Stencil Letters Used by Ancients.
Movable characters were known to the ancients; they were used in teaching children to read. The ancients had also stencil letters, which they used to secure a regular style of penmanship. They even made use of plates, thus open-cut, containing an entire page; it was placed on the papyrus to guide the pens of children; "an excellent means," said Quintilian, "to learn them not to exceed the desired proportions." The Emperor Justinian (A. D. 518) could neither read nor write, an unexampled thing in one of such high rank. When it was necessary for him to sign his name, he had a sheet of gold, through which were cut the letters of his name. "Then," said Procopius, "placing this tablet on the paper, one conducted the hand of the prince, holding the stylus dipped in purple on the type of the different letters, and took away the writing furnished with his signature." The same thing is reported of King Theodoros and of Charlemagne.—National Magazine.

MOTHER OF LARGE FAMILY
Tells How She Keeps Her Health—Happiness For Those Who Take Her Advice.

Scottville, Mich.—"I want to tell you how much good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Sanative Wash have done me. I live on a farm and have worked very hard. I am forty-five years old, and am the mother of thirteen children. Many people think it strange that I am not broken down with hard work and the care of my family, but I tell them of my good friend, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and that there will be no backache and bearing down pains for them if they will take it as I have. I am scarcely ever without it in the house.

"I will say also that I think there is no better medicine to be found for young girls. My eldest daughter has taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for painful periods and irregularity, and it has helped her.

"I am always ready and willing to speak a good word for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I tell every one I meet that I owe my health and happiness to your wonderful medicine."—Mrs. J. G. JOHNSON, Scottville, Mich., R.F.D. 3.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotics or harmful drugs, and today holds the record of being the most successful remedy for woman's ills known.

When the West Awakes.

Stop coughing! Coughing raps and tears. Stop it! Coughing prepares the throat and lungs for more trouble. Stop it! There is nothing so bad for a cough as coughing. Stop it! Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is a medicine for coughs and colds, a regular doctor's medicine. Sold for seventy years. Use it! Ask your doctor if this is not good advice.

Unless there is daily action of the bowels, poisonous products are absorbed, causing headache, biliousness, nausea, dyspepsia. We wish you would ask your doctor about correcting your constipation by taking laxative doses of Ayer's Pills. Made by the J. C. AYER CO., Lowell, Mass.

SONG OF A BOY.

Wouldn't you like to be a boteverous boy like me, And leap and run Just for fun?

Wouldn't you like to skate After school, so late? Or play snowballs Till mother's call?

Wouldn't you like to go A-hunting through the snow Like Indian wild, Yet just a child?

Ah, yes, I bet you would Be like me if you could, And once you were just so— Long time ago!

ALMANAC CARRIED IN HEAD
Memorizing Little Rhyme Will Enable One to Know Day of Week First Day of Month Falls On.

Of course you have seen the large number of calendars that are given away every year, and you may have admired the little pocket almanacs that business men give your father to stick in his waistcoat pocket. Well, here is one that you can stick in your head.

First of all learn this little rhyme: Time Flies Fast, Men Wisely Say, Men Think, Alas! Time's Fooled Away.

The capital letters beginning each word stand for a day of the week. T is for Tuesday and Th for Thursday. S is for Saturday and A for Sunday. M for Monday and F for Friday. W is for Wednesday. The twelve words are for the order of the twelve months, three in each line.

The capital letters tell you what day of the week the first day of the month will fall on in 1912, so that you can tell your friends what day of the week their birthdays will fall on or what day will be Christmas or Fourth of July.

Take the Fourth of July. It is the seventh month and the seventh word begins the third line of your verse with an M. If Monday is the 1st of July Thursday will be the 4th. Any day late in the month may be found by counting sevens. Christmas, for example; December 1 is a Sunday, so the other Sundays are 8, 15, 22 and Christmas must be on Wednesday.

This rule will not apply to January and February, because this is leap year. The verse gives the 2d for them.

WHAT IS A NO-FARE CHILD?
Cincinnati Car Company Has Installed Ingenious Attachment to Tell Exact Height of Children.

