through my dictation. What could it all mean? Really, I was lost in wonderment over it all until it came time to go out to luncheon, when, as I was drying my hands, I happened to see myself in a mirror. Then I was ready to laugh after I had got over my amazement."
 "My head looked like that of the wild man of Borneo, my hair was so matted up and twisted and tousled. I had somehow forgotten to comb my hair this morning, and no wonder I had created a commotion. But I was glad of one thing. This made it all clear to me how I had come to gain that two minutes in starting away from home, and that was a satisfaction to me, anyway, for I am very 'methodical.'"

SOUTH AMERICAN CITIES.
 Modern Spirit Seen in Argentina, Brazil, Chile and Peru.
 The municipality of Buenos Aires will have its own exhibit, but this will not take into account the indescribable attractiveness of the largest city in the Southern Hemisphere. Here alone is an object lesson of the progress and accomplishment of South America. The business and social life there is equaled only by that of London, Paris or New York. The luxury and display are exceeded not even by these capitals. But what is seen in the metropolis of Argentina by no means exhausts the astonishment of the individual who for the first time becomes really interested in our sister continent, says Albert Hale in the American Review of Reviews. There is no place in the exhibition for illustration of the development of genuine civilization in these cities of South America, but in their way they express even better perhaps than railways and transportation all that is to the credit of these ten republics celebrating a natal day. Manaus, 1,000 miles up the Amazon, is as modern as Kansas City. Rio de Janeiro, which the traveler on the way down must pass, with its magnificent Evenden Central, its beautiful harbor just nearing completion at a cost of $50,000,000, can put to the blush many a city of the Old or New World for the excellence of its civic progress. If this traveler is wise he will not be content with the exhibition alone, but will cross the Andes and learn further lessons from such cities as Santiago and Valparaiso in Chile and Lima in Peru. They all manifest the spirit of the twentieth century with as much vigor as our cities display and, as a rule, they are far more beautiful, surprising as the statement may appear to the untraveled North American.

 Fussy and Choleric Old Gentleman Forces Money Onto Wrong Individual—Had His Way.
 A lively looking porter stood on the rear platform of a sleeping car in the Grand Central station when a fussy and choleric old man clambered up the steps. He stopped at the door, puffed for a moment, and then turned to the man in uniform.
 "Porter," he said, "I'm going to Chicago. I want to be well taken care of. I pay for it. Do you understand?"
 "Yes, sir; but—"
 "Never mind any 'buts.' You listen to what I say. Keep the train boys away from me. Dust me off whenever I want you to. Give me an extra blanket, and if there is any one in the berth over me, slide him into another. I want you to—"
 "But, say, boss, I—"
 "Young man, when I'm giving instructions I prefer to do the talking myself. You do as I say. Here is a two-dollar bill. I want to get the good of it. Not a word, sir."
 The train was starting. The porter pocketed the bill with a grin and swung himself to the ground.
 "All right, boss!" he shouted. "You can do th' talkin' if you want to. I'm powerful sorry you wouldn't let me tell you—but I ain't goin' out on that train."

OH, THAT'S IT!
 "Your husband is crazy to go up in an aeroplane, isn't he?"
 "Yes, and I have promised him that he may do so a year from now."
 "Do you think aeroplanes will be so much improved in a year's time?"
 "I don't know anything about that, but his life insurance policy forbids his going up in a balloon or an aeroplane within a year."

DOCTORS ADVISED OPERATION— DECIDED TO TRY GREAT KIDNEY REMEDY.
 I want to tell you in a few words what your Swamp-Root did for me, believing that my testimony may do some other suffering person a great deal of good.
 About six years ago, I was dangerously ill, consulted three doctors, all of whom said I had kidney trouble. One of the doctors analyzed my urine and reported that I had gravel, and further said that in order to regain my health and life, an operation would be necessary. I did not want to be operated on as I was afraid that I would not recover. Someone told me of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root and said it was a reliable medicine for kidney trouble, so I decided to try it, and I went to Mr. Rose, the druggist, at 303 Central Ave., Minneapolis, and bought a bottle, took it, noticed results and continued taking it until I was entirely cured.
 Having been free from any kidney trouble for over six years, I consider that I am absolutely cured and know that Swamp-Root has the credit.
 I never fail to tell my friends about your remedy, as I believe it is the best of its kind. Your U & O Ointment is also very good. We are never without a jar in our house.
 Yours very truly,
MRS. MARGARET E. ANDERSON,
 Minneapolis, Minn.
 State of Minnesota } ss.
 County of Hennepin } ss.
 Personally appeared before me this 23rd day of Sept., 1909, Mrs. Margaret E. Anderson, of the City of Minneapolis, of the State of Minnesota, who subscribed the above, and on oath says that the same is true in substance and in fact.

Could Live on Waste.
 In the various discussions of the high cost of living, it is frequently suggested that waste is responsible for some of it. A Frenchman is reported as saying that he could live in any American village better than any of the inhabitants on what the inhabitants throw away.
 Mothers will find Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup the best remedy to use for their children during the teething period.
 Merely a Question of Comfort.
 "Now, doctor," complained a bibulous patient, "my great trouble is elephants—pluk ones. Not that I object to elephants, you understand. I like them—but they do crowd me so."—Success Magazine.
 Good Measure.
 In verse I like a lengthy deal; I like the old time bard. I like old poems like "Lucille"—you read 'em by the yard.
