

Press Paragraphs

R. T. Brown was in Pendleton Monday on business.

N. Berkeley of Pendleton is in the city on business.

Dr. S. F. Sharp has purchased a new driving horse.

James Harris was in town from Weston Wednesday.

Mrs. Jesse Saling was in town from Pendleton yesterday.

Will Harden transacted business in Pendleton Monday.

Mrs. Lizzie Mansfield has been on the sick list this week.

Colonel Lucas, the Weston auctioneer, was in the city yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Mansfield are in the city from Walla Walla.

L. M. Kemp and Sim Gulley were in the city from Weston Tuesday.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wright, September 1, 1911, a son.

The Board family have returned from a camping trip in the mountains.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross were in the city yesterday from their ranch on Wild Horse creek.

G. B. Kidder was in town Monday from the ranch on the reservation, near Cayuse.

Miss Edna Taylor has accepted a position with the Mosgrove Mercantile company.

Charles Wilkes was in town yesterday from his ranch in the Juniper neighborhood.

Professor Turner, assistant principal of the Athena schools, arrived in the city Wednesday.

Mayor McCormick of Briggson, was in the city yesterday from his metropolis on the mountain.

Andrew Douglas well known in this city, has been confined to his home in Weston with sickness.

A number of young people attended the harvest dance at Weston Friday evening and report a good time.

The harvest ball, which opens the dancing season in Athena takes place this evening at the opera house.

Miss Kittie Gholson left Monday for Walla Walla, where she entered Fischer's Conservatory of Music.

Pat Pennell, representing a Portland wholesale furniture firm, transacted business in the city Monday.

Mrs. Lillie Miller has returned from Portland, where she spent several days in the wholesale millinery houses.

The steel structural work is under way on the new bridge which spans Wild Horse creek on lower Third street.

Charles Henry, Thomas Gilkey and Millard Kelly will spend several days in the mountains east of town, hunting bear.

Sunday morning's subject at the M. E. church, "Determination, or There Shall Be No Aids;" Evangelistic services in the evening.

Ed Koontz has been assisting the warehouse force of the Preston-Shaffer Milling company in the capacity of weigher, for several days past.

Since the Northern Pacific has put on a daily train service to this city, passenger and freight traffic has noticeably increased on that system.

E. M. Smith and family are now pleasantly domiciled on Normal Heights in Weston, where they will be at home to their Athena friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph McEwen came in from the ranch Wednesday and took the evening train to Walla Walla, where they were guests at a wedding.

David Ferris was in the city yesterday from his home in the Walla Walla valley. David reports good crops of grain and fruit in his section this season.

Rev. Hammond was in the city yesterday on his way home from Spokane, where he attended the annual conference of the Methodist Episcopal church.

George Ferguson, after spending several weeks in the harvest field, is again in charge of the shoe department of the Alexander store in Pendleton.

Shelby Alloway will come up from Pendleton tomorrow, and will make his home with his grandmother, Mrs. Lizzie Jones, and attend school in Athena.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Brandon, who formerly resided south of town on a farm, are down from their home at Hay, Wash., visiting friends in this vicinity.

Wheat hauling, which was temporarily retarded by the rains has again been resumed and thousands of sacks of grain are being delivered daily to the warehouse.

Roy Keller, who will ride Fay LeGrow's string of relay horses in the races at the Pendleton Roundup, next week, arrived in the city yesterday from Walla Walla.

Rev. Foskett, convention pastor of the Baptist church, will preach at the Baptist church in this city Wednesday evening. All are cordially invited to attend the services.

Louis Bergevin, who recently underwent an operation for appendicitis, at Walla Walla, has returned to his home south of town. He is recovering nicely from the operation.

Mrs. W. G. Hughes came over from Walla Walla Wednesday evening to visit her husband, Dr. Hughes. Dr. and Mrs. Hughes will begin house-keeping in Athena next week.

Dan P. Smythe and his crew of men came in from the Black Mountain country Monday with a large band of mutton sheep, which they entrained here for shipment to the Sound markets.

Mrs. S. F. LeGrow spent Sunday and Monday at the home of her mother in Walla Walla. Her sister, Miss Vera Bowles, has just returned from a summer's sojourn in southern California.

Mr. A. B. McEwen and daughter, Miss Jessica will leave for Scotland the latter part of the month to visit Mr. McEwen's old home. The trip will consume a period of several months.

Miss Gertrude Wheeler of Weston, visited friends in Athena this week. Miss Wheeler left yesterday for Guldeac, Idaho, where she will have charge of the primary department of the school.

