

Press Paragraphs

York Dell was in Pendleton Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Lizzie Mansfield visited in Weston Wednesday.

Miss Wilma Dupuis of Weston, was in the city Monday.

Joe Lewis, the Helix farmer, was in the city Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Erwin were in Walla Walla Tuesday.

Harry Bundy was up Sunday from Pendleton, and spent the day.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Barnes were in the city Sunday from Weston.

Frank Smith and sister, Miss Gladys were over from Weston Monday.

Miss Pauline Myrick went to Weston Saturday, for a visit with friends.

Maurice Hill came up from Pendleton Sunday and spent the day at home.

Born, in Athens, September 12, 1913, to Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Soden, a girl.

Mr. and Mrs. James Lalaude, of Weston, visited friends in the city Sunday.

Bert Cartano and John Rothrock transacted business in Pendleton, Tuesday.

Mrs. Minnie DePeat has been ill this week, with a severe attack of bronchitis.

Mrs. F. S. Le Grow spent the week in Walla Walla, a guest at the home of her mother.

Mrs. W. P. Littlejohn and daughter have returned from their summer outing at Seaside.

Emery Aonille has moved his family to the Ferguson residence near the Christian church.

Clarence Zerba, the efficient bookkeeper at the mill, was a Walla Walla visitor Sunday.

Misses Laura and Belle McIntyre were in Weston Friday night, guests of Miss Lucille Kemp.

Mrs. James Nelson and son, Frank, are down from Lethbridge, Alberta, visiting relatives near Athens.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Gross left for Portland yesterday morning, where they will reside during the winter.

Mrs. Lillie Miller has been in Portland this week, where she is engaged in trimming hats for the fall trade.

Mr. and Mrs. Upton of Spokane, are in the city, visiting at the home of Mrs. Upton's brother, W. E. Dobson.

Mrs. George Forrest and Miss Marguerite Forrest are visiting friends and relatives at Coeur d'Alene, Idaho.

Mrs. Lizzie Jones will conduct a boarding house at Boise, Idaho. Her son Shelly resides in the Idaho capital.

Owen Ruele, manager of the Athens opera house, has placed a new bill board at corner of Third and Main streets.

Those knowing themselves to be indebted to Chas. Norris will please call at the First National Bank of Athens, and settle.

Mrs. J. D. Plamondon has returned home from a pleasant visit with relatives and friends in Portland, Albany and the seaside.

William LaCourse was fined $10 for being drunk and disorderly, and John Doe served two days in the city jail for the same offense.

The Via Moore company will play a return engagement at the Athena opera house Tuesday and Wednesday evenings of next week.

Mrs. James Nelson of Alberta and daughter, Mrs. Effie Lloyd of Portland, have been visiting relatives in this community this week.

Mrs. Kate Brookner returned yesterday to her home in Spokane, after having spent the harvest season as cook in the vicinity of Helix.

Rev. Helmick and wife arrived in the city Saturday from Rosalia, Wash., and have taken up their residence in the M. E. church parsonage.

Mrs. B. D. Sharp, Spirilla corsetiere for Athens, Adams and Helix districts, will be at home to customers on Tuesday and Friday of each week.

I will continue to take postal portraits, also do developing and printing. Bring in the little tots; work guaranteed. W. H. Stecker, Athena Studio.

Leslie Nelson and others who contemplated leaving last Sunday for Northwestern Washington to take up land, have deferred the trip until later in the fall.

Madame Fortier and family have moved to Toppenish, Wash., to reside. The Madame disposed of her property in Athens, and left this week for the Washington town.

Claud Steen and family have removed to Milton to reside. Mr. Steen purchased his home residence which he sold previous to leaving Milton, a couple of years ago.

Mrs. Dean Willaby, Mrs. B. O. Worthington and Mr. and Mrs. T. P. DeFrees were Walla Walla visitors Monday, being driven by Mrs. Willaby in her automobile.

Mrs. Wm. McBride was in the city Wednesday morning, on her way home from Walla Walla, where she had been to place Miss Ferol in St. Paul's school for the winter.

