

Press Paragraphs

Echo

Plays the Millers

Sunday afternoon, at 1:30 sharp.

Be there and help shove the boys up in the percentage column.

Mrs. Lizzie Jones is in Echo this week.

Bert Kirby was in the city from Adams Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Ferguson moved out to the ranch this week.

Mrs. Merle Roby was a guest of Pendleton friends yesterday.

Charles Dunn is down from Tekoa Wash., on a few days' visit.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Koontz drove to Pendleton and returned, Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Harris of Weston spent several days in Athena this week.

Miss Agnes Cannon visited Sunday with friends in Milton and Walla Walla.

Miss Ethel Chapman spent Sunday with her parents at her home near Weston.

Miss Dora Bennett came up from Pendleton and visited Athena friends Friday evening.

Miss Lucile Kemp came over from Weston Monday, and spent the evening with friends.

Mrs. Sam Booher has been ill at her home west of town this week, and under the doctor's care.

Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Taylor were up from Pendleton Monday, and attended the Mansfield funeral.

Ralph DePeatt has come in from the country and accepted a position in the Preeton-Parton mill.

Johnson's orchestra has been engaged to furnish music for the Dreamland theater on Sunday evenings.

Gus Cornoyer and family have vacated their city residence for the summer and moved to the ranch.

Wm. Tompkins and Robt. Coppock left Monday for Hot Lake, where they will sojourn for several weeks.

Work on the track at the city park is under way and will be completed by the first of the coming week.

Charles L. Pinkerton and Miss Luella Craigm, both of Weston, have been granted a marriage license.

New hats arriving all the time at Mrs. Jones Millinery store. The suitcase hater in raffia are the latest.

Mr. and Mrs. Hardy Mansfield will visit friends in Walla Walla before returning to their home in Caldwell, Ida.

County Treasurer G. W. Bradley came up from Pendleton Monday and attended the funeral of F. M. Mansfield.

Copyright Hart Schaffner & Marx

You see how very stylish the regular sack suit can look when it is made by such style creators as Hart Schaffner & Marx. You may prefer it to some of the so-called livelier styles. Notice the smart lapel, and the drape of the coat. We will fit you like that.

Suits, $15 to $30

THE PEOPLE'S WAREHOUSE

Save the Coupons Where It Pays to Trade

Mrs. Byron-Hawks left this morning for Spokane, where she will visit her parents and friends for several weeks.

Did you see the beautiful Lemonade and Berry sets in Fix & Radtke's show window? They are to be given away.

Painters are at work on the Cook building, and when they are through, the building will be ready for occupancy.

Fire visited Echo yesterday morning and destroyed two warehouses at the Henrietta flour mills, entailing a loss of $4,000.

Don't fail to drop in and see the good things on display at the pastry sale tomorrow. Everything desirable for the table.

Fred Koontz has resigned his position at Byron Hawk's drug store, and is now janitor of the Athena public school building.

Little Bill Parker, the mascot of Littlejohn's Millers has been confined to his home this week with a severe attack of measles.

The families of S. P. Phillips and Chas. Ferguson have moved to their mountain homes, after having spent the winter in Athena.

"Chick" Hastings was in town from Pendleton Tuesday. He is employed in C. E. Roosevelt's clothing store at the county seat.

The benefit ball, given Friday evening at the K. P. I. O. O. F. hall, was well attended and all who attended spent an enjoyable evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Kirk spent several days in Portland, returning home this morning. They may decide to go to Portland to reside permanently.

Prof. Pate, principal of the Athena High school, went to Pendleton Wednesday evening to hear Judge Lindsey, the eminent Juvenile Judge, of Denver.

J. T. Llesallen passed through town Wednesday afternoon, having made the trip over from Walla Walla in his auto. He was accompanied home by Harvey Caton.

Mrs. Lizzie Jones advertises her cottage on Jefferson street for rent, furnished. Terms very reasonable. Call at her millinery store north side of Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Christian have moved into the cottage of Sam Booher, on south Third street. Mr. and Mrs. Booher have moved to the farm for the summer.

Mr. Helmick, who has been very low with pneumonia for several days, is reported better. Mr. Helmick contracted a severe cold a week ago last Sunday and pneumonia followed.

