Roundup on Last Three Days

Dr. Newsom returned from Walla Walla Wednesday where with the assistance of Dr. Keeler he removed a cancerous growth from the side of L. T. McBride, the well known Weston pioneer. The growth was under the left arm and the operation was successful in every particular.

Wines are the staples in family liquors. Bert Cartano carries a large and varied stock of select vintages. $1.50 per gallon, you can get choice Tokay, Muscat, Angelica, Sweet Catawba or Port. These are California's best product and give satisfaction wherever used. Call at the "Goat" for the best and purest liquors.

Robert Forster, for years a resident of Pendleton, and one of the wisest known Masons in the state, died in a Portland hospital early Tuesday morning. Mr. Forster conducted a planing mill and lumber yard at Pendleton for many years, and had an extensive acquaintance with people of the county. He leaves a wife and one child.

John Spain, winner of the championship at the Roundup last year, who lost his right hand at Halfway, Ore., July 4, when it became entangled in a rope, will enter the bucking contest at the Roundup again this year. Evidently, Spain does not believe a little thing like the loss of a hand will deter him from making a good ride.

Henry Barrett will store his combine down at the implement shed for the purpose of installing a gasoline engine on it for the next season's work. The success of the Dudley machine and others equipped with gasoline engines has made owners of machines come to the decision that it is the best method of handling grain yet devised.

Henry Allao, the well known Adams farmer, fell from a load of hay Wednesday and fractured his left hip. Dr. Sharp was called and reduced the fracture. Four boys who have been persistently handy with "nigger-shooters" were up before Judge Richards Saturday, after complaints had been made against them for malicious window breaking. The boys were let go without a fine, after the judge had reprimanded them and decreed confiscation of all sling shots in town. Patience had ceased to be virtue because windows were being punctured all over the town. The next misdemeanor of this nature will result in speedy sentence to jail.

One redeeming feature of the carnival which appeared in this city last week, was the little band. The membership appeared to be composed of well behaved musicians who rendered very creditable music. It was a small band but every member was a professional musician, played his part and made a good impression. The instrumentation embraced two trombones, tuba, baritone and cornet and drums. It is doubtful if ever a seven-piece band discoursed better music here. The players were: Paul Behwinkle, A. R. Maps, W. McMain, A. Eldred, S. Thorleikson, L. Wautub, and D. Wolcott.

give a service that cannot be equalled by any other machines, because no others possess such valuable features as

Genuine Underdraft, Floating Frame and Uniform Tilt

Genuine underdraft puts all the pull of the team on the cutter-bar, giving greatest possible cutting power. All neck weight is eliminated by the floating frame, and the uniform tilt makes possible cleaner work and more hay.

Don't fail to look into all the features that make the Admiral Mower "King of the Hay Field." Examine the machines in our store or ask the man that owns an Admiral.
