

Press Paragraphs

Charles Norris is in Walla Walla today.

Ernest Knight the Helix rancher, was in the city Wednesday.

Marshal Gholson is attending the Walla Walla fair today.

Arthur Stone has returned from a business visit to Boise, Idaho.

"Red" Smith is employed at the Bundy & Christian paint store.

Mrs. Walter M. Ely was the guest last night of friends in the city.

Mrs. Harry McBride and Mrs. Will Miller drove to Weston Monday.

Ed Koontz and Byron Hawks spent yesterday on the Umatilla river, fishing.

Dr. Moore, of Portland, was a guest at the home of Dr. Hughes, Friday night.

Mrs. A. R. Eoher and Mrs. Ernest Schrimpf were in Walla Walla Wednesday.

Mrs. Warren Raymond visited relatives here this week, from her home in Walla Walla.

Bundy & Christian have the contract for painting the Stone and Redford farm houses.

Miss Lura Flock is assisting in the trimming department of Mrs. Jones' millinery store.

Alex McRae was down from Spokane circulating among his Athens friends this week.

Mrs. Edgar Forrest left last evening for Walla Walla, after a visit with friends here.

Mrs. A. A. Foss and Mrs. Henry Dell went over to the Walla Walla fair Monday morning.

M. J. McDaniel is up from his home in Portland visiting among his Athens and Weston friends.

Johanne Ridenour and George Kinross were over Wednesday from Weston and took in the circus.

Always remember that the Dell boys have the best market affords in fresh fruits and vegetables.

Russell Piersol has accepted a position in the mercantile establishment of the firm of Fix & Radtke.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Boynton of Pendleton visited over Sunday with Mrs. Lizzie Jones in this city.

Mrs. Inez Moore of Walla Walla has been a guest the past week of her sister, Mrs. C. M. Brotherton.

Chas. Miller, the well digger, went over to Kennewick this week, to assist in operations in his line there.

Mrs. M. Woodward and daughter, Miss Eva, of Walla Walla came over from the garden city Wednesday.

Mrs. Lillie Miller will go to Walla Walla tomorrow, where she will order another shipment of winter hats.

Fred Wilson made a business trip to Portland this week going down by way of Walla Walla Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Lizzie Mansfield went over to Walla Walla today to visit at the D. H. Mansfield home and attend the fair.

Circuit court has been in session this week, the criminal cases on the docket claiming the attention of the court.

J. T. Michael was in the city Wednesday, on his way to his home in Portland, after a visit to friends in Weston.

Hugh McLean came in from Pendleton yesterday. He is located in Portland, and spent Saturday in Pendleton at the Roundup.

Miss Lucile Kemp was in the city Wednesday evening from her home in Weston, having joined the music class of Prof. Blakeley.

Mrs. Alex. Johnson, who has been ill with typhoid fever at her home north of town, is reported on the fair road to recovery.

A. Mackenzie Meldrum will begin a series of lectures the first week in October, to be given each Wednesday evening during the winter.

Government officials have arrested Jim Myers, Frank McSwain, Jeff Brisbols and Stephen Renben on the charge of selling liquor to Indians.

Mrs. Samuel Haworth returned Sunday from a visit to her parents in Walla Walla. Her mother has been seriously ill at her home there.

James Knight and his bride visited in the city from Coudon, this week, returning to their home a day or two ago. They will reside on a farm.

Maurice Hill will arrive home from LaCrosse Sunday, morning and will leave the same evening for Eugene, where he will attend the university.

Mrs. Lizzie Jones will receive her latest suitcase hats tomorrow. She has a beautiful assortment of fall styles of pattern hats to choose from.

Mr. and Mrs. John Brinkley have been guests this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Koontz. Mr. and Mrs. Brinkley reside in Portland.

Mrs. Lillie Miller has received several new consignments of millinery this week, and is expecting a new shipment of the jaunty little suitcase hats.