Prof. W. W. Wiley and family arrived last Friday evening from Tillamook, where they spent the summer. Mr. Wiley has been confined to his home with illness during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Vincent were in the city Wednesday from Pendleton. Mr. Vincent has purchased the Hill jewelry store and came up to secure a residence. He found suitable houses scarce.

W. R. Taylor took the Le Grow string of relay horses to Walla Walla, Tuesday, where they are in training for the races at the fair next week. The relay races, in which there is considerable interest, locally, will be run daily at the fair.

Two more bear dogs of royal ancestry have been added to the canine population of this vicinity during the week. Matt Mosgrove brought over a couple of Alredale terriers and delivered them to William Hall, a resident of the reservation.

Tailor Made Suits

New samples of Fall and Winter Cloths, Imported and Domestic Weaves

Suits

to Order from $13 up

Special attention given to Cleaning and Pressing

B. H. MILLIKEN, Athena, Ore

Miss Katherine Finnell of Pendleton, is conducting the millinery store recently purchased from Mrs. Jones by Mrs. Idemman. Miss Finnell is residing at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Foss.

Sam Bannister will take a trotting horse home with him to clean up the talent at the Enterprise fair. Sam likes a fast horse better than a slow one any time, and prefers a trotter to a galloper.

Rev. Thomas Lawson and family took their departure on Tuesday morning's train for Lacrosse, Wash., where Mr. Lawson will be pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, for the next year.

Rev. Geisler, a former Athena pastor accompanied by his family, has been visiting friends and relatives in the city this week. The Reverend Mr. Geisler has been given the Methodist Episcopal charge at Eudicott, Wash.

Mr. C. L. Ulm, recently with the Chicago store at Walla Walla, has accepted a position as salesman with Fix & Radtke. Mr. Ulm began his duties Monday. With his wife and children he is stopping temporarily at the St. Nichols.

Two new salesmen have been employed by the Mosgrove Mercantile company. Mr. Earl Barnett of Weston is in the grocery department and W. P. Wright late of Spokane, is in the dry goods department.

F. S. LeGrow returned from Montana Tuesday evening, whither he went last week on business, accompanied by A. L. Swaggart. Mr. LeGrow says he never saw stock in better condition than the herds he encountered on the Montana ranges.

The city has leased a steam pump from a Walla Walla firm for use in keeping the water clear of the workmen in the the development work on the gravity water system. The main shaft is now down 43 feet and the wings are nearly filled with water.

Mrs. Lillie Miller has returned from her visit to the Portland Millinery store, and today and tomorrow will hold her first grand opening and display of the late styles. Ladies are invited to call and see the stunning effects in hats and fancy millinery.

Matt Lynn, after many weeks of illness, during which he suffered terribly from stomach trouble, died early last Friday morning, at his home in the west part of town. He is survived by one daughter and one son. The funeral was held Saturday afternoon.

Joseph Forrest was painfully injured Monday, when he became entangled in a rope which he was using to catch a horse. He was jerked to the ground and dragged for some distance. An inventory of his injuries after examination by a physician, revealed a dislocated shoulder and many bruises.

Dr. Newsom will leave in a few days for the home of his father at Prineville. The doctor is meeting with gratifying success in the sales of his family medicine chests, and intends to canvass the interior country thoroughly in placing them before the people.

Postmaster Worthington, John Stone and others will leave Monday for a deer hunt in the Blue Mountains, southeast of Athens. They will traverse the hills in search of "big" game and will not be averse to an encounter with bear, cougar—chipmunks and pine squirrels barred.

M. L. Watts returned from Portland Tuesday morning. He left his little daughter considerably improved, but not able to sit up. She has practically no use of her limbs, and complains of a pain in her side. She has been removed from Dr. Williamson's sanitarium and is now under the care of Dr. House.

