The Pleasure of a Summer Outing Is Emphasized By Smart Clothes

If you have ever dressed in poor style; if you have ever wanted to dress smartly, but couldn't find smart clothes, you will appreciate "Miller-Made." Wherever you go, whatever you do, work or play, these clothes will satisfy your wants. We wish for you many outings this Summer and hope you'll wear good clothes. FIX & RADTKE

Don't Buy Half a Watch

A poor timekeeper is only half a Watch—really worse than none, for it misleads you. I sell low-priced, as well as fine Watches, but no Watch trash. I guarantee all my Watches to be timekeepers, and you are safe in buying here, whatever price you pay.

H. H. HILL, Athena.

Great Caledonian Picnic

Athena, May 19 and 20

Carnival of pleasure and entertainment for the people of Umatilla county. All the Clans will gather in annual reunion.

Clarence Gay is down from Toppenish, Wash., visiting the scenes of his early boyhood home. Clarence has grown out of the recollection of many, being a strapping young man now. He is having a pleasant time with his old playmates. His father is conducting a confectionery store in Toppenish.

In the mile run, Payne set the pace for his competitors a greater part of the distance, finishing fourth. He nosed out in front of Boylen, the Pendleton sprinter. Eastern Oregon athletes appear to have been handicapped owing to climatic conditions. Especially was this manifested in the sprints.

Since Will Ferguson has purchased his automobile, Jinks Taylor has formed such a habit of riding home with him that he forgets whether he has a horse in town or not. He got into the car the other day and when nearly home remembered having a horse tied to a rack in town. So Ferguson obligingly turned the machine back to the city and Taylor finally located his saddle horse. Hereafter he will size up the hitching racks before leaving for home in his friend's auto.

Familiar Sayings.
"I don't like your weigh," remarked the customer to the dishonest grocer.
"I hope I make myself clear," said the water as it passed through the filter.
"Reading makes the full man, but writing doesn't," complained the half starved poet.
"My resources are all tied up," said the tramp as he placed his bundle on a stick.
"The rest is silence," quoted the musician, explaining the meaning of that term to his pupil.
"This is a complete give away," remarked Papa Santa Claus as he finished stripping the Christmas tree.
"I call that treating a friend in a rather distant manner," said the doctor as he hung up the receiver after prescribing over the telephone.
