Stenography 2,000 Years Ago.

It seems incredible, but it can be proved, already in the olden times here were stenographers who took down the speeches made in the Roman senate or in public. They were called otarii and we find a place in Suetonius where Augustus is angry because the stenographers reported the speech of Caesar for Metellus in a very imperfect manner.

SHE SUFFERED FIVE YEARS

Finally Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Erie, Pa.—"I suffered for five years from female troubles and at last was almost helpless. I went to three doctors and they did me no good, so my sister advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and when I had taken only two bottles I could see a big change, so I took six bottles and I am now strong and well again. I don't know how to express my thanks for the good it has done me and I hope all suffering women will give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. It was worth its weight in gold."—Mrs. J. P. ENDLICH, R. F. D. No. 7, Erie, Pa.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotic or harmful drugs, and to-day holds the record for the largest number of actual cures of female diseases we know of, and thousands of voluntary testimonials are on file in the Pinkham laboratory at Lynn, Mass., from women who have been cured from almost every form of female complaint, such as inflammation, ulceration, displacements, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, indigestion and nervous prostration. Every suffering woman owes it to herself to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. If you want special advice write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for it. It is free and always helpful.

Practical Christianity.
The story is told of a little housemaid, far over the sea, who when asked whether she realized that she was in any way different after uniting with the church, from what she had been before, thought for an instant, and then, smiling brightly, said: "Well I sweep the corners." She could hardly have given a better demonstration of her religious life.—Christian Herald.

Rhode Island's State Farm.
Rhode Island has a farm on which are located all her state institutions, including the state prison, state workhouse and Providence jail. The workhouse prisoners have done much in reclaiming and cultivating land, removing stones, improving the stream and building walls.

A Cough Medicine

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is a regular cough medicine, a strong medicine, a doctor's medicine. Good for easy coughs, hard coughs, desperate coughs. If your doctor endorses it for your case, take it. If not, don't take it. Never go contrary to his advice.

The dose of Ayer's Pills is small, only one at bedtime. As a rule, laxative doses are better than cathartic doses. For constipation, biliousness, dyspepsia, sick-headaches, they cannot be excelled. Ask your doctor about this.

SUCH A BLUNDERING BUNCH!

They Buried Bill When It Was Other Twin Who Drowned, Said Mark Twain.

Once upon a time Mark Twain was interviewed. After various questions the interviewer came to the question of relatives, and from then on, according to Twain's own version of things, the conversation ran thus:

"Who is this picture on the wall? Isn't that a brother of yours?"
"Oh, yes, yes! Now that you remind me of it, that was a brother of mine. That's William, Bill we called him. Poor old Bill!"

"Why, is he dead, then?"
"Ah, well, I suppose so. We never could tell. There was a great mystery about it."

"That was very, very sad. He disappeared, then?"
"Well, yes, in a general sort of way. We buried him."

"Buried him! Buried him without knowing whether he was dead or not?"
"Oh, no! Not that. He was dead enough."

"Well, I confess that I can't understand this. If you buried him and you knew he was dead—"

"No, no! We only thought he was." "Oh, I see, he came to life again."

"I bet he didn't."
"Well, I never heard anything like this. Somebody was dead. Somebody was buried. Now, where was the mystery?"

"That's just it. That's it exactly! You see, we were twins—defunct and I; and we got mixed in the bathtub when we were only two weeks old, and one of us was drowned; but we didn't know which. Some think it was Bill; some think it was me."

"Well, that was remarkable. What do you think?"
"Goodness knows! I would give whole worlds to know. This solemn, this awful mystery has cast a gloom over my whole life. But I will tell you a secret now, which I have never revealed to any creature before. One of us had a peculiar mark, a large mole, on the back of his left hand; that was me. That child was the one that was drowned. So, you see, they made an awful blunder. I was drowned, but they went and buried the wrong child. Sh-h-h-h, don't say a thing about it where the family can hear it. It's a very sore spot."

The Junkman of the Sea.
The carrier snail is to the sea what the junkman is to the land. It receives its name from its habit of carrying foreign objects on its back. Nothing comes amiss to the carrier snail if it is not too big. Cast-off shells of small molluscs, bits of broken coral, tiny stones, and even fragments of broken glass dropped overboard from passing vessels are cemented firmly to the edges of the growing shell. Nor is it satisfied when the shell is completely covered, but continues to add to its collection by fastening new pieces to the old ones already piled upon its back until it is no longer able to move beneath its burden.

As it is an inhabitant of tropical waters swarming with voracious fish, crabs, etc., there is method in its madness; its hungry enemies pass it by unable to distinguish it from the rocks and shells on the sea bottom. Some of the snails show a preference for tiny pebbles all of one shape and equal size, others accumulate only shells of one kind, and one picked up off the coast of Japan had its portable house entirely roofed with glass.

Growing Umbrella Handles.
At Maule, a small village near Paris, is carried on a singular industry which is little known. It is a nursery for the cultivation of trees suitable for use as umbrella handles, walking sticks and alpenstocks.

Nearly 500 acres of ground are given over to ash, oak, chestnut and maple saplings. One year after planting these are cut off near the root so as to make them grow several branches, which are then kept free from secondary stems.