Miss Cecile Boyd will leave this evening for Lewiston, Idaho, where next week she takes up her work as instructor in the Physical Culture department for women, in the Idaho State Normal school.

Mrs. William Tompkins returned home from Spokane Tuesday evening, after attending the M. E. conference. Miss Mattie Coppock, who accompanied her, stopped off at Colfax to visit relatives for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Barrett and Lavoie and Jessica McEwen returned Tuesday from an automobile trip into Walla Walla county. The party visited Walla Walla Lake and other points of interest, stopping at Elgin to visit friends.

Mr. Edward Benn, of Milton, will take charge of the books at the Mosgrove Mercantile Company's store. Mr. W. C. Howard, who has kept books for the company during the summer will leave for his home in Morrow county.

Mr. E. B. Aldrich, editor of the Pendleton East Oregonian, and Miss Elsie Conklin, who last year was a teacher in the Pendleton public schools, were united in marriage yesterday at the home of the bride's mother in Oregon City.

Pendleton Business College opens September 5. A large enrollment is anticipated. Ten per cent discount will be given to pupils enrolling before September 20. Graduates assisted to good positions.

M. L. Clancy, B. A., Prin.

Mrs. Crockett, of Pendleton, intends giving pianoforte lessons in Athena on Saturdays, beginning September 2nd, if a sufficient number of pupils warrant a class. Names of those wishing to enroll may be given to Mrs. Boyd, at the Press office.

Invitations will be issued shortly by the Athena Fraternal Dancing Club for a series of dances to be given this fall and winter in the I. O. O. F. K. of P. hall. The opening dance will be given by the club on Friday evening, September 22.

Fred Kershaw, who recently resigned his position as assistant cashier of the Farmers' Bank of Weston, spent Wednesday evening in the city, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Richards. Mr. Kershaw will join his wife in Portland this week.

Harry Sayer was in town from his ranch on the Umatilla river, Tuesday. Harry has a good crop of grain to dispose of this year. He is diversifying his farming to some extent, finding that it pays to raise millet, carrots, etc., for stock feed.

The soaking rains of this week have effectually done away with the dust and incidentally paved the way for a more enjoyable time at the Roundup next week. Things have brightened up generally and the editor's string bean crop has peaked up wonderfully.

Farmers' Day at the county fair Wednesday, Sept. 13, is to be one of the big days of the fair week. The Farmers' Union will have charge of the program. Addresses will be made by prominent speakers on topics of general interest pertaining to the farm.

F. J. Sherwood, an efficient barber, is employed at the Parker barber shop and is pleasing the customers of that tonorial emporium with his skillful work. He is a "left hander," and the way he manipulates the razor in the elimination of hirsute growth is interesting.

Claude Beale was in from the reservation ranch yesterday. He is hauling his wheat crop to the warehouse at Thorn Hollow station. The wagon bridge at the Thorn Hollow crossing has been changed, so that the short turn at the north approach has been done away with.

Now that the rainy season has set in, housecleaning days are here. Athena housewives are fortunate in being able to secure the services of G. E. Patton, who makes a specialty of this kind of work. Orders for his services left at Parker's barber shop will receive prompt attention.

Miss Lizzie Sheard has resumed her position in the Fix & Radtke store, after several months vacation. Miss Zelma DelPant, who was working in the store temporarily, leaves this afternoon for Tacoma, where with the aid of the first semester she will complete the high school course.

The Friday and Saturday's program at the Dreamland Theater follows: "Spotted Snake Schooling," Kalem; "A Dog-on Business," Essanay; "The Romany Wife," Kalem. The bill for Sunday will be an especially interesting one: "Lucey at Boarding School," Pathe; "Rival Sereaders," Urban Elipse; "Suffer Little Children, For of Such is the Kingdom of Labor," Edison.

Mrs. Lillie Miller announces her first grand opening of fall hats for tomorrow, Saturday. Some beautiful things will be shown in the new shapes in pattern hats. Mrs. Miller will make a specialty of the popular new veils in silk net, now so much worn in the cities. Her first consignment is replete with the latest novelties and all the ladies of Athena and vicinity are cordially invited tomorrow, and every day thereafter.

Misses Katherine and Carrie Sharp left today for Pendleton, where they each have positions in the public schools. This is Miss Carrie's fourth year in Pendleton, an indication that she is doing good work in the county seat schools. The young ladies will do light housekeeping.

The Walquist-Moran prize fight for the championship of the world, which took place some months ago, made its appearance in motion pictures at the Dreamland theater last night. The pictures revealed the full fight of thirteen rounds. It took 46 minutes to run the three reels through the machine.