Every available vehicle was pressed into service Sunday and scores of Athena people attended the ball game at Weston. A number rode "Shanks" horses and were paid for the trip.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Mansfield have been in the city this week from Caldwell, Idaho. It is possible that they may decide to come back to Umatilla county to reside, or else go to Walla Walla.

Mrs. McArthur of Portland, and Mrs. Caton of this city, have been at the bedside of their sister, Mrs. Leonard, who was seriously injured in the automobile accident, near Walla Walla.

Dr. Gatriel Sykes of Walla Walla will preach in the M. E. church on the evening of April 13. Rev. Sykes is an interesting speaker, and it will pay you to come out and hear him. Thomas Lawson.

Mr. "Andrews" who has signed with a Spokane ball team, claiming to have pitched 29 games for the Athena team, winning 21 of them, is not known here. The team has never had a player of that name.

O. C. Turner was in the city from Weston Wednesday. Mr. Turner is a retired farmer. He is now interested mining, being a heavy stockholder in the Lead & Silver mine, located in the Coeur de Alene district.

The fishing bug has arrived and inflicted the desire to go fishing among the Athena anglers. However, the river is yet too high for good fishing. Small streams are just now claiming the attention of the early fishermen.

Another large consignment of millinery will arrive Monday from Chicago, for the Miller Millinery store. This will consist principally of fashionable shapes in frames, and children's hats. Call in early and see them.

The Berlin Dye Works at Pendleton was destroyed by fire Wednesday afternoon. The conflagration was caused by an explosion of gasoline. The heaviest loss was sustained by patrons of the place, who had clothing there to be cleaned and pressed.

Mr. and Mrs. George Eannister have returned to their home in this city, after spending the winter in California. They are glad to be at home once more. The weather of the past winter did not suit California tourists, it being cold and disagreeable there.

It is reported that J. E. Keefe, Jr., of Weston, has been selected by the Pendleton Commercial Association as its secretary and manager. The position is to be a salaried one, and carries with it the responsibilities of creating publicity for Pendleton and Umatilla county.

There is some talk of holding a Fourth of July celebration in Athena this year. With a splendid shade at the City Park, and the convenience of location, the celebration should be a success. Athena has not held a celebration for several years, and seemingly the time is ripe for a rising big one.

Mrs. Anna McIntyre and her daughter, Miss Lizzie, have moved back from Walla Walla to their home in this city. Misses Laura and Belle will remain in the garden city and finish the term in the high school, before returning home. They are boarding at Reynolds Hall.

The ladies of the local auxiliary of the C. W. E. M. met Wednesday, as announced last week, with Mrs. Fred Kerbsaw, at her home in Weston. A most enjoyable program was presented, and refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. J. T. King, also of Weston.

By the terms of the will of the late Frank Mansfield, his son, D. H. Mansfield is named executor of the estate. The son receives 80 acres of land, and the widow is to have the home in this city and the income from 160 acres of land during her lifetime. At her death the property is to go to the son.

The local oratorical contest, which will decide the contestants of the Athena schools who are to enter the annual contest of the schools of Umatilla county on April 29, will be held in the Christian church next Tuesday evening at 7:30. A suitable program has been arranged and the public is invited to attend.

The public is cordially invited to participate in a reception this evening at the Christian church, to be given in honor of Mr. L. J. Foss, for many years an honored and respected citizen of this community. The reception is in the nature of a farewell to Mr. Foss, who leaves soon for his ranch near Madras, Oregon.

Program at the Dreamland for Friday and Saturday: 1. "Under the Stars and Stripes," Selig's. 2. "A Rich Revenge," Biograph. 3. "The Poet of the Revolution," Gaumont. Sunday: 1. "A Wonderful Remedy," "Lucky Husband," Pathe. 2. "The Angelus," Selig's. 3. "Why They Married," Vitagraph.

J. W. Whisnant, an attorney of Lenoir, North Carolina, is in the city, a guest of his old time friend, S. F. Wilson. Mr. Whisnant has come west with the intention of locating permanently, and may decide to enter partnership with the firm of Peterson & Wilson. He spent several days at Portland, and is favorably impressed with Oregon's metropolis.

Potatoes are scarce and bring a good price on the market. Buyers have been seeking spuds in the mountain potato districts east of town, with the result that several big sales have taken place lately. Leonard Bell sold his crop for $27 per ton. He disposed of the product of 23 acres, which averaged two tons per acre. Thus it will be seen that his mountain land yielded $54 worth of potatoes per acre.