Wines are the staples in family liquors. Bert Cartano carries a large and varied stock of select vintages. $1.50 per gallon, you can get choice Tokay, Muscat, Angelica, Sweet Catawba or Port. These are California's best product and give satisfaction wherever used. Call at the "Goat" for the best and purest liquors.

Program at the Dreamland theater for Friday and Saturday evenings: 1—"Black Arrow," Edison. 2.—In the Philippines. Vitagraph. 3.—"When He Died," Essanay. Sunday: 1.—"Too Many Burglars," "Mr. Brega, Fugitive," Biograph. 2.—"For Mass's Sake," Pathe. 3.—"On Separate Paths," Seligs.

Regular services Sunday at the Christian church. Pastor Meldrum will next week resume his illustrated sermons and lectures, and continue on through the fall and winter. A new feature has been inaugurated in the Sunday school, a kindergarten class has been organized, where the little ones will have the regular course of instruction.

Mrs. L. Dell arrived home Wednesday morning after an extended visit to her old home at Galt, Mo. The first weeks of Mrs. Dell's absence were spent at the bedside of her aged mother, who passed away during her visit. Since that time she has been visiting old friends. She is pleased to return to Oregon, however, and the joy of the doctor is unbounded.

Kaleker—Think we shall ever talk to Mars? Rucker—No; if it was possible my wife would never have overlooked it.—New York Sun.

THE BEST-EVER SUITS

Demand the Best-Ever Brand, always

The are made to stand the time and strain

Best-Ever Clothing for Boys, make the school days the best ever. Quality, style, economy, found in every Suit

$5.00 up

Saturday Specials

One lot of Childrens Hose, reg. 15c, for Saturday	10c
One lot of Childrens Hand'kfs, 10c, "	4c
One lot of Childrens Hand'kfs, 5c, "	1c
One lot of Boys Suits, regular $3.50, "	$2.98
One lot of 38-inch Serge, reg. 75c, "	49c

FIX & RADTKE

THE "MONEY-BACK" STORE, ATHENA, OREGON

New Wall Paper

MILLER,

"The Furniture Man," has added this line to his already large, varied stock

Art Square Bargains

We have the finest line of Art Squares ever shown in Athena. All are of modern designs and up-to-the-minute patterns. They are going at prices never before heard of, class of goods considered. Our line of Furniture is complete. It includes late styles in Corsican Walnut, Birdseye and the popular Golden Oak. The very latest novelties in Iron and Brass Beds. Everything in Springs and Mattresses.

Saved Her Life from Pneumonia

"My wife had a severe attack of Pneumonia which followed a case of La Grippe and I believe that FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR saved her life," writes James Coffee, of Raymond, Missouri.

Good Results in Every Case

Dr. C. J. Bishop, Agnew, Mich., writes: "I have used FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR in three very severe cases of pneumonia with good results in every case."

PNEUMONIA

Pneumonia follows a cold, but never follows the use of Foley's Honey and Tar Stops the cough and heals the lungs.

Cured of Terrible Cough on Lungs

N. Jackson, of Danville, Ill., writes: "My daughter had a severe attack of La Grippe and a terrible cough on her lungs. We tried a great many remedies without relief. She tried FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR which cured her. She has never been troubled with a cough since."

Cured When Very Low With Pneumonia

J. W. Bryan, of Lowder, Ill., writes: "My little boy was very low with pneumonia. Unknown to the doctor we gave him FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR. The result was magical and puzzled the doctor, as it immediately stopped the racking cough and he quickly recovered."

MOSGROVE MERCANTILE COMP'Y.

Main and 3rd. Phone, Main 65. Athena, Oregon.

The New Fall Dress Goods

have arrived and are now ready for your inspection. We have all the late weaves in popular materials, including storm Serges, mixed Scotch Tweeds, wool Taffetas and Diagonals, in all colors.

Don't Fail to see those

New Models

in Womens, Misses and Childrens

Winter Coats

The have just been received direct from the Eastern makers.

School Dresses

A big line of suitable Materials. Combination sets, Sweaters, Leggins and Caps for the little folks.

B & H Green Trading Stamps with all Cash purchases