

Press Paragraphs

See Fix & Radtke for 16-inch stove wood.

Jas. Fason, of Weston, was in the city Tuesday.

C. A. Barrett was a visitor in Pendleton yesterday.

Mrs. Wm. Winslip was a visitor in Pendleton Saturday.

Tonight Weston young people will enjoy a "Hard Times ball."

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Charles May, October 7, 1911, a daughter.

Miss Lucile Kemp spent Wednesday night with friends in Athena.

Mrs. F. S. LeGrow is visiting at the home of her mother in Walla Walla.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Roy DeVoign of Adams, October 7, 1911, a daughter.

Mrs. John Stanton was ill this week, requiring the attendance of a physician.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Morris, northwest of town, October 15, 1911, a son.

A marriage license was issued Monday to Harold C. Lamb and Lorena Rachel Stone.

Miss Dora Bennett and Mrs. Jesse Saling were in the city Sunday from Pendleton.

Herman Beverly came up from Portland Saturday, remaining until Wednesday.

Carl Sheard has entered the Athena high school, and will take up the business course.

Madame Kennedy, the hair dresser, and daughter were in town Wednesday from Pendleton.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Shurtz, of Arlington, were visiting in the vicinity of Athena this week.

Mrs. M. L. Watts drove her car to Walla Walla yesterday, accompanied by Mrs. F. S. LeGrow.

A petition to vote for "Home Rule" at the election in December is being circulated in Weston.

Mrs. R. T. Brown has been ill and confined to her home this week, under the care of Dr. Newsom.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Tompkins and daughter, Miss Lillian, were visitors in Walla Walla Saturday.

Sam Bannister and daughter are over from their home in Walla Walla county visiting relatives.

A number of young people of Weston attended the social dance given in this city Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bannister and Mr. and Mrs. Bern Bannister were visiting in Pendleton Saturday.

Mrs. W. A. Graham and Mrs. Herman Graham, of Weston, were shopping in the city Friday evening.

Miss Velma Wilkinson will spend the week end in Walla Walla, a guest at the home of Mrs. Sarah Bowles.

Mrs. Thomas Lawson went to Echo yesterday morning, where she attended the convention of the W. C. T. U.

Clarence Knight, of Helix, who is now in San Antonio, Texas, is reported to be very ill with typhoid fever.

Misses Evelyn Welland and Katherine Romig, teachers in the school, were visitors in Walla Walla Saturday.

For Sale.—A four-room cottage in the north part of town is offered for sale cheap. Enquire at the Press office.

For the most practical, useful and up to date Business Education, attend the Pendleton Business College.

M. L. Clancy, B. A., Prin.

Mrs. D. B. Jarman and children were in the city from Weston Sunday, and spent the day at the Winslip home.

Mrs. L. B. Reeder, of Portland, was in the city Saturday, attending the funeral of her brother, W. L. Zeiger.

Walter Ginn, of the real estate firm of Copeland & Ginn, of Walla Walla was in the city Wednesday on business.

The girls of the Missionary Circle are planning to give a Halloween social on Friday October 27. Invitations will be issued and those accepting will be required to bring 25 cents with them, which they must have earned themselves. Amusing stories will be told of how each nickel and dime was earned, and a prize awarded for the best told tale.

Mrs. Hoisington and daughter, Marion, of Pendleton, were in the city Friday evening, visiting Mrs. Nelson A. Miller.

Wednesday a party composed of Fay LeGrow, Attorney H. I. Watts and Will Ferguson left for the mountains on a hunting trip.

Mrs. Louisa Parrish, of Walla Walla will be a guest of her niece, Mrs. W. G. Hughes, in this city for the coming two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McIntyre and family are contemplating going to California, where they may decide to reside permanently.

S. F. Wilson and T. H. Beverly went over to La Grande Sunday evening, where they visited at the home of Mr. Wilson's parents.

Several Athena people went over to Walla Walla last week to attend the funeral of the late J. J. Ronstone, the Umatilla pioneer.

Mrs. Lizzie Jones offers her hats, of all varieties, for sale at actual cost. Now is the time to get up-to-date millinery at a very low figure.

The Masonic and Odd Fellows lodges of Weston have purchased two acres of the Saling estate, as an addition to the Weston cemetery.

Sunday Dr. and Mrs. Newsom and Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Richards drove to Wenaha Springs, in the doctor's car. They report a most pleasant trip.

