

Press Paragraphs

See Fix & Radtke for 16-inch stove wood.

William Boober was in Pendleton this week.

Joseph Bannister has been in the city this week.

W. D. Chamberlain was up from Adams yesterday.

W. P. Leach was in the city Monday from Walla Walla.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wright are in Weston this week.

John Rothrock transacted business in Pendleton Tuesday.

Miss Norma Smith was in the city Saturday from Weston.

Emery Worthington spent Sunday with friends in Weston.

Miss Edna Taylor will visit friends in Walla Walla over Sunday.

Mrs. Flock, who resides on College street, has been seriously ill the past week.

Mrs. Merle Roby and Miss Gertrude Luna visited friends in Weston Saturday.

French Criglar has disposed of his interest in the blacksmith shop to A. H. Lana.

A. R. Boober is at Weston this week, assisting his brother, Hamp, on the farm.

Duncan McDonald was in the city Tuesday, greeting friends. He was a Press caller.

Dr. and Mrs. W. G. Hughes spent Sunday with relatives and friends in Walla Walla.

John Clark and family will move into town from the reservation ranch for the winter.

Born, October 4th, 1911, to Mr. and Mrs. John Walter, at their home west of town, a son.

Mrs. Wilkinson is having her residence on 4th and Adams streets painted and renovated.

Mrs. Sarah McDougal and Mrs. Walter S. Payne, of Weston, were in the city Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Sanders are in Spokane this week, attending the fair and visiting friends.

Miss Eva Shrimp is a guest this week of Mrs. Swall, nee Miss Kate Maloney, at Milton.

Miss Maud Mansfield was the guest of Miss Edna Taylor Sunday, from her home in Walla Walla.

Mrs. Vaughn and daughter, Mrs. Henry Miller, were guests of Pendleton friends over Sunday.

For Sale.—A four-room cottage in the north part of town is offered for sale cheap. Enquire at the Press office.

Miss Lizzie Sheard, who has been under the care of Dr. Sharp for some time, is recovering from her serious illness.

Mrs. Edward Koontz will visit relatives in Portland during the absence of her husband, who is on his annual hunting trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Knowlton have been spending the past two weeks visiting at the home of their daughter in Walla Walla.

Dr. and Mrs. Newsom went to Walla Walla Sunday, accompanied by Dr. and Mrs. Hughes, driving over with the new machine.

Mrs. M. L. Watts, Mrs. Autin, Mrs. Wm. Winfield and Mrs. F. S. LetGrow drove to Walla Walla Saturday in the Watts machine.

The funeral of Leo Bryant who died at St. Anthony's hospital in Pendleton Friday evening, was held in Weston Saturday.

For the most practical, useful and up to date Business Education, attend the Pendleton Business College.

M. L. Clancy, B. A., Prin.

Mrs. S. P. Sharp and daughters and Miss Velma Wilkinson spent Saturday in Walla Walla, driving over with Lawrence as chauffeur.

C. S. Jackson, former owner of the East Oregonian, now publisher of the Oregon Journal, is reported seriously ill at his home in Portland.

The Statts company are playing Weston tonight and tomorrow night, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday nights they will be in Adams.

Miss Belle McIntyre came over from Walla Walla where she is attending school, and spent Saturday and Sunday with her relatives in this city.

Mrs. M. L. Watts, Mrs. Byron N. Hawks and Miss Velma Wilkinson went down to Pendleton Tuesday evening and attended a musical recital.

Charles Norris continues to make improvements at his home in the north part of the city. His outbuildings have recently received fresh coats of paint.

Robert Coppock is at the farm south of town this week, helping with seeding operations. Miss Mattie is also spending a couple of weeks in the country.

Mr. and Mrs. Orrin Brown who have been visiting the Wright family and Mrs. Barto for several months, left this week for their former home in Nebraska.

Mrs. N. J. Garfield of Walla Walla who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Jackson Nelson, left Wednesday morning for Prineville, where she will visit relatives.

Yesterday Mrs. Lillie Miller received a shipment of the fashionable white beaver hats, in large and small shapes. She also has some beautiful things to offer in children's bonnets.

Bert Kelly, riding in the relay race at the Interstate fair in Spokane, is in the lead. In his string is "Joe," Fay LetGrow's nifty runner. Here's hoping Kelly wins the race.

