It usually occurs in crowds or in crowded halls, theaters and churches where the atmosphere is close and the air foul.

ONE WAY OF GETTING EVEN

Policeman Is Willing to Allow Dentist Torture Patient After Latter Tells His Story.

"Here," said the policeman after he had hurriedly entered the dentist's reception room, "what's goin' on?" "You've had a man in there hollerin' bloody murder for nearly half an hour. Why don't you give him something to stop his pain?" "Give him something to stop his pain? My dear sir, you don't understand. I had occasion to take a lady to lunch one day last week—oh, it was a business matter, nothing more—and this chap saw me. Well, the next day he happened to meet my wife, whom he knew before she was married, and he mentioned that he had seen me and wanted to know what the other lady's name was. Of course, I—"

"Oh, never mind. Go ahead and kill him."

Too Much of a Risk.

The beautiful girl had fallen into the lake, and much to the displeasure of the moving picture man, the tried and tested hero refused to go to her aid.

"What's the trouble with you?" demanded the moving picture man angrily. "Why didn't you jump in and rescue the maid?"

"Skereed I might get drowned," responded the hero nonchalantly.

"But you are wearing your new hero medal?"

"That's just the trouble. The blamed medal weighs so much I'm skereed I'd sink."

May Be for Effect.

"I never before saw a man so enthusiastic about the future of his town."

"He does indeed seem to be very enthusiastic about the future of his town, but I have often wondered if he really feels that way or is merely playing a part."

"Why do you question his sincerity?"

"I happen to know that most of his money is invested in 'town lots he would like to sell.'"

Overdone.

"The doctors are urging all kinds of sanitary measures and precautions upon the public."

"Yes, if all the recommendations and warnings were followed, a man's home would look like a hospital."

A MARINE JOKE

Midshipman Easy—I wonder what people will say when they hear I am going to marry old Widow Billymums?

Lieut. Blunt—They'll probably say you're a mariner for money.

His Finish.

"I was surprised to see old Titewad's death notice in your paper this morning."

"You must be mistaken. The only notice concerning Titewad was the account of how he lost a thousand dollars in speculation."

"Well, he didn't live after that, did he?"

The Usual.

City Editor—Anything new about that accused deaf mute?

Reporter—He got his hearing today.

City Editor—What happened?

Reporter—He'd nothing to say—Puck.

Discovered.

"Why do you think Myrtle is in love?" asked the girl's father.

"I noticed this morning when I was in the library that a book of poems by Owen Meredith had been tampered with."

Practical.

He—if I should kiss you, I suppose you'd go and tell your mother.

She—No, my lawyer.—Boston Trap script.

New Idea in Finance.

"I have found a man with eight children who has apparently grown wealthier with each addition to his family," said a lawyer who is endeavoring to build up a practice on the east side. "He is a small shopkeeper, and by diligent investigation I have found that with the arrival of every infant he has filed a petition in voluntary bankruptcy, shedding all his debts and starting life nearly as unencumbered as the child."—New York Sun.

Time Saving.

A new variation of the now long familiar "while you wait" sign is found in an uptown avenue where a barber shop and a tailoring shop stand side by side. "Suits cleaned and pressed while you are getting shaved"

Finding Pearls With Roentgen Rays. According to a report from our consul in Birmingham, England, a suggestion was recently made that Roentgen rays be used to ascertain whether an oyster contains pearls. In this way, it will be unnecessary to open the oyster's shell and destroy the oyster, unless it contains pearls. If the Roentgen rays show that there are no pearls present the oyster will be put back into the water where it may continue to grow.

Rembrandt Museum.

Within a short time Amsterdam will possess a new attraction to lovers of art. The house where Rembrandt lived from 1639 to 1668, and where he passed the happiest years of his married life with Saskia van Uilenburg, is being restored and arranged as a small Rembrandt museum. The historical building, long much neglected, became the property some time ago of a society and is now being restored under the direction of a famous architect.

Worthy Suggestion. Whatever may your faith—and every man, even so-called infidels, have a belief of some kind—I wish to make one suggestion: Keep it sweet! Facts About Motherhood

The experience of Motherhood is a trying one to most women and marks distinctly an epoch in their lives. Not one woman in a hundred is prepared or understands how to properly care for herself. Of course nearly every woman nowadays has medical treatment at the time of child-birth, but many approach the experience with an organism unfitted for the trial of strength, and when the strain is over her system has received a shock from which it is hard to recover. Following right upon this comes the nervous strain of caring for the child, and a distinct change in the mother results. There is nothing more charming than a happy and healthy mother of children, and indeed child-birth under right conditions need be no hazard to health or beauty. The unexplainable thing is that, with all the evidence of shattered nerves and broken health resulting from an unprepared condition, women will persist in going blindly to the trial. It isn't as though the experience came upon them unawares. They have ample time in which to prepare, but they, for the most part, trust to chance and pay the penalty.

In many homes once childless there are now children because of the fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound makes women normal, healthy, and strong.

Any woman who would like special advice in regard to this matter is cordially invited to write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass. Her letter will be held in strict confidence.