The Cincinnati Car company has attached in all their cars an ingenious attachment which is known as the fare mark. Should a parent claim that her child is entitled to ride free, being under five years old, and should the conductor have his doubts on the matter, he hustles the youngster to the fare mark, and if he or she is over

Easy to Pronounce.
The easiest word to pronounce in the English language is said to be "murmur." It is simply an expulsion of the breath repeated.

This Should Be Considered.
Nobody has as yet succeeded in suggesting a way in which boys who become dissatisfied with their fathers may work the recall.

Womanly Qualities That Win.
With common sense, gentleness and confidence in herself a woman can always conquer.

You will sneeze; perhaps feel chilly.
You think you are catching cold. Don't wait until you know it. Take a dose of Hamlin's Wizard Oil and you just can't catch cold.

Measure for Fare.

That mark, then the fare has to be paid. It has been computed that the average five-year-old is 41 inches, and on these lines the company base their estimate.

A Lesson in English.
A consul of the United States in one of the French seaports was asked to preside at an examination in English at a municipal school.

"Jean," asked the teacher of the head pupil, eager to show him off before the American, "Jean, you will conjugate the verb, 'I have a gold mine.'"

Jean arose, floundered mentally for a moment, then plunged in: "I have a gold mine; thou hast a gold thine; he has a gold han; we have a gold ourn; you have a gold youirn; they have a gold theirn!"

The consul was speechless with astonishment at the progress the French children had made in the English language as it is never spoken at home.

No "Sing" in Guide.
Little three-year-old Clara was very fond of practicing on the piano. Her mother, not wishing to have her music subjected to Clara's vigorous treatment, removed it one day and placed a railway gudgeon upon the piano rack. The infant prodigy soon discovered the difference, however, and throwing it to the floor, she exclaimed: "Mamma, ma tan't sing out of zat; zey alst go sing in it."

Unwise Comment.
How much wiser would a man appear if he reserved his comments. The other day a woman said, "I hear that Valenciennes lace is going to be the wear again." "Is it?" growled her husband. "I'll bet you an oil well, then, it's something that doesn't cost a cent under 37 cents a yard." And his wife, seeing that he had a clench, was silent, and would not stay in and call him.

Mothers will find Mrs. Winsor's Soothing Syrup the best remedy to use for their children during the teething period.

By No Means a New Fad.
"I am afraid Mrs. Wapping is a ferocious," remarked Mrs. Pilcher. "Indeed," said Mrs. Bluntstone, with a slight elevation of her eyebrows. "Some people take up every new fad that comes along."

Live Telegraph Poles.
In Nevada the telegraph poles in damp, low-lying situations have taken root and flourished. They are of cottonwood, and planted with the bark upon them. In some parts of Java, too, a native tree is used for the poles, and this also takes root, thereby resisting the attacks of the white ants or the inroads of natural decay.

This interpretation was made of a section of the state code which exempts "all persons permanently disabled" from the poll tax.

Men Shot Like Dogs
YOUNG CALIFORNIA SLAYER ADMITS HE MURDERED FOUR.

Repentance of His Sins Leads to Complete Confession After He Is Shot in a Sacramento Hotel.

San Francisco.—Repentance led Zolite Clement, the young bandit wounded while robbing a saloon in Sacramento, Cal., to make a complete confession to Chief of Police Ahern, of Sacramento, and Chief of Police Briare, of Stockton, that he had murdered four men and possibly a fifth, and that he had committed a dozen holdups in cities along the Pacific coast. It was not for money he became a criminal, he declares, for he always had sufficient of that. The love for excitement, he says, was his only motive. Recently Clement was converted at an evangelistic service and unfolded the story of his life to an evangelist who refused to break the confidence imposed in him. Now he declares he wants only a few weeks in which to make amends to his God and then he will be ready to pay the penalty for his crime.

According to his confession Clement shot and killed James Markham, in Sacramento, in 1902. He states this was his first crime and when the newspapers said he was probably shot by a woman it caused him so much amusement he decided to try again. Then he went to Tacoma, Wash., and committed several hold-ups. Later he returned to Oakland and shot and killed Mounted Policeman Brown in 1904, when the officer tried to arrest him on suspicion. On the same night he shot another man whom he believed he killed, but never read of it in the papers. A few days later he killed a saloonkeeper in Fruitvale.

