

20 years ago
Jan 3-1913

Press Paragraphs

J. E. Wiseman, was in Walla Walla last Friday.

Jim Lienallen of Weston, was in the city Wednesday.

Col. F. G. Lucas was over from Weston yesterday.

D. A. Pinkerton was in the city yesterday from Milton.

Miss Ethel Duncan of Weston, was in the city Saturday.

Money to loan. Inquire of Hugh McIntyre, Athena, Oregon.

Rev. Helmiok was a visitor in Walla Walla Friday last.

Miss Rita Beamer of Weston, visited friends in Athena Sunday.

E. E. Koozitz returned Tuesday from a business trip into Idaho.

Lost—A music roll. Finder will please leave it at this office.

Dick Engleb was in the city yesterday from his mountain ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pinkerton were in the city yesterday from Weston.

Mosgrove's Annual Sale opens tomorrow, January 4th. Don't miss it.

Misses Ella and Gattie Booth spent the holidays at their home in this city.

Robert Wright of Walla Walla, was in the city yesterday on a business visit.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Reist, nee Miss Grace Gibbons, were in the city Saturday.

Wm. McKenzie, the Weston farmer and capitalist, was an Athena visitor Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Allie Bell have moved into the Foss cottage on Jefferson street.

Mr. Otis Harris, of Walsburg, was a guest of Athena friends on New Year's Day.

New song books have been procured for the revival services at the Methodist church.

Do not forget the special evangelistic services all next week at the Methodist church.

Those attending the Library ball at Pendleton, from this city, report that it was a success.

Save money by making your purchases during Mosgrove's Annual Pre-Inventory Sale.

A limited number of horses will be taken by Casper Woodward, to winter on alfalfa hay.

Ernest Bostwick, of Spokane, visited his sister, Mrs. Carl Christian during the holidays.

Marville Watts' Ford roadster has been decapitated of its top in a minor accident on the road.

Otha Reeder returned this week from Portland, where he purchased a new Buick car.

Ed Payne attended the concert in Pendleton New Year's Eve U. of O. glee club.

Do not forget the date, Saturday, Jan. 4, 1913. Mosgrove's great Inventory Sale.

Wm. McIntyre of Weston, has been assisting the mechanical department of the Press this week.

A good milk cow for sale. She is registered full blood Durham. Inquire of Mrs. Clarence Wright.

The German class of Miss Partridge was entertained last evening at the home of Miss Jessie McEwen.

Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Le Grow are spending the week in Portland, having gone down Tuesday evening.

School opened Monday after the Christmas holiday vacation, and New Year's day was observed as a holiday.

Louis McEwen attended the University of Oregon Glee Club entertainment at Pendleton, Tuesday night.

Walter Adams came over from Walla Walla this week after spending the holidays at the home of his mother.

Byron N. Hawks returned from Spokane Tuesday evening. Mrs. Hawks remained for several days longer with her parents.

F. T. Harbour, the Weston sage, and proprietor of the brickyard, was in the city Tuesday, for the first time in many weeks.

F. G. Hart of LaGrande, has completed the construction of a machinery shed for R. E. Stewart, at his farm, north of the city.

Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Le Grow entertained Mrs. Lina Storgis and son James, of Pendleton, and E. H. Wells of Seattle Sunday.

Mrs. B. D. Tharp entertained the pupils of the Eighth grade Monday night. A most jolly time was enjoyed by the young people.

Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Vincent this week entertained Mr. Cross Storgis and the Misses Una Smith, Boylen and Finnell, of Pendleton.

Mrs. E. I. Watts and Misses Ruth Donniway and Louisa Wilson attended the U. of O. Glee club concert in Pendleton Monday evening.

Mrs. Effie Parkins and daughter have returned to their home in Palouse City, Wash., after visiting relatives in this city for several days.

Mrs. A. M. Gillis passed through Athena Saturday, en route from her home in Ritzville, Wash., to Portland, where she goes for medical treatment.

Price lists have been mailed announcing the annual sale at the Mosgrove Mercantile store. The big sale begins tomorrow and will continue for ten days.

After spending several weeks with his son in Portland, A. H. Luna has returned to Athena. He will go to his son's ranch near Portland, when spring comes.

"What is the Matter With Athena?" is the subject of the address to be delivered by Mr. Helmiok at the Methodist church next Sunday evening. Everybody invited.

