THE CHINESE DOCTOR

Both the American and the Chinese physicians use medicines made from plants and herbs. But the Chinese have extended their researches and use Roots, Herbs and Barks that have never been heard of in this country. And with these harmless and non-injurious remedies Dr. C. Gee Wo has cured hundreds of patients of all sorts of diseases and who had previously been taking the medicines prescribed by well known American physicians. He has testimonials from patients all over the northwest as to the fine results he obtained with the use of these nature remedies. Should you live out of town and wish to begin treatment, send 4 cents in stamps for a consultation blank and circulars.

PLATINUM REALLY AN ALLOY

Its Use by Jewelers and Dentists is What Has Made It a Costly Metal.

The mineral called platinum is really a natural alloy of iridium, rhodium, palladium and often osmium, with varying amounts of iron, copper and gold. It is usually found as small nuggets, scales and rounded or irregular grains. Its color is steel gray. The specific gravity of the crude platinum varies from 14 to 19. The output of platinum in the United States is practically limited to California and Oregon.

Owing to its high melting point and great resistance to acids, platinum is extensively used for laboratory utensils. Platinum salts are employed in chemical analyses. In the manufacture of sulphuric acid the metal has been used in making large concentration kettles, but of late gold has been substituted for it. In photography, dentistry and electric installation much platinum is used. Of late the manufacture of jewelry has consumed large quantities of it. It is extensively used for chains and for the setting of diamonds, the claim being made, not only that it is more resistant than silver and harder than gold, but that the stones are better offset by platinum and appear larger than in any other kind of setting.—From a Geological Survey Report.

ICES A UNIVERSAL DELICACY

People of the South of Italy Remarkable for Their Fondness for This Simple Refreshment.

If you wish to realize what devotion to ices means you should go to Palermo. All over the south of Italy ices are eaten to an extent of which we do not dream, but in Sicily and Palermo in particular the custom has attained amazing proportions. Ices are eaten by people of all ranks and ages from morning to night. Where a true Briton would demand a glass of beer the Palermo asks for an ice. Morning, noon and night the consumption of ice goes on. They are in wonderful variety and cheap.

The stranger in that beautiful country finds the cafes invaded between 4 and 5 o'clock by ice eaters. He sees officers and men of the army, merchants and work people, the rich and the poor of both sexes consuming ices with gusto. No one evades this pleasant duty. Lines of carriages draw up at the side of the pavement before the cafes, the occupants, the coachman and the footman all with their favorite delicacy. At first the stranger wonders, then he falls a victim.—London Chronicle.

Reward, but No Claimant.

Despite the view that players are extravagant and do not save their money, Ada Lewis is a frugal actress and she has been putting her money away for years. She is the owner of an apartment building in New Rochelle. When she went down there to make arrangements for building the apartment she was waited upon by some members of the chamber of commerce, who congratulated her upon her enterprise.

"Will dogs be allowed in the building?" was asked.

"No."

"Will children be barred?"

"No, indeed," was the quick reply, "and I will go you one better. I will give a month's free rent to the parents of every baby born in the apartment."

This pleased the committee immensely, and as they bowed out she smiled a little and remarked:

"But, I forgot to say, this is to be a bachelor apartment."—Cleveland Leader.

Lots There to Capture.

During the civil war there was an Irishman of the Thirty-sixth Indiana, who, while on the skirmish line at Dallas, saw a good chance to capture a confederate. He availed himself of the opportunity, captured his man, and was passing to the rear with his prisoner, when one of his comrades called out to him: "Fat, let me have that man. I will take him over to General Gross, our brigade commander."

"Niver mind, me boy," replied Fat. "I left a million back over the hill there. Go yourself and fetch one of the lads over and take him to General Gross."

Rough on "Good Samaritan."

Frank Koetsch, a laborer, was put on trial at Graz for his action in saving the life of a would-be suicide. He had found a man dangling from a tree, and had promptly cut him down and taken him to a hospital. The man recovered from the effects of the hanging, but complained of a scalp wound he had received when falling to the ground, and he brought a charge of personal injury by carelessness against the man who saved his life. Koetsch was acquitted, but declared he would take care never to act the Good Samaritan again.

Cure for Love.

"Yes, I finally got rid of him," she said, "without having to tell him in so many words that I never could learn to love him. I didn't want to do that, because he's an awfully nice fellow, and I should have been very sorry to cause him pain."

"How did you manage it?" her friend asked.

"Why, you see, he's subject to hay fever, so I decorated the house with golden rod whenever he sent word that he was coming."

Little Misunderstood.

One morning Miss Lillian De Vincent, leading lady of "When a Man's Married," No. 2 road company, concluded she would press some collars.

"Bring me a hot iron," she told the hallway, who answered the bell. In a few moments he returned empty-handed. "I can't get it for you, lady. The bartender says as how there's lots of them New York drinks he ain't never learned how to mix."

Nothing Else to Do.

"What are the wild waves saying, mother?" "I do not know, my child."

"But why do they dance all day long?" "Well, my child, they cannot play bridge."—Kansas City Journal.