The most curious part of the industry comes the following year. Incisions are made in the bark, thus engraving upon it various designs. When the bark is stripped these designs are found traced on the wood. At the end of the third year the branches are cut, stripped of their bark, bent into various shapes and sent to the manufacturers. Certain forms of handles are shaped while the branches are still growing.—Popular Magazine.

River Flows Inland From Sea.
A current of water will flow back and forth in a tide-water river, but on the island of Cephalonia, near Greece, says Popular Mechanics, is the curious phenomena of a river steadily flowing inward from the sea and disappearing. All rivers naturally flow toward the lower levels of the sea, and this curious instance on the island in the Mediterranean is not duplicated anywhere else in the world so far as is known.

The sea, which is almost tideless, enters the land at four points where the coast is practically on a level with the surface of the sea. These four streams unite to form the little river that flows inland until it finally disappears in the limestone rocks and sinks into the earth. The volume of the river is too great to be removed by evaporation and the question is, Where does it go?

As He Frequently Is.
"I always agree with my husband."
"Very sweet of you."
"Except, of course, when he is in the wrong."

A Drop of Blood

Or a little water from the human system when thoroughly tested by the chief chemist at Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., tells the story of impoverished blood—nervous exhaustion or some kidney trouble. Such examinations are made without cost and is only a small part of the work of the staff of physicians and surgeons under the direction of Dr. R. V. Pierce giving the best medical advice possible without cost to those who wish to write and make a full statement of symptoms. An imitation of nature's method of restoring waste of tissue and impoverishment of the blood and nervous force is used when you take an alterative and glyceric extract of roots, without the use of alcohol, such as

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery

Which makes the stomach strong, promotes the flow of digestive juices, restores the lost appetite, makes assimilation perfect, invigorates the liver and purifies and enriches the blood. It is the great blood-maker, flesh-builder and restorative nerve tonic. It makes men strong in body, active in mind and cool in judgment. Get what you ask for!

IN THE POULTRY YARD.

Keep up the fight against lice. Dust the hens frequently with insect powder, especially the hen that has a brood of chicks.

Cold rains will kill the chicks. See that they are under shelter whenever a storm occurs.

Feed your fowls in such a way that they will get exercise in obtaining it. Exercise increases the appetite, aids digestion and promotes a healthy condition generally.

Bits of meat carried out with brine from the barrel and left on the ground will give hens serious bowel trouble. Don't risk it.

Wanted the Saliva.
A woman living in a small town near Butte, Mont., purchased from an art dealer there a water-color outfit, with printed directions for its use. These directions included, among other things, instructions to moisten the brushes for the first time with saliva. In a day or two the dealer received the following note: "Dear Sir—The outfit is complete as ordered, except the saliva. Yours truly, Mrs. Blank."

Warship as Mussel Bed.
The cruiser Champion, training ship for the second class stokers at Chatham, has just been taken into dry dock after lying seven years in the Medway. The Champion's bottom was found to be covered with an immense accumulation of barnacles and weeds. It is estimated that 40 tons of mussels alone have been got off.—London Daily Graphic.

After trying traps and other devices, we were about to give up in despair when a florist told us to push moth balls down into the tracks. These drove them away completely—the odor of the balls permeating the ground.—Woman's Home Companion.

The Oldest Map.
After some controversy about the age of various maps that have come down to us from ancient times it has been finally determined by savants that the oldest is in the form of a mosaic in a Byzantine church at Malaba, in Palestine. It is about 1,700 years old and purports to be a map of a part of the Holy Land.

Nine things there are of which the superior man should be mindful: to be clear in vision, quick in hearing, genial in expression, respectful in demeanor, true in word, serious in duty, inquiring in doubt, firmly self-controlled in anger, just and fair when the way of success opens out before him.—Confucius.

Two Sides to a Crime.
It is all part of our tendency to be kind and considerate to lawbreakers; to think of the family of the man who has killed somebody instead of considering the family of his victim; to lay stress on the devotion of the relatives of the man who has looted a bank, rather than to take into account the broken depositors and their sharp sufferings. Hence the general approval of the fantastic extension of the pardoning power, which meets with no real, sane disapproval.—New York Evening Sun.

Will Inherit at Sixty-Five.
The will of Mrs. Mary Olmstead of Brooklyn, filed in the surrogate's office in Kings county recently, makes a provision that none of the legatees are to receive their share of the estate until they reach the age of sixty-five years, except in the case of the two grandchildren, who will receive their share when they become thirty-five years of age.

Opportunity Missed.
A small boy from town was spending a few days in the country. One morning he heard the grown folks complaining of having been kept awake the night before by a skunk. "Willie, what's the matter?" the fond mother inquired. "Why didn't some one wake me up?" he blubbered. "I never smelled a skunk in all my life!"

To Stop Nosebleed.
One of the commonest complaints among children is bleeding of the nose, and the remedies to be applied are of the simplest. A small wad of white paper inserted under the tongue or under the upper lip is generally all that is needed to stop an ordinary nosebleed, although pads of cotton dipped in ice water and placed at the back of the neck is the standby of many mothers.

Mixed Metaphor.
The famous commingling of metaphors beginning, "I smell a rat; I shall nip him in the bud," has been surpassed. According to London Punch a Yorkshire paper writes: "We hope Mr. Atkinson will keep his word and, with the ability he has always shown, tear to shreds and tatters the subterranean methods of the clique which at present rides the high horse."
