

Press Paragraphs

Athena
Band concert
Opera house Tomorrow night.
Mr. and Mrs. Edw. E. Koontz have been in Portland this week.
Charles Owens was up from Adams Wednesday on business.
Miss Luella Kemp spent Friday evening with friends in this city.
Attorney Watts was in Weston Tuesday on professional business.
A. C. Rexroad of Weston was transacting business in the city Saturday.
Have your teeth fixed now, while Dr. Sponogle's Special Prices are on.
Mrs. Sanders has returned home from a visit with relatives in Portland.
Mr. and Mrs. John Bannister were in the city from the ranch Wednesday trading.
Leslie McCubbin exhibited a pen of Black Minorcas at the Milton show last week.
Mr. and Mrs. F. Long are home from an extended visit in Spokane and Newport.
Mr. and Mrs. George Forrest spent Sunday in the city from the ranch south of town.
Levi Ankeny, the Walla Walla banker, is said to be afflicted seriously with rheumatism.
Miss Maria Koepke, of Helix, visited this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Koepke.
Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Ferguson have returned from a few weeks' visit in Portland and California.

B. N. Hawks has standard bred White Orpington cockerels for sale.
Mrs. Crockett who visited her daughter Mrs. Meldrum has returned to her home in Pendleton.
Miss Hales, of Walla Walla is a guest at the home of her niece, Mrs. Robert Walker, in this city.
Messrs. Moore and Wells of Walla Walla employes of the Telephone company were in the city Monday.
Robert Coppock has returned to his home in this city from a visit with friends in the Willamette valley.
Walter Adams was in town Tuesday having come over from Walla Walla and was on his way to the ranch.
Piano for Rent.—Any responsible party desiring to rent a piano should call at Mrs. Jones' millinery store.
Miss Lizzie Sheard was in the city Wednesday from her home in the country trading with local merchants.
Mrs. McCorkal is down from the mountain ranch visiting at the home of her daughter Mrs. Sheard, north of town.
Mrs. Lillie Miller will go to Portland about the 18th inst. to trim hats and select millinery for her spring trade.
Mrs. Allison, professional nurse can be found at the home of J. M. Smith in Athena whenever services are required.
Have you registered? Remember the primary election is not far off. Judge B. B. Richards has the blanks at his office and if you have not registered you should do so at once.
The Athena High school basketball team will play in Milton tonight where the boys try conclusions with the Milton High school team. Next Friday night Milton plays a return game in this city.

W. L. Smock and C. L. Bulfinch of Weston, were among the clients calling at Dr. Sharp's dental office during the week.
At the service at the Christian church last Sunday evening, seven young people received the ordinance of baptism.
Joseph Forrest, who has been afflicted with rheumatism, is improved to the extent that he is able to come down town.
Col. J. H. Raley names Will M. Peterson as the man to be candidate of the Democratic party for presidential elector.
All those indebted to Mrs. Lillie Miller are requested to call at once and settle all bills. Don't wait for the second call.
Dan McKenzie writes Athena friends that he is in London and will spend some time in Scotland before returning to America.
Umatilla county is strong for Taft, is the statement of a Pendleton newspaper. That's the first we've heard of it up this way.
The family of C. E. Miller will occupy the cottage of Mrs. Mary Gross, having moved in and taken possession yesterday.
Echo will have a ball team again this season. As in the past, it will be financed by the volunteer fire department of that town.
J. M. Swaggart received a shipment of prize winning Ancona pullets yesterday from the Frank S. Rice farm at Grangeville, Idaho.
Mrs. W. B. Simpson who has been visiting relatives in Athena and vicinity for several weeks has returned to her home in Portland.
Fix & Radtke recently installed a new electric scale the kind which has become so popular with retailers throughout the country.
J. F. Robinson, laundryman, has been elected president of the Pendleton Commercial Association, and Jack Keefe was re-elected secretary.
Because of derailment of a train west of Wallula, the Soo-Spokane Flyer passed through this city via Pendleton for Portland Tuesday morning.
The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lewis of Helix, died Wednesday. Interment was made in the Athena cemetery yesterday forenoon.
Athena has been afflicted with ho-boes for the past few weeks. Men call at tack doors daily at the homes in this city, asking for something to eat.
The Girls' Missionary Circle are planning to give a Leap Year social on the 29th of this month. Details of the program will be given next week.
The Baptist Missionary society met at the home of Mrs. M. L. Watts yesterday afternoon, when a most pleasant and profitable afternoon was passed.
Clark Nelson returned to his home in Pendleton Tuesday after presenting the Round-up pictures in this city and in Weston through Rawl Miller's theatre circuit.
Mrs. J. G. Moore and children, of Cambridge, Idaho, were guests this week at the home of her sister, Mrs. Alex. McFadyen, and her brother, Jesse Smith, in this city.
Bern Bannister has four plows running at present on rented land in the Cold Springs district. The soil in that neighborhood is working well and considerable plowing is being done at this time.
Dr. J. D. Plamondon is having a new garage built at his home in the north part of town. When completed the doctor will have a most handsome building in which to house his automobile.
In a card received this morning, Miss Jessica McEwen states with her father, she would embark for home on February 3, from their European trip. The card was dated London, January 24th.
Charles Wilks was in the city Monday evening from his ranch on Cold Spring canyon. He reports growing crops in his part of the county to be growing well and giving splendid prospects for a productive crop.
Since his parents moved back to the farm north of Athena, Lawrence Pinkerton is staying at the dormitory at Columbia college, Milton. Miss Pearl goes to Milton once a week in order to continue her music course.
Mrs. Kittler, of Wenatchee, Wash., was a guest a few days this week of her sister, Mrs. Jackson Nelson, and her brother, David Taylor in this city. A family reunion was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Wednesday.
An order for 184,000 wheat sacks was placed with the George A. Moore Sack company of San Francisco by State Secretary F. A. Sykes and Robert McEwen, secretary of the Milton local of the Oregon Farmers' Union Friday.
P. T. Harbour, the well known proprietor of the Weston brick yard, was in the city Tuesday evening on business. Mr. Harbour says he finds a ready sale for the product of his yard, shipments going into every section of the Northwest.
Local No. 6 of the Farmers Co-operative Union held an interesting session last Monday evening. One new member was taken into the local and there was a good attendance at the meeting. At the next regular meeting supper will be served and new members added to the list.
W. R. Taylor has lost two horses lately from causes due to feeding alfalfa hay straight. The food packs in the stomach and in the two instances it was impossible to relieve the animal. He will feed grain hay hereafter using alfalfa as supplementary forage only.