Mrs. Julia Brooks left Wednesday for McMinville and other Willamette valley points, where she will spend the winter, returning to her home in Athena in the spring.

Roy Burks is down from the mountains, where he has spent most of the summer at work on a farm. Roy contemplates taking up the business course in the Athena High school.

A force of men under City Marshal Ghobson is engaged in excavating and replacing the pipe on the wood pipe of the city water system. The greater part of the work was done prior to harvest.

Dr. Newsom has exchanged his Oakland runabout for a Chalmers car. The exchange was made with his brother Samuel, who arrived in the city some days ago from his home in Prineville.

Walla Walla is making great preparations for the visit of President Taft, to that city, which takes place tomorrow. Several Athena people have expressed their intention of seeing the president.

Painters and paperhangers have their hands full in taking care of the work offered them in Athena and vicinity. A number of residences in town and country have recently been painted.

Sheriff Taylor escorted three prisoners to the penitentiary at Salem Tuesday. They were H. G. Ridings and Howard Clark, convicted of horse stealing, and Dr. Patton, worthless check artist.

East Oregonian: Orville Reeves, graduate of the Pendleton high school, will leave this evening for Corvallis to re-enter O. A. C. He is to be a Junior this year and is taking the engineering course.

W. H. Roeder is in the city from Tacoma, on a visit to his sons, Otha and Claude, who will farm the Roeder land northwest of town. His friends are pleased to greet him after an absence of two years.

Mrs. Lizzie Jones has on display some of the most beautiful and serviceable trimmed felt hats, also the large dress hats, now coming in vogue, after the run of the small crush hats. Ladies, call and see them.

Charles Brotherton will dispose of his farm north of the city and will remove his family to their new home recently purchased north of Waitsburg, Wash. He has purchased a farm there of 800 acres.

Mack Gerking, a prominent citizen of Weston, dropped dead from heart failure, while in a barber shop in that city yesterday afternoon. He was a relative of the Gerking and Taylor families of this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. William Tompkins were in Walla Walla Saturday, going over to consult Mr. Tompkins' attending physician. He feels that he is improving in health, though still bothered with stomach trouble.

It is reported that the Weston end of the macadamized road is seriously in need of teams to haul crushed rock. The working of summer fallow proparatory to seeding has called several teams to the work and until seeding is completed the construction work will necessarily be held back.

County editors will meet at Pendleton soon to form a county press club. The plan of organizing the newspaper men of the county into a body was advanced by the proprietors of newspapers of the west end of the county.

Mrs. Wm. Tompkins will leave next week for a month's visit with her mother at Silver City, Nevada. She will go by way of Sacramento, California, taking the Central Pacific and crossing the Sierra Nevada from there.

Alex. McKenzie left yesterday for Portland, from whence with his two sisters, Misses Lizzie and Agnes, he will go to Long Beach, California, to spend the winter. They will later be joined by Miss Ruth, who is visiting in Spokane.

Mrs. Grace Lloyd, formerly Miss Grace Knox of Weston, died this week at Walla Walla, from the effects of a colic. Mrs. Lloyd was a resident of Kennewick, Wash. She was the daughter of Judge Knox, the veteran Weston lawyer.

Miss Dora Dowden is in the city and vicinity in the interest of the orphans' and old people's home at Walla Walla which is under the management of the Christian church. Miss Dowden was a guest of Mrs. W. R. Taylor and Mrs. George Gerking.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McArthur, who have been visiting relatives here for the past two weeks, left the first of the week for Spokane, where they will be the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Fred Stine. They will also visit Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Leonard at Walla Walla.

John Stauton, Hugh Robie, Bert and Percy Wilson and Doll Read left Tuesday on a hunting trip to the Grande Ronde river. They expect to be absent for a month and took plenty of provisions to last them for that length of time.

Mr. and Mrs. Sims Dickenson have set the date of their departure for California for next Tuesday. They will go direct to Santa Rosa, and later will visit other points. They will spend the winter in the south, for the benefit of Mrs. Dickenson's health.

Misses Evelyn Welland and Katherine Romig entertained the other lady teachers of the public school Saturday afternoon in their rooms at the Wilkinson residence. The ladies spent the afternoon in sewing, and refreshments were served to the hostesses.

Farmers of this section are getting ready for seeding. The moisture has been favorable for promoting weed growth, and with cultivation, the fields will be in prime condition for wheat seeding. This fall is more favorable for early seeding than for years past.

