

Press Paragraphs

Mrs. Lillie Miller spent Sunday in Weston.

Mitt Bush was in the city from Weston Tuesday.

Mrs. R. A. Thompson spent Saturday with friends in Weston.

Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Bell of Weston spent Sunday in the city.

Drs. Smith and McFall of Pendleton, were in Athena Sunday.

Miss Carrie Sharp visited with friends in Pendleton Tuesday.

T. M. Taggart has engaged in the real estate business at Portland.

Attorney Wilson was in Walla Walla Tuesday on professional business.

County Commissioners Cockburn and Walker were in the city Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Betts will spend the summer in the mountains.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Pinkerton, July 3, 1911, a nine pound boy.

Fred Pelland came up from Adams and spent Wednesday evening in the city.

Miss Catherine Froome spent Sunday with relatives and friends in Pendleton.

Dr. Joseph Baddeley, the veterinarian, was in the city from Walla Walla Tuesday.

Mr. Sanderson, of the Freewater Times, spent Sunday with friends in Athena.

Mrs. Matheson, of Seattle, is a guest of her mother, Mrs. Jackson Nelson, near town.

Miss Gertrude Luna returned home Saturday from a week's outing at Wenaha Springs.

Lee and Ethel Johnson of Johnson's orchestra, were engaged by the orchestra of Pendleton last week.

Dr. and Mrs. G. S. Newsom have moved into the John Wright cottage on Second and Current streets.

There will be no services at the Christian church Sunday, owing to the absence of Pastor Meldrum.

Miss Dora Bennett is ill in Pendleton with diphtheria. Athena friends received word to this effect yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Huggins and Mr. and Mrs. Winn Burden spent the week camping on the Umatilla river.

Miss Mary LaBrache came over from Walla Walla and is visiting at the home of her parents south of the city.

The little son of Mr. and Mrs. Crusey of the City Bakery, fell from a fence Tuesday and fractured his right arm.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sheard have returned from an extended visit to relatives and friends in Dakota and Canada.

Bundy & Christian, the painters, have secured the contract for painting the new barn on the Wm. Dale place near Helix.

Mr. and Mrs. George Gerking returned Saturday from Portland, where they attended the Christian church convention.

Lost—A suitcase containing wearing apparel, on reservation road between Alex Kirk place and Cayuse. Finder will be rewarded, on leaving the suitcases at this office.

Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Taylor, and daughter of Phoenix, Arizona, are in the city, visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Wall.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Dale of Helix, were in the city yesterday. Mrs. Dale has been in ill health for some time but is at present improving.

J. H. Wilson, a druggist of Ukiah, is under arrest at Pendleton, charged with attempting to burn his store. His bonds are placed at $1500.

A number of "prairie schooners" passed through town this week. There seems to be an unusual number of movers on the road this summer.

Mrs. M. L. Akers of Pendleton, and little daughter, Maureen, visited at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Swaggart, near town this week.

Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Brown and family spent Sunday on the river. They were accompanied by Miss Borgen, who is visiting here from Harrington, Wash.

A number of combined harvesters will begin operations in this vicinity next week. Men seem to be plentiful and no trouble from lack of help is anticipated.

John Benson is over from Walla Walla county. He says that county will have good crops this season. He estimates that some fields will yield 50 bushels per acre.

Adams may secure electric lights and power. A representative of the Pacific Power and Light Co. has been in the town looking up the prospects for installing a system there.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Taylor of Fulton, well known in this city, held a silver wedding reception at their farm home Tuesday evening. Fifty friends and relatives were entertained during the evening.

Arthur Stone, who has been on the reportorial staff of the North Yakima Republic for several months is home for a few weeks. Art made good as a news-gatherer, and his work is of a high class.

Link Swaggart has eight head of work mules for sale, at his home ranch north of Athena. These mules are ready to work, and are from three to six years old.

Sam Bannister has come over from Walla Walla to harvest his grain here. Sam likes the Walla Walla country, and after harvest will return. His family is residing on the farm there.

James Quick, one of the best known insurance men on the Pacific Coast, has been in the city the past week, assisting his local agent, B. B. Richards, in soliciting grain insurance.

Harvest crews and others who desire first class new potatoes and garden vegetables can get the same of S. S. Piersol at most reasonable prices. First house south of David Taylor's.

Wm McDonald, formerly a baker of this city but lately homesteading in Walla Walla county, was taken recently to Colorado Springs, for treatment for lung trouble. He is reported to be in very ill health.

Portland has been chosen as the meeting place for the National grand lodge of Elks in 1912. The selection was made Tuesday at the session of the National grand lodge session at Atlantic City, New Jersey.

The Yakima Tigers were roughly handled by the Walla Walla Bears in Sunday's game. Berger pitched, and Walla Walla won by a score of 11 to 0. The Tigers won the pennant in the Yakima Valley league.