The condition of Amos Shick, who has been hovering between life and death for the past two weeks, is reported as being considerably better.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Shick will move from the farm to their town residence, about November 1st, and will spend the winter in the city.

Henry Collins and Miss Bertha Alexander, two popular Pendleton young people, were married Tuesday evening at the home of the bride's parents.

Virgil Willaby was a very sick boy yesterday, being taken suddenly ill with a high fever. It was thought his sickness was occasioned by a severe cold.

Charles May has leased one of the Ferguson ranches on Weston Mountain, and will move his family up there in the course of a couple of weeks.

Miss Lizzie Sheard is in Walla Walla this week, where she is under the care of an osteopathic physician, for relief from an incipient case of appendicitis.

Mrs. Crockett was up from Pendleton Saturday, meeting her class in music, and remained over Sunday visiting with her daughter, Mrs. A. M. Meldrum.

While in the city Saturday, Mrs. W. L. Zeiger, of Tacoma, and her daughter, Mrs. W. F. Stone, were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Taylor.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Woods, Mrs. Victor McDonald and Miss Mabel McDonald visited Weston and Athena friends last week, from their homes in Walla Walla.

George Carmichael, the well known farmer north of town has been seriously ill for some time and was threatened with typhoid, but at present is improving.

Friends of Charley Fischer here have received the announcement of the birth on September 25, of a son to Mr. Fischer and wife at their home in Oakland, California.

It is reported that M. S. Pate has matriculated with the University of Oregon at Eugene, entering in the Junior year. Mr. Pate taught in the Athena schools last year.

Mrs. W. H. Cravens of Helix, with her two children is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hopper. Mrs. Cravens has been ill during her stay here.

Mrs. Kate Brookner was down from Spokane this week, and disposed of her cottage in the north part of town, to W. W. McPherson, an employe at the Preston-Shaffer Mills.

A Mitchell automobile is reported to have caused some trouble to a party of Pendleton men Wednesday afternoon near the Hodgson place east of town, when running at a high rate of speed it began to smoke at a furious rate. The men hastily left the car and telephoned to Weston for assistance. The machine was damaged to such an extent that it was left, the party walking back to the Weston depot and taking the train for Pendleton.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph N. Scott will go to Long Beach, California, shortly to spend the winter. Mr. Scott is now finishing up his fall seeding and will go as soon as the work is done.

Judge and Mrs. J. W. Maloney were in the city from Pendleton Saturday, and attended the funeral of the late Wm. Zeiger. They were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Austin Foss.

Mrs. Agnes Craft is over from Walla Walla visiting Athena friends. Yesterday she was a guest of Mrs. B. B. Richards, and from there went to the Wm. McBride home south-west of town.

Little Conrad Miller celebrated his 6th birthday last week, and sixteen of his small boy friends assisted in the festivities. Needless to say that great fun was enjoyed with games and goodie.

Mrs. Gustava Vollmer of Waitsburg Wash., has been visiting the past week at the home of her son, W. E. Vollmer near Helix, and also at the home of her brother, Henry Schmitt, west of town.

Mrs. Alex Johnson, who has been ill with typhoid fever north of town for several weeks, is progressing very slowly toward health. She has had several relapses, which have retarded her recovery.

A deed was filed with the county recorder Monday, whereby Homer I. Watts of this city becomes the owner of a twelve acre tract of land near Saling's Camp, for which he paid $2000 to B. H. Milliken.

Found.—About 40 head of stray sheep, near the Bennett place on Wild Horse mountain. Band is being cared for until claimed by owner. Milton papers please copy. Address Frank Bennett, Route 2, Weston.

Nit Ying, the veteran Chinese cook at the St. Nichols Hotel, left this week for China, where he will remain a year. He goes he says, to get himself another wife, his former wife having died during his absence in America.

A hunting party composed of Chas. Henry, John Rothrock, F. B. Boyd and Fred Flint, left last Friday for the head of the Grand Ronde on their annual hunt. Certainly, the "woods are full of 'em" this month.

Mrs. Lucretia Rothrock was taken seriously ill at her home in Weston last Friday evening. A telephone message was sent after her son, John Rothrock of this city who had left the same morning for a hunt in the mountains.

Horses taken to pasture. Good stubble and strawstacks, 40 acres of hunchgrass and running water, 3 miles from Athena; also 3 strawstacks for sale 4 miles from town. Inquire of Will Van Cleve, at A. L. Swagart's farm.