Tonic—Alterative

What is a "tonic"? A medicine that increases the strength or the tone of the whole system. What is an "alterative"? A medicine that alters or changes unhealthy action to healthy action. Name the best "tonic and alterative"? Ayer's Sarsaparilla, the only Sarsaparilla entirely free from alcohol.

Ask your doctor about it.

Bilious attacks, sick-headaches, indigestion, constipation, dizziness—these are some of the results of an inactive liver. Ask your doctor if he endorses Ayer's Pills in these cases. The dose is small, one pill at bedtime.

Make Use of Scorched Timber.

The great forest fires which unfortunately occur almost every autumn leave vast quantities of "fire killed timber." This is now being used extensively for many purposes, being preferred in some cases to green timber.

Fruit growers, for instance, are said to prefer it for packing boxes because it is almost odorless and does not impart an unusual flavor to the fruit.

Telephone poles and railway ties are also made to advantage from fire killed timber.

Don't buy water for bluing. Liquid blue is almost all water. Buy Red Cross Blue, the blue that's all blue.

Your Hands Experienced?

A wide girlie at the waist is the latest fad, so that the top of the skirt will coincide with the bottom, and only an experienced hand will be able to tell which is the belt line and which is the hem.

Homely Hint.

To clean an enameled bath tub wipe it dry and then rub it with a cloth dipped in turpentine and salt. Afterward wash it with clean warm water, and it will look like a new tub.

WOMAN SICK TWELVE YEARS

Wants Other Women to Know How She Was Finally Restored to Health.

Louisiana, Mo.: "I think a woman naturally dislikes to make her troubles known to the public, but complete restoration to health means so much to me that I cannot keep from telling mine for the sake of other suffering women."

"I had been sick about twelve years, and had eleven doctors. I had dragging down pains, pains at monthly periods, biliousness, and was getting worse all the time. I would hardly get over one spell when I would be sick again. No tongue can tell what I suffered from cramps, and at times I might die at one of those times, but I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and got better right away. Your valuable medicine is worth more than mountains of gold to suffering women."

—Mrs. BERTHA MUFF, 508 N. 4th Street, Louisiana, Mo.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotic or harmful drugs, and to-day holds the record of being the most successful remedy for female ills we know of, and thousands of voluntary testimonials on file in the Pinkham laboratory at Lynn, Mass., seem to prove this fact.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

Unsatifying Menu.

The young girls who work in the Paris shops have 50 centimes to spend for their midday meal, and when a charitable society inquired as to how the money was being spent, the following list was found to embody the average: Fried potatoes or sausage, 10 centimes; bread, 10 centimes; bonbons, 10 centimes; violets or other flowers, 20 centimes. The society no longer had any cause to wonder why the girls were undernourished and ill-nourished.

All the Qualifications.

Among a large number of amusing letters received by David Belasco was the following: "Veneered Sir—Wishing to go on the stage, would like to join your forces. Have been a bricklayer for five years, but having failed in this branch, have decided to take up acting, the same being easier work. I am not young, but six feet in my stocking feet. Have studied elocution and am fond of late hours."—Everybody's Magazine.

National Characteristics.

A national characteristic of the French people is their habit of family exclusiveness. It is very rarely that a family divides for a holiday. For one thing, middle-class people in France do not pay visits except to members of their own family, and for another, a French mother likes to keep her children under her own eyes as much as possible, both before and after marriage.

William Penn's Sepulcher.

It is in the Church of St. Mary Redcliffe, in Bristol, that the remains of Sir William Penn, father of the proprietor of Pennsylvania, rest. A tablet to his memory has been on the walls of the edifice ever since Sir William's death. Above it are hung his armor, his sword and his flags.

Mother's Will.

Mother's will find Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup the best remedy to use for their children during the teething period.

Case of Ingratitude.

When Lord B— died a person met an old man who was one of his most intimate friends. He was pale, confused, awe-stricken. Every one was trying to console him, but in vain. "His loss," he exclaimed, "does not affect me so much as his horrible ingratitude. Would you believe it? He died without leaving me anything in his will—I, who have dined with him at his own house three times a week for 30 years!"—Life.

Saving Trays.

When a japed tray becomes old and chipped give it two coats of white paint and one of enamel, the bottom as well as the top. Stand it on the edge to dry after each coat. It will be found as good as new, as well as very pretty. The enamel is easily renewed.

No Difference to Her.

"I understand your husband is a candidate for office," said a suffragette out west to her sister in the cause. "Are you going to support him?" "Oh, I suppose so," answered the sister, somewhat wearily. "I've been supporting him for the past ten years."—Chicago Record-Herald.

Positions for the Fair Sex.

Several bank presidents in the smaller towns are women, as well as clerks, tellers and cashiers. Government experts frequently are among the fair sex, whose deftness of touch makes their fingers especially efficient for such work as that of the dead letter office.

Nothing Else to Do.

"What are the wild waves saying, mother?" "I do not know, my child."

"But why do they dance all day long?" "Well, my child, they cannot play bridge."—Kansas City Journal.

The People Supreme.

I repeat that all power is a trust; that we are accountable for its exercise; that from the people and for the people all springs and all must exist.—Benjamin Disraeli.

Some Women.

Some women can't bear the odor of gasoline until they get an auto—Judge.