His last murder was in Stockton last month when he shot and killed William Newman. Clement says he was skilled in the use of the revolver and shot to kill on the slightest indication of resistance. His story has done more to clear police dockets than that of any youthful bandit in several years.

Clement is in the city jail in Sacramento, nursing a shattered arm. He was shot and wounded in a fight with James Martin, Jr., when he tried to rob the latter's saloon. His religious fervor, which led to the detailed confession, did not seem to abate his zest in telling the story of his life.

There are only two persons he refused to talk about. They are his wife, from whom he has separated and Miss Emilie Barreilles, of Stockton, with whom he spent the evening the night of the murder of "Diamond Bill" Newman. He declares he began his life as a criminal at 16 and liked it. Now he says he has reformed and will lead a religious life if ever he lives to see the day when he shall be out from behind the bars.

STABLE FIRE REVEALS HOARD
Mysterious Trunk With Greenbacks So Heavy It Took Three Men to Carry It.

Wilmington, Del.—Firemen summoned near midnight to fight a blaze in the stable of George Older, at Sixteenth street and Marsh road, discovered a hoard of money hidden in a small frame shack adjoining the burning building and immediately in the rear of the home of William Agster, a baker.

William Fincher, a member of Independence fire company, had gone into the shack to see if there was any fire there. He found old stockings, bags, boxes and bundles of rags containing money in every denomination from a cent to a silver dollar. He notified Fire Chief Moran, who had the treasure carried into Agster's house.

"Look out for the paper money, it is in the trunk," shouted Agster to the firemen.

The firemen found the trunk, and it required three to lift it. Agster refused to open it when it had been carried into his home and refused to explain about the money stored in the old shack. Chief Moran estimated the sum he saw to be at least $1,000, to say nothing of what the trunk contained.

The stable was completely destroyed. The police believe the fire was of incendiary origin.

Beacon to Tennyson's Memory.
The Tennyson beacon, on the edge of the Isle of Wight, which the gale has destroyed, was a landmark for all vessels entering the Solent from the west. It consisted of a tall iron cross, thirty-two feet high with the pedestal, and bore the following inscription: "To the memory of Alfred, Lord Tennyson, this cross, a beacon to sailors, is raised by the people of Freshwater and others who desired to honor him in England and America."

The site on which it stood formed part of the manor of Farringford, and was one of the objects of the long daily walk which he took until within a few short years of his death.—Fall Mall Gazette.

Wilmington, Del.—Firemen summoned near midnight to fight a blaze in the stable of George Older, at Sixteenth street and Marsh road, discovered a hoard of money hidden in a small frame shack adjoining the burning building and immediately in the rear of the home of William Agster, a baker.

William Fincher, a member of Independence fire company, had gone into the shack to see if there was any fire there. He found old stockings, bags, boxes and bundles of rags containing money in every denomination from a cent to a silver dollar. He notified Fire Chief Moran, who had the treasure carried into Agster's house.

"Look out for the paper money, it is in the trunk," shouted Agster to the firemen.

The firemen found the trunk, and it required three to lift it. Agster refused to open it when it had been carried into his home and refused to explain about the money stored in the old shack. Chief Moran estimated the sum he saw to be at least $1,000, to say nothing of what the trunk contained.

The stable was completely destroyed. The police believe the fire was of incendiary origin.

FACTS ABOUT BLUING.
Since the placing of RED CROSS BALL BLUE on the market there has been a rapid falling off in the sales of all liquid bluing. Why buy water containing a small percentage of bluing when you can get a solid package and dissolve it as needed. Makes clothes whiter, lasts longer, and is cheaper. Large package, 10 cents. Few Men Will Admit That Their Wives Know Anything About Business, but a great many will follow their advice and then take all the credit for themselves.

Why It Is So Often Done.
It is a very easy thing to laugh at somebody who is trying to do an altogether new thing.

Worst Thing About Them.
Conceited people would not necessarily be obnoxious if they would only quit trying to take the conceit out of others.

Seems Immune to Earthquakes.
Earthquakes occur with considerable frequency in New Zealand, but no damage has so far been noticed in the case of reinforced concrete.
