Mrs. Lillie Miller will move her stock of millinery goods from Union to this city and will close the stock out regardless of cost. Mrs. Miller desires all who are indebted to her to come to the store at once and make settlement.

Homer I. Watts made the run to Spokane in just 10 hours running time, in his Ford roadster. In company with Guy Jones, Mr. Watts left Athena at 7 o'clock Sunday evening and was in Spokane at 10 Monday morning.

The venerable violinist, Bill King, took second prize at the old fiddlers' contest at the Pioneer's picnic at Weston Saturday. There were but four contestants. Our own Dr. Dell did not complete this year, but last year won first prize.

R. T. Brown, Captain of the Walla Walla base ball team, visited his family in this city Wednesday between trains, leaving in the afternoon for the Garden city where his team has a series of games this week with the La Grande team.

Mr. Ira Starr, of this city, was united in marriage with Mrs. Clara Leddy, of Coeur d'Alene, in that city June 3. Mr. and Mrs. Starr are now residing in this city, where Mr. Starr is employed by the Preston-Schaffer Milling company.

Friday night while returning from a trip to Bigbam Springs, Kay LeGrow, Dr. Newsom and Byron Hawks were caught in a heavy rainstorm on Wild Horse mountain. The three were riding in Dr. Newsom's car when they caught the drenching.

What little money has been left in the country by the automobile factories bids fair to be extracted by shows. Three circuses and two wild west outfits have been scheduled for this section and in all probability others are to follow.

The Athens Band is rehearsing splendid selections to be played at Walla Walla July 4th and 5th. The band gave its first Sunday afternoon concert of the season at the City Park last Sunday and the music was greatly appreciated by Athena people.

Only two games have been played this week in the Tri-State league. Rain has interfered with base ball as well as with other pursuits. Walla Walla and Pendleton are tied for first place, Boise being pushed down to third, while La Grande remains in the cellar.

Mr. Richard P. McLean and Miss Bonnie Jean Palster, prominent young people of Walla Walla, were united in marriage in that city, Thursday evening. Mr. and Mrs. P. S. LeGrow of this city, friends of the contracting couple, attended the wedding reception, which was held at the home of the bride's mother.

Dr. J. E. Sharp, the dentist, is arranging to engage in his profession at Pendleton, having secured office rooms in the Temple building. Dr. Sharp came here from Ontario in the winter and has had offices in the Barnett building on Main street. He goes to Pendleton for the reason that he considers there is a larger field there for his practice.

Mrs. Lillie Miller returned to her home in this city Sunday from Union, where she spent several days looking after her millinery business in that city. She was accompanied home by her daughter, Jeannette, who has been visiting in Union since the close of school.

For the most part, strawberries now arriving from Milton are of poor quality. The condition of the berries is due to the rains. In a few days up-river berries which have now begun to ripen, will be in the market. It is expected they will be of good quality.

On next Sunday, morning and evening A. Mackenzie Meldrum will preach at Milton, and J. A. Lord, pastor of the church in that city, will occupy the pulpit in the Christian church in Athena. Mr. Lord is said to be one of the strongest preachers in the Christian brotherhood, and at one time was editor of the Christian Standard.

Frank Baker, an old time harness maker of Athena, was met in Pendleton by a friend Tuesday. Frank was with the Sells-Floto circus in the capacity of harness maker, having been with the circus for the past five years. His daughter has made a reputation as a singer, being in the cast of an opera company in New York.

Mike Pierce was the instigator of a drunken disturbance at his mother's home on the reservation Saturday night. A free-for-all fight occurred in which all members of the family participated. Deputy Sheriff Taylor went out and arrested Michael and brought him to town. Sunday he left the city by the skidoo route, his mother refusing to prosecute.

The Pioneers Reunion at Weston was well attended Friday and Saturday of last week. The programs contained interesting features, and people from all parts of the county were there to meet old time friends and acquaintances. The weather was ideal and the session was said to be one of the most successful ever held.

Wines are the staples in family liquors. Bert Cartano carries a large and varied stock of select vintages. $1.50 per gallon, you can get choice Tokay, Muscat, Angelica, Sweet Catawba or Port. These are California's best product and give satisfaction wherever used. Call at the "Goat" for the best and purest liquors.

The members of the Christian Sunday School enjoyed a picnic in the Park Tuesday when a most happy day was passed. A sumptuous dinner was spread, picnic fashion, and games and jollity ruled the day. A base ball game was a feature of the fun, when boys were pitted against girls, the former very ungalantly winning the game.

The Walla Walla-La Grande series of base ball games for this week in the Tri-State League have been transferred to Walla Walla on account of the conditions prevailing in the new ball park in the Mormon city. The game Tuesday at LaGrande was called on account of a whirlwind of dust swirling over the grounds, with the score four to four. Captain Brown of the Bears spent Wednesday at his home in this city.

Jacob Bloch died at St. Vincent's hospital, Portland, Wednesday after a lingering illness from cancer of the stomach. The funeral was held yesterday forenoon. Mr. Bloch was aged 55 years, 4 months and 29 days at the time of death. He was well known in this city and county, having been engaged in the mercantile business in Athena until 1896, when he moved to Spokane from which place he later went to Portland and engaged in the real estate business. He leaves a wife, two married daughters and three sons.

Beginning with a slight electric storm Tuesday afternoon, in which a few flashes of lightning and a peal or two of thunder jarred up at atmospheric conditions, a steady rain set in at evening time and has continued indefinitely. Wheat raisers were of the opinion that the rain was not needed in this section at the present time, and some expressed fears that a considerable amount of growing grain would receive more damage than benefit as a result of the downpour. In many localities grain has fallen badly on account of the heavy rains.

Cole Bros. Circus, advertised for two exhibitions in Athena, Wednesday, did not arrive from La Grande until 8 p. m., and made no attempt to put on a show. The stock was unloaded and fed and the kitchen department served food to the men. The train was here for three hours, when it pulled out for Kennewick. The circus train was in a wreck at Elgin Tuesday and the cars had to be repaired at La Grande, causing the delay in reaching Athena. Bills contracted by advance agents in Athena were promptly settled on arrival of the show in the city, and the management left a good impression on business men thereby.

Splendid entertainment has been afforded patrons of the Dreamland Theatre this week. The motion pictures are of unusual merit. Last evening's scene taken from "Life in the Oasis," showing the harvest of dates and life of the wild Bedouins, was well worth the price of admission. Tonight and Saturday night the program will be: 1.—"The Sheriff's Punishment," Pathé. 2.—"In Northern Forests," Vitagraph. 3.—"The Lost Horse," Latin. For Sunday night: 1.—"A Favoring Current," Gaumont. 2.—"Conquering Carrie," Kalem. 3.—"The Old Folks' Sacrifice," Vitagraph.

What might have been a bad automobile accident happened Saturday night while coming up the hill out of Weston, when the Dudley car, driven by Glen Dudley, telecooped a buggy from the rear. No head-lights were burning and the slow speed at which the car was running is all that prevented young Starr, Ross Payne and Roy Zerba from being seriously injured. The buggy was practically demolished and the occupants buried out backward. Starr struck on the hood of the car and the wind shield, the other two landing striking the ground. The horse was also thrown to the ground and the harness broken in several places. Aside from a few bruises the boys escaped without serious injury.