Bob Fletcher, circulation manager for the East Oregonian, came up from Pendleton yesterday and worked the town in the interest of his publication.

Uncle John Hiteman came in and renewed his subscription to the Press this week. He is one of the oldest subscribers on the Press subscription list.

Ralph Reser and Arthur Foster, Walla Walla boys and students at Whitman college, were guests over Sunday of Dr. and Mrs. W. G. Hughes.

Mrs. Hugh McIntyre arrived home last evening from Oakland, Cal., where she has been in a hospital for the past three months. She is much improved in health.

Pendleton High school expects to put a strong football team in the field this year. Five of last year's men will find places on the team which will be coached by Dr. W. H. Lytle.

Donald Fitzgerald, erstwhile Pendleton street railway promoter, has been convicted in Spokane of selling an unraze tract that belonged to another man. Fitzgerald figured with several influential Walla Walla men on a street railway franchise at Pendleton, but the scheme fell through with failure to dispose of bonds to Pendleton people.

Marion Hansell announces the sale of stock and farm machinery, to take place at the J. J. Gross place on Wednesday, September 27. The sale will begin at 10 o'clock, with free lunch at noon.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Barnett arrived in Weston Wednesday evening from Alberta, where they have been looking after their land interests. They will visit Athens before returning to Portland.

Cole & Rogers' Dog and Pony show exhibited in Athens Wednesday afternoon and evening to a small crowd. Too much Roundup and fair. The show was a small one, but good in every department.

Mrs. H. H. Hill will leave the first of the week for a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Orie Whitman, at LaCrosse, Wash., and will go from there to Lewiston to see her mother and sister who reside there.

Amos Shick has been very critically ill at his home on the west side this week. Mr. Shick is well advanced in years and it is feared that his sickness, which is occasioned by heart trouble, may terminate fatally.

Miss Katherine Romig, teacher of music in the public schools, is now ready to give lessons in voice culture. Those desiring instruction will please call at the public school or at the home of Mrs. Wilkinson.

Miss Mand Sherman has commenced teaching the fall term of school, in the Vincent school, near Freewater. The school is composed of grades and high school, Miss Sherman having a position in one of the grades.

Mr. and Mrs. Desper this week moved into their new property on Third and Jefferson streets, recently purchased of Jerry Stone. Mr. and Mrs. George Payne will occupy their home in the north part of town.

B. D. Tharp is having extensive improvements done on his residence on Current street. The rooms are being remodeled, papered and painted by Bundy & Christian, and the house is also being wired for electric lights.

Mr. A. B. McEwen and daughter Jessica and Mr. Dan McKenzie left Saturday for Scotland, where they will enjoy an extended visit to friends and relatives. They will also visit many points of interest in bonny Scotland.

Austin Foss and York Dell managed to steal a few hours from business

Saturday and attended the Roundup. They are two old faithfuls and it is not often the Press has the opportunity to chronicle their goings and comings.

Mr. and Mrs. George Dunlap, former Athens residents, are in the city from their home in Woodburn, visiting friends. Mr. and Mrs. Dunlap are on their way to Walla Walla valley where they will be the guests of relatives.

A host of Umatilla county people attended the Walla Walla fair yesterday, a special train being run from Pendleton and way points. Special features at the fair yesterday were the $5,000 trotting race and the Walla Walla derby.

Dan Smythe was in town from Pendleton yesterday having come up from Pendleton to supervise the loading of several carloads of mutton sheep for the Sound market. The shipment went out over the Northern Pacific yesterday afternoon.

Everybody is glad the Roundup is over. All who attended had a good time, but the show was strenuous on the nerves as well as entertaining. However, not a few had strength and money enough left to go to Walla Walla for the races.

Pendleton Business College opens September 5. A large enrollment is anticipated. Ten per cent discount will be given to pupils enrolling before September 20. Graduates assisted to good positions.