W. K. Wall, who suffered a slight stroke of paralysis last week, has so far recovered as to be able to be around the house again. For a time his condition gave uneasiness to his friends, but it is hoped no serious results will follow.

Dr. Sharp reports the condition of Mr. and Mrs. John Martin, who have both been seriously ill at their home north of town, as considerably improved this week. Mr. Martin was ill with pneumonia, and his wife with an abscess in the ear.

Miss Caroline Borgen, who visited her sister, Mrs. R. T. Brown, here last summer, passed through town Tuesday en route from Harrington, Wash., to Minnesota, where she will spend a year, after which she expects to come west again.

Services for next Sunday in the M. E. church are as follows: Sunday school at 10 a. m., preaching at 11 a. m.; subject, "Do Good to All Men." Young people's meeting at 6:30, all the young people heartily invited. Evangelistic service at 7:30.

One of Harry McBride's best driving horses was found dead in his stall, Tuesday morning, having undoubtedly died of hemorrhage. It was thought the horse might have burst a blood vessel in a fit of coughing. Mr. McBride valued the team at $300.

The first lecture in the Manella course to be given under the auspices of the Athena Commercial club, will be on November 7, when John Sobieski, the famous Polish exile, will appear in Athena. Further particulars will be given in the Press next week.

Miss Belle McIntyre came over from Walla Walla Saturday where she is attending school, and spent the week end at home. Sunday afternoon she was taken back to the garden city in the Dudley auto, accompanied by her sister, Miss Laura, and Messrs. Leslie Nelson and Glen Dudley.

Hardy Mansfield has been in the city from Walla Walla the past week, on business connected with the settling up of his late father, F. M. Mansfield's estate. So far, in response to his published notice to creditors, he has found but one small debt of seventy-five cents against the estate.

Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Spencer returned last week from their visit to the old home in Texas, and are very glad to be in Oregon once more, as their friends are to have them. The heat, according to Mr. Spencer, was something terrific, and the crops in some parts of Texas are a total failure this year.

An exciting runaway is reported from the G. W. Gross farm, where a six-horse team belonging to Luke Read, ran away with a harrow one day this week and made a scattering of things generally. The chief damage done was the demolition of about half a mile of fence, which the team straddled and mowed down on its course.

Mrs. Seelye, wife of Captain Seelye of Seattle, was in the city last week visiting at the home of her sister Mrs. E. A. Dudley. Mrs. Seelye is now in Walla Walla, where tomorrow the members of the McDonald family will gather at a reunion, the occasion being the 55th anniversary of the wedding of the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Donald McDonald.

The Dreamland program for tonight and tomorrow night is as follows: 1.—"Overland to Fremont," Selig; 2.—"Grandmother's Plot," Gaumont; 3.—"A Fortunate Misfortune," Essanay. Sunday evening: 1.—"The Vampire," Selig. 2.—"Modern Courtship," Vitagraph. 3.—"Who Owns the Rug?" Pathe.

Mrs. Silbaugh, a lady reform worker from Seattle, spoke in Athena three times last Sunday [in the interests of the W. C. T. U. Mrs. Silbaugh is a very interesting and cultured speaker, and at each of her addresses, which included the Methodist, Baptist and Christian churches, held her audience in rapt attention.

In a telephone message from Kamela Monday, it was learned that the hunting party comprising Postmaster Worthington, John Stone, Oseie Barton and Walter Booher, had secured two deer which they shipped home, the meat arriving here Tuesday. The party will arrive home today or tomorrow.

Leader: J. W. Keen passed through town yesterday with two big wagons loaded with an outfit for his Weston mountain farm. The coyotes will greet him with a sinister smile, for he has a good sized lot of black Minorca chickens. Charles Keen went with him and will have charge of the ranch having concluded to go "back to the soil."

Prof. Carl Gnoit, the well known Pendleton musician, who has a class in this city, and makes regular weekly visits here, had the misfortune to fall and break his leg, at his home in Pendleton last week. He was feeding his chickens, and owing to his defective eyesight, fell over a box, sustaining the painful injury.

A sumptuous birthday dinner was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Bannister last Sunday, in honor of the 71st anniversary of the birth of Hugh McArthur, which occurred on Saturday, and the 37th birthday of Mrs. Charles Betts, which was on Monday. Mrs. Mary Bannister of Weston was a guest at the dinner.