A. L. Swaggart left for Portland Wednesday morning for the purpose of making arrangements to move there to reside for the winter. Mr. Swaggart some time ago came into possession of some valuable property in the metropolis, including an interest in an apartment house and nice bungalow residence.

Athena friends in correspondence with Chas. H. Brown, hear that he and Mrs. Brown have again moved to Redlands, California, where they formerly resided. Their present address is 557, High Avenue. The hospitable couple extend an invitation to Athena friends to visit them there, promising to allow them to feast upon oranges.

Wines are the staples in family liquors. Bert Cartano carries a large and varied stock of select vintages. $1.50 per gallon, you can get choice Tokay, Muscat, Angelica, Sweet Catawba or Port. These are California's best product and give satisfaction wherever used. Call at the Red Front for the best and purest liquors.

J. V. Mitchell has resigned his position as bookkeeper for the Preston-Shaffer Milling company in this city, and will hereafter engage in farming. Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell will reside on the Keen place west of town. The cottage on Adams street, vacated by them will be occupied by Professor Wiley and family.

F. S. LeGrow, York Dell, Wm. Winship and Harry Alexander made the trip to Walla Walla Lake Sunday by automobile, returning Tuesday evening. They feasted on luscious "yank," a species of trout that inhabits the waters of Walla Walla Lake only, and which afford great sport to fishermen a little later in the season.

Millard Kelly and Tom Gilkey have invested in an Airedale terrier dog. He is the first of his species to roam the streets of Athena and has attracted considerable attention from the local dog fanciers. The Airedale is touted as being the best all round dog there is on the market for general purposes and for big game hunting, he is said to stand without an equal.

Mrs. Lizzie Jones is daily receiving shipments of the new fall millinery, which is being shipped from Bradshaw Bros.' establishment in Minneapolis, as well as from some of the principal wholesale houses in Portland and Spokane. Miss Chapman has returned from Portland where she studied the late styles, and some stunning effects in pattern hat creations are the result. Call and see the new styles as they arrive.

Pendleton is indignant over the reports which have been circulated widespread to the effect that the city will not be able to care for her many guests during the Roundup. The Commercial Club and the frontier association have been making preparations for weeks to accommodate the visitors and announce emphatically that every person who comes to the wild west show will be given a bed and meals without difficulty.

The Mothers' Club met at the home of Mrs. William Winship, September 1st, with eleven ladies present. Mrs. Sobubert read a very interesting article on "Selfishness," and the "Story of Life," read by Mrs. Rollo Brown, was both interesting and instructive. Mrs. Winship followed with a pleasing little article on "Manners at Table." Two new members were enrolled. Every lady is cordially invited to attend these meetings. The next will be at the home of Mrs. Charles Norris, October 6.

The monthly meeting of the Christian Women's Board of Missions was held Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Charles Brotherton. A most interesting business session was held, and officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: President, Mrs. George Gasking; vice president, Mrs. Henry Koepke; secretary, Mrs. Chas. Gasking and treasurer, Mrs. J. V. Mitchell. It was decided that the new year books should soon be issued, as the year's work closes with the next meeting, which will be held in rooms at the Christian church building, with Mrs. Meldrum as hostess. After the business session, refreshments were served by Mrs. Brotherton in her usual lavish manner.

Rev. Thomas Lawson was returned to the pastorate of the Methodist Episcopal church in this city by the conference at Spokane. This will be Mr. Lawson's second year here, and the members of the church are pleased to know that he has been given the charge here again. Ministers known to Athena people fared well in appointments. Among them, Rev. Roberts goes back to Dayton, Wash.; Rev. Armfield remains in Spokane; Rev. Evans returns to Pendleton and Rev. B. E. Koontz received the appointment of Superintendent of the Cour d'Alene district. Rev. Gatriel Svare, the retiring superintendent of the Walla Walla district, has taken the Walla Walla circuit, and the new superintendent of this district is the Rev. Robert Warner.

The Richest Cream of the Market

WE'RE not satisfied to place just ordinary clothes in stock, because the men and young men who do their purchasing from us would not be the least interested in ordinary clothes. There isn't one doubt, but "MILLER-MADE" Clothes will come nearer meeting the general desire than any you have ever seen and as they are priced moderately, there will be nothing to discourage your purchasing them. The garment here shown is a conservative, plain, neat-looking business suit without frills, made to fit you.

$15.00 to $25.00

The "Miller-Made" Store. Fix & Radtke Proprietors.

THE ATHENA MEAT MARKET

We carry the best MEATS That Money Buys

Our Market is Clean and Cool Insuring Wholesome Meats.

