The "Bull." The origin of the word "bull" as the definition of a confused utterance is doubtful. Some philologists say it comes from the French boue—"fraud"—and others that it is derived from the Icelandic bull—"nonsense." Many definitions have been attempted, but the best probably is that of Sydney Smith. Writing of the difference between wit and "bulls," he says: "Wit discovers real relations that are apparent; 'bulls' admit apparent relations that are not real. The stronger the apparent connection and the more complete the real disconnection of the ideas the greater the surprise and the better the 'bull'."

Preferred Stock Canned Goods

Are Packed Wherever the Best are Grown

That is the secret of their exquisite Flavor. Preferred Stock Pineapple, for instance, is grown, ripened and canned all under the sunny skies of Hawaii. Pineapples brought to this country and then canned must be picked before fully ripe or they won't keep—and the flavor is flat.

Hawaiian Pineapple is the best grown. Every morning, the ones ripened to their "spicy best" are gathered, taken into the cannery, close at hand, peeled and cored by special cutters operated by bright, tidy Hawaiian girls. All the tough, fibrous center is removed, the "eyes" all cut out, and the rich, sun-gold slices packed into Preferred Stock cans—just the best part of each pineapple.

Try PREFERRED STOCK Pineapple—a royal dessert—ready to serve

ALLEN & LEWIS, Wholesale Grocers, PORTLAND, OREGON, U. S. A.
