The watch was a high grade Hamilton, with beautifully engraved case, and was purchased of H. H. Hill, the Athena jeweler. Dr. Griswold will retire to his farm near Two Rivers, Wash.

A. Mackenzie Meldrum arrived home Saturday from Ione, where he reports a very successful two weeks evangelistic meeting. Mr. Meldrum found the little city with seven members of the Christian church, and the results of his preaching added 18 to the number. A church was organized, and arrangements for building a place of meeting to cost approximately $3500 were made. Mr. Meldrum went to Pendleton this week and visited an architect, and plans are now complete for the structure, which will be commenced in the near future.

According to Prof. Carl Gaiott, who was in the city from Pendleton yesterday, that German musician who was in the city for several days, turns out to be something of a frost. The professor says he employed him to play the piano part for his orchestra in an engagement at the German Hall last Saturday night, and has not seen him since that evening. Arriving at the hall the fellow proved to be a dismal failure at orchestra dance music, being unable to read the simplest music at sight. The professor believes that the extent to the German's musical knowledge stops at a few popular German airs played by ear. When the German musician left here Saturday he was loaned wearing apparel by a couple of acquaintances and was to return to Athena Sunday morning. To date he has not shown up.

Our New Clothing Spring and Summer

Miller Made

clothes are the only high-grade clothes in America bearing the Union Label. But whether you are union man or not, the Union Label means a big lot to you, when you see it in your clothes.

It means:

The most skilled workmanship.

Shops where men work under the best conditions.

Well lighted, airy, clean and absolutely sanitary shops.

No sweat-shop work where you see the Union Label.

It means economy. "Miller Made" Union Label clothes are reasonably priced.

You need not be afraid of the history of the tailoring, the style, or the price of the clothes you wear when you buy "Miller-Made" Union Label clothing.