Twenty-eight fine mules, halter-broke, coming four and five years old, in good condition for work, from the Ben Wade ranch in Walla Walla county, will be sold at auction sale in this city at the McBride barn, Wednesday, February 14.
Rev. Nathan Evans, of Pendleton, has been conducting a series of meetings at the Methodist Episcopal church in this city during the week. Mr. Evans is a man well known here and the meetings held by him have been well attended.
Mrs. Mary Gross and her daughter, Miss Vera left yesterday afternoon for Helix where they will remain for a time at the home of her daughter Mrs. Nova Desper, before going to Portland to make their home with her son Benny, who is in business there.
Mrs. A. E. Luna was brought to her home in this city from Pendleton Monday. She stood the trip as well as could be expected but she had a bad day Tuesday. She has been gaining somewhat this week and at this writing is considerably better.
Save pain and money. Gold crowns $5 and $6. Bridge work, $5 and $6. Amalgam and silver fillings, 50c. and $1.00. Painless extraction, 50c. Full set of teeth, $10. Only the best material, and work guaranteed. Dr. Sponogle, Reliable Resident Dentist.
The big iron hotel is in place in the remodeled store front at the Cox building. Dan May the Pendleton contractor, has been in charge of the work which in itself insures satisfactory completion. The new Golden Rule Store will occupy this building.
A number of white men have joined the Brotherhood of North American Indians as honorary members. The white brothers were received into the organization after considerable discussion among the Indians present at the meeting held at the Agency Tuesday.
Officer Henry arrested Roy Walker and Clyde McPherrin Saturday evening for fighting. They were released on the payment of $5 each. The officer turned the money over to the city recorder and the men were not brought before that officer for a hearing.
Two fine deer heads, trophies from the hunt of local men to the Grande Ronde last fall, are on exhibition at B. N. Hawks' drug store. The deer were killed by Will Dobson, and the mounting of the heads displays the scientific taxidermist skill of Sam Famburn.
Garden seeds are being displayed in Athena store windows. Eastern exchanges please copy. Eggs are selling at 25 cents per dozen, buttercups are in bud, bulbs are shooting out of the ground and the farmer's plow shares are being sharpened. Such is our glorious climate.
J. R. Mathers agent for the O. W. R. & N. Co. at this station, accompanied by his family, left Tuesday evening for Los Angeles, where he will be the guest of his uncle for several weeks. Mr. Mathers is succeeded during his vacation, by relief agent Norton.
Mr. and Mrs. Hamp Booher and Miss Ethel Johnson have returned from a trip to California of several weeks duration. They had a pleasant time and enjoyed the sights of the sunny state. Other residents of this vicinity are expected home soon from their California trip.
Lee Kirk is down from Stevens county, Washington, where he has been visiting his daughter, Mrs. V. M. Shick. He reports the family as being well, and the boys, with the exception of Archie who is in the hardware store, working on a ranch recently purchased by Mrs. Shick.
Maurice Hill has been appointed on a committee to organize a freshman glee club at the University of Oregon. This glee club will participate in all the freshman social functions of the year. Maurice is also on the committee that is to give the freshman dance on the 17th of February.
Harry Brett of Helix, charged with assault on Joe Bannister with a dangerous weapon, was acquitted by the trial jury in the circuit court this week. The case grew out of a row occurring in a saloon at Helix during the harvest season, when Brett used a billy on Bannister's head with serious results.
The Dreamland program for Friday and Saturday nights is as follows: 1.—"The Buccaneers," Seligs. 2.—"Legally Dead," Pathe. 3.—"Taming a Tyrant," Essanny. For Sunday evening: 1.—"The Lily of the Tenuements," Biograph. 2.—"The Sheriff's Daughter," Pathe. 3.—"Bumpous as Romeo," Edison.

