

Press Paragraphs

J. C. Martin was in Walla Walla this week.

Mrs. C. O. Henry was in Walla Walla Tuesday.

A dance is announced for tonight at the lodge hall.

F. C. Swall, of Milton, had business in this city Saturday.

H. W. Alexander is registered at the Portland Hotel, Portland.

Will Jamieson was in the city Tuesday from Calgary, Alberta.

Miss Louise Wilson went to Walla Walla on this morning's train.

Mr. Al Johnson and daughter Grace were in Walla Walla Tuesday.

A. R. Coppock made a trip to his Morrow county ranch this week.

John Stanton came home this week from a short sheep shearing tour.

Orin Beeler, an old time Weston citizen, was in the city yesterday.

A. L. Swaggart has a good team of horses to trade for hogs. Phone 289.

Mrs. B. F. Dupuis was in the city yesterday from her home near Adams.

The J. F. F. club met last evening at the home of Miss Velma Wilkinson.

George Wall has been tussling in the grasp of the grip, yesterday and today.

Eggs from thoroughbred Rhode Island Reds for hatching, $2 for 15. Phone 445.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Zerba of Portland, are visiting relatives in Athens and vicinity.

District Attorney Steiner was in the city yesterday from Pendleton, on official business.

Eddie Baathe, a Weston boy, assisted the Press this week in the mechanical department.

Misses Bruce and Dolzal, of the Athens schools, visited friends in Milton over Sunday.

Attorney S. F. Wilson came up from Portland Sunday and visited friends in Athens.

Usual services at the Christian church, Sunday morning and evening. Everybody welcome.

Mr. Herbert Thompson and Miss Laura McKee were united in marriage at Pendleton Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Swaggart and children visited friends in Pendleton the fore part of the week.

Chas. Betts, of the Mosgrove Mercantile company, was in Pendleton Tuesday, on a business visit.

Rawl Miller has been seriously ill at his home in this city for several days, as the result of stomach trouble.

For Sale—40 acres of land in wheat. Address, Mary LaBroche, Baddley, 541 E. Alder St. Walla Walla, Wash.

Postmaster Worthington has been a victim of the grip this week, necessitating a layoff from his duties for a day or two.

Many members of the local lodge of Rebekahs attended a meeting and banquet of the Weston Lodge Tuesday evening.

M. M. Jr has left yesterday afternoon for his home in Vancouver, Wash., after a three weeks business visit in Athens.

Mrs. Reid Wolf and Mrs. Orrie McInRoe, of Walla Walla, were guests Sunday at the Brooker and Mitchner homes in this city.

Mrs. Newsom, and children, of Walla Walla were guests this week at the home of Dr. and Mrs. G. S. Newsom in this city.

Dr. G. S. Newsom this week removed a tumor from the side of Fred Gerberding, of Weston. The operation was entirely successful.

Ray Augustus, the sensational shortstop of last year's Buckaroo team, has been signed this year and will be seen again in a Pendleton uniform.

Hanger & Thompson, Walla Walla merchants, have a large advertisement in today's Press, calling attention to their big sale, now in progress.

Lawrence Sharp left yesterday for La Grande, where he will endeavor to enter the employ of the O. W. R. & N. Co. as locomotive fireman.

A new shipment of small hats in the latest spring modes will be added to the already splendid display at Mrs. Miller's millinery store tomorrow.

For Sale.—A small saddle horse, also two nice Poland China hogs. Alfalfa pasture for stock. Phone, 247. Casper Woodward, Adams, Oreg. 3t

E. C. Rogers was in town yesterday. Mr. Rogers has just returned from a trip up in the Battlemake Flat country, where he went in company with J. B. Gross.

George Gross has purchased a new automobile. It is a neat little five-passenger Studebaker, and is the second car to be owned by Mr. Gross, his first car being a Ford.

Mrs. Lillie Miller has purchased the stock of millinery of Mrs. Idleman in Weston, and has added it to her store in that city. Miss Norma Smith is in charge of the Weston store.

The bureau of animal industry which for a long time has been located at Pendleton, under the supervision of Dr. Pinkerton and assistants will shortly be moved to Walla Walla.

Wednesday, April 2, the C. W. B. M. will meet at the home of Mrs. R. A. Thompson with Mrs. McPherson assisting the hostess. Mrs. A. Mackenzie Meldrum will lead the meeting.

D. E. Mansfield, proprietor of the Athens meat market, this week shipped a carload of hogs to Walla Walla, paying 7c. This is the sixth carload of porkers shipped from this point this winter.

W. B. Keen has purchased lots 1, 2 and 3, block 2 of Kirk's second addition to Athens, from Mrs. Pearl Smiley and A. M. Smiley for $1200. Mr. Keen's automobile was traded in on the deal.