The reception, announced last week to take place this evening in the Lodge hall of the Knights of Pythias and Odd Fellows, in honor of the teachers of the Athena high and public schools, promises to be one of the most pleasant affairs of the kind ever held in the city.

Mrs. Autin, of Eugene, arrived in the city last week and will spend the winter with the family of M. L. Watts. Mrs. Autin, who is an old friend of Mr. and Mrs. Watts, is an experienced housekeeper and will have charge of the household affairs during her stay here.

Divorce applicants are conspicuous by their absence in the court house, says a Pendleton paper. Women who have shed their wedding rings in anticipation of an early legal separation either have taken their deuces home with them or will wait a more seasonable occasion to have their cases tried.

Wines are the staples in family liquors. Bert Cartano carries a large and varied stock of select varieties. $1.50 per gallon, you can get choice Tokay, Muscat, Angelica, Sweet Catawba or Port. These are California's best product and give satisfaction wherever used. Call at the Red Front for the best and purest liquors.

A meeting was held at the M. E. church Sunday evening for the purpose of re-organizing the Epworth League, which society has not met together for some time. The young people are taking active interest, and it is thought the organization will be effected and announcement of the officers handed the Press for next week's issue.

George Bruce, Millard Kelly and Tom Gilkey returned Tuesday evening from their bear hunt in the mountains east of Tall gate. Bruce killed a bear and his friends have been treated to steaks. The one killed by him was the only bear encountered by the hunters. They report a six inch snowfall back of the toll gate, Monday night.

W. E. Dobson Byron Hawks, Ed. Koontz and Al Sigman left Wednesday on their hunting trip to the Grande Ronde. They expect to be in the mountains during the month of October. Mr. Koontz goes in the capacity of royal chef, and the succulent dishes he will concoct will overshadow even the culinary efforts of I. Jobn.

G. W. Hansell has received his new automobile, an Elmore machine, purchased by him while in Portland last week. The machine is equipped with a safety guard in front and is otherwise complete in detail. Referring to the engineering that George will be able to replace it with a windmill any time he may see fit.

This afternoon at the Christian church, the ladies of the C. W. B. M. are holding their monthly meeting and entertaining their friends. Mrs. Ellen Hunter, of Portland, state organizer, is the guest of honor, and will address the meeting. Last evening Mrs. Hunter was entertained at the home of Mrs. A. M. Meldrum, meeting the members of the Young Ladies' Circle.

Last Sunday morning at 6.00 o'clock, at Weston, the wedding ceremony of Miss Eva Wood and Mr. Warren Wood, of Portland, was performed. Rev. W. S. Payne officiating. The bride is a sister of Editor Clark Wood, and has been a teacher in the Portland schools for several years. The couple left, after a wedding breakfast at the bride's home, for Portland where they will reside.

At a musical soiree and reception given by Professor C. O. Blakeslee and his pupils, in Pendleton Tuesday evening, two of Athena's vocalists appeared to most flattering advantage. Of their appearance the Pendleton Live Wire says: To Mr. Braden's violin obligato, Miss Velma Wilkinson charmed the enthusiastic auditors with Guy d'Hardelot's beautiful "Invocation," and Mrs. B. N. Hawk, possessing a sympathetic voice of much musical ability, sang her way into the hearts of those present with Sobieski's beautiful "I Love You."

The J. G. Statts company played a three nights engagement in this city this week to fair sized audiences. The company opened Monday night in a classical production of "Was She to Blame," in which Miss Aggie Statts played the leading role with characteristic finesse. The McClina and Statts children demonstrated excellent talent as musicians, and the entire company with one or two exceptions was well balanced and clever.

Saturday evening at eight o'clock, in the Christian church, a piano recital will be given by Miss Flora McConghy of the Fischer School of Music faculty of Walla Walla, assisted by Mrs. Edgar Fischer (vocal) and Malen Burnett (piano), of the same institution. Miss McConghy meets her Athena class Wednesday at B. D. Tharp's residence, where she will see those wishing to inquire concerning terms etc., or she will call upon request. Saturday night's program is free to the public.

