

Press Paragraphs

Weston
Vs. Athena,
Athena grounds,
Sunday, June 18, at 3 p. m.

In the last league game of the season on the home grounds.

Miss Norma Smith was the guest of Walla Walla friends Sunday.

Athena's second team plays Free-water at Meador Park, next Sunday.

Bud Read, who has been in Walla Walla county for some time, is in the city.

A. L. Swaggart was in Pendleton, Wednesday, where he transacted business.

The county is constructing a steel bridge on Pine creek at the Baddley place.

Dr. W. H. Lytle, state veterinarian, was in Athena Tuesday on official business.

Miss Lucile Kemp came over from Weston yesterday to visit Athena friends.

Indians on the reservation are holding their third roundup of stock this season.

M. L. Watts was a business visitor to North Yakima and adjacent towns last week.

Col. F. G. Lucas, the Weston auctioneer and real estate dealer, was in the city Wednesday.

Jack Keefe came up from Pendleton Tuesday evening, returning to the county seat Wednesday.

J. W. Wilcoxson, representing the Best Manufacturing company, is in the city from Walla Walla.

Mrs. Martha VanWinkle, a pioneer resident of Weston, visited relatives and friends in Athena Wednesday.

Rev. W. S. Payne has been returned to the United Brethren charge at Weston for the twelfth successive year.

Mrs. F. S. LeGrow returned Sunday afternoon from Walla Walla, where she visited at the home of her mother.

Mrs. A. L. Swaggart and children visited Sunday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. M. L. Akers, in Pendleton.

Mr. and Mrs. George Darlin, formerly of this place, have recently moved from Brownsville to Walla Walla.

Mrs. Crockett came up from Pendleton Saturday evening and spent Sunday with her daughter, Mrs. A. M. Meldrum.

Miss Lula Tharp visited at the homes of Miss Della Danner and Mrs. Dean Gerking at Milton over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Fix and children who have been visiting relatives in Washington and Idaho, are expected to return home today or tomorrow.

Alex. McRae of Spokane, was in the city yesterday. Alex. is interested in the manufacture of a combined harvester, the factory being at Moscow, Idaho.

Mrs. Armstrong and daughter, of Walla Walla, are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Walker in this city.

Have you sized up the fishing tackle at Hawks' drugstore? Provide yourself from Hawks' and you can't fail to catch fish.

Bennie Gross arrived home this morning from the Oregon Agricultural College, bearing his sheepskin from that institution.

Perry Hamm and two daughters of Condon, are visiting in the city, guests of Mrs. A. H. Luna, who is a sister of Mr. Hamm.

Irvin Jensen, who pitched for Milton against the Millers, has been signed by the Portland team in the Northwestern league.

Miss Gertrude Luna is operating at the local telephone office in the absence of Mrs. Griswold, the manager, who is taking a vacation.

Mrs. B. B. Richards returned home from a visit to relatives and friends in Lewiston, Idaho, and LaCrosse, Wash, Wednesday evening.

The young people enjoyed a social dance given at the opera house last Friday evening. Another dance is announced for this evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Ferguson arrived home Sunday evening from attending the Portland Rose-Carnival. They report a warm trip up on the train.

After closing down for several days for the purpose of overhauling machinery, the mill will resume grinding flour for the export trade Monday morning.

Liuk Swaggart has eight head of work mules for sale, at his home ranch north of Athena. These mules are ready to work, and are from three to six years old.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Alexander have returned from California and have taken up their residence in Athena. They are occupying the Chas. Groves place, temporarily.

Traveling about the country in search of work, George P. Winelow, aged 50 years died of heart failure shortly after he reached Pilot Rock Saturday afternoon.

Rev. J. R. G. Russell preached to a fair-sized and appreciative audience at the Baptist church Wednesday evening. Rev. Russell is the pastor of the church at Milton.

Dr. Clise, the Optician, will be in Athena at the St. Nichols Hotel, on next Thursday and Friday. On Tuesday and Wednesday of next week Dr. Clise will be in Weston.

The Gibson Fruit company of Chicago, has contracted to take the entire 1911 prune crop of the Milton-Freewater district at prices ranging from $30 to $35 per ton.

A mysterious bunch of surveyors are reported to be working on Lincoln Mountain, in the vicinity of the Big Saddle. Whence they come and to whom they belong, deponent sayeth not.

Mr. and Mrs. Anderson of Roseturg, spent a couple of days in the city this week, guests of Mrs. M. L. Watts, Mr. Anderson's sister. Mr. Anderson is a locomotive engineer on the Southern Pacific.

The ladies of the C. W. B. M. were most pleasantly entertained Wednesday, after the regular business program, at the home of Mrs. Joseph N. Scott northwest of town.

A. Mackenzie Meldrum is recovering from a severe illness occasioned by the return of symptoms of jungle fever, a disease which he contracted while in the South Sea Islands.

The Masonic Grand Lodge convention is in session at Portland. E. E. Koontz, A. B. McEwen and James Henderson are the representatives from Dolph Lodge of this city.

Lester Carlisle and Kate Hendrickson, young people of Weston, were united in marriage at Pendleton Monday. The young couple will make their home on Weston mountain.

Miss Leta Edington, who has been visiting at the W. R. Taylor home near town since the close of her school in Walla Walla county two weeks ago, will leave soon for her home at Corvallis.

Mrs. T. J. Kirk's Sunday school class of the Baptist church enjoyed a basket picnic at the City Park Wednesday afternoon. The little folks spent a pleasant afternoon among the trees with games and refreshments.

Misses Zelma DePeatt and Nettie Royse will arrive from Tacoma on the 4:10 train tomorrow afternoon. Miss Royse is a graduate of the Tacoma high school, and Miss DePeatt will finish the course at the end of the first semester next year.