Elsie Barnhart, an eighteen year old Indian girl, died Tuesday night from tuberculosis. The funeral which took place at the Lutheran mission, was attended by the pupils of the agency school, of which the girl had been a student.

Mrs. Lizzie Watts has been seriously ill this week, and is now under the care of her physician and friends. Her condition is improved this morning, and hopes for her early recovery are entertained.

Forehound, Irish Moss, Tolu, White Pine, Selected Pineapple, Lemon and Orange. Unexcelled for its curative qualities for the Grippe, coughs and colds. Guaranteed strictly pure, by Bert Cartano.

George Mitchell brought a large eagle to town last week, and H. O. Worthington has mounted it. The bird was caught in a trap which Mr. Mitchell had set for a coyote on his mountain ranch.

Elks Lodge No. 298, of Pendleton, issued a special newspaper this week. It was a splendid advertisement for their annual show, "The College Penitent," which was produced in Pendleton by local talent.

The funeral of Miss Vies Carris, the 22 year old daughter of Fred Carris of Walla Walla, was held in that city Tuesday. Miss Carris was a niece of Al. Johnson, and members of the family attended the funeral.

Deputy Sheriff W. R. Taylor captured one of the men who held up and robbed a Turk section hand at Blue Mountain station last week. The capture was effected at Walla Walla, and the man is now in the county jail.

L. T. McBride, of Weston, father of Barry and Wm. McBride, prominent farmers of this vicinity, is holding his own, after an operation for cancer in Walla Walla, but no indications of permanent recovery are noted.

The proprietor of the indoor rifle range, who held forth in Athens last week, left town neglecting to pay a lumber and electric light bill. He was located in Pendleton where his memory regarding the little oversight was refreshed.

The program for Friday and Saturday nights at the Dreamland: "Hearts of Men," "A Day Off," "The Brave Little Indian," For Sunday night: "Honor Thy Father," "Maple Sugar Industries," "Revenge is Sweet," "Rock of Age."

Leader: Emery Staggs and Clark Wood, two more or less prominent Westons, have been "doing" the metropolis for a few days at the risk of getting "done" themselves. They returned home Tuesday, gratefully sound in mind and limb.

It is reported that D. B. Jarman has sold his Weston store to La Grande parties. It is said to be Mr. Jarman's intention to retire from the mercantile business and to devote his attention to farming. He owns a ranch near Spokane.

The Walla Walla fair association has sent forth the announcement that it will put on a wild west exhibition at the fair this fall for the entertainment of the people. Let 'er Buck! There is only one genuine Roundup, and everybody goes to Pendleton to see it.

Mrs. M. L. Watts writes her husband that she and their daughter Vernita are enjoying the best of health in California, where they have been spending the latter part of the winter. They are at Long Beach, where surf bathing is a pleasant winter sport.

Gus Schubert has become a partner in the purchase of the Boston Store bankrupt stock at Pendleton. The new firm, Schubert Taylor Clothing company, bought the Roosevelt stock for 51 cents on the dollar and is now in possession of the store.

Prof. Gordon's excellent orchestra has been engaged to render appropriate music for the services at the Methodist Episcopal church. Orchestral music in the big city churches has long been a popular feature in connection with the regular church services.

A few cotton seed planted in the house now and transplanted after frost will prove a great novelty to yourself and friends. Enjoy seeing this beautiful plant growing in your own yard or garden. Send 10c for liberal package of seed to Lynch-Pharis Co., Montgomery, Ala.

Charles Grant has opened a restaurant in the building east of Mrs. Miller's millinery store. The tables will be served family style with good wholesome home cooking as a feature. Mr. and Mrs. Grant have demonstrated in the past that they thoroughly understand what the public desires in eatables.

The many friends of Mrs. J. C. Martin will be pleased to learn that she has so far recovered as to be home again. Mrs. Martin's health gives every promise of being completely restored. She was accompanied home from Walla Walla by a friend, Miss Katherine Cump, who will visit at the Martin home north of town for several days.

In compliance with a request from the American Peace Society, Mr. Mel Dromy will deliver a special address Sunday morning on behalf of the modern peace movement. He will attempt to prove the following propositions: The abolition of war is desirable, the abolition of war is practicable, the abolition of war is a Christian duty. At the close of the address, resolutions will be read and signed and forwarded to President Wilson.

Weston Leader: The LaMar school gave a most interesting and enjoyable entertainment Saturday evening to LaMar Union No. 6 of the Farmers' Educational and Co-operative Union. A program of readings, dialogues, songs and instrumental music was presented by the school under the direction of its capable teacher, Mrs. Lillian Downs Dotson. An excellent lunch was served at the conclusion of the exercises, and all present found the occasion a pleasurable one.

