Mrs. W. J. Gholsen went over to Walla Walla yesterday to visit her daughter, Miss Kittie, who is there in the conservatory of music. Mrs. Gholsen will also visit her mother and other relatives.

Roy Raley, the popular young attorney of Pendleton, has been prevailed upon by Pendleton business men to become a candidate for Mayor at the coming city election and has consented to enter the race.

Fresh Sealight oysters have been served the public at the Taylor & LeGrow market this week. The oysters are shipped in a patent sealed case which insures the bivalves with that piquant tang of the sea.

Byron Hawks is becoming expert with the kodak. On a recent hunting trip he took some fine pictures and his services for special pictures have been in demand lately, the more so the more demand, as it were.

Dr. Plamondon, Wm. Winship, Austin Foss and Will Miller left Wednesday afternoon on a goose hunt of a couple of days duration, in the Hermiston country. Harry Alexander took them down in his automobile.

Dean Willaby is now carrying the mail on Route No. 1. William McCollough, who had the contract for carrying the mail when the route was first opened resigned his position and Dean began his duties Monday.

The Young People's society of the M. E. church will give a social in the church basement this evening. All the young people are invited to this free social. A program and refreshments will be given and a good time is expected.

H. H. Alexander has leased a large Franklin automobile from S. F. Wilson and will conduct a taxicab service. He is prepared to convey passengers to any part of the county and to nearby towns, including Walla Walla, at reasonable rates.

Services in the M. E. church next Sunday are as follows: Sunday school at 10 a. m.; preaching at 11 a. m., subject, "The Attainment of Christ." Young people's meeting at 6:30; evangelistic service at 7:30. You are kindly invited to these services. Thomas Lawson.

Charles Brotherton, through the real estate firm of Copeland & Ginn of Walla Walla, last week sold his farm of 130 acres north of the city to Delbert Barger, for $15,000. Mr. Brotherton and family will leave soon for Waitsburg, Wash., near which place he has purchased wheat land.

A most pleasant party was enjoyed by the little folks last Friday evening, when sixteen of his playmates made a raid on Master Paul Koontz, most unexpectedly. The evening was spent in pleasant games and a dainty lunch was served by Mrs. Koontz, and all went home voting the party a decided success.

G. W. Mitchell has finished digging a "pretty middling fair crop of spuds" at his place on Reed and Hawley mountain says the Leader. He had 1200 sacks of Wilson's First Choice potatoes from 12 acres, or just an even 100 sacks to the acre. He has stored his crop in field pits and will hold it for the spring market.

Charles Grant will open the Athena Hotel the first of the coming week.

He will serve first class meals and conduct a lodging house also. He will have a good equipment, guaranteeing satisfaction to his patrons. Both Mr. and Mrs. Grant have had considerable experience in the hotel and restaurant business, and should do well in their new location.

Lost.—In Athena, last Saturday, a Scotch Collie dog, color brown and yellow, with white brush and white fore legs. Ralph McEwen, the owner, will pay liberal reward for its recovery.

A fine opportunity is offered to secure some valuable horses at bargain prices at the Rogers Sale near Weston, November 15. Glendive, a very fine registered Percheron, two other registered animals and 25 choice grade Clydes; farm implements, harness etc. See advertisement elsewhere in this issue.

Wines are the staples in family liquors. Bert Cartano carries a large and varied stock of select vintages. $1.50 per gallon, you can get choice Tokay, Muscat, Angelica, Sweet Catawba or Port. These are California's best product and give satisfaction wherever used. Call at the Red Front for the best and purest liquors.

The special missionary lecture to be given by A. Mackenzie Meldrum in the interests of the C. W. B. M. will probably be given on Wednesday evening, November 22. This will be made especially interesting by the use of stereopticon views, and several selections of special music will be given by some of the best vocalists in the city, including solos, duets and probably a ladies' quartet. This to be a decided treat. Further particulars will be given next week.

The eleventh annual session of the Oregon Teachers' Association will be held at Baker City November 27, 28 and 29. The session is the eastern Oregon division, embracing the counties of Umatilla, Walla, Union, Malheur and Baker. The meetings promise to attract a great number of teachers and the program will be of more than ordinary value for several prominent educators are to participate in the numbers on the program.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph N. Scott and little daughter, Margaret, left this morning for a winter's sojourn in Southern California, their objective point being Huntington Beach, where reside Mrs. Scott's parents. They will also visit relatives at various other points. Mr. and Mrs. Scott will be missed here during the winter, and especially in the activities of the church circles will their absence be felt. However, with the opening of spring they will return to the farm.

Weston Leader: Ben Walden, the Dry Creek pioneer, is still using a pair of scales that was part of the first cargo of merchandise to come around the Horn in 1852. The scales were imported by Dave and Asa McCully early merchants of Harrisburg, Oregon, Mr. Walden's old home town. During a recent visit to Harrisburg Mr. Walden saw ten bushels of walnuts picked from a tree which he planted with his own hands on the day that the news was first received in Oregon of the firing upon Fort Sumter.

The Athena High school Athletic association has made arrangements to use the Mosgrove implement building on Third street for their gymnasium this season, and have been making necessary improvements preparatory to occupying it. The ceiling has been raised for convenience in playing basketball and the shower bath equipment will be installed this week. The building affords ample room for gymnastics such as the association desires to undertake and there is plenty of seating capacity for all desiring to attend the basketball games to be played here during the winter.

Millard Kelly and Tom Gilkey left Wednesday morning for the head waters of the Looking-Glass where they will put in the winter trapping. They acquired from the Walla Walla kennels, before taking their departure, two more Akitaides, bringing the fighting strength of their pack of bear dogs up to three. Athena hunters wish the boys all kinds of luck in their enterprise. The Press saw to it that they were well supplied with magazines and other reading matter with which to while away the long, lonesome winter nights in their mountain cabin.

The opening lecture of the winter series, given by Col. John Sobieski at the Methodist church Tuesday evening, was well attended, and enjoyed by a large audience. The story of the rise and fall of the Polish republic was told in thrilling language by the distinguished exile, who held his audience in wrapt attention during the entire discourse. Before and after the lecture, the audience was favored with a solo by Miss Katherine Romig, accompanied by Mrs. Plamondon. The next attraction to appear on the course will be the Ricketts Concert company, which will be in Athena on Friday, December 15.

The Great Piano Contest

Will Close Thanks giving Day, Nov. 30

Five Krause Pianos will be given away, one of them absolutely free. We are well pleased to see the amount of energy that is being put forward in the contest for the Standard 1910 Krause Piano by the Candidates. Remember that there are five pianos to go, one entirely free to the most popular young lady, and four others at a small cost to the next four most popular young ladies.

Is your girl or your friend in the race? If so, you can help her by getting votes and placing them to her credit.

These votes can be secured by trading at our store. Every dollar spent with us counts 200 votes for your candidate.

Make your winter purchases now and help the young ladies to win these Pianos.
