

Press Paragraphs

Charles Norris spent Tuesday in Walla Walla.

John Duffy came over from Walla Walla Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Kemp were in the city Sunday.

John Gross was in the city Tuesday from Walla Walla.

Warren Raymond came over from Walla Walla Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dell went over to Walla Walla today.

Harold Githens is in the city from Astoria, visiting friends.

Charles Pinkerton was in the city yesterday from Weston.

George Ginn was among the Walla Walla excursionists Sunday.

Will Dobson has been on the sick list a couple of days this week.

Mrs. E. A. Dudley has been ill at her home near town this week.

The Athena Band will furnish music for the track meet tomorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bannister went over to Walla Walla yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Barrett are attending the aviation meet at Walla Walla today.

Attorneys Homer I. Watts and S. F. Wilson were in Pendleton yesterday on legal business.

Sheldon Taylor was up from Pendleton and spent Saturday and Sunday with friends here.

Frank Graham, popularly known in Weston as "Happy," was over from that burg yesterday.

Rev. W. S. Payne of Weston, has been called to Iowa by the critical illness of his mother.

Edward Horn and Josephine Picard, both of this county, have been granted a marriage license.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McKenzie and Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Barnes were in the city from Weston Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ginn were in the city from Walla Walla Sunday, coming over in their automobile.

George Gross has purchased a new Ford auto and today he is mastering the steering gear of the machine.

Mrs. Cornoyer, mother of Mrs. Joseph Forrest and Mrs. A. O. Kirk, is in the city visiting her daughters.

Wm. McBride was in town from the ranch Tuesday. Driving back, he was seated in a brand splinter new hack.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Cornoyer were in town Monday from their home on the Umatilla, trading with Athena merchants.

M. S. Dudley of Portland, spent the day yesterday with his brother, E. A. Dudley. He went to Spokane this morning.

In addition to winning the ball game Sunday with his Millers, W. F. Littlejohn entertained his brother from Walla Walla.

Fred Radtke, of the firm of Fix & Radtke, has been confined to his home this week with illness. A baby in the Radtke family has also been sick for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer I. Watts and Miss Velma Wilkinson went over to Walla Walla Tuesday evening, where they witnessed the production of "The Merry Widow."

Rev. Thomas Lawson will preach from the following topics on Sunday: "The Service of Christ and Its Reward;" "How David Prospered." All are kindly invited.

W. W. Musselman, who has been principal of the Helix school for the past year, in under contract to teach at Freewater next year.

Geo. Payne has been afflicted with a serious attack of rheumatism this week. He is now hobbling about with the assistance of a cane.

Miss Edna Taylor is now fairly convalescent from her recent attack of fever, and her friends hope soon to see her among them again.

The track team of the Athena High school will compete in the Whitman meet on May 5th and 6th, and also in the U. of O. meet May 12th.

Robert Burns, district freight and passenger agent of the O. W. R. & N., came over from Walla Walla Sunday and spent the day in the city.

Mrs. Wm. Tompkins has been confined to her bed with a severe case of lumbago for the past week. She is reported considerably better at present.

Mr. R. J. Green, an attorney from Minneapolis, has been in the city this week. Mr. Green may determine to locate here and practice law with Peterson & Wilson.

The Ladies Band of Weston is giving a series of open air concerts in that city. Saturday afternoon of each week the ladies appear and discourse music on the street.

Father Neate, of the Mission, has been in the city during the week attending the service at the Catholic church, conducted by Father Flemming of the chapel car.

Mrs. John P. Miller, who resides in Mrs. Jones' cottage on Jefferson street, announces to the ladies of Athena that she is prepared to do washing at reasonable prices.

Charles Gerking recently collected the bounty on six coyotes before the county clerk at Pendleton. An unusually large number of coyotes are being exterminated this spring.

Mr. Helmick, who was a very sick man for a couple of weeks, has recovered sufficiently to be out again. He was in town Wednesday for the first time since getting over his illness.

Athena auto enthusiasts had the opportunity of admiring a handsome new Ford machine Tuesday. It was the 1911 model with fore door torpedo body and presented a fine appearance.

