Mr. Farmer, do you know that under the new Oregon law, you are held responsible for accidents to your employees? See B. B. Richards for information and protection.

Furnished House for Rent.—Mrs. T. J. Kirk offers her residence on Fifth street for rent, furnished. Horse, cow and alfalfa pasture will go with the place if desired. Call on her at once.

The new school board met Wednesday evening and went over the prospects of the school for the coming year. The full corps of teachers will be announced in a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brown of Dayton, Wash., returned home the first of the week, after visiting at the home of Mrs. Brown's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Jackson Nelson.

Charles Grant has purchased a restaurant equipment at Pendleton and moved it to this city. He will operate a restaurant in the building where at present he conducts a chop house.

New Shoe Shop.—Ward & Conob, new arrivals in Athens, have opened a shoe shop on Main street and are prepared to do all kinds of fine repairing on short order at reasonable prices.

Mrs. Ernest Bostwick is in the city from Spokane on a visit to relatives and friends. Ernest is now engaged in keeping books for a Spokane firm, but contemplates going back to the farm this fall.

When the Pendleton Buckaroos meet the Champs at Weston Sunday, they will have to go some to win. The Weston team will be strengthened by Athena's crack battery, Brown and Frink.

Will Dobson and C. O. Henry are delegates from the local K. of P. lodge to the grand lodge session at Astoria this week. Mrs. Dobson, who has been in Portland several weeks, will return home with her husband.

The Athena band will play at Walla Walla July 5th. The Garden City will celebrate July 4th and 5th and the band will pass through Athena on the morning of the 5th from Pendleton, where it is engaged to play on the 4th.

Will Duffy was in the city Tuesday for the first time since he was injured in the disastrous runaway on the road between this city and Weston, in which Charles Wilson lost his life. Duffy is able to move about with the aid of crutches.

Mrs. James Nelson came down from Blaine, Alberta, and is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Pinkerton, near town. Mrs. Nelson's mother has been in ill health for some time, and her visit is principally on this account.

James H. Gwinn of Pendleton, has been honored by election to the office of Grand Vice Chancellor of the Knights of Pythias, and J. W. Maloney has been re-elected grand master of the exchequer, a position which he has held with credit for two terms.

Ralph B. McEwen of this city and Miss Adele Goff were united in marriage at Portland last evening. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Goff, formerly of Hood River and Albany. A detailed account of the wedding will appear in next week's Press.

Bert Cartano carries the best family liquors in town, and he is making a specialty of fine table wines. For $1.50 per gallon, you can get choice Tokay, Muscat, Angelica, Sweet Catawba or Port. These are California's best product and give satisfaction wherever used. Call at the Red Front for the best and purest liquors.

Wm. Irie was in the city this week in the interest of the Meneley Lyceum Bureau for Chicago. It is probable that the Lyceum's course of five lectures and entertainments will be given in Athens during the coming fall and winter months. If the course is given it will be under the auspices of the Athena Commercial Association.

Little Bill Parker has his face and hands swathed in bandages as the result of an experience he encountered when he threw gun powder into the kitchen range at his home Tuesday.

One hand was burned quite severely and several blisters are on his face. Fortunately, there was but a small quantity of powder, otherwise the injuries would have been worse.

Frederick Proebstel, an Oregon pioneer of 1852, died at Portland this week after a long illness. For many years he resided in Union county, and was a factor in the upbuilding of that section. He was an uncle of G. W. Proebstel of Weston, who with his wife was in Portland at the time of his uncle's death, and attended the funeral.

Mrs. J. P. Bushee, a well known Pendleton woman, died at the home of her daughter in Portland, Tuesday night, following a long illness. Mrs. Bushee was a pioneer of this county, having settled at Umatilla Landing in an early day, when that place was a busy shipping point for the Inland Empire.

The members of the Christian Sunday School enjoyed a most pleasant all day picnic Tuesday in the Krebs grove near Adams. Games were played during the day, and at noon a most sumptuous lunch was spread on the green, to which all did ample justice. The day was an ideal one, and the occasion will long be remembered by the participants.

W. W. Jacobs returned Sunday afternoon from a winter's sojourn at his old home in Virginia. Mr. Jacobs is accompanied by his niece, Mrs. Walter G. Monroe of Washington, D. C., who will spend a few days with him at his home here before proceeding on her way to Los Angeles, Cal., where she will make an extended visit to her mother, Mrs. Frank W. Searle.

Robert Coppock has returned from the Blue Bucket gold diggings where he went several weeks ago in company with T. J. Watts. In some portions of the country through which he passed, crop prospects were very poor and in several localities indications were that crops would not be harvested on account of lack of moisture.

Daniel Cartano, of the Queen City Printing Co., Seattle, spent a couple of days with his brother, Bert, in this city this week. Mr. Cartano was returning from a visit to the old home in Iowa, where he spent a couple of weeks with relatives. He left Wednesday morning for Spokane, where he joined his wife and will return to Seattle next week.

The following is the program at the Dreamland for Friday and Saturday evenings: 1.—"Forgiveness," Selig. 2.—"Jim, the Ranchman," Selig. 3.—"Gigantic Waves," "Call of the Forest," Gaumont. For Sunday: 1.—"Capturing Cub Bears," "Max Leads a Novel Chase," Pathe. 2.—"Mid the Cannon's Roar," 3.—"Stuff Americans Are Made of," "History Repeats Itself," Edison.

There will be a hot game on the local grounds tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock, when the business men of Weston will play the business men of Athena. Ieh Watts is the promoter behind the Athena team and he is leaving nothing undone to have a winning team in the field. It is rumored that Col. Wood will play in center field for the Weston aggregation. Be there, for the game promises to be a warm one.

Alex McRae is in the city representing the manufacturers of the Idaho combined harvester. Two of these little machines have been unloaded at the O. R. & N. depot in this city this week. One is for Rugg Bros. and the other is for James King of Weston. The Idaho is a queer looking trick in the harvester line, requiring but six horses and two men to operate it. It is capable of cutting and threshing from 12 to 15 acres per day.

Weston's Strawberry day and horse show, which takes place Saturday, July 1, is being boomed all over the county. Weather permitting, Weston expects to entertain one of the largest crowds in recent years. Strawberries from the famous Blue Mountain ranches, with rich cream and sugar, will be served free. The horse show promises to be conducted on a large and successful scale. An exhibit of the products of the Mountain ranches will be a feature of the occasion.

New School Director.—M. L. Watts was elected school director without opposition at the meeting held Monday afternoon. Charles Betts was re-elected clerk, his election also coming without opposition. C. A. Barrett was the retiring member of the board. The Board now consists of S. F. Wilson, B. B. Richards and M. L. Watts, directors, and Charles Betts, clerk.

Another Carabana.—The editor of the Press has smoked another two-bit cigar at the expense of the editor of the Leader. If the season should last long enough, and the colonel could be prevailed upon to back his judgment on ball games, he would of necessity be compelled to establish himself at Key West or quit betting. He plays the ball game just like he farmed up in Franklin county—hindmost-end-to.

Sand Hollow Won.—So close was the rivalry between the Helix and Sand Hollow baseball teams, that the deciding game of the series was pulled off on neutral ground in Athens Sunday forenoon. Sand Hollow came out of the scrimmage victorious, with a score of 8 to 6. Wilson and Sanders were the battery for the Hollow. Town rooters were present in goodly numbers and cheered impartially for the contesting teams.
