Tomorrow night a battle royal will be on at the gymnasium, between the Athens High school and Pendleton High school basket ball squads. And the local team is preparing a surprise for the county seat lads. The admission at the door will be 25 cents and it is expected every seat will be taken. The boys have been working hard to be in condition to give the Pendleton team a good, fast game.

Rev. M. H. Marvin was in the city Saturday, on a short visit. Mr. Marvin, who was formerly presiding elder for the Methodist church in this district, is now financial agent for the Deacons' and Old Peoples' Homes in Spokane. He is one of the leading ministers of the M. E. church and has many warm friends in Athens. While in the city, Mr. Marvin was the guest of Rev. Thomas Lawson.

The following society item from the Melrose, (Ill.) Dispatch, pertains to a young married couple who visited at the Zerba homes in Athens and vicinity several weeks ago: "Miss Anna Dolan entertained the L. A. L. club last evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Ferris, who are on their wedding trip to Jacksonville, Fla., coming from Oak Harbor, Wash. The members of the club beamed great towels for the young bride. An elaborate luncheon was served, covers being laid for eighteen at a prettily decorated table in green and white. Mr. and Mrs. Ferris continue their journey the first of the week."

The masquerade ball at the lodge hall last Friday evening, given for the benefit of the base ball fund, was largely attended. Many of the costumes were gorgeous and characters were well sustained. Lawrence Sharp, as a Chinaman, was awarded a prize, and Miss Belle McIntyre also received one for her splendidly sustained character of the Western girl.

N. T. Mansel of Milton has been elected director of the Umatilla-Morrow County Fair association. Mr. Mansel succeeds F. A. Sykes who was director last year. Editor G. L. Hurd of Stanfield, was elected president to succeed R. Alexander. Other officers elected were Frank Frazier, first vice president; W. R. Walpole, of Irigoin, second vice president and R. M. Mayberry, treasurer.

A watch night meeting was held in the Methodist church Sunday night, a goodly number participating. A sermon was preached by the pastor, and the time spent in singing and prayer and social converse. Refreshments were served during the evening at the parsonage, to a number of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Lawson. The bell was rung at midnight, to usher in the New Year.

Dr. L. Volgin, Ph. D., D. D., a noted Evangelist of Los Angeles, and Prof. L. Rose, a singer of note, are scheduled to begin a protracted meeting in the M. E. church this evening. It has been some years since the Methodist church of Athens has been so ably represented in a revival meeting, as appears to be indicated in the coming meeting. Over two hundred were converted at a recent meeting held in Corvallis, by these two evangelists. Doubtless the citizens of Athens will not fail to avail themselves of the opportunity of hearing one of the great preachers in the Methodist church, and his accompanying singer.