Reports from the Martin-Hobgatt meetings being held at Centralia, Wash., are to the effect that much interest is being manifested. Last week 135 had been added to the church and the meetings had just fairly started. A large new church edifice was dedicated last Sunday by Dr. Martin Herbert E. Ryder, formerly of Athena, is pastor of the Christian church there.

The entertainment at the Christian church last Sunday night, given by the children under the direction of Mrs. Meldrum and Mrs. Walker, was a success in every particular. The "Little Lights" were well trained, and told their message of missions to the heathen in sweet strains and recitation. A large number were present and enjoyed the exercises. An Easter offering was taken for missions.

The county road machinery has arrived and is placed at the quarry below town. Road Superintendent Lavender has ten men at work, and when the steam power is attached to the big crusher, a larger force will be added. The crusher has a revolving screen attachment, which grades the size of the crushed rock, before it enters the bins, from which it is dumped into the wagons and transported to the road.

Rawl Miller is making arrangements to operate his picture show at Weston on Monday and Tuesday evenings of each week. The Weston people will be given the worth of their money if Mr. Miller takes his show there. He has an up-to-date machine and his pictures come from the Portland circuit, thus insuring his patrons the best pictures obtainable. The remainder of the week he will show at the Dreamland, in this city.

Dr. T. D. Bancroft lectured at the Athena High school yesterday afternoon, on the Assassination of Lincoln. Dr. Bancroft was present at Ford's Theatre in Washington D. C., when Booth fired the fatal shot, that laid low the nation's president. Dr. Bancroft is a lecturer of distinction and in addition to his lecture delivered yesterday afternoon, he gives others, including "Christian Work," "How to do things," "Whither are we Drifting," etc.

A sale of pastry, cakes, dressed poultry and other good things for Sunday's dinner will be held in the Cook building, north side of Main street, all day tomorrow, by the Ladies of Athena. The proceeds of the sale will go to the park fund, and every woman in the city and in the country adjacent to Athena, who feels an interest in the beautifying of the city park, is solicited to bring her donation, and to invite her friends to do the same, and patronize the sale.

Card of Thanks.

I desire the Press to express my sincere thanks to all who so considerately assisted me through the trying hours in which I lost my beloved husband. Mrs. F. M. Mansfield.

Late New Best Ready and

MILLER-MADE

CAN you think of seven words which could tell a more complete story of Spring Styles? We want you to understand that the styles are right up to the scratch, just the sort to appeal to men and young men who are style insistent. That they are the best for the money cannot be questioned; value sticks out all over them and what you cannot see is inside them. They are ready for you to try on, purchase and wear. There'll be no fussing and fuming about their fit—they are absolutely certain to fit you in just the manner best suited to your individual needs.

To clinch the argument we might also say that "Miller-Made" clothes insure you your full money's worth. If they don't prove out to your entire satisfaction, you get your money back—and without an argument.

$12.00 to $25.00

The "MILLER-MADE" STORE FIX & RADTKE

Mosgrove Mercantile

Ladies' Home Journal
Patterns for April have arrived.

Company

A Special Shipment of Ladies' Neckwear
for Easter.

Our Great Easter Display

In attempting to go into details regarding the intensified beauty of our new Spring showing of Silks and Summer Dress Fabrics, no word could be too much or no adjective too strong could be applied. With our usual forethought, we have gathered a more than ordinarily large assortment of Patterns and Colorings.

New Novelty Silks

In all colors. Taffetas, Messalines Louise and Pongee.

Fine Dress Ginghams

in stripes, plaid or plain colors, in endless variety, at 12 1-2c per yard.

French Foulards

New patterns and all the different colors
60c per yard.

Silk Waists

in Messaline, Taffeta, Pongee and wash
Silks. All latest novelties of the season.

Crepe de Chines

In evening shades and also in Black.
50c per yard.

White Waists

in endless variety; short or long sleeves, and tailor-made. $1 to $3.50 each.

Poplins

Mercerized. We have them in all colors
35c per yard.

New Gloves

Laces, Ribbons and Ladies' Hosiery in great profusion.

Flaxon

Plain, in bars or in fancy stripes.
25c per yard.

New Back Combs

new Bolero Pins, new Barretts and beautiful Shirt Waist Sets.

B. & H. GREEN TRADING STAMPS WITH EVERY CASH PURCHASE