M. L. Clancy, B. A., Prin.

If you want first class photos, call at the Van Winkle studio at once, for Mr. Van Winkle will leave on the 27th inst. for Idaho, to remain indefinitely. He is prepared to do the very finest work at prices lower than the same class of work can be secured elsewhere.

Mrs. John T. King of Weston, well known in this city, went to Walla Walla yesterday where she was to submit to a surgical operation. Mrs. King recently returned from Hot Lake sanitarium, where she went for the benefit of her health.

Clarence Zerba has accepted the position of bookkeeper with the Preston-Shaffer Milling company, and will begin his duties October 1. Mr. Mitchell, who has been bookkeeper for the company for the last two years will engage in farming.

Rev. Foskett, state missionary for the Baptist denomination, preached in the Baptist church Wednesday night. Rev. Foskett was announced to preach here last week, but was detained in LaGrande, having become suddenly ill from ptomaine poisoning.

Miss Herman Elliott was given a china shower by the members of the Sunshine club at the home of Mrs. Wm. Kissler, Tuesday afternoon. The rooms were nicely decorated and a dainty luncheon was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Henry Schmitt.

Mrs. Wells, mother of Mrs. C. M. Brotherton has been brought from Walla Walla to the home of her daughter in this city. Mrs. Wells has for some time been suffering from cancer but at present is said to be improving in health. She will remain at the Brotherton home for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Spencer left Wednesday on the 4:10 train for the old home of Mr. Spencer, near Wichita Falls, Texas, where they will visit several weeks. They may also visit Mrs. Spencer's relatives in Arkansas. During Mr. Spencer's absence the opera house will be under the management of Dell Bros.

Wines are the staples in family liquors. Bert Cartano carries a large and varied stock of select vintages. $1.50 per gallon, you can get choice Tokay, Muscat, Angelica, Sweet Catawba or Port. These are California's best product and give satisfaction whenever used. Call at the Red Front for the best and purest liquors.

Mrs. Margaret Howe returned Sunday afternoon from a short visit to the Mosgrove farm on the Walla Walla river. She reports that her brother, James Henderson, is receiving substantial benefit from his vacation, which he is spending on the farm, and looks considerably better than when he went there a couple of weeks ago.

Marriage licenses were issued this week to Walter Lyle Boynton and Theresa Emma Eggers of Pendleton; Walter Price and Bessie Fern Abrams of Adams; Charles H. Barnes and Edna Morris, and Luther Crowley and Nora Barnes of Freewater; David Stone and Herman Elliott of Athena, and John T. Sullivan and Florence Adams of Pendleton.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Swaggart have taken up their residence in the apartment house in which they own an interest, at E. 28th and E. Gilsan Sts., Portland, having left Pendleton Tuesday morning. They will remain in the metropolis during the winter. Mr. Wm. Hall, a brother of Mrs. Swaggart, and family are attending to the farm during their absence.

W. M. McMahon was awarded the diploma for the best and largest display of fruits grown by the exhibitor, at the Umatilla-Morrow fair last week. L. L. Berry received award for the best and largest display of wheat oats, and Clyde Blanton for a like display of wheat. All are from Milton vicinity. The Farnish Irrigation Project received the award for the best and largest display of vegetables and Charles Ogilvy for the best display of farm products grown by the exhibitor.

The Courtenay Morgan company held the boards at the opera house this week. The show is far above the average visiting towns the size of Athens, and is simply filling in dates for the week, when it again swings back on the John Cott circuit and will play the larger towns. The attendance has been but fair during the week, but tonight the house is expected to be crowded for the bill to be presented by this capable company is "Carmen," the great Spanish play that has played the heart strings of millions of theatre goers in every country and clime. Saturday night they will present the rollicking comedy, "A Jolly

Bachelor, and Sunday night the company will appear for the last time on the present tour in the famous satire of Franz Molnar, "The Devil."

Mrs. David Lavender of Weston, is a guest today at the Brotherton home.

Marion Jack and family have moved from the ranch near Adams to their new home in Pendleton.

