

Press Paragraph

P. H. Coman of Baker is in the city from Weston Tuesday.

Henry Stamper came over from Weston Tuesday.

Dr. J. F. Cropp of Walla Walla was in the city Wednesday.

I. M. Kemp was in the city Wednesday evening from Weston.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. ... friends on the mountain ...

Summer varieties of ... have made their appearance ...

Orville Reeves ... guest of friends in this city ...

W. W. J. ... three rooms to rent to the ... at reasonable price.

J. O. ... purchased a team of ... and is again running ...

R. A. Thompson of ... friends in Weston ...

Mrs. Fred Kershaw, of ... will go to Cold Spring for ...

Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Rogers were in the city yesterday from their home near Adams.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Koontz and Mr. and Mrs. Harry McBride drove to the river Sunday.

Jesse Fiorard and Guy Jonas have purchased the Corner saloon from John Durban.

Sheep shearers are returning from Montana after having a profitable season's work.

Miss Carrie Sharp and Miss Velma Wilkinson were in Pendleton Tuesday between trains.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Crawford were in the city from Weston Saturday, visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Keen spent Sunday in Walla Walla, visiting relatives and friends.

The first shipment of melons of this season's California crop was received by Dell Bros. Monday.

Matt Mosgrove, of the Mosgrove Mercantile company, was in the city from Milton Wednesday.

Mrs. George Proebstel and Mrs. Clarence Whiteman of Weston, were visitors in Athena Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bannister will locate at the McDougal camp on Weston mountain for the summer.

Miss Dora Bennett came up from Pendleton Tuesday and will spend her vacation with her mother.

George McDonald, of Walla Walla, was a guest Monday at the home of his cousin, Mrs. B. N. Hawks, in this city.

J. H. Ross, the well known Wild Horse creek rancher was in the city yesterday trading with Athena merchants.

Wanted—A situation as cook in harvest by a lady well qualified to manage cook house. Apply at this office.

Rawl Miller operated his picture show at Weston Monday and Tuesday of this week after a layoff of a couple of weeks.

Mrs. W. R. Taylor and daughter Lucile visited last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Mansfield in Walla Walla.

Bob Raymond was in from the ranch yesterday. His harvest crew will begin work the middle of the coming week.

Mrs. W. P. Littlejohn and daughter have been spending the past two weeks at the home of her mother, Mrs. Molstrom, in Pendleton.

Maurice Hill, writing from La-Cross, Wash., states that he has quit farming and is managing a wheat warehouse in that section.

The timothy hay crop on the mountain ranches is being harvested. The crop is a good one and balers are at work getting it ready for market.

The warm weather has played havoc with garden truck in Athena gardens. Lettuce, peas and other vegetables are wilting and drying up.

The Watts harvesting outfit was taken to the ranch north of town yesterday, where everything will be in readiness to begin threshing grain Monday.

J. H. Wilson, the Ukiah druggist who was arrested last week on the charge of attempting to burn his store, was released from the county jail ...

Walter Mulkey of Joseph, Ore. ... the city accompanied by daughter, visiting at the St. ... a guest of her cousin, Froome.

... took a party of the Umatilla river Sunday ... A pleasant hour in the swimming pool at low crossing.

... centered in a dog fight at Wednesday evening, so it is ... A considerable sum of ... hands on the out- ...

... harvest fire of the season ... from the John Crow place ... reservation, where flames ... a stubble field de- ...

There is a large number of men here ... work in the harvest fields. ... next week, when harvest will ... full blast, there will not be ... men on the streets.

... Elder Gabriel Sykes, of ... Episcopalian church, held ... meeting with the local con- ... Tuesday, this being the last ... meeting of the year.

... & Wilson, attorneys for G. ... Proebstel, have entered suit ... Malcolm Stevens for the col- ... of a promissory note, principal ... interest amounting to $80.

Levi Trowbridge dropped into the city from Spokane Sunday and called on friends. Mr. Trowbridge is traveling salesman for a Chicago firm dealing in advertising supplies.

Harvest crews and others who desire first class new potatoes and garden vegetables can get the same of S. S. Piersol at most reasonable prices. First house south of David Taylor's.

Meacham station is becoming quite noted as a summer resort for campers. Large numbers of people go there for the summer months to enjoy the cool weather the mountains afford.

The Ladies Aid society of the M. E. church will hold a pastry sale tomorrow in the building on Main street, vacated by B. B. Richards. All are invited to call and patronize the sale.

Mrs. J. H. Koontz, who has been ill for several months, has grown worse this week until she is now in a critical condition. Two of her sons have arrived in the city to be at her bedside.

