"Give-it-to-me" Shaffer, Pendleton's boneless acrobatic first baseman, while worth the price of admission, was not the whole show on the local diamond Sunday afternoon, for the Millers and Buckarooes served out an admirable exhibition of the national game, and the big crowd went home pleased and satisfied.

Athena won the game in the first inning, when five runs were made. Bliss, first man up for Pendleton, scratched out a single, was sacrificed to second by Nelson, took third on a passed ball and scored when Clark failed to hold the ball, thrown to oatch Nevins at first, with two down. give evidence of teing able to put a

That was all for Pendleton. Frink tightened up and allowed but two more hits and not another blue clad player reached second base. Three others got to first, two of them were handled by Brown's whip to second, and the other died at first station.

The way Frink and Brown are clouting out three-baggers, is enough to unnerve any opposing pitcher. Frink has plucked four in the last two games and Brown has garnered two and a sonsing two-base hit.