TAYLOR & LEGROW
Main Street, Athena, Oregon

There will be no more split sticks. There will be no rivet heads to wear off and allow the stick to drop off, when you use the "AKERS PATENT CLAMP" DRAPER.

These Fasteners are made of steel expressly for the purpose and hold as if in a vice. They have stood the severest test and are pronounced by all who have used them to be superior to other fasteners. We make them in all widths and all lengths and use only the best materials. Order from the PENDLETON IRON WORKS, Pendleton, Oregon.

COLUMBIA COLLEGE

Christian but not Sectarian. : Property Values, $75,000

A Select School for Young Men and Young Ladies, who Seek the Highest Ideals in Manhood and Womanhood.

Located at Milton, Oregon

Beautiful for Situation. A Land of Fruits and Flowers. Mountain Water. Pure Air. Healthful Conditions. Six Passenger Trains Daily. Electric Street Cars. Not a Saloon in 20 years. Moral Atmosphere Wholesome.

Certificates Accepted at State University and other Schools without Re-examination.

Thorough Courses—Literary, Scientific, Commercial Department, including Shorthand and Typewriting; Conservatory of Music, including Piano, Voice and Stringed Instruments; Elocution; Art.

For CATALOGUE AND INFORMATION, SEND TO H. J. FINN, Milton, Ore.

Harry Sayer was in town from his ranch on the Umatilla river, Tuesday. Harry has a good crop of grain to dispose of this year. He is diversifying his farming to some extent, finding that it pays to raise millet, carrots, etc., for stock feed.

The soaking rains of this week have effectually done away with the dust and incidentally paved the way for a more enjoyable time at the Roundup next week. Things have brightened up generally and the editor's string bean crop has peaked up wonderfully.

Farmers' Day at the county fair Wednesday, Sept. 13, is to be one of the big days of the fair week. The Farmers' Union will have charge of the program. Addresses will be made by prominent speakers on topics of general interest pertaining to the farm.

F. J. Sherwood, an efficient barber, is employed at the Parker barber shop and is pleasing the customers of that tonorial emporium with his skillful work. He is a "left hander," and the way he manipulates the razor in the elimination of hirsute growth is interesting.

Claude Beale was in from the reservation ranch yesterday. He is hauling his wheat crop to the warehouse at Thorn Hollow station. The wagon bridge at the Thorn Hollow crossing has been changed, so that the short turn at the north approach has been done away with.

Now that the rainy season has set in, housecleaning days are here. Athena housewives are fortunate in being able to secure the services of G. E. Patton, who makes a specialty of this kind of work. Orders for his services left at Parker's barber shop will receive prompt attention.

Miss Lizzie Sheard has resumed her position in the Fix & Radtke store, after several months vacation. Miss Zelma DelPant, who was working in the store temporarily, leaves this afternoon for Tacoma, where with the aid of the first semester she will complete the high school course.

The Friday and Saturday's program at the Dreamland Theater follows: "Spotted Snake Schooling," Kalem; "A Dog-on Business," Essanay; "The Romany Wife," Kalem. The bill for Sunday will be an especially interesting one: "Lucey at Boarding School," Pathe; "Rival Sereaders," Urban Elipse; "Suffer Little Children, For of Such is the Kingdom of Labor," Edison.

Mrs. Lillie Miller announces her first grand opening of fall hats for tomorrow, Saturday. Some beautiful things will be shown in the new shapes in pattern hats. Mrs. Miller will make a specialty of the popular new veils in silk net, now so much worn in the cities. Her first consignment is replete with the latest novelties and all the ladies of Athena and vicinity are cordially invited tomorrow, and every day thereafter.

Misses Katherine and Carrie Sharp left today for Pendleton, where they each have positions in the public schools. This is Miss Carrie's fourth year in Pendleton, an indication that she is doing good work in the county seat schools. The young ladies will do light housekeeping.

The Walquist-Moran prize fight for the championship of the world, which took place some months ago, made its appearance in motion pictures at the Dreamland theater last night. The pictures revealed the full fight of thirteen rounds. It took 46 minutes to run the three reels through the machine.

A. L. Swaggart left for Portland Wednesday morning for the purpose of making arrangements to move there to reside for the winter. Mr. Swaggart some time ago came into possession of some valuable property in the metropolis, including an interest in an apartment house and nice bungalow residence.

Athena friends in correspondence with Chas. H. Brown, hear that he and Mrs. Brown have again moved to Redlands, California, where they formerly resided. Their present address is 557, High Avenue. The hospitable couple extend an invitation to Athena friends to visit them there, promising to allow them to feast upon oranges.

