Echo Beaten Sunday, in Best Game Played in Blue Mountain League, Millers Winning 4 to 3.

Standing of Teams.

Manager Littlejohn saw Captain Brown and his nifty bunch of Millers trounce Echo in the best game played in the Blue Mountain League Sunday. The Athens-Echo session ended with the score standing 4 to 3.

The game at Pendleton was a farce, the Champs falling on the Pendleton bunch for seven runs in one inning, winning hands down 11 to 3.

'Twas little better over at Milton, where Babe's Bears led the Milton-Freewater Bulldogs (shades of old Cap. Anson, smother that unphonous name) to slaughter by the lopsided score of 9 to 2.

And this Echo bunch. They play real base ball from the tap of the gong until they shade the wire—all the time, all the time. While they developed but four bingles off Picard, they were "hep" to the game and took all there was coming to them.

With the exception of the third and fourth innings, horse collars decorate the score sheet, and let us tell you that while these decorations were going on, there was some gilt edged ball being played by all hands and the cook.

Nothing doing in the first and second, except singles by Owens and Brown, and a double by Hoskins, no score resulting.

Then in the third, this happened—and but for the happening thereof, Echo would have worn nothing but horse collars: Campbell opened with a single, Norman drew a pass and Lehman bunted to Picard, who threw Campbell out to third. Fitzhugh reached first on DePeatt's error in letting the ball get away from him, the others moving up. Picard let his arm out a link and fanned Pulcifer—two down. Then Lundwell sent a high one out to Bundy. The wind was blowing a gale and the center fielder ran under the ball, just tipping it with his glove, and—three crossed the pan. Hensley was an easy out, flying to Clark. That was all for Echo.

Then Athens got the three back, and one to boot, in the fourth. Pell-and was safe on Campbell's error and went round to third on Lieualen's long single. Then DePeatt put a hot one through Campbell, Pelland and Lieualen scoring. DePeatt took second, while Smith was going out, Hoskins to Campbell, and scored when he and Owens jockeyed a delayed throw on a muffed third strike from Hoskins to Campbell, the first baseman being unable to return the ball to the plate in time to catch DePeatt, after putting Owens out. Clark drew a pass, stole second and scored on Bundy's timely single. Picard went out, Gilbert to Campbell. Rain stopped play for a short time after Athens had made three runs, Clark scoring the winning run after the game was resumed.

Both pitchers warmed up fairly well and used about everything they had, Picard being especially effective. He struck out two in the fifth and continued the good work in the sixth, when only four batters faced him, Gilbert reaching first on a fumble by Owens, Lundwell, Hensley and Hoskins fanning out in order. He allowed but four hits, while the Millers harvested nine healthy ones off Lehman's delivery.

The showing made by the Athens players in this game, where fast heady plays nipped off runs, shows the good work Brown is putting into the team. The crop of errors is notably on the wane as compared with other games, and but one was costly.

The attendance was large, considering the weather, many ladies being present. The grounds are in good condition, and with good weather, some fast ball is in store for this old town this season. Henry Dell's record of the game says it was this way. Score by innings:

	A	B	R	H	P	O	A	E
Athens	0	0	4	0	0	0	0	4
Echo	0	0	3	0	0	0	0	3

	A	B	R	H	P	O	A	E
Owens, ss	5	0	1	0	1	1	1	1
Clark, 1b	4	1	1	10	0	0	0	0
Bundy, cf	4	0	2	1	0	1	0	1
Picard, p	4	0	0	1	4	1	1	1
Brown, c	4	0	2	11	1	0	0	0
Pelland, 2b	3	1	0	0	3	0	0	0
Lieualen lf	4	1	2	1	0	0	0	0
DeFatt, 3b	4	1	0	3	2	1	1	1
Smith, rf	4	0	1	0	0	0	0	0

Summary—Two baseball, Hoskins. First on balls, off Picard 2. off Lehman, 1. Struck out, by Picard 11, by Lehman, 10. Left on bases, Athens 10, Echo 5. First base on errors, Athens 4, Echo 2. Sacrifice hit, Pelland. Time of game, 1 hour, 55 minutes. Umpire Buestratte. Scorer, Dell.

Diamond Dwell. The Millers are all swelled up over the patronage they are receiving and believe there is the most loyal bunch of fans here ever. And the fans believe the Millers to be a winning bunch. So there you are, don't it?

Pendleton papers say there was dust in the air when the Champs fell next to Pitcher Thompson. Well, there were a few particles flying around up here but we had big league ball excepting two innings.

They say the Champs have a new pitcher. He is a left ender. Captain Brown, Ralph DePeatt, Billy Winship and Andy Weaver scalped the diamond with a roadgrader. Result, plenty fast now.

Walla Walla is some cheery these days, being at the top of the roost and playing "Hunky" Shaw of Pacific Coast League fame on the first cushion. Milton protests against the snap and proposes to contest Shaw's eligibility.
