

Press Paragraphs

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Burke spent Tuesday in Pendleton.

Lost—A store key. Finder please return to H. A. Bundy.

G. D. Gatrielson, the well known insurance man, is in the city.

Mrs. Jack Parker visited in Walla Walla during the celebration.

Attorney Wilson was in Pendleton yesterday on professional business.

Miss Hazel Miller has returned from an extended visit to the Yakima valley.

Mrs. D. B. Jarman and children, of Weston, were guests last night at the Winslow home.

W. D. Chamberlain made a short visit to the city between trains Wednesday morning.

Mrs. H. I. Watts has returned from an extended visit with friends in the Willamette valley.

Mrs. Chas. Hall and children returned this week from a visit with friends at Pilot Rock.

The grain is beginning to ripen and especially the fields of Dale variety have taken a golden hue.

Mrs. Brookner is in the city from Spokane. She will do the cooking for Iley Winn's harvest crew.

Mrs. W. R. Taylor and daughters spent a portion of the week with relatives and friends in Pendleton.

Mountain berries are becoming plentiful in the markets, and are exceptionally choice this season.

W. A. Barnes came over from Weston this week and took home with him a fine, new rubber tired buggy.

Herbert Parker went up to Wenaha springs and joined the Athena colony of campers in celebrating the Fourth.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Thompson have returned from a visit with the parents of Mr. Thompson, at Weiser, Idaho.

Mrs. Merle Roby returned from Portland Tuesday, where she spent several weeks visiting relatives and friends.

Al. Sigman and Bert Wilson left Wednesday on a fishing trip to the Salmon river. They will return in time for harvest.

Wm. Tompkins was out on the streets yesterday, after a week's confinement to his home with his old complaint, rheumatism.

George Carmichael was in town yesterday from the ranch. He reports grain conditions good in his section of the country.

The blacksmiths are now devoting their time to repairing headers and harvesting machinery, preparatory to harvesting the big crop in this vicinity.

Rawl Miller acted as drum major for the Athena band during its Fourth of July engagement and his training at Corvallis made him a proficient one.

Mrs. Griswold, local manager for the telephone company, is taking her summer vacation at Meacham. Miss Ada Defreese is at the office temporarily.

Miss Lillian McDonald arrived in the city Sunday morning from her home in Spokane, and will be a guest of her sister, Mrs. Byron Hawks, for a month.

During the past few days of fair weather, considerable haying has been done. Wheat hay is in the shock and the first cutting of alfalfa is in stack and barn.

W. R. Martin and family and Mr. and Mrs. Dick Haworth arrived this week from Port Angeles Wash. and are guests at the two Haworth homes in this city.

George Brutober was down from his mountain ranch yesterday with a consignment of luscious mountain strawberries, for which he obtained a ready sale.

A successful three-days celebration took place at the Blue Mountain saw-mill, where old-time festivity prevailed, and many entertaining features were in evidence.

Pendleton defeated Weston in the Fourth of July game, score 3 to 0. Sturgis and Lankard for Pendleton and Wheeler and Keefe for Weston, were the batteries.

All members of Mignonette Rebekah Lodge, No. 86, are requested to be present at the meeting Tuesday night, July 11th, when installation of officers will take place.

There are more campers at Wenaha Springs at present than have been at the resort for some time. The pleasures of camp life are being enjoyed to the fullest extent.

Mrs. Win Burden arrived in Athena this week and with her husband has taken up residence in the Jones cottage on Jefferson street. Mrs. Burden has been visiting relatives at Foley, Minn.

Ernest Zerba, assistant cashier of the First National Bank, returned Saturday from vacation trip into the Palouse country, where he visited relatives. He says the Palouse has good crop prospects.

The Athena Commercial Association met in special session Monday afternoon and the members subscribed funds to cover an $80 deficit in the Athena's portion of the Athena-Weston road fund.

Link Swaggart has eight head of work mules for sale, at his home ranch north of Athena. These mules are ready to work, and are from three to six years old.

C. O. Henry was in charge of the Tum-a-lum lumber yard this week during the absence of Manager Johnson, who was with the band at Pendleton and Walla Walla.

Milton's city council has the matter of constructing crosswalks of concrete under consideration. Athena's crosswalks will be built as soon as the cement and gravel arrives.

This season has been a productive one for exceptionally fine roses, many Athena homes having been greatly beautified by splendid specimens of the most beautiful of flowers.

The steel for the trestle on Pine creek at the Baddeley place has arrived and is being put in place. The steel for the Wild Horse creek bridge near town is expected daily.

Dr. Newsom, in company with his little son, Max, and Miss Enid Cartano, drove down to Pendleton yesterday afternoon in his car, to see his wife, who is in the hospital.

It is said that this year's crop of wheat will be the largest ever harvested in the Pine creek district. Estimates are made that many fields will yield 40 to 45 bushels per acre.