C. K. Cranston of Pendleton has been given a place on the state game commission by Governor West. Umatilla county sportsmen now look forward to enforcement of the game and fish laws.

Fall sown grain in this vicinity is in good condition, has a good color and is thrifty in growth. Spring sown wheat and barley is in need of rain. Gardens also show insufficient growth for want of rain.

Miss Gertie Booher has been confined to her home for several days with illness. She was threatened with typhoid fever, but Dr. Plamondon, the attending physician, succeeded in averting the attack.

Over 500 Odd Fellows attended the ceremonies of the 92nd anniversary of the founding of the order in America, at Walla Walla, Wednesday. Elaborate preparations had been made for their entertainment and reception.

J. R. King, a former resident of this county, where he engaged in farming on Wild Horse above town, has arrived at Weston from his home at Algonia, Wash. He is at the home of his son, Frank, and is suffering from a severe illness.

Miss Lula Tharp left Wednesday morning for Lewiston, Idaho, where she will be a guest of Miss Cecile Boyd at the Normal school dormitory, for a week. Miss Norma Smith will attend to the cashier's desk at the Mosgrove Mercantile store during her absence.

Miss Lela Garfield, of Walla Walla, was a guest of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Jackson Nelson near town, Saturday and Sunday. Her brother, Chase, also came over on the excursion and spent the day.

Umatilla Tribe of Redmen will give a May Day picnic at Umatilla May 1. A wild west program will be a feature of the day's entertainment. Posters announce that it will equal the Pendleton Roundup.

Rennie Green, an Adams young man, was badly injured Saturday when a mule kicked him in the face. His nose was broken and a deep gash resulted from the force of the blow. Dr. Sharp dressed the wound and the young man is getting along as well as could be expected.

Mrs. B. B. Richards will leave next week for a visit with relatives in Lewiston, Idaho. Her grandmother, Mrs. Fleener, who has been ill for so many months in that city, has been reported in a less encouraging condition lately and Mrs. Richards goes for the purpose of seeing her.

Mrs. Marion Hansell was hostess to the Sunshine club Thursday, the 20th. The guests of the club were: Mrs. Woodward and Miss Eva Woodward, of Walla Walla; Mrs. Joseph N. Scott and Miss Emma Heidtke. Ice cream and cake were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. G. W. Hansell.

J. T. English will say good-bye to Weston in a week or so and depart for San Francisco, from which city he sails May 3 for the Philippines, says the Leader. With a party of young engineers he has been engaged by Uncle Sam for surveying work, and may remain several years in the islands.

Mrs. J. L. Van Winkle wishes to announce to the public that she is still in charge of the photograph gallery on Third street, and will take all kinds of pictures, from stamps and postals to cabinet size. She desires patrons to call early, as she may not remain in Athena after the close of school.

Several Athena people have visited Walla Walla yesterday and today, and saw the birdmen take their aerial flights in biplanes. It is said the aviators find no difficulty in getting willing passengers to go up with them in the machines, the number of applicants for air rides being plentiful.

Ed. Koontz and Byron Hawks spent Tuesday on Squaw creek, fishing. They had moderate success, fluding too much water in Meacham creek, which stream was their original destination. Monday was a hot day and the creek became a raging torrent as the result of melting snow, during the night.

The program at the Dreamland for Friday and Saturday is as follows: 1. "The Long Trail," Selig. 2. "The Stubborn Lover," Gaumont. 3. "An Affair of Hearts," Biograph. For Sunday: 1. "The Land of Oz," Selig. 2. "Parisian," "Venice," Pathe. 3. "The Face at the Window," Biograph.