Wednesday evening at the Christian church, A. Mackenzie Meldrum gave his first illustrated lecture of the season. The subject of the lecture was: "Alcohol and Business," showing the incompatibility of the two. On Sunday evening Mr. Meldrum will deliver an illustrated sermon. Next Wednesday evening the second lecture will be given, when Mr. Meldrum will tell of some one of the numerous countries through which he has traveled. Not one of the series should be missed, as they are highly educational in nature and entirely free to all.

Pythian Lodge No. 29, K. of P., will hold a smoker next Thursday evening, October 12. It is desired that all members of the lodge be present on that evening, and an invitation is cordially extended to visiting members of the lodge.

Sunday morning the subject at the M. E. church will be: "A Faithful God." Evening Evangelistic services; good singing at these services. The young people will hold their devotional service at 6:30 p. m.

Dr. Sharp was called yesterday to attend Will Redford, a young man residing near Adams, who sustained severe injuries in a runaway. His head was badly cut and his shoulder was fractured.

Mrs. Byron N. Hawks will leave for Spokane today or tomorrow, where she will stay until after Thanksgiving, visiting at the home of her parents.

The Young Ladies' Missionary Circle, recently organized will meet each second Saturday in the month, at the home of Mrs. A. M. Meldrum, at 2:30.

Told His Fortune.
While crossing the East Boston ferry the other evening a little fellow approached me, saying, "Tell yer fortune for a nickel, mister."
After a few words with the young fellow I consented. He took my hand and said, "At first I thought you were going to become a rich man, but it's all off now."
I asked him his reason.
"Well, yer see, boss, anybody who parts with his money on a scheme like I played you for will never be one of them financiers."
I gave him another nickel for his philosophy.—Boston Traveler.

In a Pinch.
"Can't you assume a little more pleasing expression of contentment?" asked the photographer.
"Yes, sir," hesitatingly answered the sitter. "Wait a minute and I'll take off these new shoes."—Chicago Tribune.

Adjustable 2-Collar Coat

OUR "Miller-Made" Adjustable "Two-Collar" Coat is really two coats—a handsome dress coat and a snug protector coat—but both in one for the price of one. We have this coat in a number of different styles of "Miller-Made" Overcoats and Raincoats, such as Regular Fly-front coats, single and double breasted button-through coats, button-through and Fly-front 50 and 52-inch raincoats and the double breasted Auto coats. And in addition to being any one of these styles, a "Two-Collar" Coat can be had lined with regular serge lining, or you can select a plaid-lined one, with a fine silk yoke quarter lining over the shoulders, or you can have it unlined, made of fancy "plaid-back" fabrics with a silk yoke lining over the shoulders, and with bellows pockets. Just say "Two-Collar" and we'll show you a great coat.

THE MILLER MADE STORE. FIX & RADTKE Prop's.

Mosgrove Mercantile Co

Corner Main and 3rd, Athena, Oregon

Just Received--The latest novelties in Ladies' Cloaks and Dress Skirts. Come and buy before assortment is broken.

New Dress Goods, Laces, New Silks, New Bandings.

B. & H. GREEN TRADING STAMPS WITHEVERY CASH PURCHASE

Pineules A dose at bed time usually relieves the most severe case before morning.
30 days' treatment for $1.00. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded. BACK-ACHE

THE ATHENA MEAT MARKET

We carry the best MEATS That Money Buys
Our Market is Clean and Cool Insuring Wholesome Meats.
TAYLOR & LE GROW
Main Street, Athena, Oregon

There will be no more split sticks. There will be no rivet heads to wear off and allow the stick to drop off, when you use the "AKERS PATENT CLAMP" DRAPER.

These Fasteners are made of steel expressly for the purpose and hold as if in a vice. They have stood the severest test and are pronounced by all who have used them to be superior to other fasteners. We make them in all widths and all lengths and use only the best materials. Order from the PENDLETON IRON WORKS, Pendleton, Oregon.

Do You Want a Position

All schools are not alike, and especially in helping students to a position. Do not overlook this point.

PENDLETON BUSINESS COLLEGE

cannot supply the calls created for stenographers and bookkeepers and has several good positions in view. Students from other business colleges are attending this school. What does this prove? That we give the best. Nothing else would satisfy us. Nothing else should satisfy you. Bookkeeping, shorthand and typewriting and all business subjects practically and thoroughly taught. Lectures on commercial law by a practicing attorney. Day and evening classes. School opens September 5, 1911. Don't wait. Decide now. For particulars write, or phone Black 722.

M. L. CLANCY, B. A., Prin.