If you want the best grain insurance going, just have a talk with B. B. Richards, who makes insurance a business, and is prepared to insure your grain in reliable companies.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Richards were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McBride on the Fourth, and spent the day at Cayuse, where they witnessed the Indians in their celebration of the national holiday.

York Dell has furnished his home with fine Mission furniture. The house when built, was finished in Mission style, and with the addition of the furniture, the effect realized is beautiful and homelike.

The latest example of Sam Pambrun's artistic skill as a taxidermist, is shown in the mounting of a fawn, found dead on the Umatilla river by Jack Read. The specimen may be seen at the First National Bank.

New screen doors are being put in at the Athena Meat market. Taylor & LeGrow, the new proprietors, desire to serve the public in the best manner possible, and use every means to keep the market clean and tidy.

In a letter from E. Weir, of Kalama, Wash., in which he renews his subscription to the Press, he states that crops in his vicinity are in fine condition, plenty of rain having fallen to insure an abundant yield.

A letter from Prof. Wiley, who is in Minnesota attending summer school, announces that he will arrive in Athena some time prior to the opening of school, in time to make general preparations for the year's school work.

Letters to his family state that the condition of A. J. Willaby who is receiving treatment in a Portland sanitarium, remains about the same. He is attended most of the time by his brother, but pines for home at times.

Bushy's colored minstrels came to town Thursday, made a street parade at noon and showed to a good sized audience in their tent at night. The performance was fairly good. A splendid band is carried by the company.

A family reunion was held at the Haworth home in this city July 4th, in honor of the arrival of relatives from Port Angeles, Wash. A splendid dinner was served by Mrs. Haworth, the elder, assisted by Mrs. Sam Haworth.

Mrs. Fred Lievalen, of Pilot Rock, with her little daughter Barbara, is a guest this week at the home of her brother, Byron N. Hawks. She was accompanied to this city in his auto, by the doctor, he returning home Sunday evening.

Phil Nadue, a professional ball player who was on the Walla Walla team a portion of the season, is in a Chehalis hospital with a fractured skull, as the result of being hit by pitched ball. No hope is given for his recovery.

Miss Caroline Borgen, of Harrington, Wash., will be a guest of her sister, Mrs. Rollo T. Brown, in this city for a short time. Miss Borgen has been making a tour of the Sound cities, coming here by the way of Portland yesterday.

Frank Simpson, formerly book-keeper for the Mosgrove Mercantile Co., was in the city Wednesday. Mr. Simpson has resided at Eugene for the past two years. He and Mrs. Simpson are visiting at the Rush home northwest of town.

Mrs. B. D. Tharp and daughter, Miss Lula, went over to Walla Walla Tuesday morning and stayed during the celebration. Miss Lula remained and will take a course of medical treatment, while visiting at the home of Prof. and Mrs. Fisher.

Miss McBride, of Walla Walla, is the new pianist at the Dreamland theater. Mr. Miller, the proprietor, has installed a second electric motor to propel the reel winding apparatus. Good pictures continue to be the drawing card at the Dreamland.

The cable saddle cinch rigging patented by Hamley & Co., saddle manufacturers of Pendleton, has become in great demand by dealers on the coast and in the middle west. A flattering offer has been made the company by a Portland firm to manufacture the rigging on royalty.

L. J. Foss, who left Athena several weeks ago for Crook county, is visiting his daughter, Mrs. T. M. Taggart, in Portland and attending the National Christian Church convention this week. This is Mr. Foss' first visit to the metropolis.

Mrs. G. S. Newsom entered the hospital at Pendleton Wednesday. Mrs. Newsom took ill the first of the week and symptoms of typhoid fever developed. Little Max is being cared for at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Cartano, while his mother is away.

The manager of the Yakima Tigers has made a proposition to Manager Littlejohn of the Millers to play here next Monday. A guarantee of $100 is asked, which precludes any chance of the game being pulled off. This for the reason that the gate would hardly draw that amount.

The members of the Athena Band returned from Walla Walla on the night train Wednesday. The band participated in a contest in which five bands contended for prizes. First prize was awarded the band from Startuck, Wash., and the Ladies' Band of Weston received the second prize.

The Dreamland program for Friday and Saturday nights, is announced as follows: 1.—"The Overland Coach Robbery," Pathe. 2.—"A Texas Joke," Star. 3.—"The Sculptor's Ideal," Gaumont. For Sunday: 1.—"A Piece of Lace," Edison. 2.—"The Sergeant," Selig. 3.—"Little Boy," Selig.

The Athena Millers lost two exhibition games at Walla Walla this week. Both sessions went to the Bears by the score of 6 to 2. Winn pitched the first game and Hanson the second. Frink, who was expected to twirl for Athena Wednesday, was detained at Wenaha springs, where he went to spend the Fourth.

