Love a Sacrifice.
Love is a many-sided sacrifice. It means thoughtfulness for others; it means putting their good before self-gratification. Love is impulse, no doubt, but true love is impulse wisely directed.—H. R. Haweis.

Mother Love.
Mother love hath this unlikeliness to any other love. Tender to the object, it can be infinitely tyrannical to itself and thence all its power of self-sacrifice.—Lew Wallace.

Intentional blinding.
conscripted for the army is still met in Egypt. The means employed are either the placing of a hot needle on the cornea, producing a dense white leucoma, or a puncture often involving the lens, or by the introduction of lime or an irritant vegetable juice in the eyes.

Paris Is Tea Mad.
Paris has gone tea mad. English customs cross the channel with amazing alacrity, and now all that is said or done, all that happens in Paris, between 3 and 7 a. m., is said, is done or happens around a tea pot.—Figaro, Paris.

Russian Footwear.
All Russians have a weakness for handsome footwear and the result is that there are more pairs of showy boots worn in the czar's empire than anywhere else on earth. This preference extends to the women as well as to the men.

SHE HAD CONSTANT PAIN

Until Relieved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Dewittville, N. Y.—"Before I started to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, I suffered nearly all the time with headaches, backaches, and bearing down pains, and had a continuous pain in my left side. It made me sick if I tried to walk much, and my back was so weak that I was obliged to wear corsets all the time. But now I do not have any of these troubles. I have a fine strong baby daughter now, which I did not have before taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. A. A. GILES, Route 44, Dewittville, N. Y.

The above is only one of the thousand of grateful letters which are constantly being received by the Pinkham Medicine Company of Lynn, Mass., which prove beyond a doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, actually does cure these obstinate diseases of women, and that every such suffering woman owes it to herself to at least give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial before submitting to an operation, or giving up hope of recovery.

Mrs. Pinkham of Lynn, Mass., invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health and her advice is free.

LOST A GOOD OPPORTUNITY

Newly Married Man Riding Through Tunnel With His Bride is Made Butt of Joke by Friends.

They had just been married, and were off on their honeymoon. They found an empty compartment, but just as the train was about to start in jumped three of his workmates, who were delighted to see them. But Bertie was otherwise.

As the train was nearing a very long tunnel, the three young men began to make bets as to how long it would take them to go through it.

No. 1 reckoned five minutes, No. 2 five and a half, while No. 3 gave it as his opinion that it would be quite six minutes. They pulled out their watches, and the train dashed into the tunnel.

When they came out at the other end, the three were laughing heartily, but Bertie failed to discern any joke. At the next station, to the great relief of Bertie the three unwelcome intruders alighted.

He turned to his blushing bride. "Fancy, dearest," he said, "six minutes in that tunnel! If I had only known, I should have kissed you several times."

"Why," she exclaimed in surprise, "didn't you?"
Then it dawned upon him where the joke came in, and his dear little wife had to rebuke him on account of the forbearance of his remarks.

Side Show Troubles.
"Where is the sea circus?" demanded the visitor to the side show. "I see it is advertised on the program."

"Sorry, sir," wailed the big man in the silk hat, "but there won't be any 'sea circus' today."

"And why not?"
"Because a cat just passed through and eloped with the whole blooming circus."

A Born Copper.
"Now," said the new policeman who had been assigned to night duty, "ain't there a drawer or some place where I can lock up my watch and money till I go off duty?"

"Keep 'em on you," suggested the chief.

"But my beat's in a tough part of town ain't it? I might be robbed whilst I'm dozin'."

SUREST THING.
Political Orator—There are too many rich men in politics.
Politician—I've done all I could to make 'em spend their money.

Politician—I've done all I could to make 'em spend their money.

Saves Time.
"Pipps is not one of those fellows who hangs his clothes on a chandelier when he goes home about three o'clock in the morning slightly the worse for wear."
"No?"
"Pipps goes to bed with his clothes on."

Courtship.
"Then the duke and the heiress will not wed?"
"Seems not. The thing was mis-managed on both sides. The continental newspapers failed to co-operate properly with the American press."

A Cruel Compliment.
"Glad you are going to make such an appropriate match, Miss Oldgirl."
"Oh, thank you so much. But why do you think it so appropriate?"
"I heard you were engaged to a dealer in antiques."

Could Be Worse.
"His wife makes him stand around and that's no joke."
"Standing around is not so hard. She might make him move pictures."

Broker's Occupation.
A broker is a person who executes orders for the purchase or sale of stocks or other property; in other words an agent. The term brokerage is applied to the buying and selling of stocks or other property for others, and the fee charged for the transaction of such business is also called brokerage.

Might Be Good Idea.
It is distressing to think of the waste of time and money, and sometimes temper, which could be avoided if education in housekeeping were recognized as a part of the school curriculum.—Exchange.

Many Species of Shark.
Seventeen species of shark, some of them 25 feet in length, inhabit the far western seas, while the basking shark of the Indian ocean frequently attains a length of 50 feet.

Perfectly Natural.
"They say he fell in love with her when he saw her dancing in her bare feet." "He probably inherited his liking for bare feet. His father laid the foundation of his fortune as a chiro-podist."

Mexican Valley.
The valley in which the City of Mexico is situated is some 50 miles long by 40 broad and 7,500 feet above the sea level. It is supposed that the basin was formerly filled with water and several lakes still cover a part of it. The site is one of extraordinary beauty and impressiveness.

Lacked Atmosphere.
"I did hope for an artistic career," said the disappointed looking man, "but I met with difficulties I could not conquer. What I needed was atmosphere." "I see," the same old trouble. "What were you—an author or a painter?" "Neither. I was learning to play the trombone, but I was naturally short of breath."

Weak Heart

Many people suffer from weak hearts. They may experience shortness of breath on exertion, pain over the heart, or dizzy feelings, oppressed breathing after meals or their eyes become blurred, their heart is not sufficiently strong to pump blood to the extremities, and they have cold hands and feet, or poor appetite because of weakened blood supply to the stomach. A heart tonic and alterative should be taken which has no bad after-effect. Such is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, which contains no dangerous narcotics nor alcohol.

The ingredients, as attested under oath, are Stone root (Collinsonia Canadensis), Bloodroot (Sanguinaria Canadensis), Golden Seal root (Hydrastis Canadensis), Queen's root (Squilla Syriatica), Black Cherry bark (Prunus Virginiana), Mandrake root (Podophyllum Peltatum), with triple refined glycerine, prepared in a scientific laboratory in a way that no druggist could imitate.

This tonic contains no alcohol to shrink up the red blood corpuscles; but, on the other hand, it increases their number and they become round and healthy. It helps the human system in the constant manufacture of rich, red blood. It helps the stomach to assimilate or take up the proper elements from the food, thereby helping digestion and curing dyspepsia, heart-burn and many uncomfortable symptoms, stops excessive tissue waste in convalescence from fevers; for the run-down, anemic, thin-blooded people, the "Discovery" is refreshing and vitalizing. Stick to this safe and sane remedy, and refuse all "just as good" medicines offered by the druggist who is looking for a larger profit. Nothing but Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will do you half as much good.

When using marking ink to put initials, etc., on linen do your work first with an ordinary lead pencil, and then use the marking ink over the pencil. The pencil will prevent the ink from spreading and giving the linen a blotched appearance.

Only Saints Do It.
We can most of us do an unselfish thing now and then, if we are to have the credit of it; but it is only the saints of everyday life who can make a great sacrifice for the sake of others, and take care to prevent their discovering it is a sacrifice.—J. C. Bailey.