Wines are the staples in family liquors. Bert Cartano carries a large and varied stock of select vintages. $1.50 per gallon, you can get choice Tokay, Muscat, Angelica, Sweet Catawba or Port. These are California's best product and give satisfaction wherever used. Call at the Red Front for the best and purest liquors.

J. V. Mitchell has resigned his position as bookkeeper for the Preston-Shaffer Milling company in this city, and will hereafter engage in farming. Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell will reside on the Keen place west of town. The cottage on Adams street, vacated by them will be occupied by Professor Wiley and family.

F. S. LeGrow, York Dell, Wm. Winship and Harry Alexander made the trip to Walla Walla Lake Sunday by automobile, returning Tuesday evening. They feasted on luscious "yank," a species of trout that inhabits the waters of Walla Walla Lake only, and which afford great sport to fishermen a little later in the season.

Millard Kelly and Tom Gilkey have invested in an Airedale terrier dog. He is the first of his species to roam the streets of Athena and has attracted considerable attention from the local dog fanciers. The Airedale is touted as being the best all round dog there is on the market for general purposes and for big game hunting, he is said to stand without an equal.

Mrs. Lizzie Jones is daily receiving shipments of the new fall millinery, which is being shipped from Bradshaw Bros.' establishment in Minneapolis, as well as from some of the principal wholesale houses in Portland and Spokane. Miss Chapman has returned from Portland where she studied the late styles, and some stunning effects in pattern hat creations are the result. Call and see the new styles as they arrive.

Pendleton is indignant over the reports which have been circulated widespread to the effect that the city will not be able to care for her many guests during the Roundup. The Commercial Club and the frontier association have been making preparations for weeks to accommodate the visitors and announce emphatically that every person who comes to the wild west show will be given a bed and meals without difficulty.

The Mothers' Club met at the home of Mrs. William Winship, September 1st, with eleven ladies present. Mrs. Sobubert read a very interesting article on "Selfishness," and the "Story of Life," read by Mrs. Rollo Brown, was both interesting and instructive. Mrs. Winship followed with a pleasing little article on "Manners at Table." Two new members were enrolled. Every lady is cordially invited to attend these meetings. The next will be at the home of Mrs. Charles Norris, October 6.

The monthly meeting of the Christian Women's Board of Missions was held Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Charles Brotherton. A most interesting business session was held, and officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: President, Mrs. George Gasking; vice president, Mrs. Henry Koepke; secretary, Mrs. Chas. Gasking and treasurer, Mrs. J. V. Mitchell. It was decided that the new year books should soon be issued, as the year's work closes with the next meeting, which will be held in rooms at the Christian church building, with Mrs. Meldrum as hostess. After the business session, refreshments were served by Mrs. Brotherton in her usual lavish manner.

Rev. Thomas Lawson was returned to the pastorate of the Methodist Episcopal church in this city by the conference at Spokane. This will be Mr. Lawson's second year here, and the members of the church are pleased to know that he has been given the charge here again. Ministers known to Athena people fared well in appointments. Among them, Rev. Roberts goes back to Dayton, Wash.; Rev. Armfield remains in Spokane; Rev. Evans returns to Pendleton and Rev. B. E. Koontz received the appointment of Superintendent of the Cour d'Alene district. Rev. Gatriel Svare, the retiring superintendent of the Walla Walla district, has taken the Walla Walla circuit, and the new superintendent of this district is the Rev. Robert Warner.

Do You Want a Position

All schools are not alike, and especially in helping students to a position. Do not overlook this point.

PENDLETON BUSINESS COLLEGE cannot supply the calls received for stenographers and bookkeepers and has several good positions in view.

Students from other business colleges are attending this school. What does this prove? That we give the best. Nothing else would satisfy us. Nothing else should satisfy you. Bookkeeping, Shorthand and Typewriting and all business subjects practically and thoroughly. Lectures on commercial law by a practicing attorney. Day and evening classes. School opens September 5, 1911. Don't wait. Decide now. For particulars write, or phone Black 762.

M. L. CLANCY, B. A., Prin.

Mosgrove Mercantile Co

Corner Main and 3rd, Athena, Oregon

Just Received--The latest novelties in Ladies' Cloaks and Dress Skirts. Come and buy before assortment is broken.

New Dress Goods, Laces, New Silks, New Bardings.

B. & H. GREEN TRADING STAMPS WITHEVERY CASH PURCHASE

Pineules A dose at bed time usually relieves the most severe case before morning.

30-days' treatment for $1.00. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

BACK-ACHE