A. L. Swaggart hauled lumber this week which will be used in the construction of a temporary house in which to reside until after harvest is over, when he will build a new farm house.

Wednesday Mrs. Casper Woodward, who resides west of town, gave premature birth to an infant, the child being born dead. Mrs. Woodward is getting along as well as can be expected.

George Forrest and Elizabeth J. Griswold were united in marriage at Walla Walla last Thursday. The couple are well known in this city, where their friends wish them success in life.

An intoxicated individual took a snooze on a bench at the St. Nichols hotel Saturday night and rolled kerpunk to the sidewalk. The jar did not disturb his slumbers, but Officer Henry did.

James Richards, brother of B. B. Richards, has arrived here to engage as separator tender in the harvest field. He will be employed by Bud Sanders, who has purchased a new separator this season.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis B. Harris and baby arrived in the city yesterday afternoon from Waitsburg, Wash., and are visiting with Athena friends. They are on their way to their home in Baker.

The swimming pool at Thorn Hollow on the Umatilla river has held attraction for several Athenaites during the warm spell. Several trips have been made by different parties of men in automobiles and hacks.

Miss Katherine Sharp of this city has been elected to teach in the public schools at Pendleton. Her sister, Miss Carrie, has taught at Pendleton for two years, and has also been retained for the coming year.

There promise to be a fair crop of apples in several orchards in this vicinity. However, in many of the orchards there will be scarcely any, owing to the effects of frost while the blossoms were on the trees.

Reports from the Williamson sanitarium at Portland are to the effect that the condition of A. J. Willaby is not improving. From a letter received by the family yesterday, it is learned that he is worse again.

J. H. Ridenour arrived in the city Sunday from Spokane, having finished the sheep-shearing season at Dunkirk, Montana. He avers that it is a relief to get out of that mosquito-infested region into God's country.

Water conditions are such that it is impossible to keep pressure in the mains during the night, and each morning finds scarcely any water in the pipes. For this reason, lawn sprinkling will have to be prohibited.

Albert B. Kirby and Edith Perlinger, well known young people of Adams, were married Wednesday. Mr. Kirby is a young business man of that city and his bride is the daughter of well known Umatilla county pioneers.

Mrs. Alice Cox, who visited friends in Athena and Weston the past three weeks, Tuesday took her departure for Portland, where she will probably make her home. Mrs. Cox came to this city from Colorado, where her son resides.

Mrs. C. M. Brotherton returned Monday from Walla Walla, where she went to attend her mother, Mrs. Wells of Franklin county, Wash., who was recently hurt in a runaway accident. Mrs. Brotherton reports her mother in a fair way of recovery. She is receiving every attention in a hospital in that city.

Base ball fans would like to see a series of games between the Athena and Weston teams of the Blue Mountain league during the summer. If the games were played Sundays they doubtless would draw large crowds. Both teams, with the exception of two or three players, are practically intact, and a good field of ball could be put up.

A. Mackenzie Meldrum, minister of the Christian church, has returned and will preach morning and evening July 23. He will give a report of the International Convention lately held in Portland. A large attendance is requested.

A depth of 350 feet has been reached by Miller & West, well borers of this city, in the Jesse York well, without striking water in any quantity to speak of. Mr. York has hauled water for years and is desirous of securing a good well of water.

While at Wenaha Springs Sunday, Jack Keefe and John Dickson of Pendleton saved a stranger from drowning in the bathing pool. Keefe first going to the rescue, was taken under by the drowning man, when Dickson plunged in and rendered aid.

In the society column of last Sunday's Oregonian an item appeared in which the name of Golda Willaty Corkrum was announced as among a class of young women who appeared recently in a musical recital at Eiler's hall, in Portland.

H. H. Alexander has purchased of S. F. Wilson, the three and one-half acre tract on which the ball park was located and will soon commence the erection of a five-room bungalow. Part of the tract is situated in Richards' addition to the city of Athena, and the other part in Park addition.

A. M. Meldrum arrived home yesterday from a short vacation, and reports that since attending the big convention in Portland, he has been climbing mountains and otherwise enjoying his vacation at Everett, Wash. Mrs. Meldrum and daughters are visiting at the Crockett home in Pendleton.

Jinks Taylor was minus his watch for a time the other day, and believing his friend, Charlie Henry knew of its whereabouts, "frisked" the big fellow in hope of finding the time piece. However, it developed later that Mr. Taylor had lost his watch, which was found and returned to its owner in due course of time.