Neil Dozier, Sam Endicott, Pendleton gamblers and a man named Vaughan, of Heppner, were arrested and convicted of gambling at Pendleton, Wednesday. Officers caught them in a game at the Palace lodging house.

Bundy & Christian are giving a fine dustpan with each purchase made at their paint store amounting to $2.50. These dust collectors are of the "save-your-back" variety and neatly printed on them is the firm's advertisement.

Henry Barrett exhibited samples of wheat threshed this week on the Geer Springs ranch. The wheat is of good quality and will average from 25 to 30 bushels per acre. His new combine is working well and giving satisfaction.

D. R. Brownell, postmaster at Umatilla, and Mrs. Shinkle of Redlands, Cal., were united in marriage last week. The wedding is the result of a romance that occurred in the youth of the couple. They were sweethearts 45 years ago.

Camps McDougal and Cold Spring and other mountain resorts are beginning to appeal to campers who desire to escape the heated term. A plentiful crop of huckleberries is an additional inducement to those desiring to travel mountainward.

Walla Walla will try the commission form of city government. Under the Allen law, the question was referred to the voters in the election recently held, with the result that the commission plan carried by an overwhelming majority.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Schmitt and family of Waitsburg, and Rev. Lawson and family of this city, were recently entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schmitt west of town. A most enjoyable time was spent by all present.

The Sunshine club held the last meeting of the summer at the home of Mrs. W. H. Kissler, last week. Adjournment was taken until after the harvest, when the club will meet at the home of Mrs. Wm. Piper, on the second Thursday in October.

E. A. Dudley's new combine is equipped with a gasoline engine, which will give power for the separator or portion of the machine. These engines are proving to be a success on the combines and make the machines more proficient in every respect.

Mrs. Kidwell, of Walla Walla, who was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Griswold, for several days, had the misfortune to sprain her ankle while visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Forrest. Mrs. Kidwell left for her home Wednesday evening.

Kendall Smith had the misfortune to chop off the end of his thumb Wednesday. The lad was chopping kindling with a hatchet and missing the stick struck his thumb. Prompt attention served to replace the severed part, so that no serious injury will result.

John Rothrock came down from his mountain ranch near Mehan Tuesday. He has been engaged in getting out his winter's supply of wood. He reports good prospects for a bountiful huckleberry crop. His family will go to the ranch for the summer, in a couple of weeks.

Railway companies will hereafter pay cash for their newspaper advertising instead of exchanging transportation for advertising space. The interstate commerce law makes the handling of space transportation unsatisfactory, hence the change to a cash basis.

The meeting of the C. W. B. M. for July, will be held at the home of Mrs. Geo. Gerking, next Wednesday, the 19th. The meeting was postponed from the first Wednesday in the month, on account of the National convention of the church in Portland, a number of the ladies attending.

Bert Cartano carries the best family liquors in town, and he is making a specialty of fine table wines. For $1.50 per gallon, you can get choice Tokay, Muscat, Angelica, Sweet Catawba or Port. These are California's best product and give satisfaction wherever used. Call at the Red Front for the best and purest liquors.

Harvesting commenced this week in the Pine Creek district and the biggest crop in the history of that district is reported. For the most part the season is raised there, and the season has been particularly favorable to that variety of wheat, the weather being ideal for perfect filling and ripening.

Everett Knight, imbued with the spirit of "let 'er buck," and a desire to ride a cayuse straight up, that had soused George Winslip a couple of times Sunday, was thrown of course, and as a result sustained a fractured shoulder blade. Dr. Sharp reduced the fracture and says the youngster is gritty and stands his injury well.

The program of pictures at the Dreamland for Friday and Saturday is as follows: 1.—"By the Faith of a Child," Vitagraph. 2.—"A Night on the Coast," Gaumont. 3.—"The Empty Cradle," Pathe. For Sunday: 1.—"The Wanderers," Kalem. 2.—"The Motion Picture Man," Lubin. 3.—"The Emigrant," Selig.

The Ladies' Aid society of the M. E. church announces that they will hold a pastry sale on Saturday, July 22. The sale will be in a building on Main street. Contributions of cakes, pies, salads, dressed chickens or any other eatables are solicited, also a generous patronage of the sale. Patronize the ladies and save yourself on baking day.

Dr. Smith and Dr. McFall were in the city Sunday for the purpose of investigating the cases of infantile paralysis in this vicinity. Chas. Henry's little girl is improving, though not yet fully recovered. Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Johnson's child is in about the same condition as it was last week. Frank Berlin took his child to Walla Walla for treatment this week. No new cases have developed.