Athena is to have a lecture course of a series of five numbers this fall and winter. Arrangements have been made with a Chicago lyceum bureau by the Commercial Association, which insures this city getting one of the best courses given. More information pertaining to the course will appear in the Press later.

H. H. Cohen, commercial editor of the Oregon Journal, was in the city yesterday. Mr. Cohen is on his annual pilgrimage to the grain producing districts of the Pacific Northwest and the special articles from his pen now appearing in the Journal are in accurate touch with the crop prospects of the Inland Empire.

Bert Cartano carries the best family liquors in town, and he is making a specialty of fine table wines. For $1.50 per gallon, you can get choice Tokay, Muscat, Angelica, Sweet Catawba or Port. These are California's best product and give satisfaction wherever used. Call at the Red Front for the best and purest liquors.

Mrs. Ellis B. Harris and baby arrived in the city Saturday evening from Baker, and visited with friends over night, going on to Waiilatburg Sunday morning. Mr. Harris, formerly a popular pastor of the Christian church in Athena, but now stationed at Baker, is attending the National convention of the church now in session at Portland.

Miss Gertrude Wheeler, of Weston, who was taken to a Walla Walla hospital Thursday of last week suffering from an acute attack of appendicitis was operated upon immediately after her arrival there and found to be in a critical condition. The operation was successful however and the young lady stands a fair chance for recovery. Miss Wheeler is a recent graduate of the Lewiston Normal school.

Marshal Gholson and his force of men have the hands placed on the pipe line, with the exception of that portion of the line running through the Taylor and Dunder fields. That portion will be repaired after the grain is harvested. The pipes at the intake of the water system have been relieved of the growth of roots, with the result that more water is coming into the reservoir through the gravity system than formerly.

John, the fourteen-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Bancroft, had the misfortune to be seriously injured while lighting a fire cracker Wednesday. His eye was seriously burned, but Dr. Sharp, who was called to attend the lad, says there will probably be no permanent injury to the sight. The other eye has been afflicted for some time, and the boy's escape with the sight uninjured in this instance is considered lucky.

Mrs. Alice Cox is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Watts, in this city. Last week she visited with Mrs. Minnie DePeatt, and during her stay here will be the guest of various other Athena friends. Mrs. Cox has been afflicted with asthma, but finds the air of her former home town to agree with her, and is greatly improved since her arrival a week ago. She will go to Weston tomorrow, where she will spend a few days.

For Sale or Trade at Once.

Five acres, well improved fruit ranch, with good 6-room house, near Freewater, Oregon; one-half mile west of the earline, at Sunnyside station. Two miles from Freewater and one-half mile from church and school. Owing to the fact that I am in business at Fall Creek, Ore., and my son who is living on the place intends to leave it soon, to take a position in Portland, this leaves no one to see to the place, so I will sell it on easy terms or would take part in trade. If interested go and see the place at once. Price, $3000.

A. T. Brewer, Fall Creek, Ore.

THE TOPLESS CORSET

The very latest Innovation in Corsetry

It is to be found in the decided reduction in bust height. The new bust line extends but a few inches above the waist line. The object is to give body freedom and suppleness of movement. The new Oriental and Empire modes require this bust effect.

We are exhibiting a new Henderson model of this design, style 359, for slight to average figures. The bust which is extremely low extends only three inches above the waist line. This model can be worn with or without a brassiere; is extremely cool and comfortable for summer wear. We have a complete range of sizes for all proportions of average figures. Price, only $2.00.

FIX & RADTKE, Main St.

Mosgrove Mercantile Company

Ladies' Neckwear
in Great Profusion

Ladies' and Children's Hose;
All sizes, all colors

OUR GREAT SALE

Owing to the backward season, we are now overstocked with new, up-to-date Ladies' Shirt Waists and Dress Skirts. All this season's goods, new and stylish, and we shall place them on sale Saturday morning, June 3rd. First come, first served. The price will be so ridiculously low that they won't last long.

Lot 1

All our $1 and $1.25 fine Lawn Waists, open back or front,
NOW 89c

Lot 5

An immense assortment of Novelty Silk and Pongee Waists, no two alike,
AT COST

Lot 2

All our $1.50 and $1.75 fine Lawn Waist trimmed in lace or embroidery,
NOW $1.35

Lot 6

Our 5, 5.50, 6 and $6.50 Ladies' Dress Skirts, all colors and Black,
NOW $3.95

Lot 3

All our $2 and $2.25 Waists, very fine material and elegantly trimmed,
NOW $1.69

Lot 7

Our $7.50 and $8.50 Ladies' Fine Dress Skirts, great variety of materials,
NOW $5.75

Lot 4

All our $2.75 and $3 Waists, extra fine and dainty effects,
NOW $1.95

Lot 8

All our fine Voiles and sample Skirts, in great variety. Will be sold
AT COST

B. & H. GREEN TRADING STAMPS WITH EVERY CASH PURCHASE