Mrs. George Gerking is recovering from a surgical operation, which she had performed last week in a Walla Walla hospital. Miss Merna DePeatt has been in attendance upon her this week, pending the arrival of her adopted daughter, Miss Nettie Royse, from Tacoma.

A pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Bannister, east of town, Wednesday evening when their daughter Ruth became the bride of Carl McConnell. Rev. Crooks of Weston performed the ceremony. The couple were students at Columbia College, Milton.

Pine creek is affording unexpected sport as a trout stream. The Leader reports a catch of 60 by a couple of Weston young men. With obstructions removed and irrigation ditches screened according to law, Pine creek would once again rank as an excellent stream for fishing.

The Miller drilling machine has been at work on a well at the Jesse York place north of Weston. The drill is down 172 feet and the prospect for a large quantity of water is flattering. At present repairs are being made on the machine, and work is temporarily suspended.

Several Athena fans are at Walla Walla today, to witness the game between Weston and the Bears. Considerable interest in the game is felt, for the reason that if Weston wins, Athena has a cinch on the pennant. Brown, Frink and Lieualen are in Weston's line-up today.

A. J. Willaby, who was taken to Dr. Williamson's sanitarium at Portland several days ago, is getting along as well as could be expected. Having known the doctor in the old time days at Weston, Andy was content to remain and take treatment there. But little hopes are entertained for his permanent recovery.

Bert Cartano carries the best family liquors in town, and he is making a specialty of fine table wines. For $1.50 per gallon, you can get choice Tokay, Muecat, Angelica, Sweet Catawba or Port. These are California's best product and give satisfaction wherever used. Call at the Red Front for the best and purest liquors.

Jackson Toles, formerly of the Umattilla reservation, erstwhile resident of Canada and now of Yakima, has been visiting the haunts of his boyhood days in this vicinity during the week. Jackson is much the same as of yore, except that he is more corpulent. In this respect, President Taft does not outshine him to any great extent.

Elsie, the 12-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Walker residing northwest of Athena had the misfortune to have her left arm broken Wednesday evening. The girl was tripped by a dog, the fall resulting in badly fractured arm. Dr. Sharp was called, and using his automobile made the round trip in an hour and 45 minutes.

The Athena Band will play for the celebration at Pendleton July 4. The services of the band were secured by the committee on arrangements for the sum of $200 for the engagement. The band is rehearsing new music and will go to the county seat prepared to render first class service. The organization will be strengthened by additional players for the day.

Emesley Ridenour and family, former residents of Weston, but lately of Port Angeles, Wash., have recently moved to Montavilla, a suburb of Portland, where Mr. Ridenour will engage extensively in poultry raising a business in which he has been successful both in Seattle and Port Angeles. However, the Oregon metropolis wooed him, and he has returned to the best state on earth.

Rev. Ralph E. Storie, who recently resigned his pastorate of the Baptist church in Pendleton because of doctrinal differences of opinion between himself and two or three members of his flock, is undoubtedly the most popular "first aid" to Cupid in the Northwest, says the Live Wire. During the little more than three years that he has been engaged in the ministry he has united 158 people in the holy bonds of matrimony.

Now is time to Prepare for Hot Weather

You'll find our Stock complete in all the Various Big Lines.

We recommend to the ladies of Athena and vicinity our ladies' white dresses, wash dresses, muslin underwear, parasols, neckwear, hosiery, silk petticoats, embroideries laces, ribbons and Summer dress goods.

Also, our beautiful line of infant's long and short dresses and headwear.

We call the men's attention to our big stocks of underwear in one and two piece suits, fine shirts in Negligee and Golf styles, latest in neckwear, hosiery, work and fashionable dress gloves.

FIX & RADTKE, Main St.

Mosgrove Mercantile Company

Ladies' Neckwear in Great Profusion

Ladies' and Children's Hose; All sizes, all colors

OUR GREAT SALE

Owing to the backward season, we are now overstocked with new, uptodate Ladies' Shirt Waists and Dress Skirts. All this season's goods, new and stylish, and we shall place them on sale Saturday morning, June 3rd. First come, first served. The price will be so ridiculously low that they won't last long.

Lot 1 All our $1 and $1.25 fine Lawn Waists, open back or front, NOW 89c	Lot 5 An immense assortment of Novelty Silk and Pongee Waists, no two alike, AT COST
Lot 2 All our $1.50 and $1.75 fine Lawn Waist trimmed in lace or embroidery, NOW $1.35	Lot 6 Our 5, 5.50, 6 and $6.50 Ladies' Dress Skirts, all colors and Black, NOW $3.95
Lot 3 All our $2 and $2.25 Waists, very fine material and elegantly trimmed, NOW $1.69	Lot 7 Our $7.50 and $8.50 Ladies' Fine Dress Skirts, great variety of materials, NOW $5.75
Lot 4 All our $2.75 and $3 Waists, extra fine and dainty effects, NOW $1.95	Lot 8 All our fine Voiles and sample Skirts, in great variety. Will be sold AT COST

B. & H. GREEN TRADING STAMPS WITHEVERY CASH PURCHASE

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

ABSOLUTELY PURE

Makes the food more delicious and wholesome

O, You Kid!

Don't Forget Walla Walla's Big

4th

of July Celebration

July 4 and 5, 1911

Under Auspices Merchant's Ass'n

TWO DAYS

Band Tournament, Biff. Bang.

Free Fun and Amusements, Street Spectacles, League Base Ball, Sports and Athletics, Something Doing Every Minute. See Large Bills. Reduced Rates on Railroads. Come all