Presiding Elder A. W. Roberts, of Spokane, with his wife, visited in Athena over Sunday, guests at the home of Mrs. Roberts' brothers, Edw. K. and Fred Koozitz.

Cleve Myers has commenced work in Steel's harness shop. Cleve has had some experience at harness making, and will complete the trade under Mr. Steel's tuition.

The high cost of living need not bother you, if you make your purchases at Mosgrove's during their annual pre-Inventory Sale, which opens Saturday, January 4th.

A family reunion was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Saylor, near Freewater, on Christmas day, at which Mr. and Mrs. George Gerking and family were present.

Mrs. W. E. Dobson went down to Portland last Saturday, to visit her invalid mother and sister for a week. She will return tomorrow, resuming her school work at LaMar Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Wallan entertained their young friends with a barn dance last week, at their home near Adams. The program was unique, and most heartily enjoyed by the guests.

Harold Gibbons has purchased a Ford automobile and will engage in taxicab service. He makes a specialty of out-of-town trips and may be found at the St. Nicholas hotel, when not engaged.

Homebound, Irish Moss, Tolo, White Pine, Selected Pineapple, Lemon and Orange. Unexcelled for its curative qualities for the Grippe, coughs and colds. Guaranteed strictly pure, by Bert Cattano.

Tom Boylen a well known athlete of Pendleton, was in the city Wednesday, the guest of his sister, Mrs. L. S. Vincent. He is now a student of Oregon University, where he is prominent in athletics.

"The Wolf" tonight at the opera house; a thrilling story of the Canadian woods. A big western comedy drama, "Boss of the Ranch," Saturday night. A good show by a good company, the "Wheeler Players," 25, 35 and 50 cents.

Eber Luna came over from Milton yesterday and commenced work as salesman for the Mosgrove Mercantile company.

Miller & Payne's drill is in position and so soon as the casing arrives from Portland, work on the city well will be started.

Mr. A. M. Meldrum will take his little daughter, Cora Lynn, to Walla Walla Monday, where an operation will be performed on the little girl's palate, for relief from a slight impediment in her speech.

Miss Lillian Anderson was accompanied from Walla Walla last Saturday by Mrs. Edgar Fischer, who met in the evening with Miss Anderson's class in music. The ladies were guests of Mrs. B. D. Tharp.

A most enjoyable party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Hansell six miles west of town, last Friday evening, a large number of the Athena young people being guests. Games and refreshments whiled away the pleasant hours.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Gross arrived home Saturday evening, after a two months sojourn in Portland. Mr. Gross was under the care of a specialist during his stay in the metropolis, and feels that his health has been considerably improved.

Ira McDonald has returned from Walla Walla, where he has been for some time receiving treatment for his shoulder, injured in an automobile accident on July 4. His injury has yielded to surgical treatment and his condition has greatly improved.

J. L. VanWinkle and daughter are in the city from Oregon City. They will remain for 10 days, taking and finishing pictures at the gallery, corner of Third and Current streets. Now is your chance to get first class photographs at reasonable prices.

Chimney sweeps relieved the flies at the school home of their congested condition, this week. The boys with the high hats seem to find Athena to be a profitable field in which to ply their sooty vocation, judging from their numbers here during the past week or two.

The Christmas cantata, "Shiloh," was repeated at the Christian church Sunday night, and notwithstanding the extremely inclement weather, a fair audience greeted the singers. The rendition was up to that of Christmas Eve, and was worthy of the enthusiastic encomiums given it.

The Sootyish Clans are gathering. Something big is going to take place on January 25, right here in Athena. What can it be? Was there a great Scotchman born on that day? Then look out for one of the best celebrations this burgh has ever had. Watch the Press for the grand program.

The J. F. F. Club was entertained at the home of Misses Zelma and Merna DePatt Monday evening. Several invited guests were present and the evening ended with the repeating of the party of young people to the Christian church, where the old year was rung out and the new rung in.

Public services at the Methodist church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock and in the evening at 7:30. The evening service will be the beginning of the special evangelistic campaign at the Methodist church. The co-operation of all Christian workers not otherwise engaged is cordially solicited.