William Meinecke and Dallas Marquis, cab drivers, became involved in trouble at Walla Walla Wednesday night and Meinecke shot Marquis, and when later he arrived at the police station he committed suicide by shooting himself in the head. Both men had been cab drivers in Walla Walla for a number of years. The trouble between the two men started three weeks ago when they engaged in a fist fight at the depot.

A Mother's Club was organized at the home of Mrs. Chas. Coomans, on Thursday afternoon, July 13, with fourteen ladies present. Officers were elected as follows: President, Mrs. Thomas Lawson; vice president, Mrs. George Mahar; secretary, Mrs. Charles Coomans, and treasurer, Mrs. N. Dickenson. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Wm. Winslip, on Friday, August 4, 1911. All are cordially invited to these meetings.

Mrs. Chas. Coomans, Sec. Miss Mitylene Fraker, well known in this city, was married at St. Vincent's hospital, Portland, June 30, to John Robert Stites, just before she went to an operating table to be relieved of a serious illness. Preparations had been made for an elaborate wedding, set for July 5, but stricken with a critical illness, the invitations were recalled and the hospital wedding decided upon. Mrs. Stites is now out of danger, and is rapidly recovering.

An incipient fire which started under unknown and peculiar circumstances is reported from the home of Oliver Dickenson. The fire became ignited between the outside rustic and inner wall and when discovered it had nearly burned through the outer wall. No stove is located near where the flames originated. The house is new and practically mouse proof where the flames started. The origin of the fire is a mystery which will probably never be solved.

A transient teamster came near causing a conflagration at the McBride feed stable at the corner of Second and Current streets Wednesday afternoon. After feeding his team near the barn and departing, flames were discovered in the grass near the building by A. M. Johnson, of the Tumam Lumber company. The fellow had evidently dropped a lighted match while smoking. A few minutes more and the flames would have been against the barn.

"Pug" Bailey, old time twirler on the Pendleton base ball team in the days when Horace Stillman captained the team, flew into the city the other day and is waiting to participate in harvesting the present crop. "Pug" has been in almost every land under the sun. Of late he has been in the show business, coming to town with the "Cowboy and the Girl" company last week. Yearning for a touch of rural life and a few simoleons grafted by the honest sweat of the brow, he decided to bide a wee.

Ethel, the 13-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Bannister, had an eventful horseback ride soon after the family removed to Walla Walla county. When Mr. Bannister left here he procured "Jimmy D.," the well known running horse, from Jinks Taylor. One day Miss Ethel mounted the horse for a ride to Enterprise. The horse took the bit in his teeth and ran for six miles, the little girl being unable to control him until he had run that distance. Girl and horse were both uninjured after the long run, but Mr. Bannister lost no time in trading him to Fred Baddeley, who is now the owner.

Stayed That Way. "Hello, Stubbs! Haven't seen you for months. The last time we met, I remember, you were trying to break into literature. Did you succeed?" "Yes, and I've been broke ever since."—Boston Transcript.

Harvest Supplies of all Kinds, Arriving Daily

We now have one of the largest stocks of wool and cotton Blankets, Comforts, Shoes, Underwear, Shirts, Socks, Towling, Table Linens, Canvass by the yard, canvass Bed Sheets, and a full line of fresh Groceries.

Let us figure with you on your harvest supplies. We guarantee to meet any price.

Why not leave your money at home? When you buy your goods here, you are not buying by sample, but you get the real article. When you buy of an agent you do not know what you are getting.

FIX & RADTKE, Main St.

Mosgrove Mercantile Company

Ladies' Neckwear in Great Profusion

Ladies' and Children's Hose; All sizes, all colors

OUR GREAT SALE

Owing to the backward season, we are now overstocked with new, uptodate Ladies' Shirt Waists and Dress Skirts. All this season's goods, new and stylish, and we shall place them on sale Saturday morning, June 3rd. First come, first served. The price will be so ridiculously low that they won't last long.

Lot 1 All our $1 and $1.25 fine Lawn Waists, open back or front, NOW 89c	Lot 5 An immense assortment of Novelty Silk and Pongee Waists, no two alike, AT COST
Lot 2 All our $1.50 and $1.75 fine Lawn Waist trimmed in lace or embroidery, NOW $1.35	Lot 6 Our 5, 5.50, 6 and $6.50 Ladies' Dress Skirts, all colors and Black, NOW $3.95
Lot 3 All our $2 and $2.25 Waists, very fine material and elegantly trimmed, NOW $1.69	Lot 7 Our $7.50 and $8.50 Ladies' Fine Dress Skirts, great variety of materials, NOW $5.75
Lot 4 All our $2.75 and $3 Waists, extra fine and dainty effects, NOW $1.95	Lot 8 All our fine Voiles and sample Skirts, in great variety. Will be sold AT COST

B. & H. GREEN TRADING STAMPS WITHEVERY CASH PURCHASE