G. M. Morrison, the well known Adams farmer, recently disposed of his 30,000 bushel wheat crop at 72 cents per bushel.

The Miller well drill is down 90 feet in a well on the Ad. Pinkerton place near town. A superior quality of water has been encountered.

Bundy & Christian announce that they desire the return of a step-ladder and a 14-foot extension ladder, borrowed some time ago, as they need them in their business.

Weston's school began Monday, with Mr. Joel Davis, former principal of the Colville schools at its head. The school will be conducted in the Normal school building.

The Adams public schools opened Monday. The High school department is in charge of Prof. Kyle McDaniel, and Miss Murphy, Miss Anice Barnes and Mrs. Stockton have the grades.

Chas. Stormfeltz of Seattle, was a guest of his sister Mrs. Nelson A. Miller, over Sunday and Monday. The brother and sister had not met in twenty years, and the visit was one of pleasure to both.

Claud Steen and family will come from Milton to Athens to reside and will occupy the L. J. Foss residence. Mr. Steen is one of the best known men in the county and is extensively interested in farming in this vicinity.

At the Methodist church Sunday evening, Rev. Andrew Warner, the new presiding elder, will preach. The pastor will preach the morning sermon, the subject being: "Can God Be Known?" The First Quarterly Conference will be held Monday at 10 a. m.

Friday and Saturday's bill at the Dreamland theatre will be an especially interesting one, as follows: 1.—"The Sunken Submarine," Gaumont, 2.—"The Cowpuncher's Sweetheart," Kalem, 3.—"Frank and Hank" Essanay, 4.—"A Corsican Vendetta," Ufa, 5.—"A Lunatic at Large," Vitagraph, 6.—"A Mohawk's Way," Biograph.

Redfern Suits and Coats

For Ladies and Misses

are carried by all the best stores and we have a large assortment of them. You will find here the same styles, the same goods, the same fit; in fact you will find everything the same as in the cities, except the price.

It is reasonable that we can undersell the city store, same quality merchandise, when you consider difference of expense in running a store in a small and a large town. Come in and examine our garments and prices. Every coat and suit with the Redfern Label is guaranteed to give satisfaction to the wearer, in every particular.

FIX & RADTKE
THE "MONEY-BACK" STORE, ATHENA, OREGON

Mosgrove Mercantile Co

Corner Main and 3rd, Athena, Oregon

Just Received--The latest novelties in Ladies' Cloaks and Dress Skirts. Come and buy before assortment is broken.

New Dress Goods, Laces, New Silks, New Bandings.

B. & H. GREEN TRADING STAMPS WITHEVERY CASH PURCHASE

Pineules A dose at bed time usually relieves the most severe case before morning.
30 days' treatment for $1.00. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded. BACK-ACHE

THE ATHENA MEAT MARKET

We carry the best MEATS That Money Buys

Our Market is Clean and Cool Insuring Wholesome Meats.

TAYLOR & LEGROW
Main Street, Athena, Oregon

There will be no more split sticks. There will be no rivit heads to wear off and allow the stick to drop off, when you use the "AKERS PATENT CLAMP" DRAPER.

These Fastners are made of steel expressly for the purpose and hold as if in a vice. They have stood the severest test and are pronounced by all who have used them to be superior to other fastners. We make them in all widths and all lengths and use only the best materials. Order from the PENDLETON IRON WORKS, Pendleton, Oregon.

Do You Want a Position

All schools are not alike, and especially in helping students to a position. Do not overlook this point.

PENDLETON BUSINESS COLLEGE cannot supply the calls received for stenographers and bookkeepers and has several good positions in view.

Students from other business colleges are attending this school. What does this prove? That we give the best. Nothing else would satisfy us. Nothing else should satisfy you. Doroughly taught. Lectures on commercial law by a practicing attorney. Day and evening classes. School opens September 5, 1911. Don't wait. Decide now. For particulars write, or phone Black 282.

M. L. CLANCY, B. A., Prin.