The following well known tatter-makers have had lighter wrappers neatly printed at the Press office this week: Mesdames W. O. Read, A. O. Schubert, Ernest Sahrumpf, Jesse Gordon, G. W. Hansell, J. N. Scott, A. R. Booher, H. S. Knight, A. E. Stamper, C. O. Henry, David Stone.

The fourth number on the Lyceum course will be given on the evening of January 15, when the talented dramatic interpreter and impersonator, Della Crowder Miller, will appear at the opera house. Those holding season tickets as well as the general public are enjoined to remember the date.

One of the most successful functions ever given in Athena by the members of the Masonic fraternity was held at their hall last Friday evening. After installation of officers, a sumptuous banquet was spread, and toasts were responded to by several of the guests. Gordon's orchestra furnished music for the occasion. The crowd was said to have been one of the largest ever assembled in the Masonic hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Tompkins left for Portland Tuesday morning, where both will consult specialists. Mr. Tompkins receiving treatment for rheumatism. Mrs. Tompkins expects to submit to an operation for the removal of a growth over the right eye, which has troubled her for several months.

The boys are saying that Harry Alexander is some instructor in dancing and vocal. They say he has introduced freeroms to amphibias his method of training. The Press has not interviewed Mr. Alexander on the matter, but takes it for granted that his rates of tuition are within reach of the ordinary purse.

Mr. Meldrum received a letter yesterday from one of Australia's big manufacturing men, who is passing through the States on a pleasure tour with his family, inviting him to San Francisco, all expenses paid. This gentleman is an officer in the First Christian church, Melbourne, Victoria, where Mr. Meldrum labored for three years.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Mansfield entertained at dinner on New Year's Day, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wright, Miss Hazel Wright, Stanley Wright, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Gwin, Mrs. Viola Gwin and daughter Esther, Mrs. J. H. Raymer and two children, all of Walla Walla, and W. R. Taylor and family, Mrs. M. L. Leeper and B. N. Hawks, of Athena.

The first meeting in the new year of the auxiliary to the C. W. B. M. will be held next Wednesday afternoon, January 5, at the home of Mrs. B. D. Tharp, with Mrs. R. A. Thompson as assistant to the hostess. Mrs. David Taylor will lead the meeting, with the topic, "Women of the Orient" as the subject of the lesson.

The Dreamland program for Friday and Saturday nights: 1.—"The Runch Widower's Daughter," Essayay. 2.—"A Victim of Circumstances," Kalam. 3.—"Personally Conducted," Edson. For Sunday: 1.—"The Poison Cup," Bell Brothers. 2.—"Five Senses," "Story of a Coconut," Vitagraph. 3.—"Price of Silver Fox," Lubin.

The "Wheeler Players" who have been here all this week are presenting a fine line of plays and have more than made good with theatre goers. The plays are all of the better order and are presented in a painstaking manner. Music furnished by Gordon's Orchestra is of the best. The players will be here tonight and tomorrow night.

The local camp of the G. A. R. is at present depressed over the fact that four of the old war veterans are very feeble, two of them being dangerously ill. Mr. Hiteman is suffering from a stroke of paralysis and Mr. Shick is very low from a long standing illness. These men have been schooled to hardships, and show wonderful fortitude in their present illness.

C. O. Henry, of the Lodge Hall dance committee announces that Mr. Charles Parish of Walla Walla is in the city today with a full line of masks and costumes for the masquerade ball to be given this evening in the hall. In view of the fact that this is to be the first masquerade ball of the season, a large attendance is expected and an enjoyable time is anticipated.

"Wheeler Players," in a repertoire of splendid plays have been the attraction at the Athena opera house this week. The company is a good one, giving clean plays well produced. Manager Rosie announces the coming of the McKay-Stein Players which will open a four nights engagement on next Thursday evening. Following this will be the Beggar Prince Comio Opera, scheduled for the night of January 20.

Uncle John Hiteman suffered another slight stroke of paralysis Saturday. The attack came upon the old gentleman while in front of Dell Brother's store. He was taken to his home in an automobile, and latest reports are that he is gradually recovering. This is the third time Mr. Hiteman has been slightly afflicted. In this instance the right side is affected, former strokes having to do with the left side of the body.