Rod Hollis, son of C. W. Hollis, former merchant of this city, spent Saturday in Athena, enjoying the company of boyhood friends. He has been pitching for the Pendleton base ball team. Mr. Hollis has been assisting his father in the mercantile business at Lamont, Wash., since coming up from California.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Spencer are contemplating a trip to their old home in Texas, and hope to leave some time in May. They will also visit other points in the south, and expect to be away for three or four months. Mr. Spencer owns 80 acres in the Lone Star state and may dispose of the little farm before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Gillis passed through last week from their home near Washtucna to LaGrande, where they were called to the bedside of Mrs. Gillis' father, Mr. Campbell, who is critically ill at his home there with cancer. Friends here have received news that his case is hopeless. Mrs. C. C. Sharp and Mrs. Ora Messner, both of Seattle are also at his bedside.

Dr. S. F. Sharp has purchased an automobile to be used in his country practice as a means of transportation, instead of horse and buggy. The machine is a Maxwell and practically new, having been run but very little by its former owner, Wm. Pinkerton, Sr. Lawrence Sharp makes an admirable chauffeur, and handles the car with great ease.

The chapel car will leave tomorrow for Freewater, where it will remain for one week, going from there to Pendleton. Father Flemming, in charge of the chapel services, has spoken nightly to interested audiences at the Catholic church, and has proven himself to be a man of ability. Father Neate will conduct regular services at the Catholic church Sunday morning and evening.

The intermediate classes of the M. E. Sunday school were entertained at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Thomas Lawson Tuesday evening from 7 until 9 o'clock. Games and music furnished the evening's entertainment. Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. W. B. Kissler. Those present were: Katherine Froome, Enid Cartano, Hazel McCobbins, Edna Pinkerton, Evangeline Fix, Mildred Lawson, Dorothy Lawson, Harold Fix, Arnold Koepke, Henry Koepke, Lewis Stewart, Leslie Snider, Bertie McCobbins, Rulen Smith, Kendall Smith and John Lawson.

Stock No lice. Notice is hereby given that the City Marshal will impound all stock found at large in the corporate limits of Athena, as provided by ordinance. Geo. W. Gross, Mayor.

Give your Boy the Alphabet--Ambition and a "Best-Ever" Suit, and you can place no limits to his career.

They embrace:

All Wool
Rain-proof
Coat Faced
Around Bottom
Indestructible Lining
Knickers Linen Lined
Wire-sewed Buttons
Double Warp Pockets
Silk-sewn Seams
Canvass Interlining
Guarantee Label

"Best-Ever clothes serve in every way to dress your boy properly. They have exclusive features of cut, of style, of endurance. Besides every "Best Ever" suit is all wool. Every "Best-Ever" suit is rain-proof.

Surprising to say--they actually cost no more than other clothes. Better come and see these great suits --you'll thank us sooner or later.

FIX & RADTKE

Mosgrove Mercantile Company

Ladies' Home Journal Patterns for April a ahverried.

A Special Shipment of Ladies' Neckwear for Easter.

Our Great Dress Display

In attempting to go into details regarding the intensified beauty of our new Spring showing of Silks and Summer Dress Fabrics, no word could be too much or no adjective too strong could be applied. With our usual forethought, we have gathered a more than ordinarily large assortment of Patterns and Colorings.

New Novelty Silks

In all colors. Taffetas, Messalines Louisine and Pongee.

French Foulards

New patterns and all the different colors 60c per yard.

Crepe de Chines

In evening shades and also in Black. 50c per yard.

Poplins

Mercerized. We have them in all colors 35c per yard.

Flaxon

Plain, in bars or in fancy stripes. 25c per yard.

Fine Dress Gingham

in stripes, plaid or plain colors, in endless variety, at 12 1-2c per yard.

Silk Waists

in Messaline, Taffeta, Pongee and wash Silks. All latest novelties of the season.

White Waists

in endless variety; short or long sleeves, and tailor-made. $1 to $3.50 each.

New Gloves

Laces, Ribbons and Ladies' Hosiery in great profusion.

New Back Combs

new Bolero Pins, new Barretts and beautiful Shirt Waist Sets.

B. & H. GREEN TRADING STAMPS WITHEVERY CASH PURCHASE

Great Aviation Meet

Walla Walla April 27th to 29th, inclusive

World's greatest Aviators in thrilling flights under auspices of the Walla Walla Fair Association. Excursion rates on all railroads.