Bert Cartano carries the best family liquors in town, and he is making a specialty of fine table wines. For $1.50 per gallon, you can get choice Tokay, Muscat, Angelica, Sweet Catawba or Port. These are California's best product and give satisfaction wherever used. Call at the Red Front for the best and purest liquors.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Swaggart desire the Press to state that they are deeply grateful and thankful for the assistance rendered them during the fire which destroyed their home last Thursday. Only prompt action and hard work could have saved anything from the burning house, and their heartfelt thanks are extended to all who so kindly assisted.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Dobson returned Tuesday evening from Portland where they spent several weeks. Mrs. Dobson left her mother greatly improved in health. She and her husband were delayed in returning home by an accident which happened to her brother, Guy Downs, who was injured in a street car accident on July 4. He is in a hospital, receiving treatment for three broken ribs.

Will Cameron, a young man who has resided on the reservation south of this city for many years, died in a Walla Walla hospital Sunday afternoon of typhoid-pneumonia. He was taken to Walla Walla the latter part of last week for treatment. The funeral was conducted from the Catholic church in that city Tuesday forenoon. Together with his mother, he is survived by two sisters and two brothers.

Taylor & LeGrow will move their meat market into the Cook brick building on Main street, which was formerly occupied by the Pioneer drugstore. The building, which is now being put into shape, will afford splendid conveniences for a market. This firm is doing everything possible to give its patrons the best the market affords and in moving into this building the best of facilities will be taken advantage of.

The Dreamland theatre has a most interesting program for Friday, Saturday and Sunday evenings. For the first two evenings the following is announced: 1.—"Rosemary for Remembrance," Lubin. 2.—"Feats of Riding Cossacks," "Max Foils the Police," Pathe. 3.—"A Lucky Toothache," "The Masher," Biograph. For Sunday: 1.—"Mazeppa," Selig. 2.—"The Grandmother," Kalem. 3.—"Life in Sengal," "Clink of Gold," Gaumont.

S. C. Ives left yesterday morning for the Soldiers' home at Roseburg, where he intends spending the remaining days of his life. The old man has been declining in health and on the advice of army comrades who became interested in his welfare, concluded that it was best for him to enter the home, where he will receive better attention than it was possible to give him here. No disposition has yet been made of his property in this city, which consists of lots and a small house.

A son of Red Elk, the Indian, had his foot cut off on a disc, while working summer fallow Wednesday. Dr. Newsom was called and found the foot cut nearly off at the instep, only the flesh and skin on the bottom holding together. The bones and ligaments were completely severed but notwithstanding the fact, the mother would not permit amputation. Dr. Newsom says that unless amputation is resorted to the boy will doubtless lose his life of blood poisoning, and in event the terrible cut should heal, the foot would remain useless.

Harvest Supplies of all Kinds, Arriving Daily

We now have one of the largest stocks of wool and cotton Blankets, Comforts, Shoes, Underwear, Shirts, Socks, Towling, Table Linens, Canvass by the yard, canvass Bed Sheets, and a full line of fresh Groceries.

Let us figure with you on your harvest supplies. We guarantee to meet any price.

Why not leave your money at home? When you buy your goods here, you are not buying by sample, but you get the real article. When you buy of an agent you do not know what you are getting.

FIX & RADTKE, Main St.

Mosgrove Mercantile Company

Ladies' Neckwear in Great Profusion Ladies' and Children's Hose; All sizes, all colors

OUR GREAT SALE

Owing to the backward season, we are now overstocked with new, uptodate Ladies' Shirt Waists and Dress Skirts. All this season's goods, new and stylish, and we shall place them on sale Saturday morning, June 3rd. First come, first served. The price will be so ridiculously low that they won't last long.

- | | |
|---|---|
| Lot 1 All our $1 and $1.25 fine Lawn Waists, open back or front,
NOW 89c | Lot 5 An immense assortment of Novelty Silk and Pongee Waists, no two alike,
AT COST |
| Lot 2 All our $1.50 and $1.75 fine Lawn Waist trimmed in lace or embroidery,
NOW $1.35 | Lot 6 Our 5, 5.50, 6 and $6.50 Ladies' Dress Skirts, all colors and Black,
NOW $3.95 |
| Lot 3 All our $2 and $2.25 Waists, very fine material and elegantly trimmed,
NOW $1.69 | Lot 7 Our $7.50 and $8.50 Ladies' Fine Dress Skirts, great variety of materials,
NOW $5.75 |
| Lot 4 All our $2.75 and $3 Waists, extra fine and dainty effects,
NOW $1.95 | Lot 8 All our fine Voiles and sample Skirts, in great variety. Will be sold
AT COST |

B. & H. GREEN TRADING STAMPS WITHEVERY CASH PURCHASE