Services at the Christian church Sunday, Bible school 10 a. m. The new graded lessons will be used during the coming year. Geo. B. Gerking, the superintendent, is doing all in his power to make the school one of the most up-to-date in Oregon. The public are showing their appreciation and the work is growing. Sermon and Communion 11 a. m. The subject for evening "The Life of Christ," illustrated with a splendid series of pictures from the Passion Play, as seen by the speaker at Oberammergau, Bavaria. Baptismal service at the close of the address.

Mortgage Sale. Notice is hereby given that I will sell at public auction, all the fixtures, cooking utensils and dishes belonging to E. O. Barnes and mortgaged to O. S. Barnes, under and pursuant to the conditions of said mortgage. Sale to begin at 1:30 p. m., Saturday, January 11, 1913; said sale to be held at the side door of the Jacob Bloch building, now occupied by Richards and Watta, corner Fourth and Main streets. O. S. Barnes.

Teacher—Waldo, name one of the best known characters of fiction. Waldo aged five, superciliously—Santa Claus—Pack.

$200,000 For New Year's Candy. New Year's day in France generally is observed with the giving of presents, a custom Americans observe very slightly. Boxes of candy take the lead. In Paris alone it is estimated $200,000 was expended on candies for New Year's presents in 1912.

Winning with Wilson means more than a mere Democratic victory; it means restoring real prosperity.

It Is Rubber Time

The damp rough weather necessitates extra precautions in the matter of keeping your feet warm and dry.

Our rubbers are the best we can find on the market—and we have canvassed it well. They are made with extra heavy soles and may be had in styles and shapes to conform with the shoes you wear. Rubber boots also; and arctics of wool and rubber in fact, anything in storm shoes you may desire.

Children's Rubbers at 35 to 60 cents Ladies' Rubbers at 45 to 85 cents
Men's Rubbers at 50 to $1.00 Men's Arctics at $1.25 to $3.50

FIX & RADTKE

THE "MONEY-BACK STORE," ATHENA, OREGON

New Wall Paper

MILLER,

"The Furniture Man," has added this line to his already large, varied stock

Art Square Bargains

We have the finest line of Art Squares ever shown in Athena. All are of modern designs and up-to-the minute patterns. They are going at prices never before heard of, class of goods considered. Our line of Furniture is complete. It includes late styles in Corsican Walnut, Birdseye and the popular Golden Oak. The very latest novelties in Iron and Brass Beds. Everything in Springs and Mattresses.

Mosgrove's Big Pre-Inventory SALE

Your Last Chance

To Get a Fine Piano

Cheap. All must go before January regardless of cost. Sewing machines, latest improved central needle; Vacuum sweepers, hand and electric; Sheet Music; the famous Victor Victrola, $15 to $75.

JESSE FAILING, Pendleton, Oregon.

Services at the Christian church Sunday, Bible school 10 a. m. The new graded lessons will be used during the coming year. Geo. B. Gerking, the superintendent, is doing all in his power to make the school one of the most up-to-date in Oregon. The public are showing their appreciation and the work is growing. Sermon and Communion 11 a. m. The subject for evening "The Life of Christ," illustrated with a splendid series of pictures from the Passion Play, as seen by the speaker at Oberammergau, Bavaria. Baptismal service at the close of the address.

Mortgage Sale. Notice is hereby given that I will sell at public auction, all the fixtures, cooking utensils and dishes belonging to E. O. Barnes and mortgaged to O. S. Barnes, under and pursuant to the conditions of said mortgage. Sale to begin at 1:30 p. m., Saturday, January 11, 1913; said sale to be held at the side door of the Jacob Bloch building, now occupied by Richards and Watta, corner Fourth and Main streets. O. S. Barnes.

Teacher—Waldo, name one of the best known characters of fiction. Waldo aged five, superciliously—Santa Claus—Pack.

$200,000 For New Year's Candy. New Year's day in France generally is observed with the giving of presents, a custom Americans observe very slightly. Boxes of candy take the lead. In Paris alone it is estimated $200,000 was expended on candies for New Year's presents in 1912.

Winning with Wilson means more than a mere Democratic victory; it means restoring real prosperity.

Opens Saturday, January 4, and will continue for 10 days. Don't fail to take advantage of this money-saving event. Hundreds of money-saving opportunities for the thrifty buyer. See large posters. Remember the date, January 4th, 1913.

Mosgrove Mercantile Co

Main and 3rd. Phone, Main 65. Athena, Oregon.