New Embroideries & Muslin Underwear for Spring

Our first shipment of Muslin Underwear has arrived, and is on display. We have a nice, large selection of

- Ladies' Muslin Gowns from 75c to $3 00
- Ladies' Princess Slips from $1 50 to 2 50
- Ladies' Muslin Drawers from . . . 25c up
- Ladies' Muslin Skirts from 65c to $3 00
- Ladies' Muslin Corset Covers 25c to 1 50
- Childrens Muslin Dresses for 50c to 2 50
- Latest 27 in Flouncing, 75c per yard, up 45 in Flouncing, $1 25 and $1 50 per yd

Be sure and see the fancy Draperies, Curtain Scrims and Swisses and the new Embroideries for Spring, also some nice all-over Embroideries and other fancy Trimmings and Fringes. Do your buying now while our stock is large and the patterns here to select from.

FIX & RADTKE
THE "MONEY-BACK" STORE, ATHENA, OREGON

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy
WILL CURE
Your Cold. Try It

The uniform success that has attended the use of this remedy in the cure of bad colds has made it one of the most popular medicines in use. It can always be depended upon to effect a quick cure and is pleasant to take.
It contains no opium or other narcotic, and may be given as confidently to a child as to an adult. Price 25 cents. Large size 50 cents.

MOSGROVE
MERCANTILE COMP'Y

Our New Spring SAMPLES For Men's Made-to-Order Suits Have Arrived

Some Plain Talk

We don't claim that our label "Lamm & Co." has anything more attractive than any other label. On the surface it is but a silent mark of identification; yet since the early '70's it has spoken volumes in the hall of tailoring fame. But, we do claim that it stands first in the ranks as regards style, workmanship and fit. It pledges the fulfilment of our trade motto, the best on earth. It is the symbol of everything which enters into honestly built clothes. The kind where absolute satisfaction is absolutely guaranteed. We believe in having the best that money can buy. We stand behind every order we take, if the suit is not a perfect fit and the linings and finishings of good quality you don't have to take the suit. We want your trade. Our prices are the lowest. You have over 500 samples to select from, all the latest up-to-date styles. Come early and give us your order. The spring will soon be here.

MOSGROVE MERCANTILE COMP'Y.
Where Trading Stamps are given with Cash Purchases

Alexander & Wilson's Autoservice

is cheaper than livery hire, when time is considered

Gets you there QUICKER than the horse

Easy riding comfortable cars at your service at all hours day or night. Try the new way and be convinced.

Alexander & Wilson
Phone 375 and 156 Athena, Oregon.

28 MULES 28

A bonafide Auction Sale of halter-broke Mules, coming 4 and 5 years old. In Splendid condition for work.

McBride's Barn
Athena, February 14th

F. Eifert, S. Wade, D. C. Sanderson,
Auctioneer. Owner. Clerk.

28 MULES 28

Will be sold by public auction at the McBride barn, Athena, on Wednesday, February 14 at 1:30 p. m. 28 head of mules, ages 4 and 5, Oregon bred, choice stock; no culls; weight from 1000 to 1200 lbs. Halter broke, in good condition. Terms: 8 months time on approved notes at 8 per cent or 3 per cent off for cash.
F. Eifert, S. Wade, D. C. Sanderson, Auctioneer. Owner. Clerk.

BANNER SALVE
the most healing salve in the world.

Prison Laundry.
"All arrivals are washed," explained the warden of the prison.
"And if they kick up a fuss?"
"Then they are ironed!"—Louisville Courier Journal.