Umatilla County journalism is destined to lose one of its brainiest and most capable editors. Clark Wood of the Weston Leader, is to join the Portland Journal's staff of writers within a few days. The Journal has the habit of reaching out for good men and has taken several from Umatilla county. Among these are Cronin, Vincent, Mitchell, Lookley, and now Wood is called. The Journal is a great paper, made so by the brilliancy of its writers, and none among the clan will be any bigger nor fit in any better than Clark Wood, our versatile enemy across the hill. His worth will not grow less in his new field of endeavor, and may his shadow never grow dimmer.

HATS for MEN and BOYS

Correct Styles at Less Prices.

We can save you money Mister Man, and Boy, in the purchase of your hats and caps, and at the same time give you a satisfying choice of the season's latest styles.

Our hats are made by the best known manufacturers, whose names have long stood for quality, and we guarantee them to hold their shape and color to the very end.

Soft or stiff Hats in black and all the wanted colors.
Natty caps in divers shapes and colors for every use.

Boy's Caps	25c to 50c	Men's Stiff Hats	3.00
Men's Caps	65c to $1.25	Men's Soft Hats	.98c to $3.00

Saturday Special $3.00 Hats for $1.98

FIX & RADTKE

THE "MONEY-BACK STORE," ATHENA, OREGON

New Wall Paper

MILLER,

"The Furniture Man," has added this line to his already large, varied stock

Art Square Bargains

We have the finest line of Art Squares ever shown in Athens. All are of modern designs and up-to-the minute patterns. They are going at prices never before heard of, class of goods considered. Our line of Furniture is complete. It includes late styles in Corsican Walnut, Birdseye and the popular Golden Oak. The very latest novelties in Iron and Brass Beds. Everything in Springs and Mattresses.

"The Greatest Fire, Smoke and Water SALE Ever Held"

Starts Saturday Morning March 29 1913--$150,000 worth of slightly damaged Merchandise of the Hanger and Thompson Stock in Walla Walla will go on sale at a small margin of its former value

NEW SPRING MERCHANDISE

Mr. T. M. Hanger, buyer of the firm of Hanger & Thompson, had returned from his annual Eastern buying trip a few days previous to the disastrous fire. While in New York City, he purchased a heavy stock of NEW SPRING MERCHANDISE for immediate delivery. Some of these goods have been cancelled, but the bulk of them were enroute to Walla Walla at the time of the fire. Thousands of Dollars Worth of New Merchandise has arrived, but owing to the fact that we have no proper facilities for their display and sale, they will enter into this sale at "FIRE SALE PRICES."

Included in the new merchandise are

- Ladies New Tailored Suits
- Ladies New Stylish Coats
- Ladies New Separate Skirts
- Ladies New Silk Petticoats
- Ladies New Street Dresses
- Ladies New Party Gowns
- Ladies New Fashionable Waists
- Ladies New "Cossard" Corsets
- Ladies New Low and High Shoes
- Ladies New Fine Kid Gloves
- Ladies New Stylish Hosiery
- Ladies New Wool Dress Goods
- Ladies New Wash Dress Goods
- Men's heavy Shoes
- Gotham Shirts
- Gowens Gloves, etc

WHAT THIS SALE MEANS

The man or women with limited means will find that their dollar will do three and four times what they expect.

The working man will find he can save several days wages on his purchases of shoes and clothing.

The mother will find that her children can be shoed and clothed at an enormous saving.

The housewife will find the most wonderful bargains in linens, sheeting, domestics, towels, sheets, blankets, gingham, dress goods, and a thousand and one articles.

RECOGNIZED BRANDS AT FIRE SALE PRICES

The Fire of March 6 wiped out our entire stock of Ladies suits, coats, skirts, waists, corsets, millinery, muslin underwear, in fact everything that comprised the Finest Stock of Ladies Apparel in Southeastern Washington.

The first door and basement escaped the fire but their stock was badly wet. All wet merchandise will be thoroughly dried and placed in a condition that will meet with ready sale.

The Cost and Real Value of Merchandise has been FORGOTTEN; our only aim is to dispose of this large $150,000 stock in the shortest possible time. Many well-known and recognized brands of fabrics and wearables are found here—

- Brown's Shamrock Linens
- Belfast Lines our own importation
- Botany Mills Fine Wool Dress Goods
- Valentine & Bentley Shedwater Foulards
- Trefousse Gloves
- Derby Gloves
- Onyx Hosiery
- Merode, and Munsing Underwear
- Benjamin Clothes for Men
- Stetson, and Hawes Von Gal Hats
- Heywood, and Snow's Shoes

Our Chief Aim is to Dispose of all Stock now remaining on our hands. Fire Sale Prices on the cleanest stock of Dry Goods, Men's Clothing, Shoes, etc., in Walla Walla, will make Merchandise fairly stampede from the building.

Hanger & Thompson

Corner Second and Alder, - - Walla Walla, Wash.