Tom DeFreece came in from the ranch yesterday with his face wreathed in smiles. His wheat looks fine and some good colts are gamboling about the ranch, and they need attention. So Mr. and Mrs. DeFreece will move to the ranch Monday. The Aller Trio appeared in Athena Wednesday night and a fair sized audience heard the last number of the lyceum course for the present season. Athena considers the entertainment of Wednesday evening superior to previous numbers of the series. The business of the Preston-Shaffer milling company has become so extensive that they have found it necessary to enlarge and remodel the office. The company has employed an assistant book-keeper, Miss Laurine Smith of Eugene, having accepted the position. Thomas Winn, an old and respected citizen of Adams, died at his home in that city last evening, after an illness of several months duration. Funeral services will take place at the home tomorrow at 10 a. m., interment taking place in the Helix cemetery.

W. C. Russell spent the day yesterday in collecting the remains of a gang plow which he left on a piece of land he rented on the reservation. Some one—deliberately stole one bottom from the plow and the share from the other. A few cotton seed planted in the house now and transplanted after frost will prove a great novelty to yourself and friends. Enjoy seeing this beautiful plant growing in your own yard or garden. Send 10c for liberal package of seed to Lynch-Pharis Co., Montgomery, Ala. The Friday and Saturday evening program at the Dreamland theater: 1.—"Man's Lust for Gold," Biograph. 2.—"The Girl Bandit's Hoodoo," Kalem. 3.—"The Workman's Lesson," Edison. A class of fourteen new members will be initiated into the local camp Woodmen of the World, tomorrow night. The degree team of the Pendleton camp will put on the work, refreshments will be served and an interesting session is looked forward to. Deputy Grand Counsel D. J. Hartney and District Manager W. A. Pator will be present. The city election passed off quietly Tuesday. There being but one ticket in the field, a light vote was polled. With the exception of Councilmen elect McEwen and Miller, the city official personnel will be the same as that of last year. Several women voted. Mrs. H. O. Worthington having the distinction of being the first woman to cast a ballot in Athena. One of the interesting prices set on potatoes occurred at Elgin last Saturday evening, when a number of the younger generation wanted to play a game of "freezeout." One of the number is quite an extensive potato raiser and he suggested that he put up three hundred sacks of "tunds" against $3 on a corner. This would bring the potato market, when sold in this way, up to about 20 cents a sack. The interior alteration of the Mosgrove Mercantile store is nearing completion and a considerable change is noticeable. With the big stock properly arranged this will be one of the best stores in the county. There has also been a change made in the sales department. Mr. Ulm takes the place of Merle Roby, and Mr. Barnett of the grocery department, will leave for Freewater to reside. Wednesday night a fire in the Hanger & Thompson store at Walla Walla, badly damaged the building and stock. Five people sleeping in the third story of the building, had a narrow escape, being compelled to slide down ropes. The Chinese janitor was found unconscious by the firemen, but he revived when taken out of the building. The damage to building and stock is said to be fully covered by insurance. The two weeks series of meetings at the Christian church closed last evening, and Evangelists Crim and Altheide departed for Clarkston, Wash., this morning where they will assist in dedicating a new church building, and engage in a series of meetings. A number were added to the church during the meetings. Last evening after the close of the services, the large audience enjoyed a short musical program given by Mr. Altheide which was greatly appreciated. J. H. Blanford, special agent for the Western Union Life Insurance Company of Spokane is in the city. Twenty-five years ago, back in Grinnell, Iowa, a bunch of toyhood chums including Mr. Blanford and the editor, split up to pursue life's different trails. And these trails have led to different parts of the world. Joe has traveled considerably and met many of the old friends. He resides in Portland, and is married to a former Athena (Centerville) girl, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gid Shaw, old-time residents here, whom he first met in the Willamette valley some nineteen years ago.

SCHOOL NOTES. On Monday morning Mr. Crim gave a greatly appreciated talk before the High school assembly. Mr. Altheide sang some classical selections that were also appreciated. Wednesday morning Dr. Rebeck of the University of Oregon gave a lecture to the students on the Ideals of Education, and the necessity of training men and women to carry on the future business and prosperity of the Republic. The Aller Trio closed the season's entertainment from the Lyceum people. A check was given them for the sum of $22.15 and one to pay rent of the house. Door receipts were $2, which leaves a balance due the Lyceum company of $24.35, which amount will be made up by subscription and sent to them. A backstop is being erected on the school grounds for the benefit of the school children. There is some agitation in the school for a tennis court for the girls who have no regular games to play. This would be a good move and should be supported. There will be a meeting in the superintendent's office this afternoon of the officers of the Athletic and Oratorical Association to select a date for the annual track meet. Pretty Bad. Wife—Tom, I wish you wouldn't play poker. I don't care like the name of the game. Hub—Why not? Wife—it suggests "playing with fire."—Boston Transcript.