Wines are the staples in family liquors. Bert Cartano carries a large and varied stock of select vintages, $1.50 per gallon, you can get choice Tokay, Muscat, Angelica, Sweet Catawba or Port. These are California's best product and give satisfaction wherever used. Call at the Red Front for the best and purest liquors.

The mountain district near Weston raises fine fruit and ought to raise more of it, says the Leader. J. V. Bell brought down some excellent peaches this week from the L. R. Van Winkle place, which he is farming under lease. Mr. Van Winkle set out a few trees about five years ago by way of experiment, and they are now nicely bearing. The variety was locally developed and is known as the "Wild Horse."

The lecture given at the Christian church Wednesday evening by A. Mackenzie Meldrum, was the third in the series, and dealt with the country of Greece, both old and new. A large audience was out to greet the lecturer, and enjoyed the magnificent views presented on the screen. On Sunday night Mr. Meldrum will present his second illustrated sermon, and next Wednesday evening will give his fourth free lecture.

Miss Zena Craft, who has taken a two years course in the Cottage Hospital at Hood River, as trained nurse, will on November 1, with a class of six others, receive her diploma, graduating in her chosen profession with high honors. Miss Craft has made wonderful progress in the work, and contemplates going to Denver, Colo., where she will take a post graduate course. Her mother, Mrs. Charles Smith of this city, will go to Hood River to witness her daughter's graduation and will also visit her son, who resides there.

At a meeting of the officers of the Christian church Sunday, A. Mackenzie Meldrum tendered his resignation as pastor of the church. It was not accepted by the officials. Mr. Meldrum has been called to churches both in Portland and in Kentonky, and believing either to be a broader field for operations in his line of work, he was quite willing to go, but not so with the congregation in Athena. Recognizing the fact that they have a man of superior ability, and one whose place would not be easily filled, they prevailed upon Mr. Meldrum to retain his pastorate in Athena. So the interesting course of lectures and illustrated sermons will continue at the Christian church.

Best Ever Clothes

Unquestionably the Suit for your Boys

The fifteen features to set off the suit will appeal to his person. The fifteen features to offset the wear will appeal to your purse.

The more critical you may be in selecting a new suit for your boy—the more partial you will be to "Best-Ever" clothes.

THE "BEST-EVER" BOYS SUIT

"LOOK AT THE FEATURES"

We would also like to draw your attention to our line of Overcoats for Boys and Young Men. Come and take a look at them.

Adjustable 2-Collar Coat

OUR "Miller-Made" Adjustable "Two-Collar" Coat is really two coats—a handsome dress coat and a snug protector coat—but both in one for the price of one. We have this coat in a number of different styles of "Miller-Made" Overcoats and Raincoats, such as Regular Fly-front coats, single and double breasted button-through coats, button-through and Fly-front 50 and 52-inch raincoats and the double breasted Auto coats. And in addition to being any one of these styles, a "Two-Collar" Coat can be had lined with regular serge lining, or you can select a plaid-lined one, with a fine silk yoke quarter lining over the shoulders, or you can have it unlined, made of fancy "plaid-back" fabrics with a silk yoke lining over the shoulders, and with bellows pockets. Just say "Two-Collar" and we'll show you a great coat.

THE MILLER MADE STORE. FIX & RADTKE Prop's.

Mosgrove Mercantile Co

Corner Main and 3rd, Athena, Oregon

Just Received--The latest novelties in Ladies' Cloaks and Dress Skirts. Come and buy before assortment is broken.

New Dress Goods, Laces, New Silks, New Bandings.

B. & H. GREEN TRADING STAMPS WITHEVERY CASH PURCHASE

Pineules A dose at bed time usually relieves the most severe case before morning.

30 days' treatment for $1.00. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

BACK-ACHE

THE ATHENA MEAT MARKET

We carry the best

MEATS

That Money Buys

Our Market is

Clean and Cool

Insuring Wholesome Meats.

TAYLOR & LE GROW
Main Street, Athena, Oregon

There will be no more split sticks. There will be no rivet heads to wear off and allow the stick to drop off, when you use the "AKERS PATENT CLAMP" DRAPER.

These Fastners are made of steel expressly for the purpose and hold as if in a vice. They have stood the severest test and are pronounced by all who have used them to be superior to other fastners. We make them in all widths and all lengths and use only the best materials. Order from the

PENDELTON IRON WORKS, Pendleton, Oregon.

Foley's Kidney Cure makes kidneys and bladder right.